If Gen. Egan be economical he can scuffle along on the $5,500 annual salary he will draw while suspended.

A $100,000,000 steel Trust is proposed, Andrew Carnegie doing the manipulating. There will be lots of steel in that.

The city of Charleston also is wrestling with the bad beef question. But it is not of the "embalmed" variety.

A Chicago man who lost his false teeth recovered them by advertising. This shows that judicious advertising will draw even teeth.

The Dismal Swamp canal, which connects Chesapeake bay with Albemarle sound, will be open for traffic about March 1. It is twenty-two miles long.

A Pennsylvania man recently poughed up a lizard, which he thinks he imbibed while on a hunt for something else. He felt better after it, and so did the lizard.

Cincinnati will issue $6,000,000 of bonds to build water-works. There are a good many of the denizens of that burg who would prefer to see that sum invested in beer tanks.

As the Philippines do not belong to the United States yet, and will not until the Spanish Cortes ratifies the treaty, how can the Filipinos who dispute American sovereignty be "rebels"?

The President of the Chicago University (richly endowed) thinks that no college with less than $100,000 endowment should be allowed to confer degrees. He wants to monopolize that business out there.

There is an anti-cartoon bill before the California Legislature. In the estimation of some of the Solons there drawing cartoons of legislators is a good deal more reprehensible than drawing checks for them.

Hon. Dan Lamont is going to invest $10,000 in a picture of his friend Grover. This evidence of appreciation of the boosts that Grover gave Daniel ought to make Grover smile and look his best when he squares himself to the artist.

A Republican contemporary remarks that our spies are watching Agonillo and his spies are watching our spies, and that we must have spies to watch the spies who are watching our spies. This looks like turning the thing into a regular "I spy" play.

LOCAL DOTS.

Three licenses for marriage were granted to white couples last week and three to colored.

Funeral and Interment To-day.

The remains of Mrs. Sarah Patzok, whose death occurred Thursday at her home in New York city, were brought to this city for funeral and interment yesterday morning via the A. C. L. The deceased was the relict of the late Isaac Patzok, who was a well known Hebrew merchant of Fayetteville, and who was buried here a few years ago. She was seventy-five years of age at the time of her death and has no immediate relatives in this vicinity. The funeral will take place this morning at 11 o'clock from the residence of Rev. Dr. S. Mendelsohn and the interment will be made in the Jewish cemetery in Oakdale.

On account of bad weather the past week The C. W. Polvogt Co. will continue their Big Sale and Bargain Week. Be sure and visit them.

SOME ATTRACTIONS.

For Wilmington Pleasure-Seekers During the Coming Week.

TWO EVENTS AT OPERA HOUSE

"A Stranger in New York" Wednesday.
French Opera Co. Saturday—"An Accidental Courtship" and Hibernian Sociable Monday Night.

The first theatrical attraction this week will be Hoyt's merry musical comedy, "A Stranger in New York," which will be played at the Opera House Wednesday night. It is the latest work of Mr. Charles Hoyt and, although scarcely six months old, is already a favorite in theatrical circles. The play is written very much after the manner of "A Trip to Chinatown" and presents the adventures of a man who goes to New York for the purpose of seeing the city. Miss Alice Holbrook plays the part of "Hattie," that of a charming girl companion who plans all the adventures, sings a song when need be and goes to the French ball. Mr. Jno. Gilbert, the well known comedian, is also a member of the company. The Charleston News and Courier of the 5th inst. says of the company's engagement in that city:

"A Stranger in New York" was presented before two audiences at the Academy of Music yesterday, and there was no mistaking the welcome given. The Stranger paid Charleston a visit last season, and many were familiar with his adventures in the great metropolis, but the story will bear repeating. Beginning at the reception room of the Hoffman House the evening ends at the Madison Square Garden, while the annual French ball is in progress. The fun begins with the arrival of the Stranger, and never ceases until the curtain is down for the last time. The men and women who conspire to give the Stranger a warm time succeed beyond their highest ambitions, and only because he is a thoroughbred does he come through alive. There is never a minute's rest for the Stranger, but he meets every wave now on, and has the time of his life—at a reasonable cost.

On Saturday night the French Opera Company now closing a very successful season in New Orleans, will entertain at the Opera House, presenting the popular Opera "Parisian Life." They will also give a matinee which they will play "Madam Agot." The company is highly endorsed and is being played by a clever company of artists.

To-morrow night in Hibernian Hall the annual sociable, by the Hibernian Society, will be given. The committee having the matter in charge is arranging to even out-do all previous records in the matter of providing amusements and delicious refreshments for the patrons. The great success which has attended previous sociables of the kind, under Hibernian auspices, affords abundant assurance that the sociable will be a delightful success. Music and dancing will be among the features of entertainment.

"An Accidental Courtship" is the title of an entertainment to be given in Abbie Chadbourn Memorial Hall to-morrow (Monday) evening. It will be on the eve of St. Valentine's Day, and the sale of valentine's, both comic and fancy, will be a feature of the evening. A committee of young ladies will serve refreshments and a programme of music, recitations, etc., has been arranged. Among them will be recitation by Miss Worth and a solo by Mrs. W. L. Latta. The event is to benefit the Sunday School library fund.

The Current Events Department of the North Carolina Societies will meet in regular session on Friday afternoon. The topic to be discussed is "Inventions" and the reading of papers treating of inventions of the day by talented members of the Department, will be features of the meeting.

A rare treat is in store for the Wilmington music-loving public on next Saturday night, the 18th inst., when the Louise Brehany Ballad and Opera Concert Company will entertain under the auspices of the Y. M. C. A. in the Association's auditorium. The company is headed by Miss Louise M. Brehany, a favorite prima donna, supported by a superb coterie of well known artists.

The programme they will render consists of choice ballads and scenes from operas, concluding with an act from the grand opera "Martha," beautifully costumed, with all scenery and paraphernalia.

General Secretary Caldwell was so fortunate enough to secure the engagement of this company by reason of the fact that the company finds that they will have to be here Saturday and Sunday whether they entertain or not, and they therefore give the association a special and very advantageous contract. They are of the regular $175 guarantee standard.

This will not be a Star Course feature. Members of the Y. M. C. A. will be admitted for 75 cents, and the general public for 50 cents.

The following is the personnel of the company: Louise M. Brehany, soprano; Mr. M. Guillaume Saviet, pianist; Miss Agnes Pringle, violinist; Miss Jessie Waters, mezzo; Mr. Lester Barrett Jones, tenor; Mr. Geo. Deh-lefs, baritone.

Additional Bargains have been displayed for this week's Big Sale at The C. W. Polvogt Co.

Don't miss the Bargain Week at The C. W. Polvogt Co.

CHANGE OF DEPOTS FOR A. AND Y. TRAINS.

C. F. and Y. V. Station to Close at 10 A. M. Wednesday—Trains to Arrive and Depart From A. C. L. Depot.

The old passenger and freight depot of the C. F. & Y. V. railroad, now the Atlantic & Yadkin, at the foot of Grace street, will be closed next Wednesday, the 15th inst., at 10 A. M., and thereafter all Atlantic & Yadkin trains will arrive and depart from the Front street depot of the Wilmington & Weldon (A. C. L.) Railroad Company. All freight business of the road will be transacted at the freight station of the same company.

The last train to leave the old C. F. and Y. V. depot will be the north-bound, at 8:50 A. M. Wednesday, and the first Atlantic and Yadkin train to come into the car shed of the A. C. L. depot on Front street will be the 7:05 P. M. train from Mount Airy on the same day.

As announced by the STAR on the morning after the meeting of the A. and Y. Board of Directors in Baltimore, the management of the C. F. & Y. V. property passes into the hands of the A. & Y. Co. and becomes a part of the Atlantic Coast Line system at midnight on the 14th inst. No announcement can yet be made as to what use will be made of the old C. F. & Y. V. depot or of the Point Peter station.

SOME WEATHER CONDITIONS.

Extremely Cold and Snowing Yesterday. Promise of Colder Times in the Old Town To-night.

Wilmington is now in the throes of decidedly the coldest wave yet experienced this season. At 3 o'clock this morning the thermometer stood at 23, having fallen about six degrees during the night. The ground is covered with about two and a half inches of snow, which fell during yesterday, and there is every indication of a continued snowfall to day.

The jingle of sleigh bells was heard for the first time this Winter in many parts of the city yesterday afternoon and merry companies of young people enjoyed "snow balling" and coasting to their hearts' content.

Mr. Fallon, the weather observer for this station, was seen by a member of the STAR staff last evening. He says there is every indication of still lower temperature to night. A fierce storm is raging on the South Atlantic coast, coming this way with considerable velocity, while the extreme cold wave prevailing through the North and West will lower the temperature still more in this section before it subsides, so that a really cold time may be expected in this old town to-night.

BOARD MANAGERS PRODUCE EXCHANGE

Met in Special Session Yesterday Morning. National Quinine Law Considered. A special meeting of the Board of Managers of the Produce Exchange was held at their rooms on Water street at 11:30 o'clock yesterday morning.

The president stated the meeting was for the consideration of taking action with reference to the enforcement of some quarantine legislation now pending in Congress, and read a telegram from President Jno. M. Parker, of the New Orleans Cotton Exchange, asking the co-operation of the Wilmington Produce Exchange in its efforts to secure the passage of the Caffery bill relating to quarantine, as it is amended at present.

He also read a telegram sent by Dr. Geo. G. Thomas to Dr. Walter Wyman, Surgeon General of the Marine Hospital Service at Washington. Dr. Thomas was present and by request spoke at some length of the benefits to be derived from the enactment of the law as at present amended.

On motion of Capt. Kennan, the bill as at present amended was endorsed by the Board of Managers and the secretary was instructed to send a communication to Congressman Martin apprising him of the action of the Board and asking his hearty support of the same. The secretary was also instructed to write to Mr. Parker, of the New Orleans Exchange, setting forth the action of the board.

Col. Cantwell at once complied with the instructions, and on motion the Board adjourned.

Small Fire Yesterday Afternoon.

An alarm of fire, sent in from box 49 yesterday afternoon, summoned the department to a small fire in the dwelling owned and occupied by John Pridden, colored, No. 420 Sixth street. The damage amounted to about $5 to house and $5 to furniture and was covered by insurance with Dr. W. W. Harris. A four-year-old girl of Pridden's fell into the fire-place and in attempting to extinguish the flames from the clothing of the child the inmates of the house set fire to the bed clothing.

City subscribers are earnestly requested to report promptly at the STAR office every failure of the carriers to deliver their papers. In all such cases steps will be taken to insure prompt and regular delivery.

The regular, bona fide circulation of THE MORNING STAR is much larger than that of any other daily newspaper published in Wilmington.

Swain, whose death occurred suddenly Friday night, at his home on Third between Queen and Wooster streets, will be conducted this afternoon from the family residence, Clarendon Lodge No. 2, Knights of Pythias, of which he was a valued member, will assemble at their lodge room at 2 o'clock this afternoon and attend the funeral in a body. The interment will be made in Bellevue cemetery.

To City Subscribers.

City subscribers are earnestly requested to report promptly at the STAR office every failure of the carriers to deliver their papers. In all such cases steps will be taken to insure prompt and regular delivery.

STATE PENITENTIARY

Bill Passed in the House of Representatives to Bring Day to Terms.

IT CUTS OFF ALL SUPPLIES.

Forbids Payment of Any Bill, Account or Salary Except on Written Order of New Executive Board—Resolution to Impeach Norwood.

[Special Star Telegram.]

RALEIGH, N. C., February 11.—A bill was introduced in the House this morning and passed, forbidding the State Treasurer "to pay any bill or account for the penitentiary until ordered to do so by the new executive board, in writing. That it shall be the duty of the executive board to issue to all officers of the State prison, and all employees of the prison, at farms, prisons, or in any other places, a written order for the salary, per diem, mileage or other amount due such officer or employee, and it shall be unlawful for the State Treasurer to pay such officer or employee any money on account of such salary, per diem, mileage or other account, except upon the written order of the board. The bill further provides, "That it shall be unlawful for any officer, agent, employee or other person to sell or dispose of a crop of any kind, or any other property whatsoever, belonging to the State's prison, except upon the written order of the executive board. Any person violating any section or provision of this act, shall be guilty of misdemeanor, and upon conviction thereof shall be fined not less than $100 and imprisoned not less than three months."

This is a war measure, intended to bring Capt. Day to terms. The executive board of the penitentiary consists of E. L. Travis, W. C. Newland and W. H. Osborne.

A resolution introduced by Mr. Holman, chairman of the Finance Committee, was adopted, providing that all bills which have passed the House, carrying appropriations, be held up in the Senate until it could be seen that they all amount to. Holman stated that this was intended to include all appropriation bills, so that they can be passed upon by the special Committee on Appropriations.

In the Senate.

The Senate met at 10 o'clock. Bills were introduced: To enable counties to levy a special tax and fund indebtedness; to instruct the Secretary of State to exchange Supreme Court Reports with the President of Hawaii; to appropriate $500 to the North Carolina rolling exposition car; to repeal the February term of the Circuit Court in Madison.

The following bills passed a third reading: To authorize Durham to issue school bonds.

To allow Tyrell to levy a special tax.

To incorporate the North and South Carolina Railway.

To create a graded school in Kinston.

To incorporate the Presbyterian Female College, Mecklenburg.

To establish a dispensary at Madison.

To restore to the government of Hawaii; to appropriate $500 to the North Carolina rolling exposition car; to repeal the February term of the Circuit Court in Madison.

The bill to increase the number of commissioners for the county of Northampton passed final reading.

Bills were introduced as follows: By Patterson of Robeson: To amend the charter of Red Springs Seminary; to extend time of organization of the Bank of Maxton.

By Winston: To add Northampton county to the Eastern Circuit Court.

By James: To drain Angola creek, Pender county, and protect oysters in Topsail township.
