The latest is that Admiral Dewey will accept a Presidential nomination if it "comes without solicitation on his part." Very likely. There are few masculine Americans who would be boorish enough to decline under such circumstances. Even the average editor, with all his modesty, would cave at that.

FIRST BAPTIST CHURCH MEETING.

Closed With Sunday Night's Service-Mr. Wolfsohn Left for Alabama.

The series of revival services which have been in progress for the past two weeks at the First Baptist Church came to a close with the Sunday night's service. On this occasion Dr. Blackwell preached an especially strong sermon on the dangers of procrastination. Mr. Wolfsohn, of Atlanta, who has added much to the success of the meeting by his soul-stirring singing, rendered a pretty solo: "Life is Like a Mountain River." Before beginning the solo, he took occasion to refer to the attachment he had formed for Wilmington and her people and to the very great esteem in which he held Dr. Blackwell. After the service many of his friends went up and with a warm hand-shake bade him farewell. He left yesterday afternoon via the S. A. L. for Anniston.

The lot embraces dry goods, notions, fancy articles, naval stores, groceries; in fact, nearly everything but a bale of cotton. The goods are being stored in a large room in the Temple, and to look in on the aggregation one would think a new store is to be started.

The Launch Evelyn.

The steel launch Evelyn, which was Lucas on the occasion of a recent visit to New York, for use as an inspection, supply and survey boat for the U. S. Engineer's office here, is expected almost daily. On Friday last the Engineer's office had information that the boat was at Norfolk and had need of a pilot to bring her into this port. Major Lucas immediately telegraphed Capt. C. M. Roberts, of the government service at Newbern, to proceed to Norfolk and pilot the Evelyn around, which he left to do, arriving at Norfolk Saturday. Yesterday the Engineer's corps received another telegram that the launch had departed from Norfolk at 10.30 o'clock Sunday morning. She will come up immediately to this port, probably to day.

Keeping His Eye Skinned. Capt. Robert Green, chief quarantine officer, is keeping his eye skinned to prevent people from the yellow fever infected points from coming into Wilmington. His vigilance could have been better shown than by an incident that occurred yesterday. A travelling man who had been in New Orleans was turned away from Charleston and it was supposed he would come to Wilmington. He got here yesterday and after considerable difficulty Capt. STATE TREASURER'S RULING

Sections 21 and 23.

Sheriff MacRae Has Received An Elucidation of Schedule B Tax Regulation.

Since Schedule B tax became due October 1st, there has been much confusion among merchants and those liable to the tax as to the proper construction to place upon the act regulating same. Some claim that when the capital tax is paid they are absolved from the tobacco and cigar tax and vice versa. To settle the matter, Mr. Owen Fennell, Sheriff MacRae's following reply was received: RALEIGH, N. C., Oct. 20, 1899. Walter G. MacRae, Sheriff, Wil-deputy clerk, addressed a letter to the State Treasurer and yesterday the mington, N. C .: DEAR SIR:-Yours of the 18th is to and and noted. You ask "If B is engaged in the grocery business as a dealer; also in tobacco, cigars, etc., does he pay tax on tobacco, cigars, etc. under Section 21 and also on his capital under Section 23." In reply, I will say that he should pay all the taxes levied under Section 21 on tobacco, cigars, etc., and also should pay under section 23 the tax on his capital employed less the amount of capital used in conducting the business taxed under Section 21. The portion of capital employed, under Section 21 is not liable to tax under Section 23. Your ruling has been strictly in accordance with the ruling of this office and is approved by the same.

Yours, very truly, W. H. WORTH,

State Treasurer. It would appear, therefore, from the above, that a dealer in merchandise, including tobacco, cigars, etc., is liable under both Sections, No. 21 and No. 23 of the Revenue Act.

TWO STRANGERS IN TROUBLE.

Young White Woman and Man Arrested On Warrant From Justice Fowler.

Upon a warrant sworn out by a down town Dock street boarding house keeper yesterday morning. two of the boarders, a middle aged white man and young white woman, were arrested and arraigned before Justice Fowler on a charge the nature of which will be disclosed at the trial before the Court this morning.

The parties arrested came here from the Western part of the State, at or near Asheville, N. C., about two months since and were engaged in selling by sample a variety of earthen pottery. It appears from what can be learned from the prosecutor that they are in arrears for board to the amount of nearly $40, and the warrant was procured as a measure of retaliation for the non-payment of same and as a rebuke for the unbecoming conduct at the house of the prosecutor. Repeated promises had been made that when a part of the goods sold were delivered, payment of the bill would be made, but it is claimed this was not done.

Justice Fowler postponed a hearing of the case until this morning at 9:30 purchased by Major E. W. VanCourt | o'clock and committed both defendants to jail. The women was later recognized for her appearance and set at liberty.

Violent Assault by a Negro.

Mr. Charley Davis, a young man about 20 years of age and a son of the late C. W. Davis, was quite severely injured Sunday afternoon, near corner of Fifth and Castle streets, by being struck with a stone, weighing probably eight ounces, and thrown by a negro named Bennet Churchill Moore, who bears rather a bad reputation in the community in which he lives. Mr. Davis received a severe scalp wound, and the stone was thrown with such violence that on Sunday night from the effects of the concussion he was delirious for several hours. Immediately after the assault, the young man was taken into Green's drug store, corner Fifth and Castle streets, where the wound was dressed by Dr. Burbanks. -He was later sent to the home of his mother, No. 416 Red Cross street.

The affair was promptly reported to headquarters and Hall Officer Woebse immediately arrested the negro, who was found at his home on Fourth, between Nun and Church streets. His case will be investigated as soon as young Mr. Davis recovers sufficiently to appear against him. The negro is also about 20 years old.

Y. M. C. A. Notes.

There will be an important meeting of the Woman's Auxiliary to the for fifteen days he was permitted to Y. M. C. A., in the parlors of the Association this morning at 11 o'clock. A full attendance is desired as it is the purpose of the ladies comprising the Auxiliary to more thoroughly perfect their organization and to arrange for definite work.

The first of the Association's Star Course of attractions, the Megg Sisters, a vocal quartette scarce excelled in the country, will appear in the auditorium Friday night week, November 3rd. Tickets for the course are now being delivered.

Revival at Immanuel Church.

A series of revival services will be begun at Immanuel Presbyterian Church, corner Front and Queen streets to morrow evening at 7:30 o'clock. Rev. Edward E. Lane, the pastor, will be assisted in the meeting by Rev. R. M. Williams, of Wallace. The exercises each evening will begin promptly at 7:30 o'clock with a song service and it is proposed to bring the whole preaching service within the limit of one hour. The sympathy and interest of the Christiam community is desired by Rev. Mr. Lane in the services.

THE OLYMPIA

OPERA COMPANY.

This Attraction Began a Week's Engagement at Opera House Last Night. The Bill for To-night.

The Olympia Opera Company, of New York, began a week's engage ment at the Wilmington Opera House last evening. They were greeted by a large audience and the bill presented was the bright comic opera "Boccac

The performance was highly satisfactory to the audience, and their apppreciation was manifested by the most demonstrative applause and frequent encores. The singing was excellent, and there are not only some superior singers in the cast, but they are supported by a good chorus of pretty girls. Miss Fanny Myers, the soprono pri madonna, in her role as Boccaccio, won her way at once into the favor of the audience, and her singing and acting were very pleasing. Miss Eleanor Jenkins, as Fiamatta, who also has an excellent soprano voice, won very great appreciation. The tenor singing of Mr. Ed. Weston, as "Fratelli," was also one of the taking features. The whole performance came up to the highest expectations, and no doubt

a large audience will be out to night to see the company in its presentation of the funny opera "Girofle-Girofla."

Messages from the Spirit Land. There arrived in Wilmington on Sunday Dr. Louis Schleisinger, of San Francisco, Cal., who is said to be the oldest spiritualist medium in America. Dr. Schleisinger is a guest of The Orton and a STAR reporter called on him yesterday with a number of gentlemen. He is 70 years of age and flowing white beard gives him a strikingly patriarchal appearance, while his manner is gentle and wholly unostentatious. He appears to be a sincere, earnest man, and profoundly impresses all who come in contact with him.

Dr. Schleisinger kindly gave two newspaper men and another gentleman an exhibition of his marvellous powers. Seated around an ordinary table with hands joined he asked, if any one was present from the spirit world. No one was touching the table but distinct raps on the table were heard in response to his question. Each of the gentlemen then wrote on a slip of paper their own names and the names of several others, including one or more departed relatives or friends. With out the Dr's. seeing any of the names written, and not knowing the names of any of the three gentlemen, the slips were folded and placed in a hat. When they were drawn from the hat one at a time, there would be rapping on the table when the name of a dead peason was drawn. Before the slip on which the name was written was opened, Dr. Schleisinger by listening to the raps would call out the name on the slip and would address by name the person who drew it, delivering a message from the one in the spirit land. It was a startling manifestation which was past the comprehension of all present.

Dr. Schleisinger gives these exhibitions to show his powers, but his principal business here is to cure diseases by means of spiritual influences, all his aid, he states, being derived from that source. He claims to cure at one sitting the tobacco habit, alcoholism, the opium and morphine habits and other diseases which are curable.

Mayor's Court.

Jim Morgan, the negro who shot the colored woman Emiline Brown, at corner Tenth and Mulberry streets a week ago and followed up his evil doing by slashing Policeman Guy with a knife, who afterwards arrested him on Market street, was held for the Criminal Court by the Mayor yesterday in an additional sum of $200 bond justified, for the assault upon the woman referred to. He was held several days ago in a like amount for the assault upon the policeman. The case against him yesterday was postponed from last week as the woman, on account of her injuries, was unable to attend trial. He was sent over to the county jail from the city prison and will be tried at the next term of New Hanover Circuit Criminal Court. Other cases tried yesterday were: Mike Bryant, white, throwing stones; discharged upon payment of costs. W. B. Baker, white, drunk and disorderly; fined $5. Burlington Johnson, colored, drunk; let off on payment costs. Louis Jones, colored, drunk and down: costs. Roger McMullen, colored, drunk; fined $5.

River Shipping.

The steamer E. A. Hawes, which has been on the ways for repairs during the past several days, came off yesterday afternoon and in charge of Capt. Black resumed her regular run last night up Black river. She will go this week as far as Mill Creek. The Hurt is expected down from Fayetteville to-day, though there was but little over two feet of water at Fayetteville yesterday morning. The Seabright will clear early this morning for Little River, S. C. Columbus Superior Court,

Court for Columbus county convey-W. Hicks, of this city, and was widely ed yesterday at Whiteville, with Judge Timberlake presiding and Solicitor McLean prosecuting.

> Junius Davis, Esq., went down yesterday afternoon to attend court. Major John D. Shaw, of Rockingham, who also has business in court, arrived here vesterday and left for Whiteville.
