HULL INSPECTORSHIP.

The Rice-Gannon Contest Assumed No Definite Aspect Yesterday.

BOTH PARTIES IN CHARLESTON

Mr. Rice Left Yesterday Afternoon for the Stage of Action and is Confident of Winning - Captain Gannon Already There.

There was nothing new here in the Rice Gannon contest over the hull in spectorship yesterday.

Mr. Rice, who stoutly contends that he is the regularly appointed successor to Captain Gannon and that he is only debarred from entering unhampered into the duties of the office by the refusal of Captain Gannon to examine his credentials, left yesterday after for Charleston, where he says he will again present the papers and if possible take charge of the office.

Capt. Gannon upon the occasion of Mr. Rice's first visit to Charleston, as was stated in yesterday's paper, refused to examine the papers of Mr. Rice unless formally presented at the Inspector's office at the Custom House in Charleston, which Mr. Rice claims he was unable to do from the fact that the office was closed and Captain Gannon was on his way to Wilmington and Newbern.

The Charleston News and Courier

of yesterday says: "Capt W. H. Gannon, inspector of hulls and steam vessels, returned from Newbern, N. C., last night where he went in the performance of his duties. It will be remembered that Mr. F. B. Rice, of Wilmington. wants Captain Gannon's job very badly, and demanded it of him Tuesday. Capt. Gan non refused to give it up because Mr. Rice was not armed with a commission. Mr. Rice claimed that his commission was in Wilmington, and he would have it that night. Wednesday morning Capt. Gannon left here for Newbern, and Mr. Rice went on the same train, and told Capt. Gannon that he had received his commission resent it on the train Mr. Gannon informed the aspirant for salary that his office was in Charleston and that he was not transacting official business on railroad trains. Both gentlemen went on to Newbern, and both made inspections. Mr. Rice did not return to Charleston last night, but is quoted as having said that he would come here Saturday and demand the place again."

About the same salary is attached to the position which Mr. Rice now holds at the Wilmington Custom House as will be paid for his services as steamboat hull inspector, but it is claimed by Mr. Rice that in the event he is successful in ousting Capt. Gannon, he will not be so much subjected to recurring administrations in the office of hull inspector.

A special Washington dispatch to the Baltimore Sun under date of July 27th, has the following with reference to the salaries:

The Treasury Department has readjusted the salaries of the local steamboat inspectors for the next fiscal year on the basis of the number of ships they inspected last year. The law provides a salary of $1,200 for inspectors of hulls and of boilers who inspect 100 boats a year, or less, and in increasing proportion up to $2,500, the salary drawn by the New York inspectors who inspect over 500 yessels yearly.

The salary for hull inspector in the Charleston district, embracing Wilmington and Newbern, follows the dispatch and is given as $1,500.

Local Republican authorities claim to know nothing of who is likely to succeed Mr. Rice in the event of his acceptance of the permanent inspec-

PIPKIN'S NORPOLK EXCURSION

Most Enjoyable of the Season-Returned Yesterday-Excellent Management. Pipkin's excursion from Norfolk,

Washington and Baltimore returned to the city at 5 o'clock yesterday afternoon, having left Norfolk yesterday morning and arrived here on strictly schedule time.

The train left Norfolk with eleven coaches, well filled with passengers, and the entire trip was made without an accident. Passengers left the train at various points between Wilmington and Norfolk, as far north as Tarboro, and the fact that no delay was occasioned thereby is a handsome testimonial to Mr. Pipkin as an excursion manager of clever ability.

About two-thirds of the excursion ists went through from Norfolk to Washington and Baltimore.

Por Strawberry Pickers.

Mr. J. L. Anders, of Pecan, Bladen county, has secured through Messrs. Munn & Co., patent attorneys, Washington, D. C., a patent on a device for protecting the fingers of strawberry pickers. The device consists of simple rubber finger tips vulcanized, into which small pieces of steel are inserted for protection's sake. Mr. Anders says the invention has been shown to a number of prominent berry growers in eastern North Carolina and that he has received some very flattering offers for the new idea.

Runaway Yesterday. A mule attached to one of the city trash carts became frightened near corner of Front and Market streets yesterday afternoon and made things lively along Market to Second street for some minutes. The mule ran up Second street a short distance and turned completely around and retraced his steps to the starting point, where he was stopped. About the middle of the block the runaway ran into a road cart and horse belonging to Squire Wm. McD. Evans, but did only slight damage.

INCREASING POPULARITY.

More Than Two Hundred Passengers Or the Wilmington Last Night-Two Trips to Sea Next Week.

There was a gay time on Carolina Beach last night. The moonlight excursion on the steamer Wilmington carried down more than 200 people on the 7.30 trip. The pleasures of the dance at Oceanic Hotel were shared by a large number of young people. The show in the pavilion by the Phillips Minstrel troupe also attracted a large crowd and afforded much amusement The steamer returned from the Beach about midnight.

Capt. Harper continues to make additions to the attractiveness of his 5.15 and 7.30 trips. He has arranged for a good band to play on the boat during each of these trips daily. It will be of interest to note that on Tuesday the Wilmington will make a trip to sea with Hatch Bros.' excur sion from Mt. Olive and Goldsboro, the boat meeting the excursion train at the A. C. L. wharf at 9 A. M. and proceed at once to sea fifteen miles and return.

There will also be another trip to sea on Thursday, when the excursionists from Siloam will be carried out.

TILLMAN HOWARD.

Said to be at Florence, S. C., in a Printing Establishment.

It was learned yesterday from an officer on the search of Tillman Howard, who escaped from the Work House several days ago, that Superintendent Chadwick has offered a reward of $10 for the capture of that escaped prisoner.

A STAR reporter was told by a gentleman from Florence yesterday morning that Howard was employed in one of the printing establishments in that town and that he appeared very unconcerned in the matter, and so far as he could learn made no effort to conceal his identity.

Howard acted very foolishly in making his escape from the Work House. Brooke G. Empie, Esq., his counsel in the case, had perfected an arrangement satisfactory to the court by which Howard would be hired out and allowed perfect freedom.

The Wilmington Fire Department will be well represented at the State Firemen's Tournament at Greensboro next week.

Chief Charles Schnibben in conversation with a representative of the STAR yesterday said that besides himself about six other members of the department would leave on Monday to be present on this occasion.

The visit of Wilmington's delegation to the tournament will be made all the more pleasant from the fact that Chief Schnibben will go on a mission of invitation to the State Association to meet in Wilmington next year and that with the assurance that he has the approval of many substantial business men of the city in extend ing the welcome to the fire laddies of the State

Both Chief Schnibben and Assistant Chief Monroe have been untiring in their efforts to secure subscriptions sufficient for the purchase of prizes for the tournament and they now express themselves as fairly well satisfied with the canvass. THE CITY OF WILMINGTON.

Its Matchiess Resources and Manifold Attractions-Business Relations and Industrial Activities.

> Editor Robinson in the Durham Sun. Every observing man knows that people are brightened up, polished and quickened by attrition, the contact of rubbing against each other, as pebbles in the bed of a swiftly running stream by contact polish and give a brighter look to each other. This was made manifest by a recent visit to Wilmington-Wilmington on the Cape Fear, the only river in the State going directly into the open sea: Wilmington, "the city by the sea," the North Carolina mistress of sea and land, commanding unsurpassed facilities of transportation, by rail and water; business relations widely extending; largely developed industrial activities; wonderful fertility of soil; vegetation including that of both tem-

As a seaport city Wilmington possesses advantages that should horoughly known, and inspire every North Carolinian with pride to use his tengue and pen in making her a great Southern harbor, and shipping point, which she already enjoys to a remarkable degree. Wilmington is catching the spirit of progress that is stirring the energies and kindling the hopes of other places less favored The genius of change and development is abroad in her borders. She is feeling its electric touch. Her matchless resources and manifold attractions are beginning to be understood and in a large measure appreciated. Capital-keenscented and sagacious—is spying out this goodly land. Enterprises that promise handsome returns to the investor and great tenefit to the public are being inaugurated. Surrounded by an unexcelled, rich and beautiful region of country adapted to the growth of all known vegetables, the possibilities of the trucking interests, the lumber business, the fishing trade, are unbounded and give promise of golden harvests along all lines. Her pleasure resorts-Wrightsville and Carolina Beach—in parching summer's heat, are convenient and their shores are washed and kissed by the most beautiful sum that lave the borders of the majestic Atlantic. There is not an element that stimulates the growth, or assures the happiness of a community, that Wilmington does not possess may not command. Health, climate, soil, scenery, a market that supplies alike from sea and land unite here rare combinations, as no other seaside city in all the land can reveal. Indeed fancy in her, most riotous moods could scarcely paint a picture of the future greatness of this historic city, whose splendors may not be eclipsed by its actual achievement. Nature has bestowed upon Wilmington her blessing with a generous, if not a prodigal hand. Her people are doing the rest, and invite others to locate with them in utilizing the multiplied opportunities for making an honorable and successful career. In the active progress of Wilmington may be seen the energetic figures the Waddells, the Chadbourn's, the Taylors and a host of others who have the welfare and pride of their city at heart. Two moving factors in Wilmington's development are the Atlantic Coast Line and the Seaboard Air Line—two great railroad arteries that pulsate with energy, progress and accommodation, and pour their traffic, like a cornucopia, into Wilmington's harbor, and give special attention to

THERE WILL BE RED HOT BALL TO-DAY.

Maxton Bent Upon Outplaying Wilmington-Their Line-Up Shows Material

Change of Players.

If the weather conditions are favorable this afternoon there is no doubt that one of the largest crowds that has yet patronized the Hilton base ball diamond this season will be there at 4 o'clock to witness the second game between the Maxton "Red Shirts" and a team composed of the very best talent available in Wilmington. The stirring game which resulted when these teams crossed bats last month is still fresh in the memory of the "fans" and other base ball enthusiasts, and it is also well known that both teams have been very much strengthened since that encounter. In fact Maxton has materially changed their line-up for the express purpose of winning the game at all hazards. The line-up of the two teams will be as follows:

Wilmington. Zellers..... Brake Brunson....p....Brake
Morton....1b...LeGrange Alston ... 2b ... Spencer Schutte ... 3b ... Lambeth Bernig Graves Pennington | If Allison DuPre.......cf...... Norment Genaust....... rf...... Donnelly Subs for Maxton, Smith and Williams. It will be seen from the line up of the Maxton team that they have four

University of North Carolina players

-Lambeth, Graves, Allison and Donnelly. One of the Brakes is from Oak Ridge, and the other from Wilson. It is said, in fact, that only one player (Spencer) is really a Maxton boy. Be that as it may the Wilmington team will go into the game to win, and professionals though their oppo nents be, they will have to do some al playing to make good their boast to trail Wilmington's colors in the dust.
