BY WILLIAM H. BERNARD. WILMINGTON, N. C. TUESDAY MORNING, OCTOBER 4.

WHITE MAN'S TICKET.

DEMOCRATIC NOMINATIONS. Election, Tuesday, November 8th. FOR CONGRESS. Sixth District—John D. Bellamy, of New Hanover.

FOR SUPERIOR COURT JUDGES. First District—Hon. George H. Brown, of Beaufort. Second District—Hon. Henry R. Bryan, of Craven.

FOR SOLICITOR. First District—Rodolph Duffy, of Onslow. For Judge of Eastern Circuit: Dossy Bates, of Edgecombe.

CY. THOMPSON AND SUFFRAGE.

Cy. Thompson is one of the howlers for popular rights and one of the crowd who profess to be afraid that if the Democrats carry the State at the next election they will change the election laws so as to deprive the negroes and "poor white" folks of the right to elect their county officers, magistrates, &c.

A DAISY CONVENTION.

The Republican Congressional Convention which met at Fayetteville last Thursday was, according to reports of credible witnesses, one of the most disgraceful convocations ever held in this State.

The "delegates" were divided as to whether they would make a nomination, or endorse the nomination of Fowler, Populist. A majority of them were at first for a nomination, but the bosses at Raleigh were in favor of endorsing Fowler, and that settled it.

The anti-nomination business was engineered by one Hancock, (white) and Abe Middleton, the sable dictator from Duplin. Hancock ran the finances. How he and Abe put up the job is thus told by the Fayetteville Observer:

"As soon as the convention was organized Hancock read a telegram from the State Central Committee, saying that the committee had decided to use for Fowler and it would be no use for the convention to nominate a candidate, as he would not be recognized. He then introduced a resolution that no nomination be made.

But Senator Pritchard talked differently and told an interviewer that the Republicans would make a gain of two congressmen. He was doubtfully referring to Caldwell and Jenkins, Populists, who were nominated through his instrumentality, and whom he will count as Republicans in the event of election.

When Cy Thompson stood by the white people of the East and demanded protection for them, as he did in 1883, there was no such aggressiveness in the negroes as there is now, they were not demanding from their white-skinned associates their proportionate quota of the offices (which in some counties would be about all), were not "inviting the race issue" as they are now, and were not one half as aggressive as they are now.

Old fashions in dress may be revived, but no old-fashioned medicine can replace Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy. For sale by R. R. BELLAMY.

TOO MUCH NEGRO.

Senator Butler made a long speech at Monroe last Saturday which was devoted mainly to national issues, referring only incidentally to State issues, and that was to declare that there was "too much negro" in this campaign; too much in the Democratic hand book, and too much in the Populist hand book.

He took occasion to remark, however that this is "a white man's country," and that he is opposed to negro domination, but from the fact that he objects to negro domination figuring so much as an issue he doesn't seem to think that the Democratic party ought to say anything about it, but simply to go on as he is doing, discussing national issues and letting the Republican and Populist fusionists carry out the work of putting more counties under negro rule and more negroes over white people.

The defeated were so mad that they denounced the wholesale bribery and one of them, Sion Buchanan, is reported by the Observer to have publicly tackled colored delegate McCain, a preacher too, and made him disgorge ten dollars that he had paid him to vote for a nomination, and for himself. McCain voted the other way because, as Buchanan alleged, he got more money from the other side.

This is the issue in North Carolina now, and if Marion Butler was honest in declaring that he is opposed to negro domination he wouldn't be riding the fence and he wouldn't be contenting himself with this kind of unmeaning chin work.

POINTS POLITICAL.

REPUBLICANS COMING. We feel proud of many of the true Republicans of the Wake county, throwing off their party shackles and declaring they will support the Democratic ticket this fall.—Boone Democrat.

A DISGUSTED PROFESSOR. They are coming every day. The weekly papers of this week are full of reports of Populists returning to the Democratic party, and their names are given too. One of them is Prof. J. E. Brinson, principal of the Morehead City school, who authorizes the editor of The Morehead Pilot to say that in the coming election he will vote for the nominee of the Democratic party.—Charlotte Observer.

WHAT PRITCHARD SAYS. Senator Pritchard, Chairman Holton and the defeated candidate for Congress, Settle, were in Washington last week. Pritchard and Holton are said to have gone there to pull the money dispensers for some cash to put "where it will do the most good." Settle talked to a reporter of the Post and said that the political condition in the State was so chaotic that it was impossible to forecast the outcome. When a Republican politician admits that much it is practically a confession that there isn't much show for his side.

Three Doctors in Consultation. From Benjamin Franklin. "When you are sick what you best do is to be chosen in the first place; what you best do is to be chosen in the last place. But if you can get Dr. Medicine, Dr. Experience and Dr. Reason to hold a consultation together, they will give you the best advice that can be had."

How to Prevent Croup. We have two children who are subject to attacks of croup. Whenever an attack is coming on my wife gives them Chamberlain's Cough Remedy, and it always prevents the attack. It is a household necessity in this country and no matter what else we run out of, it would not do to be without Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. More of it is sold here than of all other cough medicines combined.—J. M. NICKLE, of Nickle Bros., merchants, Nickleville, Pa., For sale by R. R. BELLAMY.

SPIRITS TURPENTINE.

Fayetteville Observer: Mr. D. J. Ballard died at his home in Fleet Hill, Saturday morning of hemorrhagic fever.

Charlotte Observer: Friday night a young negro, Jesse Shaw, was shot in Wallace town, a negro suburb of Statesville. He died from the effects of the shot in an hour. Before his death he said that a negro man, Bob Owens, shot him. On the strength of this Owens was arrested. Also four negro women, at whose house the shooting occurred, were taken to the jail and charged with the murder of Jesse Shaw.

Lexington Dispatch: The work of enlarging the old Jones (in the State) is being carried on on an east side of main shaft has led to the discovery of a new vein of rich ore that will prove a bonanza. In an attempt to enlarge the shaft, a large iron pipe was run for a ladder road and a double track hoisting way, it is necessary to cut away three feet of rock shaft and the feet from wall, while cutting down the foot wall that indications of ore were discovered at about sixty-five feet from the surface. A prospect hole was fired in the wall, resulting in a solid mass of ore of vast richness. Yesterday and today three large blocks of solid ore were taken out, weighing 933, 832 and 804 pounds, respectively. The miners have already cut eight feet into the vein and are not yet through it. Silver limes have been found in the mine that large bodies of ore yet await discovery.

INCENDIARY UTTERANCES.

Geo. H. White, the colored Congressman, tells Colored Men to Go to the Polls With Guns. (Raleigh Post.) Geo. H. White, the negro Congressman of the Second district, made a speech at a meeting of the colored people here at the Republican State convention.

White and his crowd of negroes then went to the school house, where he concluded his speech. Cairo Named For a Crow. Cairo received its name from the accidental settling of a crow upon a certain street. The name was given to the city from the year 969, when Gohar, a Tunis general, invaded Egypt and prepared to found a new city there.

Twinklings. A Possibility: Ethel—"Do you really think the czar wants to disarm Europe?" Tom—"Well, perhaps he only wants to disarm suspicion."—Puck.

Chappie—"Barb, how long will I have to wait for a shave?" Barber—"Oh, about two years."—Truth.

Tom Inuit—"What did that young girl say to you white she broke the engagement?" Jack Potts—"Ring off."—Judge.

Had Him—Moke—"Did you hear that joke about the dirty collar?" "Yes," said the other. "What was it?" "Ha, ha! That's one on you."—North American.

BY THE BARS.

The following lines may be read either up or down without altering the sense: The stars were all aligned, The moon was overhead, I gazed her queen of night As she my Soudier's face sought, No wondrous fair was she, I asked her name and she said, As she glanced up at me I thrilled with love divine.

Love led us all the way, As we turned home again, Our hearts were light and gay, Then shadows crossed the sky, We gloom on hearts and snow, True bliss is over night, When hearts are blinded so.—Philadelphia Bulletin.

A narrow escape. Thankful words written by Mrs. Ada E. Hart, of Groton, S. D. "Was taken with a bad cold which settled on my lungs; cough set in and finally terminated in Consumption. Dr. King's New Discovery gave me up, saying I could live but a short time. I gave myself up to my Savior, determined if I could not stay with my friends on earth, I would meet my absent ones above. My husband was advised to get Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption. Cousins and Col. Williams, who were in trial, took in all eight bottles. It has cured me, and thank God I am saved and now a well and healthy woman. Trial bottles free at R. R. BELLAMY'S Drug Store. Regular size 50c and $1.00. Guaranteed or price refunded."
