N. C. TRUCK GROWERS

Organization Perfected of the Eastern Carolina Association.

BOARD OF DIRECTORS CHOSEN.

Officers Elected-Plans and Purposes of the Organization-Principal Office to be Established in the City of Wilmington.

A representative gathering of truck ers and fruit growers of this section assembled in the parlors of The Orton at 2 P. M. yesterday to effect the organization of the Eastern Carolina Truck and Fruit Grower's Association in conformity with the charter recently issued to them by the Secretary of State. During the meeting a Board of sixteen Directors was shosen and they in turn at a subsequent meeting selected a president and other officers.

The meeting of the stockholders was called to order by Mr. J. H. Moore, of Burgaw, who served as temporary chairman. Mr. T. J. Armstrong, of Rocky Point, was made temporary secretary. A committee of three on stock and proxies was appointed. They made a prompt report after which the election of the Board of Directors was entered upon.

Mr. C. M. Steinmetz, of Rose Hill, made a motion which was unanimously adopted, providing for the election of the following board of sixteen directors, to-wit:

Mr. J. S. Westbrook and Mr. W. J. Oates, Faison; Mr. J. A. Westbrook, Mt. Olive; Mr. W. L. Hill, Warsaw; Mr. C. M. Steinmetz and Mr. D. W. Fussell, Rose Hill; Mr. W J. Boney, Wallace; Mr. J. H. Moore, Burgaw; Dr. E. Porter and Mr. T. J. Armstrong. Rocky Point; Mr. G. W. Westbrook, Wrightsville; Mr. Geo. G. French, Wilmington; Mr. J. A. people. An Englishman lost his life | Brown and Mr. J. S. Feid, Chadwhile investigating the peculiarities | bourn, Dr. G. F. Lucas, Currie; and Mr. S. H. Strange, of Fayetteville.

After the election of the Board of Directors had been held the meeting of the stockholders adjourned and a session of the Board was called. The only business transacted by the Directors was the election of officers, which resulted as follows:

Vice President-Mr. J. S. Westbrook, of Faison. Secretary-Mr. C. M. Steinmetz, of Rose Hill. Treasurer-Mr. S. H. Strange, o Fayetteville.

A resolution was passed providing that the President of the Association appoint an executive committee of five members at an early date. There were about thirty truckers and fruit growers in attendance upon the meeting yesterday and quite a lot of stock was subscribed for during the stockholders' meeting. From conversations held yesterday by a STAR representative with leading members of the Association, it was gathered that they purpose to inaugurate an active campaign at once. The principal office of the organization will be in Wilmington and is to be kept open all the year round by the secretary, who will be employed for all his time.

The charter of the association was published in the STAR of August 24th. It stipulates that the object of the organization is to develop the trucking, agricultural and horticultural business in Eastern North Carolina, and secure to the members of the corporation just and equitable freight rates for fruit, vegetables and other products over the lines of the common carriers to the markets of the United States. To perform any and all things that shall make business profitable, including the right to own and conduct a newspaper as the organ of the corporation. The section of country proposed to be developed is on and along the line of railroads and streams contingent thereto in Eastern Carolina.

The incorporators were Mr. J. S. Westbrook, Mr. J. A. Brown, Mr. J. A. Westbrook, Mr. S. H. Strange, Mr. W. J. Boney, Mr. J. Hollingsworth, Mr. W. E. Springer and Mr. W. A.

Riach. The temporary board of directors who served from the issuance of the charter until the new board was elected yesterday was composed of the following prominent truckers:

J. H. Moore, T. J. Armstrong, J. A Brown, J. S. Westbrook, 3. W. Westbrook, A. P. Middleton, A. J. Johnson, S. H. Strange, J. A. Westbrook, J. J. Faison, J. C. McMilan, D. W. Fussill, M. P. Taylor, W. J. Boney, W. J. Hollingsworth, and Oscar High. No date is announced as yet either for another meeting of the Board of Directors or the executive committee

soon to be appointed. PEAMON DISCHARGED.

This Was Justice McGowan's Decision in the Matter Yesterday. The case of Carter Pesmon, which was tried before Justice McGowan Monday, and in which judgment was reserved until yesterday, so as to consult an advisory, was finally disposed of by discharging Peamou.

Justice McGowan thought the evidence insufficient to convict on the charge of larceny, and as Peamon had been previously tried by Esquire W. H. Price on a charge of assault and battery, the warrant could not be amended to this effect.

HIS SINS WERE MANY.

President-Mr. W. L. Hill, of War- Chas. Morris the Watch Thief, Before Justice Bunting Yesterday Morning.

> Charles Morris, alias "Son" Charles, plead guilty yesterday before Justice Bunting to the charge of stealing the watch from Mr. Hauser, the particulars of which are known to STAR readers. He was bound over in the sum of $100 for his appearance at this term of the Criminal Court. The next charge upon which he was tried was for stealing a sack of oats from the Cape Fear Lumber Company. He was found guilty and the judgment of the court was the same as in the preceeding case.

> The case against him for the robbery of the store and sleeping room of Mr. Bernice C. Moore, was continued in the absence of important witnesses. It will be remembered that he effected an entrance into the store by prizing open the back door with a piece of iron, and that he stole a number of razors, some little money from the cash drawer and several other articles, in the aggregate about $25 worth. He is an all-round rogue and has served a sentence in the penitentiary. Some time ago it is thought he stole 5 bales of hay from one of the lumber companies here.

Deputy Flynn, who made the arrest, found in his possession a pillow case bearing the laundry mark "Mc-Adoo House," and it is supposed that at some time he stole this from the McAdoo House, which is located a Greensboro.

BURGLARIES STILL GO ON.

This One on Front Street and Mr. C. M. Whitlock the Loser.

A rather singular robbery, which was made night before last, was discovered yesterday morning. Mr. C. M. Whitlock's store in the Y. M. C. A. building on Front street was the ob ject of attack. He had a number of rare coins in his display window, and it was these that the thief made off with. The large plate glass in the window had once been broken and was afterwards mended. It was through this mended place that the thief managed to get the coins, presumably by taking a stick and raking them in finger's reach. The part of Mr. Whitlock's collection stolen was a number of coppers, which meant only a few cents to thief, but several dollars to Mr. Whitlock, as they were their face value. There is no clue to the thief whatever, but it is possible that the coins would be recognized by the owner should he see them again.

Justice John J. Fowler had two trivial cases yesterday, Rachel Mc-Key for larceny, and Robert Leonard colored, for stowing vessels withou license. In the first case, the evidence was not sufficient to convict, and the defendant was discharged. In the case of Leonard, he was bound over to court in the sum of $50, which he Capt. MacRae returned yesterday from Raleigh and the notice is in comvery rare and worth much more than pliance with orders received while there. It is not known what the purpose of the government is except that the boys are get to be mustered out to September 25th, and then it was to on the 17th in it. In speaking of the great Tobacco Fair to be given in that enterprising city early in November Mr. Steadman said the event would har eclipse the 1897 Fair in every department. The live stock exhibit, he says, will especially surpass the exhibit of last year.

MINSTREL SHOW TO-NIGHT.

Cle eland-Wilson Combination to Arrive 20-Day-Parade Early This After-

Eleveland-Wilson's colossal minstrel aggregation will make their debut in this city to-night. It is doubtless the very best production of modern, refined minstrelsy that has appeared before the footlights of the Wilmington Opera House and press notices of the vely highest commendation bear out this promise. The company, or rather the companies, for it is a mammoth consolidation of two troupes, will give a pagnificent parade early this after-

Among the stars of the show are W. S. Cleveland, who for years has been the most brilliantly successful of als managers; George Wilson, the greatest minstrel America has prodiced; E. M. Hall, the Paganini of the banjo; John Queen, a nationa farorite; Keno and Welch, and many others, including Charles G. Weber, the eminent baritone. They play only at the best and biggest theatres in the land. They are now on a Goes to a Circus in Tarboro and Wants 20,000 mile tour of this country, Canada and Mexico. In 1900 they will play in Parıs all through the Exposition. The Cleveland-Wilson Minstrels will be the only American show in Peris that year. Later they will play in London, and after a farewell tour of this country will go around the world. When you see a minstrel show see the best. There is but one worthy of the name, and that came into existeuce when W. S. Cleveland and Geo. Wilson united the Massive Minstrels the former with the model minstrels of the latter. They don't keep within mited territory, but they play the while world and are winners everywhele. No expense was spared in costuming and staging the great new show, which is, in fact, two shows in one, for the street parade is double and the stage performance dual. The first part is absolutely new and original, and presents a dazzling scene of min- kept on moving antil he had cleared steel magnificence.
