Kinston.

The rice fields along the Cape Fear river are now teeming with almost countless thousands of rice birds, which always make their appearance here at this season when the fields begin to ripen for the harvest. A little unwelcomed by the planters, perhaps, they are, nevertheless, hailed with delight by the sportsmen and many of them have already been bagged and sent in to the market, where they are finding ready sale at from forty to fifty cents per dozen. It is worth one's while to take a trip down the river with Capt, Harper on the steamer Wilmington to witness the undulating swarms of the little pests as they glide along just above the heads of the ripening grain.

THE DECREE OF JUDGE EWART RECEIVED.

An important opinion and ruling of Judge Ewart, of the United States Court of the Western District, in the case of various creditors involving the estate of Dr. W. D. C. Benbow bankrupt, was received yesterday by E. K. Bryan, Esq, counsel for the Southern Loan and Trust Company of Greensboro. Murchison & Co., the Third National Bank of New York and other creditors. By this ruling there will be a sale of all real property involved and the proceeds together with all moneys now in the hands of J. S. Cox, assignee of Dr. Benbow, will be held in trust by the Southern Loan and Trust Company of Greensboro until the suit is finally adjudicated. Readers of the STAR will remember that the suit grew out of Dr. Benbow's endorsing papers for the North State Improvement Company and having about the time of the collapse of that company made an assignment. The case has been pending several years through various and intri cate stages of procedure, until on August 12th last Judge Ewart issued a restraining order against Charles Benbow, an assignee of Dr. Benbow, to the effect that a decree of the Suparior Court of Guilford county must not be executed. The restraining order was made returnable before Judge Ewart on August 22d, on which date the case was fully and ably argued at Hendersonville by E. K. Bryan, Esq., of this city, and L. M. Scott, Esq , of Greensboro, and J. W. Wilson, Esq., of High Point, for the trustee. E. K. Bryan, Esq., John Sprunt Hill, Esq., and Senator Pritchard also represented the creditors. Murchison & Co., Third National Bank of New York. As a result of the arguments Judge Ewart in the ruling vesterday continued to the final hearing, the injunction referred to, and as previously stated ordered that all funds and property involved e turned over to the Southern Trust and Loan Company as trustee in bankruptcy and the sale of the real property. The question now involved is whether certain interests belong really to Charles Benbow or to the estate of Dr. Benbow, and if to the latter, as Mr. Bryan and his associate counsel for the plaintiffs contend, then the funds (about $150,000) will be divided pro rata among the creditors, the principals of whom are Murchison & Co. and the Third National Bank of New York, by whom the fund for conducting the legal fight has been put up. The Diocese of Eastern North Carolina is also interested in the sum of $5,000, and the Bank of Wayne, Goldsboro, and Mr. A. S. Williams are also creditors, who will come in for their pro rata of the assets. Mr. Bryan has made a hard fight for his clients and is confident of ultimate victory.

FIRST CARGO OF COTTON.

Cleared On Atlantic Coast This Crop Year Was Steamship South Africa Yesterday for Bremen, Germany.

What is believed to be the first clearance of a cargo of cotton anywhere on the Atlantic coast for a foreign port this crop year was by Messrs. Alexander Sprunt and Son yesterday, when they cleared the British steamship South Africa, Captain Dobson, for Bremen, Germany, with a cargo of 12,628 bales. The weight of the cargo is 6,384,262 pounds, and the value $414,976.00.

The South Africa is one of the ten ocean steamers which constitute the Sprunt Line recently established by Alexander Sprunt & Son to ply regularly from Wilmington to various foreign ports. She will cross the Atlantic flying a white burgee with "Sprunt Line" at her mainmast head. The first clearance of cotton form Wilmington at the beginning of the last crop year was on September 19th when the Year. by was cleared with a cargo of 9,564 bales. It will therefore be seen that the first shipment this season is eight days earlier than last year.

Orders Assets in Benbow Litigation Trans-

Inquest Held. The body of an unknown mulatto, apparently about 21 years of age was found floating in the river near the foot of Orange street yesterday morning about 9 o'clock by Andrew Pierce, a colored man employed at one of the ship yards, who was paddling a canoe near the water's edge on this side.

The STAR referred Sunday morning to the supposed drowning of a man in this vicinity and published the facts obtainable at that timt, which were to the effect that Messrs. J. E. Tyner and Oscar Edwards, who are employed about the Market, on Saturday night when near the water's edge heard a splashing between two flats tied up near the foot of Orange street and that as they drew nearer to investigate they found a soiled white hat with crepe band floating on the water. Nothing further could be learned by any one Saturday night regarding the supposed drowning until the ghastly find yesterday morning.

The body of the unfortunate man was brought ashore soon after it was found and Dr. Price, the coroner, empaneledajury composed of Messrs. J. T. McIver, E. J. Wood, E. W. Hewlett, T. H. Johnson, Claude Fredericks and George Grtogen, who after examining Messrs. Edwards, Tyner and George Farrow, returned a verdict that the deceased came to his death by accidental drowning though they could not establish his identity. Young Mr. Farrow, who works at the Palace Bakery, however, testified that he had on several occasions seen the deceased about the store and that he had formed the opinion that he was a tramp. Witness could not, however, give the colored man's name, but said that he wore a coat of the uniform of the Third Regiment North Carolina Volunteers and identified the hat found by Mr. Tyner as one he had see the mulatto wearing.

WRIGHTSVILLE BURGLARY.

At the Investigation Yesterday Shepard and Flynn Were Released-Swain Re-committed Without Ball.

Joe. Shepard, Peter Flynn and Tony Swain, the three white men placed in jail Saturday afternoon by Deputy Sheriffs Flynn and Terry, on suspicion of having burglarized the apartments of Mrs. O'Neill and children in the new Ocean View Hotel at Wrightsville Beach early Saturday morning, were arraigned before Justice Mc Gowan yesterday morning for an investigation.

Shepard, who was represented by S. M. Empie, Esq., and Flynn, who was represented by Herbert McClam my, Esq., established their innocence and were released. Mrs. O'Neill identified neither of them as the person who entered her room with the light. as stated in the STAR Sunday.

Swain, through his counsel, Herbert McClammy, Esq., filed an affidavit of removal and vesterday afternoon at 3 o'clock the case was called before Justice W. H. Northrop, Jr., in the county court room. J. O. Carr, Esq., of the firm of Rountree & Carr, very ably prosecuted the case and thought the evidence was circumstantial in many salient points, Justice Northrop ruled that there was probable cause and recommitted the defendant to jail, to await trial by the Criminal Court as bail is not admissible in charges so grave as those preferred agains Swain.

MR. FARRINGTON'S LAST SERMON.

Large Congregation at Southside Church to Hear His Parewell Message.

A large congregation of friends and church members assembled at South. side Baptist Church on Sunday night auditorium of the Young Men's to hear the farewell message of Rev. Christian Association building has F. H. Farrington, who, as previously stated, has severed his pastoral relations with that church to finish his education in his native State-Alabama. All the available room in the church > was occupied by interested listeners, and Mr. Farrington's last sermon to his flock, while not what is usually termed a farewell discourse, was a powerful presentation of Bible truth as found in the twenty-fourth chapter of Genesis. A special selection of hymns for the occasion were rendered by the usual choir, with Mr. J. S. Canady as leader and Miss Mamie Canady as organist.

Last night, after the regular weekly conference of the church officers, an informal reception was given Mr. Farrington, which was largely attended by the members of the congregation and a number of the retiring pastor's friends.

Mr. Farrington will leave via the Seaboard Air Line at 3.20 o'clock this afternoon.

'A Lady of Quality."

Theatre-goers of Wilmington are waiting eagerly for the coming of Eugenie Blair to the Opera House on Thursday night of this week, when she will present "A Lady of Quality." Eugenie Blair needs no introduction. She is an artist who has played a wide range of parts, both tragic and emotional, more perhaps than any woman star of her time. A thoroughly competent company are included in her support, and the engagement is anticipated as one of the best attractions of the year.

The sale of seats, at the usual price, will commence at Gerken's to-morrow morning.

FRANCE MUST RECEIVE

HER DEATH WAGES.

Dr. Blackwell Predicts Red Revolution for Injustice to Dreyfus-Favors Boycott by All Nations.

During the course of his evening sermon at the First Baptist Church Sunday night Rev. Calvin S. Black well, D. D., the pastor, took occasion to refer, in a very scathing manner, to France as a nation, and particularly to the recent verdict of the French court in the Dreyfus case. His theme was "Our Satanic Relations."

The reference to France was in illustration of the proposition that "The Wages of Sin is Death," whether a nation or a man chooses to commit the sin. He said:

"The French nation yesterday, yielding to a satanic spirit which has caused her people to rush pell mell perditionward during the last 100 or 150 years, chose to crush beneath her official foot innocence, truth and justice in the person of Capt. Dreyfus. France will have to receive her death wages in retributive justice in red revolution. Paris, the brothel of the world, where the legitimate birthrate is equalled by her bastardy, is already ripe for another bloody-handed com-

The Mayor has issued no capiases for those whose final limit in which the taxes could be paid without costs has expired, but it is understood that if all arrearages are not settled by such delinquents on or before next Monday they will be given the extreme penalty of the law, which is in addition to the payment of the taxes a fine of $25.

the Constitutional Amendment. [Washington Post, 11th.] Hon. John D. Bellamy, of Wilmington, N. C., who will represent the famous shoe string district of that State in the next House, was seen at the Arlington last night. Mr. Bellamy is a lawyer by profession and a grad uate of the University of Virginia. "The fact that the State campaign which will be waged in North Caro lina in 1900 has already opened a year in advance," said he, "is indicative of the intense interest our citizens are taking in the issues that will be settled at the ensuing election. The suffrage amendment to the constitution overshadows every other question. It is, as the Post's readers know. almost an exact copy of the sys tem adopted in Louisiana for limiting the franchise. We will adopt the amendment by at least 75,000 votes for it will receive the liberal support of many of the best Republicans.

"Its effect cannot help but be bene ficial, and in my opinion it will go long way toward relieving the trouble some race friction, of which we had enough in North Carolina last year, particularly in my district, where the negroes are so numerous. I do not believe that many white men will lose their voting privileges under the law on account of illiteracy, although the opponents of the amendment have sought to make it appear that under its operations many whites would be excluded as voters.
