HOUSE-BREAKER TRAPPED.

THE MORNING

"Monkey Joe" Committed to Jall for Breaking Into Mr. J. H. Watter's Residence Monday Afternoon.

The only case to engage the attention of Mayor pro tem. Hewlett yesterday was that against "Monkey Joe" alias Joe Hill, colored, charged with breaking into the residence of Mr. Joseph H. Watters Monday afternoon and stealing a quantity of silverware. The investigation before the Mayor resulted in the commitment of Hill in default of a $200 justified bond, to await trial at the October term of the Circuit Criminal Court. Hill was arrested early yesterday morning by Sergeant Hewlett, who with the assistance of Capt. Bob Green had previously on Monday evening located and re-captured the silverware. It appears that Hill carried away the silver, valued at about $25, and sold half of it to Geo. Robeson, a colored huckster at the market, and the remainder to W. H. Carter, who runs arestaurant at the old ice house. He sold each lot for 25 cents. After he had been located on Monday evening, Sergeant Hewlett went off duty; donned a a citizen's suit and went out to try and locate his man. It was one o'clock in the morning when he located and captured/Hill in Dross Neck. He was assisted in the arrest by Policemen Whitehead and Toomer who were doing patrol duty in that vicinity. Hewlett has received many compliments on his detective work in feriting out the case and Captain Bob Green likewise, for his luck in recovering the silver so soon was quite phenomenal. Soon after the robbery had been discovered he met Mr. Watters, who was on his way to the home of an officer who is especially successful in running down cases of this sort. Mr. Watters also asked the services of Capt. Green. With the shrewdness that characterizes a true officer Capt. Green went at once to the place where the thief would be likely to carry silverware for sale, namely, a restaurant, and in a short time the greater part of the stolen goods was in the hands of the owner. The rest had been locked up in a safe and could not be had until yesterday morning, when bright and early Cant. Green went for the refore breakfast he had restored it to Miss Kidder will ship to the department, from New York, a bookcase, in which the books are to be put. It is intended by the firemen that Miss Kidder's donation shall be the nucleus of a regular firemen's library, which they will accumulate. Miss Kidder left the city yesterday.

In Justice Bunting's Court.

Justice R. H. Bunting yesterday committed Isaac Langdon, colored to jail in default of three separate and distinct bonds to await trial in the Circuit Court on three different charges. The charges were assault with a deadly weapon upon his wife, carrying a concealed weapon, and the third was a peace' warrant. The bonds in the two first charges were $25 each and the third was $50 to keep the peace for six months. De fault was made in each case and Langdon will spend a season the guest of jailor King. C. H. Evans was tried for assault with a deadly weapon and carrying concealed weapon. Both cases were dismissed

Policeman George and Others Have a Hard Run to Capture a Sneak Thief.

There was a bit of excitement just before mid-night last night at the Diamond saloon, near the corner of Front and Market streets, occasioned by a lively chase of a supposed sneak thief. Some one entered the bar Monday night and stole a box of cigars and a bottle of wine, and last night a young negro man was caught in the act of slipping in again and recognized as the same party who committed the theft on the previous night. The barkeeper and several gentlemen made a dash to capture the fellow but he was too quick for them and succeeded in making his escape. Policeman George came up about the time the fellow started off and chased the negro down the alloy between Front and Water streets but he was not able to overhaul Policeman George thinks there is no
