WEATHER CONDITIONS.

Continued cloudy and unsettled weather prevails in Texas, the lower Mississippi and Ohio valleys, and thence eastward to the Atlantic coast. Showers, light to moderate, have occurred throughout these sections during the day, and rain continues generally to night in all South Atantic States. A thunder storm, with 00 inches of rainfall is reported from Tampa. Fla. The weather is clear and warm in the central West and Northwest, and it is cooler in the upper Mississippi valley and Lake regions. The pressure is highest in the Northwest and in the Atlantic Coast States, while a moderately low trough extends from Texas northeast to the St. Lawrence valley. It has fallen some in most all sections during the past 12 hours. Stage of water in the river at Fay-

The Ball Game Friday.

The O. A. N. boys now boast of the strongest base ball team in the history of the club. The recent addition of Tate Royster and others has greatly strengthened the team and it is probable that the boys from Pittsboro will not find it easy to shut them out. In facti there is every indication that an interesting game of ball will be played Friday, and if the visitors do win they must pay dearly for their

Hauled Crowds of People.

Last Saturday and Sunday Wilmington Seacoast Railroad to Ocean View beach did the biggest passenger business of the season except possible that of July Fourth. All trains were crowded with pleasure seekers. Travel was especially heavy on Saturday. The road seems to be doing a splendid business and is giving an excellent service. Supt. R. O. Grant and Captains E. L. Hinton and Joe Lippitt are untiring in their efforts to give the public the very best accommodations.

Mr. T. C. Craft, Jr., Married.

Mr. Thomas C. Craft, of this city. has received a telegram announcing the marriage of his son, Mr. Thomas C. Craft, Jr., who now resides in Baltimore, to Miss Caroline B. Etheredge, of that city. The ceremony was performed Saturday afternoon. Mr. Craft is a native of this city and is now associated with the firm of Tate, Muller & Co., grain exporters, Baltimore, Md. Mr. and Mrs. Craft, so the telegram stated, will spend their honeymoon in Atlantic City.

The Shooting Accidental. A case was tried before 'Squire R. H. Bunting yesterday, in which Bill Lee, colored, was charged with shooting Ben Bonner, also colored. The offence was committed Friday night. The evidence indicated that Bill Lee was passing Ben Bonner's house when the latter's dog sprang out at him. He drew his pistol and fired. The shot went wide of the mark and struck Bonner, wounding him in the leg. 'Squire Bunting dismissed the case.
