Informal speeches were made by quite a number of prominent members of both lodges, and the time was pleasantly spent in fraternal conversation about Odd Fellowship in all of its phases. Wilmington Lodge conferred the third degree on three candidate at its regular meeting just prior to the social

New Candidate for Base Ball Honors.

The "Duie Base Ball Club" was organized last night, with Mr. Jas. Black manager and Mr. W. P. Oldham, Jr., captain. The club is composed of some of the very best base ball talent that the city affords. They have adopted white and blue as their colors. The practices for prospective players on the regular team are to begin at once, and the manager and captain promise some really interesting games during the coming season. The club has adopted as a sort of club yell, "Dewey play ball; we guess we do."

GREAT SUCCESS.

Scored by the Wilmington Paint and Powder Club Last Night.

OPERA THE HOUSE.

Large and Representative Audience Ac cords High Praise for Presentation of "Comedy and Tragedy" and "The Merry Maid."

It is the general verdict of the large and fashionable audience which assembled at the Opera House last night to witness the annual appearance of the Wilmington Paint and Powder Club that another brilliant success has been added to the club's record in past seasons for splendid histronic achivements. Their double bill "Comedy and Tragedy" and "The Merry Maid," were presented in a manner which would do great credit to a professional company. Every member of the club is deserving of particular mention and sincere praise for their interpretation of the roles allotted to them.

In the curtain-raiser, "Comedy and Tragedy," the leading characters, Clarice and M. le Duc d' Orleans, Regent of France, were taken respectively by Miss Hattie Taylor and Mr. James H. Cowan. Both won especial applause for their strong work. Then, too, their support was all that could be desired, Miss Annie Lee playing Pauline; Mr. W. F. Robertson, D'Aulnay, Clarice's Husband; Mr. Walker Vick, Docteur Choquart; Mr. James Cotchett, ! Monsieur De la Ferte and Mr. Thos. H. Wright the double role of Joseph and Viscomte de Mauzun. The costumes for the play were very elaborate and beautifully designed. Miss Taylor was accorded protracted applause for her remarkably good interpretation of her most dificult role. She is a truly versatile Amateur.

"The Merry Maid" is in three acts, representing "morning," "noon" and Shackelton, which character was excellently interpreted by Mr. W. F. Robertson. Miss Taylor was also the star in this play, assuming the role of Jane, scoring, if possible, a bigger success than in the curtain-raiser. Miss Nessie Cotchett, as Mrs. Chadwick, was also especially happy in her conception of the character and displayed very much histronic talent.

Miss Eliza McPherson, as Miss Lucu Norton, did her part in a charming manner, as did Miss Annie Lee as Mrs. Pixton. The other characters, all of which were strongly impersonated, were: Mr. Kershaw, by Mr. Thos. H. Wright; William, by Mr. James H. Cowan; Claude, by Mr. James G. Cotchett, and Pixton, by Mr. Walker W. Vick.

During the presentation of the third act Mr. James H. Cowan won uproarious applause by his "a la 'Pas-Ma-La' dance and cake walk."

Truly the performance last night was a big success as an entertainment and besides netted a creditable sum for the "Shelter of the Silver Cross."

Other cities in the State-Newbern, Goldsboro, Durham, Winston-Salem, Raleigh and Fayetteville-are to be congratulated upon the fact that the Club will visit them.

Mr. Cutlar Lee left as advance agent yesterday, and, as previously announced, the Club will be on the road all the week, playing first in Newbern on Monday night, and playing in the other cities in the order heretofore named, with the exception that they will play in Fayetteville on Saturday night instead of Monday night.

ORDERED TO LEAVE TOWN.

V. R. Terry Given This Opportunity of Escaping Punishment for Assault.

The most interesting case before the police court yesterday morning was hat of W. R. Terry for assaulting J. Tillman Howard with a pistol, particulars of which were given in yesterday's STAR. He was represented by Empie & Empie, who succeeded, view of the fact that the prosecutor in the case was unwilling to push the matter, in having him released upon condition that he would leave town on the afternoon S. A. L. train. He was held in custody until the departure of the train and Policeman Woebse was detailed to see that he complied with the requirements of the court as to leaving.

There was no evidence introduced that the defendant was guilty of carrying concealed weapons and consequently he was not held on this charge.

The Sale of Second-Hand Clothing Being Seriously Considered by Health Departments of Several Cities.

In making his regular monthly report to the Board of Aldermen at its meeting April 2d, Dr. McMillan, the city superintendent of health, recommended, among other things, that some steps be taken to prevent the spread of infectious diseases from the sale of second-hand clothing, which he explained is a very common source for the origination of smallpox, yellow fever and other contagious dis-

For some reason no action was taken, either by the sanitary committee of the board or by the aldermen themselves.

The matter is being seriously considered in Newbern, Raleigh and other cities in the State. The following is from the Raleigh News and Observer of yesterday: The City Board of Health yesterday very properly took prompt action touching the sale of second-hand clothing in this city.

The special dispatch in this paper from New York disclosing the fact that clothing taken from dead bodies there was being shipped to Raleigh and other Southern cities and sold without ever being disinfected in the second-hand clothing stores caused the health authorities to awake to a realization of the great danger threat.

realization of the great danger threat ening the city from this source. Dr. McKee recommended that the second-hand clothing in stores which handle such goods be thoroughly baked at a temperature of 240 degrees. and that no more shipments of second hand clothing be allowed to be received here unless the shipment is ac companied by a certificate from the Board of Health of the city from which it is shipped.
City Attorney Busbee thought that very stringent ordinance should be adopted relative to the shipment of second hand clothing. He also thought that a tax ought to be levied

LOCAL SHIPPING NEWS.

Business Active With Brokers and Shippers Yesterday-Remarkable Tow of the Alexander Jones.

Yesterday was the most active day in local shipping that interested persons have experienced for some time. The tug Alexander Jones, in charge of Capt. Adkins, brought a very heavy tow from Charleston-the two barges Maria Dolores and Carrie L. Tyler, one with 700 tons and the other with 518 tons of dry phosphate rock for the Navassa Guano Co. The tow was arranged by Mr. W. B. Chisholm, the able manager of the Berkeley branch of the Virginia-Carolina Chemical Co., of Charleston, S. C. It is not often that so large a "tow" is made, but Mr. Chisolm arranged it so well that it was a success. Capt. Bonneau was in charge of the barges. S. W., 46 miles from the bar they passed a ship's boat, bottom up. apparently but a short time adrift. The schooner Cherubim, Capt. Houghton, also arrived yesterday. She is from New York and is consigned to Messrs. Geo. Harriss, Son & Co., with a cargo of fertilizing maerial for the Navassa Guano Co. The Nicaraguan brigantine Alice Bradshaw, Capt. Hammond, also arrived from New York yesterday, to Messrs. J. T. Riley & Co., to complete her cargo of lumber for Port-Au-

Prince, Hayti. The British steamship Glenwood, Capt. Mehegan, which has been here for several days, was cleared yesterday for Tampa, Fla., in ballast.

AN ENTERTAINMENT TO-NIGHT.

Everybody is Invited to Visit the St. James Parish House.

"One of You Must Marry," the play to be presented at the O. A. N. and A. C. L. entertainment to-night will doubtless be a big success, Mrs. W. P. Oldham, Jr., as Aunt Ethel, Miss Annie Taylor, as Louisa, her niece, and Messrs. W. P. Oldham, Jr., as Jacob, and E. T. Huggins, as Wilhelm, her two nephews, will play this laughable comedy. Miss Gillican, who is well known in local circles as an accomplished delsarte artist, has consented to aid the boys.

While it is possible that Messrs. Sinclair and Hatch would feel more at home on the "diamond" or "gridiron" than managing an entertainment, it is certain that they will leave no stone unturned in making this entertainment a success. They will be then ready to receive all their friends and make them feel at home. The entertainment is for the benefit of the two base ball teams and the STAR hopes the boys will be successful in their undertaking. Everybody is invited.

Notary Jno. J. Fowler will sit with Notary Wallace in the hearing of the

Mr. Bellamy also received notice yesterday that evidence in rebuttal will be taken before W. M. Kelley, N. P., at Rockingham, N. C., to-morrow, Saturday, 15th inst., beginning at 8 o'clock A. M. Among the witnesses to be examined are Claudius Dockery, Esq., and ex-Sheriff A. M. Long.

MISS PARCELLO'S RECITALS

Children's Matinee Saturday and Reci tal Next Wednesday Under Auspices of the Hospital Circle.

The STAR announces with pleasure hat Miss Marie Parcello, the famous contralto, who arrived here a few days ago from New York, will on Saturday afternoon April 15th, give a children's matinee in Abbie Chadbourn Memorial Hall, under the auspices of the Hospital Circle of the King's Daughters. The programme will consist of pretty and dainty songs, which will especially catch the ear of the children and will also be highly pleasing for grown-up people. Miss Parcello has an international reputation as a vocalist. The London Dramatic News says of her: "Marie Parcello, contralto, whose peautiful voice and unique personality created such a sensation in London, Paris and Nice, whenever she appeared in concerts, has been singing the past winter in New York with notable success. The Summons in the Proceedings Brought by Abbott Served On Beddingfield.

THE PENITENTIARY MUDDLE.

Directors' Meeting Postponed to Monday, April 27th—Cruiser Raleigh—Insane Asylum-Ewart's Appointment. Cattle Quarantine.

[Special Star Correspondence.] RALEIGH, N. C., April 13. A suit for damages was to-day instituted against the Raleigh Electric Company for the killing of a negro lineman, James Mitchell. The action is brought by Sallie Mitchell, administratrix. Mitchell was in the employ of the Bell Telephone Company as lineman, and while at work in January one of the wires he was pulling up came in contact with an electric light wire, which it is claimed was not prop-erly insulated and he was instantly

The Penitentiary Trouble. The time for the meeting of the penitentiary directors was to-day changed from Saturday next to Thursday April 27th, at 10 o'clock. This was done after conference between Capt. Day and the new executive board, in order to give the directors sufficient notice to secure a full attendance.

This afternoon the executive board ordered Treasurer Worth to issue $110,000 four per cent. ten year bonds as authorized by the last Legislature, to pay off the indebtedness of the penitentiary. As no decision in regard to buying State farms has yet been reached, the bonds authorized for that purpose will not be issued. Whether or not Day can without consent of the new board avail himself of the $50,000 appropriated annually for support 'of the penitentiary is an open question. Day says he can do so under the law of 1897, which is put in force again by the decision. The Fountain Cotton Mills, of Tar boro, is incorporated, with $100,000 capital stock.
