He had already built the hat.

Church Entertainment.

Last night at the Chapel of the Good Shepherd, corner Sixth and Queen streets, the Brotherhood of St. An drew, gave an entertainment of merit for the benefit of the church fund. There was a good attendance, and the programme embraced several comedies by the "chief local comedian," Mr. B. L. Phipps, and an exhibition of up to date hypnotism by Mr. W. V. Sellers, who has recently won for himself distinction in the art. A neat sum was received for the fund, and those present enjoyed an evening of high class entertainment.

Carrie A. Lane. The derelict Carrie A. Lane, which was anchored four miles off Brown's inlet on the lower Cape Fear coast, by a party of fishermen, has been safely towed into Lookout bight by the tug Blanche and with her cargo will be towed to Noank, Connecticut, her original destination. Capt. S. F. Craig, who went over to look out for the interest of the Blanche in the matter, returned yesterday afternoon and the Blanche reached Southport yesterday morning. The schooner has a steam pump of her own and with this, she will be pumped out preparatory to the tow to Noank.

An Old Merchant. A gentleman who passed through the city on his way to Florida twentyone years ago, purchased at that time a suit of clothes from Mr. Sol. Bear. He was here yesterday and said he had met one gentleman whom he knew twenty-one years ago, and that was Mr. Bear. In passing down Market street he saw Mr. Bear's sign, and went in his establishment, and said he immediately recognized Mr. Bear, who did not appear any younger or older than he did twenty-one years ago. He says he asked Mr. Bear how long he had been in Wilmington, and he replied about a hundred years.

GOLDEN ROD WEDDING

AT ST. JAMES' CHURCH.

Rev. John B. Gibble, of Denison, Texas, and Miss Augusta Jocelyn Moore, of Wilmington, Married,

A beautiful wedding took place at St. James' Episcopal church yesterday evening at 5.30 o'clock, the Rev. John Benners Gibble, of Denison, Texas, leading to the altar Miss Augusta Jocelyn Moore, daughter of Mrs. Edward Jocelyn Moore, one of Wilmington's most highly esteemed young ladies

It was a golden rod wedding and the decorations for the event were on a most elaborate scale. About the altar and chancel was a most tasteful arrangement of palms, ferns, wild olive branches and Southern smilax, while banks and hedges of beautiful golden rod predominated the ensemplage of rare plants.

The church was packed with relaives and friends who gathered to witless the performance of the pretty ceremony by the Rev. Robt. Strange, D. D., rector of St. James'. Mr. E. H. Munson, the organist, presided at the instrument, and while the bridal party was awaited he rendered with rare skill a medley of classic compositions. When the bride and groom arrived with their party, they approached the altar to the joyous measures of the bridal chorus from Lohengrin, the ushers leading the processsion up the main aisle in the following order: Mr. Will Love Moore, brother of the bride, with Dr. Lionel H. Love; the Rev. R. R. Windley with Mr. R. A. Parsley; Mr. T. Ed.

Brown, cousin of the bride, with Dr. Richard J. Price. Following the ushers was the maid of honor, Miss Carrie Thomas Moore, sister of the bride, and after her came the bride. leaning on the arm of her brother, Mr. Edward Brown Moore. At the chancel the bride was joined by the groom, who came in from the vestry room accompanied by his best man, the Rev. Wilson Page Chrisman, of Richmond, Va. Dr. Strange stood in front of the reredos, which was brilliant with lighted candles, and when the bride and groom presented themselves he united them in the holy bonds of wedlock in accordance with the rites of his church. Her brother, Mr. Edward Brown Moore, gave the bride away. When the marriage was pronounced the bell in the tower rang out in happy acclaim and the bridal party retired while the organist grandly played Mendelssohn's wedding march.

The bride was stylishly attired in a tailor-made going-away gown of tan broadcloth, with hat to match. At her throat she wore an exquisite brooch of diamonds and pearls, the a lovely bunch of Palma violets, and she carried in her hand a Prayer Book. the gift of her rector, Dr. Strange. The marriage service was read from - A telegram to Rev. A. D. Mcthis book and the marriage certificate was written on one of the fly leaves. The maid of honor's costume was a handsome dress of green broadcloth, trimmed with white velvet and lace. She wore a pretty pin of cluster pearls, a souvenir presented by the groom. She carried a magnificent bouquet of Golden Gate roses, Farleyense ferns and asparagus. The ushers wore boutonniers of vellow carnations.

From the church the bridal party was driven to the home of the bride's mother, 621 Dock street, and when the bride and groom alighted and went into the parlor they were greeted with a shower of rice. The parlors and hall were richly decorated with royal palms and potted plants and cut flowers, and a large table and the piano were covered with costly and beautiful presents. One of the presents was a cup and saucer which was owned by the bride's great-grandmother and has been in the family more than a hundred years. The pres ents from Texas friends were not sent here but will await the arrival of the bride and groom at their home.

An informal reception was held and refreshments were served, after which Mr. and Mrs. Gibble went to Front street station and after more rice throwing and adieus they took the 7 P. M. train on the Atlantic Coast Line for Washington, where they will spend a week. Thence they will go to New York, Boston, Providence and Barrington, R. I. They will return to New York and leave there on the 28th instant for Galveston. They will be at home November 10th at Denison, where Mr. Gibble is rector of St. Luke's Episcopal Church. Mr. Gibble formerly resided in Wilmington, and from August, 1891, to February, 1894, was assistant minister at St. James' and was deacon in charge of the Chapel of the Good Shepherd, under the auspices of that church. He is highly esteemed here, and his host of friends will be pleased to know that his ability as a minister has given him wide prominence in church circles in Texas.

Newbury-Murphy.

As foreshadowed in the STAR of vesterday on Wednesday night at 9.15 o'clock in Edenton Street Methodist parsonage, Raleigh, Mr. George E. Murphy and Miss Daisy E. Newbury, of Wilmington, were united in marriage, Rev. W. C. Norman officiating.

Target Practice at Fort Caswell.

A special to the STAR from Southport says: Battery "C," Fourth artillery, had target practice to-day at Fort Caswell with four and seven-tenths inch rapid fire gun. They fired five shots using impact shells, at a floating target, twenty-five hundred yards distant, and all five were "Vessel hits."

WILMINGTON DIVISION

N. C. NAVAL BRIGADE.

Gave Newly Elected Lieutenants Brilliant Reception and Sumptuous Oyster Feast Last Evening.

The Wilmington Division of the North Carolina Naval Brigade, at their Armory last evening, gave complimentary to their two newly elected Lieutenants, Mr. A. B. Skelding, of the Senoir Grade and Mr. H. M. Chase, of the Junior Grade, a sumptuous and elaborate oyster supper and reception, at which there were present more than half a hundred members of the division and their guests.

The supper combined both substance and elegance and with the reception was voted one of the most pleasant entertainments in the history of the organization.

Among the distinguished guests present who partook of the hospitality of the division on this occasion were Mayor A. M. Waddell, Hon. Jno. D. Bellamy, Capt. C. H. White, of the Wilmington Light Infantry Capt. Geo. L. Morton and Lieut. R. H. McKoy, of the Naval brigade; Dr. A. H. Harriss, assistant surgeon of the division, and Geo. L. Peschau, The hall of the armory was gaily bedecked with national colors, embracing flags and colors of the cruisers Nantucket and Hornet, boats recently in service of the brigade, and other decorations and articles significant of the marine military.

Captain Morton at the formal opening of the affair made a very pleasing address, felicitating the division upon the election of Lieutenants Skelding and Chase and referring pleasantly to the reception and cordial greeting being given them last evening.

Brief addresses were also made and toasts responded to by Hon. John D. Bellamy, Mayor Waddell, Capt. White, Geo. L. Peschau and others of the invited guests.

The speech of Mr. Bellamy was an especially happy one, referring appreciatively to the noble response to their country's call by the brigade in the late war with Spain and its splendid cruiser, the Nantucket, and conjecturing as to the possibility of the calling into requisition of the naval force of the United States in future years. Mr. Bellamy's speech was enthusiastically appreciated, as were those of the other speakers of the evening, the remarks of whom were along the same lines.

The occasion was indeed a brilliant one and much of its success is due to Messrs, L. L. Corbett, W. R. Middleton, J. E. Cornell and D. D. Barber. who constituted the committee of arrangements and did their work in a gift of the groom. Her bouquet was thoroughly acceptable and pleasant

DAUGHTERS OF THE CONFEDERACY.

First Fall Meeting of Cape Fear Chapter Held Yesterday Morning.

Cape Fear Chapter, Daughters of the Confederacy, held its first Fall meeting yesterday at 11 A. M. at the W. L. I. armory. Mrs. W. M. Parsley, the president, presided, and Mrs. John Watters, the secretary, was present, and read the minutes of the last meet-

Owing to the fact that Mrs. Watters will soon remove from the city, she resigned as secretary, and Miss Kate Harlow was appointed in her stead. Miss Mary Meares, the treasurer, made her report, after which two new members were elected, and four applications for membership were recommended.

Mrs. Parsley, who attended the annual meeting of the State Association at Winston, October 12th, made an interesting report of the proceedings on that occasion.

The importance of sending delegates to the meeting of the General Association at Richmond, November 8th to 11th, was discussed. It was urged that the delegates elected in May and as many others as can do so should go to Richmond. On the 9th the Winnie Davis monument will be unveiled in that city. The Chapter decided to give a tea next week as a manifestation of sympathy for Mrs. Stonewall Jackson in her invalid condition.

A letter was received from the Wilmington Light Infantry granting the Chapter the use of the front room at the armory for their museum of war relics instead of the back room now used. The ladies were delighted with the proffer and gave the Wilmington Light Infantry a vote of thanks.

Justice Fowler's Court. The following cases were disposed of by Justice Fowler yesterday: Edward Artis, a colored barber; larceny from W. H. Blount's tailor shop, of pants belonging to James Harris, colored; discharged on the ground that the period was so remote that it was not incumbent on defendant to prove possession. Nancy Poisson, colored, disorderly conduct; judgment suspended. John Brown and David Jacobs, Jr., both colored, assault and battery with a deadly weapon: warrant amended to disorderly conduct and judgment suspended Wm. Hall, colored, perjury in swearing falsely against Annie Freeman, also colored, in Justice Price's court; not guilty and discharged. On account!of the Baptist State Convention and Young People's Societies of North Carolina at Asheville, N. C., December 5th and 6th, the Seaboard Air Line will offer round trip tickets to Asheville at $14.85 for the round trip; tickets on sale December 4th, 5th and 6th, with final limit for the return December 15th, 1899.

COMING ATTRACTIONS AT THE OPERA HOUSE.

Lewis Morrison in "Frederick The Great" To-morrow Night-Olympia Opera

In all of Lewis Morrison's productions, it is said, the scenic effects have always possessed a vitality that is positively amazing. In his coming new spectacular presentation of "Frederick The Great" at the Wilmington Opera House to-morrow night, we are promised a collection of gems of pictorial art, that are said to surpass any former efforts of this well known actor. The first set represents the grand corridor leading to the theatre in the Winter Palace at Berlin, a faithful reproduction of that magnificent structure, which is yearly visited by thousands of tourists. The second act discloses the audience chamber in the same palace, also a massively constructed set which possesses a wealth of artistic blending of colors, making a most fitting background to the gorgeous gowns and uniforms of the players. The ollowing scene is the piece de-resistance of the production and said to be a marvel in artistic skill and construc ive ingenuity. It represents Freder ick's headquarters on the battlefield.

Olympia Opera Company.

Beginning Monday night the Olympia Opera Company, a troupe of charming entertainers, will open a week's engagement with change of programme daily.

The Raleigh News and Observer says of one their leading operas: The brilliant opera Paul Jones was presented last night to the capacity of the Academy of Music. The immense audience that went to see the presentation of Planquett's ever beautiful and popular romantic opera, "Paul Jones," as it had been widely proclaimed that the company was much better in many particulars than any other that had visited this city, those who witnessed the performance last night expected a great deal, and that the most sanguine anticipations were more than fulfilled was universally admitted. The members of the company proved themselves masters of every detail of the performance and as result of their proficiency the production was a grand artistic success.

Atlanta, for particulars.
B. S. ROYSTER, Adjutant General. Captain White says that on account of the short time allowed for preparation for the trip and a combination of other reasons the company in all probability will not attend, though the trip would be a most delightful one. A number of the members may go individually, but not as a company. A private letter to the STAR from Mr. W. W. Vick, an old Wilmington boy now of Atlanta, says that the Gate City is preparing to give the hero Admiral and Lieutenant Brumby a royal reception. The State Fair opened on Wednesday and continues for a month. The two events occurring simultaneously ensure a big success for both. One of the features of the Fair on October 24th is an actual head-on collision of two railway trains.

THE YOUNG MEN'S CHRISTIAN ASSOCIATION.

Pleasant Entertainment for Members Last Night-Nice Programme and Choice Refreshments Afterwards.

A most enjoyable reception and en tertainment was given in the Y. M C. A. parlors last night to the new and old members of the association. There was a large attendance of the members and many of their lady and gentlemen friends.

Mr. John Frank, president of the association, presided, and the programme was begun with prayer by Rev. Milton A. Barber, deacon in charge of St. Paul's Episcopal Church.

Addresses were then made by Prof. H. Harnly on education, by Mr. W. L. Latta on the committee work by Mr. D. H. Harnly on what educational work in the association means and by General Secretary Howard Caldwell on the true relation of ac ive and association membership. The addresses were followed by delightful vocal solo by Miss Anna D. Slagle, who is a soprano of decided gifts. She charmingly sang "When the Heart is Young," and her singing elicited a storm of applause. She was heartily encored and sang "Bobolink." Next came a piano solo by Mr. James Craft, who rendered it with such skill an encore. This feature of the evening was closed with a delightful duet on the mandolin by Mr. A. N. Franklin and on the guitar by Mr. C. E. Dixon. They were the recipients of the most that he was compelled to respond to appreciative applause. The members of the association and their friends were then invited to the refreshment rooms where charming ladies of the Women's Auxiliary served them most bounteously with ice cream and cake. At the refreshment table, Mr. W. L Latta, of the membership committee, announced that the contest for membership begun August 15th, between the "Hustlers," under Mr. Paul R. Taylor, and the "Busy Bees," undee Mr. P. Heinsberger, had resulted in the acquisition of 88 new members to the credit of the "Hustlers" to 61 for the "Busy Bees." While the refreshments were being served the company was entertained with selections on the gramophone, operated by Mr. H. O. Kight, the physical director.

Before leaving, Mr. Heinsberger and his "Busy Bees" gave three cheers for the "Hustlers." Mr. Taylor and his "Hustlers" returned the compliment very heartily.

Candidate for the Senate If Party Primaries Are Held.

HON. A. M. WADDELL.

[Raleigh News & Observer.] WILMINGTON, N. C., Oct. 17, 1899. TO THE EDITOR: As one of the per sons whose names have been published in connection with the next United States Senatorship, (although without authority as far as I am concerned) desire to say to the public what I have said to individuals who have spoken to me on the subject, viz: 1. That if the next Democratic State Convention, in accordance with the resolution of the last one in favor of the election of Senators by the people. shall order party primaries to ascertain the will of the Democrats in the State, I expect to be a candidate; but if the machine method of securing members of the Legislature in advance is to be pursued, I will not be a candidate. 2. That the primaries cught to be held, and the Senatorial canvass conducted, after the August election, and not before. 3. That I am not now making any canvass, and will not do so until I know whether there are to be primaries

4. That I will cheerfully unite with all other aspirants in a pledge not to solicit, directly or indirectly, any vote until after the August election. 5. That, in my opinion, no man worthy to be Senator would hold that office contrary to the will of a majority of his own party.

If there is any more candid or plainer way to state my position on the matter than this, I do not know it ALFRED MOORE WADDELL.

Small Fires this Morning.

Fire was discoved this morning shortly after 12 o'clock by Policeman Ward in the one story frame building at foot of Market street, formerly occubied by Messrs. Belden & Howie, as a lighterage office. It is owned by Mr. Wm. Calder and occupied by colored persons, who conduct a restaurant therein. The fire originated from the falling of live coals from a cooking stove and was prompthy extinguished by the Chemical engine. The damage is probably $25.

An alarm was turned in this morning at 3 o'clock from box 84. Considerable damage was done by fire in a two-story house at Seventeenth and Market streets, occupied by Mr. John Harriss.

legro Drowned Yesterday Afternoon Malachi Lovick, a young colored man about 23 years of age, was drowned yesterday afternoon at 4 o'clock while assisting his father in raising logs from the river at foot of Dawson street. The body was recovered by Mr. E. W. Branch at 6 o'clock, and Dr. Richard J.
