It is said that Alger must walk the plank, because leading Republicans fear that if he remains in it will hurt the party. Hurting the party is what Alger could go on run the racket in his own way.

The esteemed Chicago Tribune, Republican, rises to remark that "the West is becoming very tired of Speaker Reed's tyranny." The Tribune, however, didn't find any fault with Reed's tyranny when he was playing it on a Democratic minority.

The whole matter is put in charge of the new Democratic Executive Board of the State's prison. It is proposed to abandon all leases on farms. Four farms have lost money annually, while the Northampton and Caledonia farms have made money. There is no order to purchase these farms, but it is left to the discretion of the board. ### The Election Law.

THE WILMINGTON CHAMBER OF COMMERCE.

Invites New England Newspaper League Here—Annual Election of Officers Postponed—Other Business.

An effort is to be made to induce the New England Newspaper League, scheduled to start from Boston Saturday on a tour of the South, to visit Wilmington. At a regular meeting of the Chamber of Commerce held yesterday afternoon a motion was adopted providing that an invitation be extended to the League to visit this city. And in the event the invitation is accepted the Chamber is to provide funds for defraying the expense of entertainment. The STAR has made brief reference to the plans and purposes of the League in previous issues; but additional reference to their plans and purposes will not be amiss.

The papers represented in the League are the Boston Traveller, Manchester Union, Springfield Daily News, Lewiston Journal, Lowell Mail, Concord Monitor, Portland Express, Burlington News, Providence News, Hartford Post, and Fall River News. The organizer, chief of staff and general manager of the League is C. F. King, a journalist of considerable reputation, who is a native of North Carolina and has many friends in this and other Southern States. Mr. Frank A. Davidson, of Boston, is secretary of the League and Mr. Frank H. Grader is advance agent and is already on a tour of Southern cities preparing the way for the coming of the League.

From day to day the several papers comprising the League will publish letters from their staff representatives. These letters will set forth the material progress and vast resources of the South, as observed by the League in their travels, and also tell of the entertainment accorded the League by the various cities visited. They will be on the road about six weeks and then each of the eleven newspapers represented will issue mammoth illustrated editions, devoted to the marvellous development and vast resources of the South.

Chamber of Commerce Meeting.

The Chamber of Commerce meeting was called to order at 3:30 o'clock by President James H. Chadborn, Jr. Col. J. L. Cantwell, the secretary, was at his desk, and the following members were present: Mr. Thos. F. Bagley, Capt. H. G. Smallbones, Mr. F. L. Woodruff, Mr. Owen F. Love, Mr. B. Mercer, Col. F. W. Kerchner, Capt. T. D. Meares, Mr. B. F. Keith and Mr. Wm. J. Martin.

On motion of Col. Kerchner, Mr. Jno. H. Brown, the broker, was elected a member of the chamber.

The secretary read a report, signed by Mr. DeWitt Love as chairman of the committee on extending an invitation to the New England newspaper League to visit this city. The report recommended that the League be invited. Mr. J. B. Mercer, who is a member of the committee, addressed the chamber, giving more fully the views of the committee and urging that the invitation be extended. On motion of Mr. T. F. Bagley, the invitation was extended.

Mr. B. F. Keith, as a member of the committee on procuring legislation enabling the city to purchase the Brunswick Ferry, reported that the committee, composed of himself, Mr. J. B. Mercer and Mr. M. W. Jacoby, only received notice of their appointment yesterday morning. He thinks it hardly probable that a bill can be gotten through the General Assembly at this late date.

The president announced that it was the regular time for the annual meeting, but on motion of Col. Kerchner, the hearing of annual reports and the election of officers for the ensuing year was postponed until the April meeting.

TO LIQUIDATE CHURCH DEBT.

Class No. 44 of Fifth Street M. E. Church Gave a Delightful Reception. Last Night.

At the cozy home of Mr. and Mrs. Jno. J. LeGwin last night Class No. 44, of Fifth Street Methodist Church, gave a delightful reception, attended by more than a hundred members and friends of the congregation.

The reception was the first of a series of similar events which will be given by this and other classes of Fifth Street Church. Rev. J. H. Hall, the pastor, recently divided the church into fifty classes, appointing a leader for each and allowing them to select the members of their respective classes. Each of these classes is expected to serve during the four years term of Rev. Mr. Hall's pastorate, and raise $50 each year toward the liquidation of the church debt. If each fulfills their mission, at the end of the four years the church will be out of debt.

It was Mrs. Jno. J. LeGwin's class which entertained last night, and the members of her class are Miss McGirt, Mrs. George Jackson, Mr. J. J. LeGwin, Miss Sallie Richards, Mrs. W. H. Hardy and Mrs. Carrie Gardner.

Features of entertainment last night were music, games and refreshments. Every attendant seemed to thoroughly enjoy the evening. Class 44 has set a high standard to which entertainments by other classes will be expected to attain. A creditable sum of money was realized.

AT THE OPERA HOUSE.

"Under the Red Robe" to be Presented To-night With the Original Scenery and Costumes.

"Under the Red Robe" comes to the Opera House to-night with all the original scenery and beautiful costumes. The organization, which is a large and brilliant one, is headed by William Morris, an actor who has long been associated with metropolitan successes, notably those of Charles Froman's. He is a fine, handsome and manly actor, and in romantic roles none since the days of Fechter has equalled his impersonations. As Gil de Berault in "Under the Red Robe" he gives a vivid picture of a swab-buckling cavalier and guardian of Cardinal Richelieu during the reign of Louis XIII. The costumes and scenery of olden France will be shown to fine advantage. Mr. Julius Cahn's company is highly praised everywhere.

Seats can now be obtained at Gerken's.

ANNUAL PURIM BALL.

Given by Ladies of the Congregation of Israel to the Children.

Yesterday afternoon and last night, MacRae Hall, the rendezvous of the Harmony Circle, was the scene of a delightful event. It was the annual Purim ball given by the ladies of the Congregation of the Temple of Israel.

The ball from 4 to 8 P. M. was complimentary to the children of the congregation and from 8 to 11:30 the grown-up people were the participants. During the portion of the time devoted to the children there was music and dancing followed by an elegantly served supper. Each of the children received an appropriate souvenir. Music and dancing were subsequently the chief pastime for the grown-up people. The music was by the Italian band. A supper was served about 11 o'clock. The Purim ball will long be remembered by the Temple of Israel congregation, young and old, as a most delightful event.
