According to the U. S. Geological Survey Mount McKinley, in Alaska, is 28,471 feet high, 2,440 feet higher

The mistake that Dr. Brown Se-

There is all the difference in the

A lawyer in New York owes his life to a wallet which contained of bills and hung up in a ten. This shows that in emergencies a wad of paper money is a good thing to have.

A German Professor has been made in nature's laboratory, from fessor, isn't coal oil at all. But how does he account for the fact that most of this oil is found in coal fields or in proximity to them?

LOCAL DOTS.

and there were very few even at this price.

OFFICERS ELECTED.

The Stockholders of the Delgado Cotton Mill Met at Noon Yesterday.

MR. E. C. HOLT IS PRESIDENT.

Mr. R. R. Bellamy Vice President and Mr.
J. W. Williamson Sec. and Treas.
Excavations for the Buildings to Commence Next Week.

The organization of the Delgado Cotton Mill Company, Wilmington's new $250,000 enterprise, was perfected yesterday by the election of the following officers:
President—Mr. E. C. Holt, late of Burlington.

Vice President—Mr. Robt. R. Bellamy, of Wilmington.
Secretary and Treasurer—Mr. J. W.
Williamson, late of Burlington.
Board of Directors—Col. K. M. Murchison, Mr. E. C. Holt, Mr. J. W.
Williamson, Mr. E. J. Powers, Mr. J.
James H. Chadbourn, Jr., Mr. R. R.
Bellamy of Wilmington and Col.
Julian S. Carr of Durham.

The meeting of the stockholders during which the Board of Directors was elected was held at noon in the Court House, a large majority of the stock being represented. Mr. Robt. R. Bellamy presided and Mr. J. W. Williamson was secretary.

Aside from the election of the seven directors named above, the business transacted was of a routine character, consisting of the acceptance of the new charter issued by the Secretary of State and the adoption of by-laws governing the management of the company's business.

A resolution was adopted instructing the Board of Directors to exercise all possible dispatch in the erection and equipment of the new mills so that the plant can be in operation not later than January 1st, 1900.

Session of the Directors.
After the meeting of the stockholders adjourned the directors met and elected the president, vice president and secretary and treasurer. They also discussed at length the plans for the prosecution of the work.

President Holt told a STAR reporter last night that the excavations for the foundations of the buildings will commence next week. He says that the contract for the erection of the mills has not yet been awarded, but that he has practically decided to whom it will be given, the contract having not yet, however, been signed. He declined to say who the contractors would most probably be.

May Be Zachary & Zachary.
The Raleigh News and Observer, yesterday, contains the following:
"Zachary & Zachary, the well known contractors of Raleigh, have received the contract to construct Wilmington's new $250,000 cotton factory, the Delgado Mills.

This is a very large contract, and it is gratifying to know that a Raleigh contractor has gotten it. This firm is composed of Mr. H. C. Zachary and his son, A. D. Zachary. They are North Carolinians, and during the last five years have handled many big contracts, among them being the Pilot Cotton Mills, the Tarboro Cotton Mills, the E. M. Holt Plaid Mills, at Burlington, the University Inn, at Chapel Hill, the new addition to the North Carolina Insane Asylum here.

The firm expects to open a branch office in Wilmington shortly. They do a big business in the building material line, both wholesale and retail, and will make a notable addition to Wilmington's business interests."

FINAL REHEARSAL TONIGHT.

For the Sacred Concert at Fifth Street M. E. Church Friday Night—An Excellent Programme.

Mr. Charles McMillin is musical director in charge of the rehearsals for the grand sacred concert to be given in the Fifth Street Methodist Church on Friday night of this week.
He is especially anxious that the participation of all who shall be a full attendance at the final rehearsal to be held to-night.
There is every assurance that the highest success will attend the rendition of the programme to-morrow night. The STAR some days ago published a list of the ladies and gentlemen who are to participate embracing, in the number, much of the very best talent that the city afford. The selections to be rendered are all of the very highest order of musical excellence.
So that there is every harbinger of a royal feast of local and instrumental music for patrons of the recital. The proceeds, from a small admission fee, will, as STAR readers are aware, be devoted to the liquidation of the church debt. The STAR bespeaks for the concert a liberal patronage.

Pythias Memorial Service.
The Pythian Lodge of Wilmington will hold a joint memorial service on Sunday night, June 11th, in the First Baptist Church. The pastor, Rev.
Calvin S. Blackwell, who is a Pythian, will deliver the memorial sermon, and there will be special music and other appropriate ceremonies. The order for this service was issued by Grand Chancellor T. S. Franklin, and applies to all subordinate lodges of the State.

On account of commencement Horner's Military School, Oxford, N. C., May 29th to June 8th, the Seaboard Air Line offer round trip tickets to Oxford, N. C., at $7.40 for the round trip. Tickets to be sold May 28th, 29th and 30th, with final limit June 4th, 1899.

TELEGRAPH SUPTS. PLEASED

With Wilmington and Lower Cape Fear Hospitality—Mr. Edison's Gift to Miss Williams.

Letters being received by people of this city, from members of the Association of Railway Telegraph Superintendents were abundant evidence that the members of that distinguished organization were favorably impressed with Wilmington and the entertainment accorded them while here recently in annual convention. A STAR reporter has been shown several letters which were especially complimentary, but being of a personal character could not be published.

The STAR through an inadvertency failed to announce yesterday a generous and valuable gift by Mr. Thomas A. Edison to Miss Emma Williams, daughter of Captain and Mrs. W. F.
Williams, now of Portsmouth.

He presented to her the new Edison Concert Grand Phonograph which was used with much delightful effect in the parlors of the Orton on the evening of the concert complimentary to the Association of Railway Telegraph Superintendents during their recent convention.

Mr. Edison first met Miss Williams in Portsmouth when he arrived there as the guest of the Railway Telegraph Superintendents to accompany them to Wilmington.

THOMAS HUGHES DEAD.

Old Soldier Who Was Secretly Assaulted Died Yesterday From Wounds.

Thomas Hughes, the old soldier who was so horribly beaten and mangled a few days ago, died yesterday morning about 9 o'clock at the City Hospital.

He did not regain consciousness prior to his death and the identity of his assailant or assailants is still a matter of doubt.

In consideration of his faithful devotion to the "Lost Cause" and the fact that he was the only surviving member of Col. E. D. Hall's famous company, the "Eggers," a number of the members of Cape Fear Camp Comfederate Veterans attended the burial.

Rev. P. C. Morton, pastor of Immanuel Presbyterian Chapel, himself an enthusiastic veteran, conducted the funeral from the lodge at Oakdale cemetery where the interment was made. The following were the pall bearers.

Honorary—Col. F. W. Kerchner, Col. W. J. Woodford, Capt. E. W.
Manning, Messrs. B. F. Penny, J. A.
Everett, Jeff Smith, A. D. Casaux, A. J. Hill and F. W. Ortmann.
Active—Capt. James I. Metts, Capt.
George W. Huggins, Messrs. Sol Bear, R. F. Hamme, DeLeon Fillyaw, and
P. Heinsberger.

Mayor's Slim Duck Yesterday.
The municipal court was presided over yesterday morning by Mayor Waddell, who has been absent for several days at Durham and Greensboro. There were however only two trivial cases for drunkenness and disorderly conduct. The offenders were Wm. Blocker and Jno. Chesnut, both colored, and they were each fined $5 and costs.

A Complimentary German.
Miss Cammie Lord will give a German complimentary to the gentlemen of her evening class who have taken a session since Easter on the evening of Friday, June 2nd, or Monday, June 5th. The German will mark the close of her dancing school for the season.
Miss Lord will conduct a Summer dancing school at Southport.

ENJOYABLE ENTERTAINMENT

By the Ladies of St. Paul's Church in St. James' Parish House
Last Night.

A delightful programme was rendered in St. James' Parish house last night, the occasion being the entertainment by the ladies of St. Paul's Episcopal church. The hall was prettily decorated, the rostrum decorations being arranged with especial taste, in the ornate of festoons, the grouping of potted plants and arrangement of stage furniture. The first number on the programme was a well rendered piano solo by Mr. James Craft, Jr. Miss Home next sang quite creditably "The Flight of the Ages," responding to an enthusiastic encore with another appropriate selection.

Mr. George Hewlett sang several original topical songs.
Misses Amorel Wooten and Isabella Belden elicited hearty applause by the rendition of a piano duet entitled "Andante and Rondo."

Miss Cooper and Mr. C. H. Cooper sang a duet which was much complimented. As a response to an encore Mr.
Cooper rendered a solo, Miss Cooper playing the piano accompaniment.

An especially pleasant feature of the evening was a dance—Highland Fling —executed by little Miss Sadie Booker and Master Willie Gore, members of Miss Lord's dancing school. Miss Mildred Hunt very creditably rendered the piano music for the dance. A persistent encore induced Miss Booker to return to the rostrum and render a series of other very pretty and difficult fancy dance figures.

After the rendition of the programme seasonable refreshments were served by the ladies of the church.

THE INTER-STATE COMPANY.

Some Telephone Notes That May Be Interesting—Line to Goldsboro.

The Inter-State Telephone Company hopes to have their city exchange conveniently located in its new quarters on the third floor of the Bear building, corner Front and Princess streets, within the next few days.
Some work on the building preparatory to the change has already been done, and the workmen are already in the city to complete all arrangements.

Mr. Simmons, manager of the City Exchange, tells the STAR that the new line to the Orton plantation and other points down the river is now completed and the phones are working nicely. It is not at all improbable that in the near future a line to Southport will be constructed.

Work is progressing rapidly on the Goldsboro line and will be completed very soon, thus giving Wilmington direct communication with Raleigh and points on the Elmira line, which was recently purchased by the Inter-State Company.

The local wires and the line to Wrightsville are also being very much improved.

MAJISTRATES' COURTS YESTERDAY.

All of Them Did a Rushing Business in Cases of Little Importance.

Ed Smith, Mag. Baldwin, Ella Patrick, Alice Honagan and Louise Murphy, all colored, were arraigned in Justice McGowan's court for disorderly conduct, each of them for a separate and distinct offence. All except Smith, who was fined $5, were let off with costs. Donald Taylor and Marshall Stallings, two colored youths, for the indiscriminate use of a pistol near the city limits, were each required to pay the costs in their respective cases.

The Stallings boy was also tried for carrying concealed weapons, but the evidence was insufficient to convict.

Before Justice Fowler yesterday Sister Lucas, a notorious character, was tried for disorderly conduct, but as the offence was a trivial one she was dismissed with costs.

Alex. Merrick, a colored man, was also before Justice Fowler yesterday.
He was charged with having made an assault upon a colored woman in the colored settlement in the eastern part of the city. The case was not an important one and the defendant was also let off with the costs.

Justice Bornemann also tried a large number of trivial cases yesterday.

NORTH CAROLINA BONDS.

Raleigh's Population—Another Federal Convict Whipped—Insurance Men.
The A. & M. College.

[Special Star Correspondence.]
RALEIGH, N. C., May 24.
Ten thousand dollars worth of North Carolina 6 per cent. bonds were sold here this morning for $14,100, or $141 for $100. This is the highest price at which these securities have ever been brought to sell. They were issued twenty years ago and still have twenty years more to run. The bonds were sold by parties in Virginia and bought by capitalists here.

Another Federal convict in the penitentiary here has been whipped. His name is Ben Davis, a negro. Punished once, he refused to submit, but went to the shop and got a knife and a hoe, and, backing up in a corner, swore that he would kill the man who came to him. He was finally overpowered and punished again.

The new city directory gives Raleigh a population of 27,972. This includes all the immediate suburbs, such as Brooklyn, Oberlin, Idlewild, Pilot Mills and Caraleigh Mills.

Insurance men here and elsewhere are much stirred up by the decision of the officers of the companies they represent not to continue doing business in the State after the Craig law becomes effective.

Among those prominently suggested for the presidency of the A. & M. College is Prof. M. C. S. Noble. Others whose names are urged in this connection are President Winston, of the University of Texas, and J. Y. Joyner, of the State Normal and Industrial College.
