IN UNION COUNTY.

Jno. D. Bellamy and C. B. Aycock Discuss Political Issues at Monroe.

GREAT GATHERING OF PEOPLE.

Enthusiastic Reception—Populists and Republicans Present—Democratic Candidate for Congress Made an Excellent Speech.

(Special Star Correspondence.)
MONROE, N. C., August 23.

At an early hour this morning people from every precinct in Union county commenced rolling into Monroe to hear Hon. Jno. D. Bellamy, of Wilmington, and Hon. C. B. Aycock, of Goldsboro, discuss the political issues of the day. Both of these distinguished gentlemen were soon established in our Democratic headquarters here, and the people who were pressed beyond measure with the personality of Mr. Bellamy and his every manner. Democratic headquarters have been thronged all day, and the writer never saw more enthusiasm.

Bellamy in Wadeboro.
Bellamy was in Wadeboro Monday. The Observer correspondent writes from there:
Hon. John D. Bellamy, Democratic nominee for Congress of this State, spent yesterday and today here, forming the acquaintance of our citizens. Mr. Bellamy says that in his house-to-house canvass, which he has been making in the eastern end of the district, he finds access of Populists who are going to vote the white man's ticket, and especially in the Gibson neighborhood, of Richmond county, where he has been to the core, and that every Populist he saw was going to vote the Democratic ticket, and not only that but lots of Republicans, having become disgusted with the administration of the past two years, are going to join the Democrats in obtaining decent, capable and honorable government for North Carolina.

Mr. Bellamy is of a very pleasant address, and makes friends of all who come in contact with him. His plan of a house-to-house canvass is sure to secure for him a seat in Congress. He expects to visit us again in about two weeks and make us a speech.

GETTING WORSE AND WORSE.

The Negro Ministers of Wilmington in Hearty Sympathy With the Record.

The following appeared in the Daily Record, the negro paper published here, in its issue of yesterday:
"The following resolutions were adopted at the regular session of the Wilmington Conference of Ministers of the colored ministers of the city:
"Resolved, That the Ministerial Union is in hearty sympathy with the editor of the Record in defending the rights of the race, and that each minister inform his congregation of the present situation and endeavor to sustain the paper by swelling its subscription list and urging prompt payment."
As this resolution is unqualified in its language, the inference is that the "colored ministers" of Wilmington are in hearty sympathy with the Record, and must, therefore, endorse the villainous editorial attacking white women which appeared in that paper of the 18th inst. Without further comment just now, however, we will give the "Ministerial Union" time to either affirm or deny that they have been correctly reported in the Record, and to state whether the resolution was adopted before or after the editorial referred to appeared.

COUNTY EXECUTIVE COMMITTEE.

The Republicans hold a Committee Meeting to Denounce Negro Paper.
The Republican county executive committee held a meeting yesterday and passed resolutions condemning the Daily Record for the article which has caused so much commotion recently. The resolutions declare that the Record is not now and never has been a Republican or Fusion organ. The article referred to is denounced as a base libel and the writer is repudiated and denounced as a mischief making simpson.

RIOTOUS NEGROES.

Threatening Demonstration by a Mob Last Night on Princess Street.
NO KNOWN CAUSE FOR IT.
Angry Mutterings Against the Whites—Police Inefficient or Indifferent—Finally Persuaded the Angry Mob to Disperse.

From early twilight until about 11 o'clock last night lower Princess street, between Water and Second, was thronged with an excited crowd of negroes. There were also large numbers of men moving to and fro about adjacent streets. Those on Princess street stood about in groups evidently discussing some very exciting theme.
The Mecca toward which their interest seemed to centre was the office of the Daily Record, the negro paper which recently published such a vile slander upon white women of the South. It had been whispered about amongst the colored people of the city during the afternoon that the fellow Manly who poses as editor of the sheet had received an anonymous letter during the day giving him notice that his presence in this city could no longer be endured and that he must get out to parts very remote within 24 hours. The Record office is one door removed from the corner of Princess and Water streets and the entrance steps leading up to the entrance on the second floor which the office apartments were well filled with other negroes, who jointly with those in the streets were awaiting developments, if, in need be, protect "Editor" Manly from the expected avengers of defamed white womanhood.

The police on that beat were powerless to scatter the crowds, and Chief of Police Melton swore in two extra police and called in the officers from several adjacent beats for the purpose of persuading the negroes to disperse. Mayor Wright also went down and mingled with the crowd, striving to persuade them that there was no danger whatever of any attempt being made upon the life of Manly. The officers finally persuaded them to retire, only a company of the leaders remaining to guard the Record office. All night, however, there were others moving about the adjacent corners and side streets actuated by either fear that some attempt would be made or else by curiosity.

While the white people of the city are justly very indignant at the Record's dastardly editorial, and feel that the most extreme measures for retribution would be justifiable, it was the general opinion last night that the anonymous letter which created the excitement was without any backing, save in the unknown person who penned and mailed it. The whole excitement, so far as was created by the letter, was generally pronounced "much ado about nothing."

IN JUSTICE BUNTING'S COURT.

Four Cases Disposed of Yesterday—Fines Imposed in Two Cases.
Justice R. B. Bunting sat in judgment in four cases yesterday. Two of the cases were for assault and battery, another for disorderly conduct and the fourth was a peace warrant. The two first named offences were committed by Alma Howard and Charles Tyler, both colored. The Howard woman was dismissed on the payment of costs and Tyler was fined $5 and costs. The assault by Tyler was made upon Frank Onslow. "Major" Burns, colored, was fined $5 and costs for disorderly conduct. Emerick Brown, colored, was placed under three months bond to keep the peace and taxed with the costs of the firm of French Bros. manufacturers of fertilizers.

Tried for Stealing a Watch.
Thomas Hopkins, a colored boy, was tried yesterday before Justice Fowler on the charge of stealing a watch from Mr. Scott of the Carolina Coopers Company. The charge was that the watch was taken from a coat while hanging in an apartment at the shops. However, the Justice ruled that the evidence showed that several boys passed through the room about the time the watch was stolen and there was no evidence that Hopkins committed the theft.
Justice Borenstein's Court.
Alexander Andrews, Garlie Smith and Samuel Spencer, all colored, were before Justice Borenstein yesterday morning charged with disorderly conduct at a festival Monday night. They were found guilty and were left off on the payment of costs which amounted to $4.35 for each. Francis Anderson, colored, was found guilty of disorderly conduct. Judgment was suspended upon the payment of costs.

Committed Suicide.

Geo. C. Taylor, a government employe appointed from Burgaw, committed suicide Tuesday night at his boarding house in Washington City by taking laudanum. The police notified the father of the deceased and asked what disposition should be made of the body. Taylor was 32 years of age. He had been despondent for several days.

NO FURTHER ARRESTS MADE.

Three Cases in the McNair & Pearsall Theft Continued Until To-day.
Mr. Lewis' Case.

The three negroes who were arrested Tuesday charged with being implicated in the theft of meat and other classes of stock from railroad cars consigned to Messrs. McNair & Pearsall, Tuesday afternoon, were not tried yesterday, the cases having been postponed until today. The negroes are Lewis Jarman, Joe Hooper and William Murphy. The story of the investigation and arrests was told in yesterday's STAR.
Mr. Edward Lewis, who is in the employ of Messrs. McNair and Pearsall was arraigned before the Mayor as being implicated in the same case. Joe Douglas, a negro drayman, was the witness against Mr. Lewis. He merely swore that he had hauled meat to the store of Mr. C. C. Workman. The meat he said was hauled by order of Mr. Lewis.

Mr. Lewis swore that he had sent the goods to Mr. Workman, but always by order of Mr. Leftwich, the shipping clerk, that is so far as the meat was concerned. He said that on one or two occasions he, at the side of one of Mr. Workman, put the side of meat (he never brought more than a side) into a box or bag and filled it with salt in which the meat had been shipped, making the package weigh something like 100 pounds. Iredell Meares, Esq., who was present as attorney for the Carolina Central railroad in the cases against the three negroes, told Mayor Wright that he did not believe Mr. Lewis was guilty and should not be bound over to court. However, the Mayor contended that he did not have jurisdiction in the matter and required a $100 justified bond for Mr. Lewis' appearance at the October term of the Criminal Court. Mr. McNair, one of his employers, gave the bond. Mr. Lewis is a man of excellent reputation and his friends confidently believe that the case can but be promptly dismissed when called for trial in the Criminal Court.

MUSICAL ENTERTAINMENT.

At the Y. M. C. A. for the Benefit of a Deserving Young Lady.
Miss Norma Foster has gifted young violinist, with ambition to become still more proficient in the use of the violin. She hopes to go to the New England Conservatory of Music this coming session and will by her own work pay the greater part of her expenses. She has a number of friends, however, who wish to help her get the musical training which she would so well utilize, and so these friends are arranging a musical entertainment at the Y. M. C. A., the proceeds of which will be for the purpose indicated. The statement that it will be under the direction of Miss Mattie Chasten is sufficient guarantee that it will be a success.
An admission fee of ten cents will be charged and refreshments at nominal prices will be served.

About the Mileage Books.
A STAR reporter had a conversation yesterday with Mr. James Kyle, manager of the Wilmington Tariff Association, in regard to the mileage petition which the Association has laid before the Railroad Commission and which it did not grant. A rehearing has been secured and the matter is to come up again in September. Whether or not the petition will be granted depends to some extent upon the efforts which will be made by other commercial organizations as well as the Tariff Association. It is a matter which will affect all parts of the State, and it is rightly thought by the Tariff Association officials that the Chambers of Commerce in the various towns and cities might help out matters by taking some action.

Mr. S. A. Schloss will leave this afternoon for Raleigh, where he goes to inspect the recently remodelled and renovated Academy of Music of which he is lessee. He will remain over Friday night and attend the opening of the Academy which will be on that evening. A. G. Field's ministrals will be the attraction. The improvements in the Raleigh Academy are quite extensive and somewhat more so than those being made by Mr. Schloss in the Wilmington Opera House.
