He is relief agent and operator for the Coast Line at Burgaw. One of the "Exiles" Comes Back. Arie Bryant, one of the negroes who were expelled from the city last Fall, came back yesterday, arriving at 12.15 o'clock on the Newbern train. There was a good deal of talk about his re- turn—some of it of a threatening na- ture, but so far no decided attitude to- wards the unwelcome citizen has been taken. It is thought by some that if Bryant is allowed to remain, Tom Miller, who is now in Norfolk, will take the risk also. It is known that	commissioner to put Darkley-under a bond for his appearance as a witness in the case against Mr. Marshall. Brooke Emple, Esq., made a vigorous protest against this, and insisted that his client must be turned loose. The court ruled that no case had been made out, that the prisoner was discharged and that the case against Mr. Marshall was now beyond his jurisdiction and he had no right now to bind a witness over in that case. He, therefore, told Darkley that he could go. He was a happy looking man when he left the courtfroom with his counsel and Tony Fantopula. The Re-arrest. As soon as the court was adjourned Detective Perry went at once and telephoned to Judge Purnell at Sea- shore Hotel on Wrightsville beach and acquainted him with the fact that Theodo Darkley had been set at lib-	M. of WC.
