COTTON REGION BULLETIN.
For the twenty-four hours ended at 8 A. M. yesterday:
Rain has been general, continuing in the eastern districts, with higher temperature. The temperature has fallen decidedly over the Mississippi valley and western districts, with light to killing frosts and clearing weather. The following heavy precipitation (in inches) was reported: Baton Rouge, La., 2.10; Thomsville, Ga., 2.00; Americas, Ga., 1.72; Anita, La., 1.72.

WEATHER CONDITIONS.
A severe storm is central to-night in the Ohio valley and the lower Lake region, extending thence southward over the eastern districts to Southern Florida. It is accompanied generally by heavy rains throughout the Atlantic coast States, the Ohio valley and the Lake region. The barometer has risen in the middle and west Gulf States, and a high area covers the eastern slope of the southern Rocky Mountain region, with clear weather over the southern districts. It is warmer than on last evening in the middle Atlantic States and in the extreme North-west, and decidedly colder in the central Gulf States, Western Georgia and the Ohio valley. High winds have prevailed during the day over the middle and north Atlantic coasts and in the central Gulf section, the following maximum velocities being reported: Hatteras, N. C., 48 southeast; New York, N. Y., 32 east; Fort Edw., La., 35 north; West Orleans, La., 25 northwest. A Buffalo, N. Y., judge fined a man $3 for singing "On the banks of the Wabash." Some judges give their jurisdiction a wide range.

The Japs are taking to American flour. Six years ago we shipped them about 1,000 pounds. In 1896 we shipped them 32,000, 000 pounds.

A Tennessee judge has decided that "Jewillkins" is swearing. He was probably disgusted with that weak imitation of robust profanity, and wouldn't have it played around where he was.

A sawdust experimenter claims to have discovered a process for carbonizing it, which will bring millions out of it. According to his statement there is more wealth in sawdust than in a gold mine. Shoppers in New York and other burghs have been working the sawdust racket on the confiding for some time.

In one of the towns in the kingdom of Dahomey there is a temple where about a thousand snakes are constantly kept and fed by the priests who want to keep on good terms with the snake gods. Rocky Mount Butler, the snake in the grass, would make a unique contribution to this collection.

TO ENLARGE THE LIBRARIES.

Wilmington's Graded Schools Getting Down to Hard Work—Plans to Add New Features.

The third week of the Fall term of the Wilmington Graded schools ended very auspiciously yesterday afternoon.

A STAR reporter was told yesterday by Mr. James F. Post, Jr., who conjointly with Mr. W. H. Chadbourn is directing the work of the schools in the stead of a superintendent until one is elected by the School Board, that the attendance has very materially increased since the schools opened. The exact enrollment at the various schools could not be ascertained. It was roughly estimated when the schools opened that 2,000 children were in attendance. Probably 300 more have entered during the past three weeks of the term.

Mr. Post said yesterday that all the graded schools of the county (more than twenty) are now in operation and the school registers show a much larger enrollment than last year. The corps of teachers is materially strengthened. The schools are showing practical evidences of united efforts of committee-men and faculties for constant improvement.

In speaking of the Wilmington schools Mr. Post said that there is a nucleus of alibiary at each building, and plans are being formulated for the increase of each of these to libraries of at least 1,000 volumes. The books already in the schools have done much toward the cultivation of a love for good literature among the children.

It is not known how soon any steps will be taken by the committee in the matter of the election of a superintendent. It will be of interest to note in this connection that Prof. M. C. S. Noble, now of the State University faculty and for 17 years superintendent of the Wilmington schools, is expected here on a brief visit to-day.

Miss Daisy B. Waitt, of the High School faculty, who was called to Raleigh several days ago on account of the death of her brother, is expected home to-day and will resume charge of her class Monday.

AS WILMINGTONIANS SAW IT.

The Great Fayetteville Democratic Rally One of the Biggest Successes of the Campaign.

Wilmingtonians who attended the great Democratic rally at Fayetteville yesterday report that the people of that splendid old city "did themselves proud" in the royal entertainment of the thousands of faithful Democrats and white government advocates who gathered within her borders to do honor to the auspicious occasion.

Never, say they, was there more free-handed entertainment, and patriotic enthusiasm flowed through the vast throngs (fully 5,000 people) like a tidal wave.

The train which left here at 8.30 A. M., laden with Wilmington people, rolled into Fayetteville with fully 200 staunch Democrats on board. They were met at the depot by a great procession of people, among them fully 200 "red shirts" mounted on horseback. As soon as the Wilmington contingent fell in line the march to the fair grounds, where the speaking was held, was started, several thousand people being in line.

The STAR's special Fayetteville correspondent tells in another column of the speakers and the big dinner. Both, say the Wilmington delegation, were all that could be desired. The train reached Wilmington on the return trip at 7.40 P. M. Among those who went were a good company of Confederate veterans in charge of Col. F. W. Kerchner and Capt. J. I. Meigs and the Fifth Ward Band.

Fayetteville's grand Democratic rally for the campaign of 1898 will be long remembered as one of the most successful of the many great rallies for white supremacy and good government held in Eastern North Carolina.

ANOTHER BROOKLYN SHOOTING.

One Negro Shoots Another as the Result of a Family Row.

That part of the city familiarly known as "Brooklyn" had another lively shooting scrape yesterday afternoon about 1 o'clock. Moses Coachman, colored, does not get along with his wife so happily as he might, and domestic troubles are frequent. Yesterday morning he administered a severe thrashing to his wife, Linnie Coachman, and submitted before Justice McGowan soon after. Returning to his home about noon, he made a second attack upon her, and the quarrel was taken up by Scott Truesdale, who happened to be present. Truesdale drew his pistol and fired twice, both balls taking effect in the hips of Coachman. One of the shots made only a flesh wound, while the other was rather more serious, the ball being quite difficult to locate.

Immediately after the shooting, Truesdale expressed his intention of going to Texas and disappeared. He had not been arrested at a late hour last night.

The scene of the shooting was at Coachman's wife's house, corner Ninth and Nixon streets.

Dr. Mask was called in and administered the necessary medical attention to the wounded negro, who it is thought is not seriously hurt.

The regular, bona fide mail circulation of THE MORNING STAR is larger than the mail circulation of any other Wilmington-Dailies combined.

AN OLD BULLPEN BALL.

With an Unusual History Presented to the Daughters of the Confederacy's Museum Yesterday.

A very unusual sort of a relic was presented to the museum of the Cape Fear Chapter Daughters of the Confederacy yesterday afternoon. It is an old fashioned yarn ball, such as used to be made to play twopenny, bullpen and such games. The ball in question has quite an interesting history, and was presented by Mr. Jno. D. McGeachy, of Rex, N. C., who was a valiant member of Company D, Fifty-first regiment, North Carolina Troops, Clingman's brigade, Hoke's division.

Mr. McGeachy sent the ball to Commander G. W. Higgins of Cape Fear Confederate Veterans' camp and Mrs. Higgins carried it over to the museum last evening, and yesterday presented it together with a very interesting letter giving the remarkable history of the ball, from which the following interesting extracts are taken:

"While the 51st regiment was quartered at Camp Hill near Petersburg, during January of '64, McGeachy, of Co. D. (Hobson) raveled up an old hood and made this ball so that all who wished could play bullpen. Many a merry pass it had, many a merry boy it put out of the game. But the last of April the roll of the drum called us in line for a different game of ball. The last to catch the bullpen ball was Jno. D. McGeachy, of Co. D. He put it in the pocket of his old gray jacket and then it started on its travels.

The letter then tells of how the ball was with him at Ivor, Suffolk then at the skirmish with Butler's forces. It was with him at the bluff of Cold Harbor, doing duty on the banks of the Appomattox, was in the awful charge on Fort Harrison, came to Wilmington in 1865 and subsequently was in the marches and skirmishes about Sugar Loaf and Ben-Loville. He then carried the ball back home with him to Robeson county. In conclusion Mr. McGeachy says:

"Though only a small wooden ball it has been a source of pleasure to many of the Fifty-first Regiment, has traced many a mile and seen service in a cause where all save honor was lost.

"I now send this ball to the Daughters of the Confederacy of Cape Fear Chapter at Wilmington, our loved city on the Cape Fear, who as their noble mothers loved and cherished the lost cause, they will accept and protect this relic of 'old long syc.'"

WITH THE MAGISTRATES.

A Number of Cases Disposed of by Wilmington Justices Yesterday.

After a comparative quiet of some time the magistrates had their hands full yesterday. Before Justice Fowler, John Henry Davis, the negro, who "raised so much Cain" on Kidder's Hill a few days ago, was tried in two cases for assault and battery.

The first offense for which John had to answer was an assault on Hill King with a brick and a pint tickler, the tickler however being empty. The second case of assault was on Almira Smith, and the implement of warfare in this case was also a brick. The negro was placed under a bond of $100 for his appearance at the next term of Criminal Court.

Moses Coachman submitted before Justice McGowan for assault and battery and was dismissed with the costs. Justice Bunting had four cases, Alex. Leadly, for willful injury to personal property; Miranda Gray, for the same offense, and William Brown, for assault with a deadly weapon. Brown was also placed under a bond of $100 to keep the peace. All the parties were discharged except Leadly, who was bound over in the sum of $50 for his appearance at court.

MORE OUTRAGEOUS CONDUCT.

Negroes Assault a Small Boy and Demolish Dinner and Basket.

Yesterday about noon, near the corner of Princess and Fifth streets, a small boy who was carrying a dinner basket to a well known young man down town, was set upon by several larger negro boys, who attempted to take his basket from him. They first stopped the boy and asked him if he knew where some person lived. He told them that he did not, and moved on. One of the negroes slipped up behind the boy and grabbed the basket. In the scuffle the boy held on to it, and all the dishes it contained were broken, besides the basket itself being badly broken up. After the wreck was complete the negroes made off up the street. The boy has no idea who his assailants were.

WALDO-VAN DEMAN.

Miss Waldo, Well Known Here, Married at Orange Lake, Fla.

Cards were received here yesterday, announcing the marriage of Miss Annie L. Waldo of Orange Lake, Fla., to Mr. Carl B. Van Deman, the wedding having been celebrated on Monday, the 19th inst. Miss Waldo is pleasantly remembered here as a charming and popular guest of her sister, Mrs. W. W. Harris, Jr., who now resides in Florida. The announcement reads as follows:

Mrs. Nellie Owen Waldo announces the marriage of her daughter, Annie Lyles and

Mr. Carl Barton Van Deman on Wednesday morning, October nineteenth, eighteen hundred and ninety-eight, Orange Lake, Florida.

Lumberton Fair.

The annual Fair of the Robeson County Fair Association will be held at Lumberton, November 2nd, 3rd and 4th. All space for exhibits free.

LOCAL DOTS.

Register to-day.

"The old guard never surrenders."

You must register if you wish to vote.

Oh! how sick Cyphra Thompson will be about November 9th.

Hurrah for the R. R.'s—the Robeson Rough Riders. Be with them at their grand parade at Lumberton November 4th.

The regular, bona fide circulation of THE MORNING STAR is much larger than that of any other daily newspaper published in Wilmington.

Cotton lost one-sixteenth yesterday, being quoted at the closing at 4 1/2-16 cents for middling. The tone of the market was firm and the receipts 4,515 bales.

The party of Wilmingtonians who were to have gone to Johnson's Landing yesterday for the speaking, were unable to do so on account of rain. They were very much disappointed at not being able to attend.

Spirits turpentine in the Wilmington market closed higher yesterday than for many days before. It was quoted at 3 1/2 cents for machine made casks and 3 1/4 cents for country casks. The receipts for the past few days have been merely nominal.

Mr. George W. McMillan requests the STAR to say that he promptly declined the nomination for Sheriff tendered him by the Pop. party in Pender county; and, furthermore, that he will use his best efforts and influence for the success of the Democratic party.

The cotton receipts on the Wilmington market for the week ending yesterday, October 21st, were 24,688 bales; same week last year 18,519. The receipts for the crop year up to this time are 114,553 bales, against 124,792 bales for the corresponding time last year.

The fire-alarm at 8.30 o'clock last night from Box 47 was occasioned by the burning of a small unfurnished frame house on the corner of Sixth and Marstell streets. The house was being erected by Joe Hill, colored. The fire is believed to have been incendiary.

A young man who reaches the age of twenty one after the close of registration, and on or before the 8th of November, can register and vote on the day of election. Or, if any elector has been a resident of the State twelve months and of his county ninety days immediately preceding the day of election, he can register and vote on that day.

ANOTHER PROPOSITION.

One Thousand Dollars That the Democrats Will Control the Next Legislature.

Any one wishing to accept the following propositions (both to be taken) will be accommodated by calling at the STAR office:

From One Hundred to Five Hundred Dollars that the Democrats will control the next House of Representatives of North Carolina.

From One Hundred to Five Hundred Dollars that the Democrats will control the next Senate of North Carolina.

BEST SHOW OF THE WEEK.

"Rip Van Winkle" by the Peruchi-Beldeni Company Last Night.

That ever popular three act comedy "Rip Van Winkle" or "The sleep of twenty years," was very acceptably presented at the Opera House last night by the Peruchi-Beldeni Company. In fact last night's performance was pronounced by many by far the best the company has given thus far during their week's engagement here.

The title roles of Rip Van Winkle were performed with a skill and support that was good throughout almost the whole cast of characters. The play was very well staged and was altogether quite a good popular priced performance.

To-night the bill will be "A Prince in Rags" and the management promises the very best performance of their engagement. This afternoon there will be a matinee presentation of "David Crockett" for the benefit of the ladies and children.

NEWS FROM RALEIGH.

Gov. Russell Went to Morganton For a Conference With Pritchard.

AYCOCK'S CAMPAIGN WORK.

Bank Failure at Elizabeth City—Carl Duncan's Visit to Wilmington—The A. and M. College—Camp Shipp-Bagley.

[Special Star Correspondence.]

RALEIGH, N. C., October 21. Geo. Norwood, of Goldboro, has been chosen chief marshal for the big mass meeting of white people there, October 28.

Hon. C. B. Aycock had one of the largest audiences last night which ever greeted a speaker in Raleigh. Metropolitan Hall was literally packed.

The resources of the banks in the State were $9,451,823.40 last year, while this year the treasurer's statement places the resources at $10,026,900.30.

Thursday night of Fair week Capt. C. E. Donson will deliver an address on the life and character of Gov. Thomas M. Holt.

The Young Men's Republican League, so-called, will meet in the Senate chamber here next Wednesday evening. P. H. Lybrock will doubtless succeed W. V. Hall as president.

Miss Louisa Hall Manning, daughter of Dr. Manning of Chapel Hill, was married to Prof. William R. Webb, of Tenn., yesterday.

The announcement was made by hangers-on at Republican headquarters yesterday, that Carl Duncan had "fixed things all right at Wilmington." How things were "fixed" remains to be seen, as nothing further would be told.

The steam heating plant of the Baptist Female University was tested yesterday and found satisfactory.

Dr. Cooper Curdick, a native of New York, but late of the Department of Agriculture at Washington, has arrived, to teach biology and veterinary surgery in the A. & M. college. Camp Shipp-Bagley will be broken up to-day.

Enlow and Eaton, the two convicts who escaped from the State prison, have just been captured in Burlington and brought back.

[Special Star Telegram.]

The State Supreme Court to-day elected ex-Judge R. P. Buxton Supreme Court reporter in place of R. T. Gray.

Gurkin & Company's private bank, at Elizabeth City, of which George Cobb is president, assigned.

Governor Russell mysteriously left Raleigh yesterday. He went to Morganton and held a conference with Pritchard to-day.

ONE THOUSAND DOLLARS.

A Golden Opportunity for Those Who Think O. H. Dockery Will be Elected to Congress.

For the special benefit of Republican financiers, the editor of the STAR is authorized to offer the following opportunities:

One Hundred Dollars that John D. Bellamy will carry the county of Mecklenburg.

One Hundred Dollars that Bellamy will carry the county of Anson.

One Hundred Dollars that Bellamy will carry the county of Richmond.

One Hundred Dollars that Bellamy will carry the county of Robeson.

One Hundred Dollars that Bellamy will carry the county of Columbus.

One Hundred Dollars that Bellamy will carry the county of Pender.

One Hundred Dollars that Bellamy will carry the county of Brunswick.

One Hundred Dollars that Bellamy will carry the county of New Hanover.

One Hundred Dollars that Bellamy will be elected.

All the above propositions to be accepted as a whole.

As Martin, the Fusion candidate for Congress in 1896, carried all of the nine counties in the Sixth District, except Anson—and lost that by only 110 majority—and had a majority in the District of 5,006, the above propositions should receive the favorable consideration of Republican voters.

MUST BE MUSTERED OUT.

Charlotte Observer's Washington Correspondent on the Second Regiment.

The Charlotte Observer's Washington correspondent, writing under date of the 20th inst, has the following to say in regard to the mustering out of the Second Regiment about which there are such conflicting reports, to-wit:

Colonel James E. Boyd called on Adjutant General Corbin this afternoon with Lieutenant Colonel Cowles, and later Colonel Boyd called on Secretary Alger. The Secretary stated to me that no change would be made in the orders for the Second North Carolina Regiment. One official said: "The Second North Carolina must be mustered out. They are not needed and neither the First nor the Third Regiment will be given up by the United States authorities."

Organizing for Foot Ball.

Foot ball enthusiasts of Cape Fear Academy held a meeting yesterday afternoon and elected officers for an eleven soon to be selected. They are Thomas Platt, captain; Thomas Meares, manager; and George Callett, secretary and treasurer. They propose to have a team which will lick anything in these parts.

TILLMAN'S CLARION BLAST.

A Day Pure White Trimmed With Red—A Great Outpouring of the People of Cumberland.

[Special Star Correspondence.]

FAYETTEVILLE, N. C., Oct. 21.—By noon to-day Hay street was literally a tossing sea of humanity—old men and old women, young men and young women, little girls and boys, with willing hands and eager hearts, with music's martial strain, welcoming with glad acclaim the jubilee of White Supremacy in Cumberland county.

When Chief Marshal G. A. Barnes and his staff formed the glorious procession on Hay street hundreds of stalwart citizens, in red shirts, mounted, wheeled into line—staunch representatives of old rebel 71st, 75th, 76th, 77th, 78th, 79th, 80th, 81st, 82nd, 83rd, 84th, 85th, 86th, 87th, 88th, 89th, 90th, 91st, 92nd, 93rd, 94th, 95th, 96th, 97th, 98th, 99th, 100th, 101st, 102nd, 103rd, 104th, 105th, 106th, 107th, 108th, 109th, 110th, 111th, 112th, 113th, 114th, 115th, 116th, 117th, 118th, 119th, 120th, 121st, 122nd, 123rd, 124th, 125th, 126th, 127th, 128th, 129th, 130th, 131st, 132nd, 133rd, 134th, 135th, 136th, 137th, 138th, 139th, 140th, 141st, 142nd, 143rd, 144th, 145th, 146th, 147th, 148th, 149th, 150th, 151st, 152nd, 153rd, 154th, 155th, 156th, 157th, 158th, 159th, 160th, 161st, 162nd, 163rd, 164th, 165th, 166th, 167th, 168th, 169th, 170th, 171st, 172nd, 173rd, 174th, 175th, 176th, 177th, 178th, 179th, 180th, 181st, 182nd, 183rd, 184th, 185th, 186th, 187th, 188th, 189th, 190th, 191st, 192nd, 193rd, 194th, 195th, 196th, 197th, 198th, 199th, 200th, 201st, 202nd, 203rd, 204th, 205th, 206th, 207th, 208th, 209th, 210th, 211st, 212th, 213th, 214th, 215th, 216th, 217th, 218th, 219th, 220th, 221st, 222nd, 223rd, 224th, 225th, 226th, 227th, 228th, 229th, 230th, 231st, 232nd, 233rd, 234th, 235th, 236th, 237th, 238th, 239th, 240th, 241st, 242nd, 243rd, 244th, 245th, 246th, 247th, 248th, 249th, 250th, 251st, 252nd, 253rd, 254th, 255th, 256th, 257th, 258th, 259th, 260th, 261st, 262nd, 263rd, 264th, 265th, 266th, 267th, 268th, 269th, 270th, 271st, 272nd, 273rd, 274th, 275th, 276th, 277th, 278th, 279th, 280th, 281st, 282nd, 283rd, 284th, 285th, 286th, 287th, 288th, 289th, 290th, 291st, 292nd, 293rd, 294th, 295th, 296th, 297th, 298th, 299th, 300th, 301st, 302nd, 303rd, 304th, 305th, 306th, 307th, 308th, 309th, 310th, 311st, 312th, 313th, 314th, 315th, 316th, 317th, 318th, 319th, 320th, 321st, 322nd, 323rd, 324th, 325th, 326th, 327th, 328th, 329th, 330th, 331st, 332nd, 333rd, 334th, 335th, 336th, 337th, 338th, 339th, 340th, 341st, 342nd, 343rd, 344th, 345th, 346th, 347th, 348th, 349th, 350th, 351st, 352nd, 353rd, 354th, 355th, 356th, 357th, 358th, 359th, 360th, 361st, 362nd, 363rd, 364th, 365th, 366th, 367th, 368th, 369th, 370th, 371st, 372nd, 373rd, 374th, 375th, 376th, 377th, 378th, 379th, 380th, 381st, 382nd, 383rd, 384th, 385th, 386th, 387th, 388th, 389th, 390th, 391st, 392nd, 393rd, 394th, 395th, 396th, 397th, 398th, 399th, 400th, 401st, 402nd, 403rd, 404th, 405th, 406th, 407th, 408th, 409th, 410th, 411st, 412th, 413th, 414th, 415th, 416th, 417th, 418th, 419th, 420th, 421st, 422nd, 423rd, 424th, 425th, 426th, 427th, 428th, 429th, 430th, 431st, 432nd, 433rd, 434th, 435th, 436th, 437th, 438th, 439th, 440th, 441st, 442nd, 443rd, 444th, 445th, 446th, 447th, 448th, 449th, 450th, 451st, 452nd, 453rd, 454th, 455th, 456th, 457th, 458th, 459th, 460th, 461st, 462nd,
