THE SOIREE BY MISS LORD'S PUPILS.

Held in Germania Hall Last Night-A Great Success - A Credit to Participants and Instructor. Miss Lord's soiree given to her afternoon dancing class, in Germania Hall last night was witnessed by quite a large number of Wilmington's best people and every one is enthusiastic in praise for the participants and their gifted instructor. The hall was prettily decorated and the "lads and lassies" were attired in charming costumes in thorough keeping with the title of the evening's programme, "Wee Folks from Large Countries." The first feature of the evening was a grand march led by Masters Joseph

Armstrong and Joe Smith. This was a beautiful inaugural for the series of beautiful figures and graceful dances which followed in rapid succession during the evening. The second feature of the programme was "Sailors Hornpipe," rendered by six charming girls-Misses Ella Jacobs, Christine Stevenson, Ber-> bones. Master Willie Smith led the whole class through a beautiful german figure followed by a waltz during which the excellence and effectiveness of the instruction received from Miss Lord was forceably demonstrated in the deportment of the individual dancers. The waltz was followed by a very pretty rendering of the "Highland Fling" by Miss Sadie Baker and Master Will Gore.

tie Hansen, Theo. Cantwell, Beck

Love Johnson and Isabelle Small:

One of the very prettiest and best received features of the evening was the "Cachuca," or Spanish Dance, by ten pretty and richly-costumed girls. They were Misses Bessie Latimer, Bessie Gore, Etta Furpless, Annie Harper, Nellie Heiser, Mildred Hunt, Florie Grant, Viola Livingston, Alice Reilly and May Belle Sneed. After the Spanish dance there was another pretty and well executed german figure-Vorsourianull-led by Marion James and Joe Smith. Miss Amoret Lord and Master Willie Watters were accorded a perfect storm of applause for their especially good rendering of a comic Irish figure. They were appropriately attired and entered heartily into the characters they impersonated.

Six ladies and gentlemen next came upon the floor and danced the minuet with especial grace. They were: Miss Nora Angel with Mr. Richard Bradley; Miss Sallie Bell Jackson with Mr. Parker Lewis; Miss Neppie Borden with Mr. Harry Smallbones; Miss Beth Daggett with Mr. Zack Bell; Miss Athalia McIntire with Mr. Julian Southerland: Miss Mima Webster with Mr. Russell Foster, and Miss Carrie Duffy with Mr. Tom Meares.

The minuet was followed by another pretty german figure and two step, led by Eugene LeGrand and Norwood Orrell.

A wave of patriotism swept the hall when three little Misses wearing national colors came upon the floor and Mrs. Lord, the pianist, played a bar of "Star Spangled Banner," and then in tune to appropriate music they gracefully executed the skirt dance. The girls were Miss Bessie Lattimer (red), Miss Anna Parsley (white) and Miss Jennie Jackson (blue.)

Master William Watters rendered a 'clown dance," which was enthusiastically cheered. He proved himself a remarkably expert dancer for a boy of his age. This was the last feature of the programme.

Besides those whose names were mentioned above as participants in the programme there were the following: Misses Agnes McQueen, Maud Parker, Alta Hicks, Helen Hicks, Nellie Durham, Elise Emerson, May Parker, Almeria Stevenson, Edna Toomer, Lottie Pleasants, Helen Pleasants, Mary Cantwell, Lottie Duffy, Ida Evans, Louise Evans, Virginia Cooper, Alice Smith, Mary Filyaw, Cornelia Filyaw, Eleanor Gilchrist, Althalia LeGrand, Mary Crosswell, Louise Bellamy and Ida Brown. Messrs. Joe Worth, Victor Grainger, Merrell Blair, Macks Parker, John S.
Armstrong, Lcuis Belden, Yeunier
Gaylord, Walter Storm, Charlie Morris, Louis Orrell, Clayton Smith, Platt
Davis, Willie Lord, Earl Crosswell,

After the soirce all the pupils participated in an after german, which continued for two hours.

MAGNOLIA, N. C., May 9. We had a dreadful storm of hail, wind and rain yesterday afternoon. One mile and a half from here strawberries were nearly all destroyed, but the storm was not quite so bad here. Our largest strawberry farmer lost seven acres, and will pick few if any more this season. The rows between were even full of hail, and cart loads could have been shovelled up at 8 o'clock last night, and the forests looked like Winter. This is the second hail in two weeks. All crops of truck have a poor stand, and are very backward.

GROCERIES.

Having engaged in the Dry Goods business, have this day sold to Mr. R. C. DeRosset the BOOK AND STATIONERY business conducted by me at No. 107 Market street, Wilmington, N. C., and earnestly bespeak for him a continuance since the opening of the business. All accounts due me are payable to Mr. DeRosset.

I have purchased the BOOK AND STATION-ERY business of Mr. Warren S. Johnson and shall continue the same at his old stand, No. 107 Market street. By moderate prices and fair treatment I hope to merit and receive a fair proportion of the public patronage. Consult my prices before purchasing else of that Company for the six months ending April 30th, 1899. Dividend due and payable at the office of the Treasurer on and after May 10th, 1899. Transfer books will stand closed from April 30th, 1899, to May 11th, 1899, inclusive.
