Ex-Senator Sherman is quoted as Another week distinguished for saving that the United States will social lethargy has just closed. There has been but one function of especial hold Cuba. We haven't the slightnote. That, however, had crowded est doubt of that, if a half-plausible into the four short hours during which it was in progress enough of pleasure to make up for much of the social languor which characterized the week. The event referred to was the delightful reception and trolley party given Friday night by Miss Bettie Johnson, complimentary to her charming guest, Miss Fannie McRay, of Summerville. Special reference was made to the event in yesterday's STAR. The occasion was graced by many of Wilmington's foremost society folk.

> The week has marked the close of the seaside season on Carolina Beach and also of the Seashore Hotel on Wrightsville Beach. Quite a number of the cottagers on Carolina Beach have moved back to their town residences. Very few have, however, left Wrightsville Beach as yet. The return of Wilmington's representatives at distant resorts has commenced and within a week or two most all Wilmington society will be at home for the Fall and Winter season. which promises much gaiety.

Probably the most talked of coming event vet announced is the Miss Norma Foster benefit concert and entertainment. STAR readers are familiar with the purpose and character of the event. It will be given in the Y. M. C. A. auditorium somewhere about the 27th inst. Miss Cannie Chasten who is in charge of the programme has interested some of Wilmington's | Colored Boys Make Agreement to Swear most talented musicians as participants. Mrs. J. H. Watters will sing. pate, rendering several violin selections. Master James Craft, as pianist, will contribute at least one number. Cecelia Quartette, remembered by the music loving public as especially talented vocalists, will sing. Then there is to be a mixed quartette composed of Miss Maie O'Connor, Mrs. James D. Smith, Mr. Banks and Mr. H. K. Holden, all of whom are vocalists of unusual talent and culture. Prof. Wilson and Mr. S. A. Schloss will direct an orchestra company of a number of the best musicians. They will contribute much to the success of the evening. Refreshments are to be served at intervals both in the auditorium and in the refreshment rooms. Mr. and Mrs. Slocomb will terday, after several weeks spent at make a bridal tour of places of interest | Robeson County in Earnest. Mt. Airy, Ga. He will return to Wake South.

The coming week will be of especial theatrical interest. The Charles Vaught Comedy Company entertains every evening of the week. The company has been rehearsing here the past two weeks. Monday night they will play "The Buckeye;" Tuesday night, "Lady Audley's Secret;" Wednesday night, "A Hero in Rags;" Thursday night, "A Female Burglar," and "A Plain American Girl;" Friday night, "East Lynne." Saturday's attraction and the matinee will be announced later in the week.

The members of the troupe are al here. The following is the personnel: Miss Lillian Tucker and Mr. Charles Vaught, Chicago; Miss Eunice Goodrich, Chicago (serpentine, fire demon and sensational dancer); Dorothy Walcott, Boston: The Sisters Millar, London England (singers, dancers and banjo players); Little Theodore, Chicago, (child actress and singer); J. AUGUST'S COUNTY EXPENSES.

New Hanover's Charity Purse for the Month $719.17-Public Buildings, Salaries and Other Expenses.

A summary of bills audited for payment by the county finance committee M. trips to-day. covering the county's expenses for August will be of interest to the STAR's readers who are interested in affairs of local government. From the records of Clerk W. P. Oldham it is ascertained that during August the county paid out $454.87 in public charities. Of this amount $275 was distributed through the Associated Charities. The remaining $179.87 was paid to out door poor in monthly allowances and for medicines for charity patients. In addition to this there was also $167.70, expense of maintaining the County Home which should also come under the head of public charities. Closely akin to this charity work of the county and in fact "part and parcel" with it is the expense of the City Hospital, which as before stated in the STAR amounted during August to $462.03; the greater part of which ($264.30) is paid by the county. Thus making really a grand total of $719.17 which the New Hanover county government paved out in public charities during August, or rather this amount has been paid out since September 1st for August allowances and charity ex-

Summaries in other headings of county expense for August, as perbills audited for payment last week, are as follows:

Repairs, etc., on public buildings and grounds, $106.52; salaries and fees to county officers, $523.30; repairs, etc., on roads and bridges, $42.64; printing, $22.00; stationery, $8.60 making a grand total of $1,607.78 county expenses, barring bills to the amount of about $100, which were considered incorrect, the auditing of which is therefore deferred.

WOULD HAVE SWORN TO A LIE.

to a Lie to Save a Partner.

A gentleman who has a place of business near the new market told STAR reporter yesterday of an incilent that illustrates well the depravity of some of the colored element about the city. With several others this gentlemen says Boy Mitchell, a colored boy, threw a stone at a white man, hitting him squarely in the face and struck with his fist the other white man. Then the infamous act in the whole affair was done. The same gentlemen saw five of Mitchell's accomplices about him and heard them make a bargain to go before the magistrate in case Mitchell should be arrested and swear that he was not the guilty party. As it was, the policeman got the wrong boy and the would-be perjurers were not called upon to testify in the case.

EXCITEMENT LAST NIGHT.

Drunken Negro Turned Out to be Very Active and Got Away.

The crowds of people who throng the market Saturday nights were treated to an amusing spectacle last night. Sergeant Hewlett and Officer Woebse arrested a colored man who was apparently so drunk he couldn't walk So they put him in a cart and were preparing to have him hauled to the guard house. About the time they got fairly started, the prisoner sprang from the cart and "streaked" it down the alley south of the market. He disappeared somewhere down on Water street and couldn't be found again.

The white men of Robeson county are aroused. Yesterday an order by telegraph for one thousand campaign buttons of the White Government Union was received at the STAR office from Mr. George B. McLeod, chairman of the County Executive Com mittee of that county. The order was turned over to Messrs. C. W. Yates & Co., who forwarded by express all the buttons they had in stock. They received another supply last night,
