MR. WILLIAM H. WADE

Drowned in the Surf at Wrightsville Beach Yesterday Morning.

REMAINS TAKEN TO RICHMOND

Was the Guest of Mr. Hugh MacRae—Had Determined to Locate in Wilmington—Mr. Chase's Heroic Efforts to Save Him.

The people of Wilmington were shocked yesterday by the news of the drowning of Mr. William H. Wade, a guest of Mr. Hugh MacRae at his cottage on Wrightsville Beach, which occurred about 6.30 o'clock yesterday morning while he and Mr. Hugh and Capt. Donald MacRae were taking a surf bath.
The body was recovered from the breakers about 12.30 o'clock and was sent to Richmond, Va., where Dr. Wade, a brother of the deceased, resides, on the 7 o'clock A. C. train last night. Capt. Donald and Mr. Hugh MacRae accompanied the remains.
How the Drowning Occurred.
Mr. Wade, in company with Mr. Hugh and Capt. Donald MacRae, were in the surf directly in front of the Solomon cottage which the MacRaes have rented for the remainder of the season. They swam out to the reef and finding the breakers rather heavy determined to make their way back to the beach. They started swimming shoreward, Mr. Wade in the rear. Mr. Hugh MacRae told a STAR representative that it was with the greatest difficulty that he and his brother made their way back to the beach. In fact, he almost despaired at one time of getting back at all. They seemed to have gotten into a slow, caused by a wash-out in the reef, which carried them steadily seaward.
In the midst of their dilemma Mr. H. M. Chase came from the Kitty cottage and swam to their assistance. Mr. MacRae, seeing that his guest, Mr. Wade, was in the greatest danger, called to Mr. Chase to go to his, Mr. Wade's assistance. This Mr. Chase did quite heroically and at great peril to his own life. He found it almost impossible to breast the current, but swam with Mr. Wade for some time, assisting him in every way possible until an unusually heavy breaker and strong current separated them, and Mr. Wade's body disappeared. When Mr. Chase reached the shore he was almost unconscious.
In the meantime Mr. R. B. Mason, Mr. Hugh Miller, Mr. J. C. Walton, Mr. Hugh Parsley and others had gathered on the scene, and a boat had been brought down from the Carolina Club house, and the work of dragging for the body was commenced. Capt. Oscar Grant brought Dr. Geo. G. Thomas over from Wrightsville on a hand-car to attend Mr. Chase, and he at hand when Mr. Wade's body should be found.
Mr. J. C. Walton was the first to see the body about seventy-five feet below the point at which the bathers were when the accident occurred. The net with which they were dragging was cast about the body and drawn to the shore. Life was long since extinct.
The remains were carried to the MacRae cottage where it was embalmed by Mr. J. F. Woolvin, the undertaker, preparatory for the journey to Richmond last night.
The deceased was thirty-three years of age, was a native of Fauquier county, Virginia. He resided several years with two maiden aunts in Richmond. He was a schoolmate of Mr. Hugh MacRae at Bingham School and graduated as a scientific engineer at Stephen's Institute, Hoboken, New York. He spent the past three years in Europe.
Mr. Wade was here to locate, having secured considerable interest in the Wilmington Gas Light Company.
The Artesian Well.
Work on the artesian well at Hilton is progressing nicely under the supervision of Mr. C. C. F. Payne, of Norfolk, who arrived here about ten days ago to take charge of the drilling. A depth of 1,280 feet has been reached, but no prospect for water is in sight yet, though it would not be surprising if a copious supply should be received at any time during the progress of the work. Superintendent Robertson, of the Clarendon Water Work's Company, says the workmen have the hardest of granite to work in and that as the depth increases so does the hardness of the material through which they are drilling.
Carolina Beach To-day.
The steamer Wilmington will make her regular 10 o'clock A. M. and 2.30 P. M. trips to Carolina Beach to-day, leaving the beach at 12.30 and 5.30 o'clock P. M. The afternoon boat leaves half an hour earlier in order that those who desire to do so may get back to the city in time for the church services in the evening. A large crowd is expected to go down on each boat to-day.
Beached Vessels Purchased.
Three wrecks off the Florida coast from the recent hurricane have been purchased by Capt. S. W. Skinner and S. F. Craig. They are the Jaeger, and the Latona and the Hindu, and will be pumped out and converted into barges. The purchasers are, however, determined from Carabelle, Florida, where they went to buy such vessels as they thought could be floated at a profit.

A DARING BURGLARY AT WRIGHTSVILLE BEACH.

Sleeping Apartments in Ocean View Hotel Entered by Unknown White Men. Three Suspects Arrested.

Tony Swain, Joe. Shepherd and Peter Flynn, all white men well known about the city, were placed in jail yesterday afternoon on warrants from Justice McGowan charging suspicion of burglary.
At Wrightsville Beach just before daybreak yesterday morning some one forced open a door leading into the hall way of the Ocean View Hotel, which is managed by Mrs. W. E. Mayo, and an entrance was made into the sleeping apartments of Mrs. Lottis O'Neill and her two little sons, who are guests of the hotel, occupying a room upstairs. The room occupied by the boys adjoining that of Mrs. O'Neill was first gone over by the burglar and just as he was entering the room of Mrs. O'Neill, she discovered the intrusion and gave an alarm. Quickly extinguishing a light which he carried in his hand the burglar, frightened by the outcry, made his escape back through the room occupied by the boys and through a window to the roof, from whence he jumped to the ground.
The matter was reported to Deputy Sheriff Flynn and Terry early yesterday morning by Capt. Edgar Hinton, who gave a description of the burglar furnished by Mrs. O'Neill, and immediately set out for his capture. Deputy Sheriff Terry took the case in hand and while driving down the beach road on his way to the beach to further investigate the burglary, he fell upon the men arrested and took them into custody on suspicion.
The three were brought before Mrs. O'Neill for identification at the court house yesterday afternoon, but while she would not positively state that he was the man, she said that Swain came nearer answering her view of the burglar than any one of the other two. She said, however, that she could not positively identify Swain as the man who entered the room.
The three were re-committed to jail to await an investigation before Justice McGowan to-morrow at 11 o'clock A. M.
Nothing of value was missed from the hotel, and it is the popular belief that either the intruder was drunk and wandering aimlessly around or he had not found the articles which he was desirous of carrying away when Mrs. O'Neill gave the alarm.
The three men arrested were employed to sail a boat around to the beach by Dr. McMillan, and it is said that after reaching their destination on Friday they became intoxicated and were drinking on the night previous to the early morning burglary.

The Delgado Cotton Mill.
A STAR representative was told yesterday by Mr. E. C. Holt, president of the new Delgado cotton mill, that he expected the first consignment of machinery for the new mill to arrive within ten days and there is every indication that the main building will be closed in and ready for the machinery to be placed in that time. The mill is now nearly completed. Mr. Holt seems very well pleased with the progress being made in the erection of the buildings by Messrs. Zachary & Zachary, the contractors.
There now seems to be no doubt that the mill will be ready for operation by the new year; but it is possible that it will not be in full operation until January 15th or February 1st.

CAROLINA YACHT CLUB HOUSE IMPROVEMENTS.

Meeting of Clubmen Called to Authorize Use of "Reserve Fund" for Building Purposes.

Some weeks ago the STAR referred in detail to plans which are being proposed for the material improvement and enlargement of Carolina Yacht Club house on Wrightsville Beach and reported that it was very probable that the work would be commenced just as soon as the present season closed. By reference to another column it will be seen that a meeting of the Clubmen is called for September 19th in the Merchant's Association rooms. The call which is by order of Commodore Anerum Lord and signed by Purser James T. Munds also gives due notice that a resolution relative to the "reserve fund" will be introduced.
The resolution to which reference is made, so a STAR reporter was informed last night, is intended to authorize the use of the reserve fund in meeting the expenses of the club improvements. STAR readers will remember that the plan for improvements includes two separate two story buildings, one for ladies and the other for gentlemen, on either side of the present club house, the construction of tennis and bowling allies, also a steel pier and many other important improvements.
WALLACE'S BIG TENTED ENTERPRISE
Favorable Press Comments From Cities Where the Show Has Exhibited.
In reference to the Great Wallace Shows which will exhibit in Wilmington, Wednesday, October 4th, the daily Tribune, of Webster City, Ia., said:
"But it wasn't the parade alone that won the plaudits of the people. They got the worth of their money when they entered the big tent. The Tribune is not foolish enough to make an exhibition of itself by attempting to do justice to the program. It is only a few that can be mentioned and prominently among these were the exciting contests of the Royal Roman Hippodrome."
The names of the principal riders with the Great Wallace Shows this year are Louise DeMott, Adelia Nelson, Gracie Thomas, Winnie Sweeney, Lillian Schaffer, Robert Stuckey, Jr., Oscar Lowande, William O'Brien, William Melrose and Henry Letourier. When one considers that two male and two female riders is a full equipment of principal riders for any other show now travelling, this array of equestrian talent is very striking.
The Scott's Hill Road.
Farmers and truckers along the line of the old Newbern plank, or Scott's Hill road, are pressing their claims to induce the county authorities, in view of the new system of road improvement recently inaugurated, to begin work first on the thoroughfare leading that way and they really have strong argument in their favor. They say that more farm products, truck, etc., is brought to Wilmington from their section than from any other in the county and they should be given the preference when it comes to choosing the point at which work will begin first. The road is already macadamized to a point one mile from the city and another stretch between the fourth and seventh mile posts has been greatly improved. The thing now to do, the say, is to complete the road work already begun and then pass on to less important roads.
University Opening.
Prof. M. C. S. Nobles, of the chair of pedagogics in the faculty of the University of North Carolina, will leave this morning to be present at the opening examination of students to-morrow morning. The opening proper does not take place until to-morrow week, but Prof. Nobles with other members of the faculty will meet early this week and arrange all preliminaries for the Fall term which he says promises to be one of the most successful since the establishment of the institution. Prof. Nobles says that at least 15 young men from Wilmington will be in attendance upon the coming term. Mrs. Nobles and children will not accompany him until later.
Death of Mrs. G. W. Brown.
Friends in this city will learn with regret of the death of Mrs. Godena Brown, relict of the late Capt. W. H. Brown, of Bladen county, which occurred at her home, corner of Second and Ann streets Friday afternoon at 6 o'clock. Deceased was 65 years of age and is survived by two sons, Mr. T. O. Brown, of Florida, and Mr. W. H. Brown, book-keeper for Messrs. J. B. & J. C. King of this city, and three daughters, Misses Dordina, Mary and Virginia Brown. The remains were taken on the Seaboard Air Line train yesterday afternoon to Council's station where the funeral and interment will take place to-day.
Yellow Fever Epidemic.
Wilmington people thus far have experienced no alarm on account of the yellow fever, which is according to official reports slowly spreading in Mississippi. The city health authorities are on the qui vive for official information, however, and the public may be assured that if there is really any cause for quarantine or other restrictions they will promptly act for the public's good. The sixteen days quarantine recently established against the infected district in Virginia cost the city only $189.

A SUIT FOR DAMAGES.

Instituted by L. G. Helms Against B. F. Perry, United States Detective.

IREDELL MEARES COUNSEL

For the Plaintiff—Maliciously and Wantonly Swearing Out a Warrant for Helms' Arrest, Charging Counterfeiting Principal Charge.

A suit entitled "L. G. Helms vs. B. F. Perry" was instituted yesterday in the Superior Court by Iredell Meares, Esq., as counsel for the plaintiff, Helms. The sum of $10,000 is claimed as damages for what is set forth in the complaint to have been the malicious and wantonly and without probable cause, making of oath before United States Commissioner S. P. Collier for the issuance of a warrant of arrest, charging the plaintiff with counterfeiting money.
Readers of the STAR will remember that Helms was arrested on June 6th last, and held for probably three days by B. F. Perry, who, as a United States detective, was here working up the counterfeiting cases, which resulted in the conviction of Polit and the institution of other counterfeiting cases now pending in the District Court.
In addition to the charges of maliciously and wantonly causing the arrest and detention of the plaintiff Helms, as previously stated, the complaint makes the following allegations:
That the plaintiff was arrested by Captain of Police Furlong and delivered to the defendant Perry at the Orton; that Perry showed him with courtesies, treated him to beer and by various attentions with a view to inducing the plaintiff Helms to disclose information he might have regarding alleged violations of the United States counterfeiting laws; that Perry assured him that if he would incriminate certain persons among others A. J. Marshall, Esq., he (Helms) would be released from all charges on which he had been arrested; to all of which Helms repeatedly protested that he knew nothing of any counterfeiting having been done by others and was absolutely innocent of the charges against him; that the defendant declared that he would press the charges against the plaintiff Helms; that the next morning the plaintiff was sent to New Hanover jail, where he was incarcerated until June 9th; that on that date, before Commissioner Collier, the defendant Perry acknowledged that he had no proof against the plaintiff Helms and that he was there after released from custody; that the defendant Perry did not cause the plaintiff's arrest by reason of any information that the plaintiff was guilty of counterfeiting, but in a drag-net pursuit of evidence to establish the guilt of others, wrongfully presumed that the plaintiff was connected with or aware of persons connected with counterfeiting; that by reason of the malicious prosecution, arrest and imprisonment and by reason of plaintiff's deprivation of liberty, loss of time, mortification, chagrin, mental anguish, damage to reputation the plaintiff is endangered in the sum of $3,000 and that by reason of malicious prosecution, wanton willful and grossly outrageous acts of the defendant Perry, the plaintiff is entitled to recover punitive damages in the sum of $7,000.
Pleased with Wilmington People.
Mr. W. E. Vinselton, who was here with the "All American" base ball team of Portsmouth recently, in writing to the STAR, among other things, says:
"Our boys will never forget the hospitality shown them by the people of Wilmington, while there last week, and will always be glad to extend the 'glad hand' to any Wilmingtonian who may drop down this way."
Mr. Vinselton says the "All American" and "Ding Bats" only played one game last Monday and that was in Portsmouth, the second having been postponed by the weather. And that too much credit cannot be given Eddie Kenna for his superb work with the "All Americans."
Excursion on Steamer Buck.
Capt. Ward, of the steamer Buck, is arranging to run an excursion to Still Bluff, about twenty-five miles up Black river, next Sunday, the occasion being a big union meeting there on that day. It will be a delightful trip of about three hours and the genial captain promises everybody a good time. The boat will leave early in the morning and return at night. He has made arrangements for a passenger barge to take up in tow in case the Buck is not sufficiently large to accommodate the crowd. The fare will be nominal.
County School Affairs.
Capt. Manning, New Hanover's efficient and zealous superintendent of public instruction during the past week has made a tour of all the school districts in the county, getting the buildings, grounds, etc., in proper condition for the opening of the schools on October 9th. Each district has been carefully gone over and when it has been possible to do so, Capt. Manning has had a conference with the committeemen and teachers of the schools relative to the best methods for making the coming terms the most successful for years.
Vocal Music Studio.
Announcement is made that Mrs. D. Sam Cox will open the vocal studio, reference to which was made in the STAR some weeks ago, about September 15th. Mrs. Cox is a graduate of the Royal Conservatory of Berlin and has recently took a post graduate course under M. Bonhyin, Paris. She comes to Wilmington with the highest testimonials and personal letters and will no doubt secure many pupils.

THEATRICAL EVENT OF THE WEEK.

Eugenie Blair's Presentation of "A Lady of Quality" Thursday Night.

Eugenie Blair is this season devoting her attention solely to a superb production of the Wallace Theatre Success, "A Lady of Quality," which she will present at the Wilmington Opera House on next Thursday night.
The scenery for the piece is more beautiful than anything ever attempted by such well known play producers as Sir Henry Irving or the late Augustin Daly. Ernest Albert of the Fifth Avenue Theatre, New York, was the artist who accomplished the work under the personal direction of Miss Blair. The costumes were also designed by the star, whose chief aim is to make the road production superior to that given in New York.
Miss Blair has surrounded herself with a company of players thoroughly competent to handle the characters assigned to them, sparing neither time nor money to secure the services of the ones best suitable to the parts. All new scenery is used this season, making the production even more elaborate than last year. There will be no advance in prices.
Was it a Drowning?
A report was current about the market house last night that some one had fallen into the river and been drowned from one of the flats tied up at the rear end of the plant of the Wilmington Street Railway Co. Messrs. J. E. Tyner and Oscar Edwards, who are employed as clerks about the market, had occasion to go down on the wharf last night and when near the river's edge their attention was attracted to a splashing in the water between two flats tied up for the night. They immediately went to investigate, but the commotion in the water had ceased when they drew near enough to look between the flats. A hat, apparently discarded but a short time, was found on the flat and no other sign of life was about. The observations gave rise to the report, but nothing further could be learned as to the probable drowning.

New City Prison Apartment.
Alderman Springer and West yesterday made an inspection of the new city prison apartments recently completed by contractor G. M. Summersell. They recommended several slight alterations which will be made and the building received by them as a special committee from the Board of Aldermen. One of the alterations was that the doors should be grated instead of solid as at present constructed.
The Educational Rally.
Indications are that the educational rally to be held at the Y. M. C. A. on Tuesday night will be a highly enjoyable occasion. The speakers, it will be remembered, will be Dr. Blackwell, Col. Waddell, Rev. Mr. McClure and Mr. W. M. Cumming. Several additions have been made to the musical programme.
