Mr. Markham is now accused of cribbing "The Man with a Hoe," and from a woman, too—Miss Cora E. Chase, who published it in a California magazine in 1893.

The New York chap who lit on $5,000 which the owner, who didn't have confidence in the banks de- posited in his piano, and got away with it got more out of a piano than most people do.

The director of the U. S. mint reports the world's output of gold for 1895 at 13,964,363 full ounces, valued at $27,428,000, an increase of $50,000,000 over the output of the previous year.

The public debt of France including the communes and departments, is about $7,500,000,000, while the annual expenditures are about $800,000,000, a pretty heavy load for our French friends to tote.

Mark Hanna has invented a new campaign slogan, "Full dinner buckets and expansion." Mark also believes in a full barrel, though he does not hitch that on to his slogan. He keeps it within reach.

The Boers use the Mannlicher rifle, which has a killing capacity at a range of 4,000 yards, and the Boers know how to shoot it, too. At 4,000 yards the bullet will go through two inches of solid plank.

Notwithstanding the fact that ac- cording to the statistics of the U. S. Department of Agriculture the American hen added last year $300,000,000 to the national wealth, she has to scratch for a living.

Among the youthful adventures of Uncle Paul Kruger was the strangle of a wolf and the rescue of his little sister, who had been at- tacked by the wolf, and whipping a lion in a stand up fight. The old chap is making it hot for the British lion now.

Miss Frank, of Benson, Minne- sota, on her way to church, thought she would save time by hopping over the bumpers of a freight train which was standing on the track across the street. About the time she got up the train started and Miss Frank took a thirty-mile ride on the bumpers, free, gratis and for nothing. She missed church but had an exhilarating ride.

A Texas paper says East Texas is the only section now in which pure cane molasses can be found, the reason assigned being that with the improvements in sugar making the refiners work all the succharine mat- ter into sugar, leaving no molasses fit for human consumption. Well, what difference does that make when the molasses manipulator can put up a daisy article on short notice, anything you want to meet the taste, or the demand?

THE MARSHALL CASE TO BE TRIED AT RALEIGH.

No Bill of Indictment Sent Before Grand Jury Here—Proceedings in the U. S. Court yesterday.

The United States District Court, His Honor Judge Thos. R. Purnell presiding, which has been in session here since last Tuesday, finished up its business and adjourned yesterday afternoon.

It was anticipated that the court at this term would try the case against A. J. Marshall, Esq., a well known member of the Wilmington bar, who was arrested last Spring on the charge of being an accomplice of Nick Politz in counterfeiting silver coin, but District Attorney Bernard did not even send a bill before the grand jury. Government Detective B. F. Perry, of Charlotte, who worked up the counterfeiting case, was here to attend the expected trial as a witness.

As to the case against Mr. Marshall the following entry appears upon yesterday's court record: "Continued for bill; defendant required to renew his bond." It will be remembered that the case against Mr. Marshall was continued from the May term of the court, and that he gave bond in the amount of $5,000 for his appearance for trial at this term.

There has been much speculation as to the failure of the District At- torney to send in a bill in this case, but there are good reasons for believ- ing that the trial will not take place in Wilmington but will be held in Ra- leigh next month. Theodore Darkley, the young Greek who has been con- fined in jail here since June 12th as a witness in this case, because he could not give a bond of $1,000 was released on bond yesterday afternoon through the effort of his attorney, B. G. Em- pie, Esq. His bond was reduced to $100, and that amount, in lieu of a bond, was retained out of the fee which he gets as a witness in duranc. The government allows him one dol- lar per day and his board for every day he is held in jail as a witness. To yesterday he had been confined in jail 145 days, and in addition to the fee allowed, his expense for medicine and medical attendance was allowed, he having had a spell of sickness during his confinement. It is learned on good authority that when his bond was taken yesterday afternoon it was for his appearance as a witness during the first week of the December term of the District Court to be held at Raleigh. This would indicate that the case against Mr. Marshall is to be trans- ferred to Raleigh.

At the session of the court yesterday cases were disposed of as follows:
U. S. vs. Cypress Distillery Com- pany, continued for bill.
U. S. vs. T. J. Gore, indicted for the removal of spirits from unstamped packages. Defendant admitted that his agent without defendant's knowl- edge or consent and against his instructions failed to make the proper entries on the book required by law to be kept at the distillery, but he denied that there was any intent to defraud the government. This plea was accepted and the case was dismissed upon the payment of a penalty of $100 and the costs.

U. S. vs. James Blue, violation of the U. S. revenue law, continued. De- fendant required to give bond in the sum of $1,000 for his appearance at the December term at Raleigh.
U. S. vs. W. E. Black, former post- master at Carthage, N. C., charged with misappropriating postoffice funds. Continued to the December term at Raleigh. Defendant was required to give a bond of $1,000.

U. S. vs. John Graham, convicted of retaining liquor without license; judg- ment suspended on payment of the costs amounting to $56.62, which was paid.

S. W. Skinner vs. George Harris, Jr., libel involving the ownership of the barque Marion S. Harris, argued as to jurisdiction by Col. Thos. Evas and by Capt. Skinner, and by Messrs. Geo. Routree, E. K. Bryan and George H. Howell, for the defendant. The Judge took the papers and reserved his de- cision.

River Shipping Notes.
The steamer Hurt arrived from Fayetteville at 8 o'clock yesterday morning and cleared last evening on the return trip with a cargo of general merchandise.

The Hanes came in from up Black river Friday night and cleared at 3:30 o'clock yesterday afternoon for the return.

The Driver did not clear yesterday but will return to Fayetteville Mon- day. She is being handsomely re- painted and when completed will be one of the prettiest boats on the river.

The Driver was at her wharf yester- day looking none the worse for her rough experience with the storm Mon- day night at Navassa. She proved on this occasion one of the sturdiest of the river craft.

The steamer Seabright cleared last night about 9 o'clock for the return to Little River, S. C., with a heavy cargo of general merchandise. Capt. Sanders says that it is the schooner Spray, which is bottom up in Charlotte Inlet and not the Stonewall reported yester- day. The Stonewall has not been heard of since the storm, though her crew got ashore all safe in small boats.

The Sneed-Fuller Co. will for a few days only, continue their dining room chair sale. Those in need of chairs, would do well to call.

AT THE OPERA HOUSE.

"The Winter's Tale" Presented by a Strong Company—Coming Attrac- tions This Week.

"The Winter's Tale" was most suc- cessfully presented by the great star triumvirate—Kiddler, James and Han- ford—at the Opera House last night. Of the play itself nothing of course need be said, 'twas Shakespeare's— one of his prettiest plays—presented by a company that ranks among the best that has ever visited Wilmington. The triumvirate, as a whole and in- dividually, sustained their well de- served and enviable reputation.

Louis James, in the comic role of Autolycus, a rogue, was excellent, and the audience regretted that the plot did not enable them to see more of him. James Hanford, as Leontes, King of Sicilia, portrayed the charac- ter in a most impressive and credit- able manner. Kathryn Kiddler, in the double role of Hermione, Queen, and Perdita, daughter of Leontes and Hermione, was superb.

The acting and scenery were excel- lent throughout but the climax was appropriately reached in the last scene of the last act and it is safe to say that more effective and impressive scene has never been witnessed on the Wil- mington stage.

The audience was fashionable and select, but the performance—the best of its kind ever witnessed here—de- served a much larger patronage. The criticisms every where have been most complimentary and it is to be regretted that more of the theatre-goes did not have the pleasure of seeing it.

Lovers of good music, clever sing- ing and dancing, combined with pure and wholesome comedy, will have the opportunity of witnessing some excel- lent performances at the Opera House next week, for charming little Mabel Paige, who justly bears the well earned title of "The Idol of the South," in conjunction with Marshall's Musical Comedy Company, is billed to begin an engagement to-morrow night. Mabel Paige is not well known in the South to require any introduc- tion, and her managers, Messrs. Marshall & Co., have spared no ex- penses in surrounding her with a com- pany of capable and versatile artists. The company's repertoire is a large one and includes a number of bright mu- sical comedies, among which are "The Little Cadet," "Wicklow Lass," "The Eloping," "Miss Juliet," "Down in Mississippi," "Miss Rora," "The Lit- tle Rebel," "Bachelor's Dilemma," "The Girl from Ireland," "Charity Bob," "Under the Cuban Star," "In the Highlands," etc. As it has been the custom of companies playing week stands to play at popular prices, 10, 21 and 30 cents, there will be no de- viation from this rule during this en- gagement, although the expense of equipping and maintaining this or- ganization is much greater than that of the ordinary repertoire companies.

To-morrow night ladies will be ad- mitted free of charge if accompanied by a person holding one paid 30 cents ticket. The Little Egyptian will be the opening bill.

NEW WHOLESALE HOUSE.
Messrs. Cooper & Cooper, of Mullins, S. C., Will Open Grocery Business.
Messrs. Cooper & Cooper, a firm of two enterprising young business men who have successfully controlled a large retail mercantile supply house at Mullins, S. C. for a number of years, have decided to close their store in the last named place, and will at a very early date open up a wholesale busi- ness here. They have already rented the commodious and eligibly located new brick store house on Nutt street between the Worth building and that of the Armour Packing Company, and will open their doors to the trade in a very few days.

Both members of the firm are brothers of Mr. W. B. Cooper, one of Wilmington's most successful whole- sale merchants, and the STAR joins many friends in wishing them a long and successful existence in their busi- ness career in North Carolina's most favored commercial centre.

Monthly Fire Report.
The report of Chief Charles Schnib- ben, of the Wilmington fire depart- ment, for the month of October, as it will be presented to the Board of Al- dermen at the regular monthly meet- ing to-morrow night, will show the following statistics of interest to the public:

During the month the department responded to fifteen alarms, eleven of which were by bell, three by tele- phone and one still alarm. The causes of the alarms were as fol- lows: Lamp explosion, 2; unknown, 1; sparks from chimney, 3; defective flue, 2; false alarm, 1; fire falling from stove, 1; incendiary, 1; chim- ney burning out, 1; sparks from fire- place, 1; candle burning too low, 1; storm, 1. The valuation of buildings in which fires occurred is $18,500; in- surance on buildings, $10,000; valua- tion of contents of buildings, $3,500; insurance on contents, $3,500; damage to buildings, $681.93; damage to con- tents, $597.25.

Run Down by Cyclist.
Rev. John Epps, an old colored man who is employed to assist in lighting the oil lamps of the city, was run down by a bicyclist yesterday morning about 5 o'clock at the corner of Fourth and Swann streets. He was carrying a ladder and was knocked insensible for some time. He received an ugly gash on the head which was dressed by Dr. McMillan. The iden- tity of the rider who ran over the old man is unknown.

NORTHERN CAPITALISTS EFFECT A DEAL.

Wilmington Gaslight Company to Change Hands and be Reorganized—New Methods and Improvements.

Northern capitalists have con- summated the deal, heretofore al- luded to, by which they secure an option on the plant of the Wilmington Gaslight Company. It is understood that only the details of the purchase remain to be arranged and that the property is soon to be transferred to the new company.

The Wilmington Gaslight Company is a corporation composed mostly of stockholders who reside in this city, and it operates both a gas and electric plant. The representative of the new purchase was here the past week to consummate the trade and it is under- stood that he has gone back North to close up the transaction.

It is said that when the new pur- chasers get control of the company will be reorganized and the plant oper- ated on a scale that will revolutionize things. New methods and the latest improvements are to be inaugurated by the new purchasers.

IMPROVEMENT OF PRINCESS STREET
How Shall This Important Thoroughfare Be Paved?
It is presumed that the Board of Al- dermen, which meets to-morrow night in regular monthly session, will take up this important matter.

This street has become one of the principal thoroughfares of the city, as it leads to the public buildings, includ- ing the city hall, the county court house and opera house, and the man- ner of its improvement should be a matter of earnest and careful consid- eration. Its pavement has been in con- templation for several years, and cer- tainly it should be attended to without delay, for it has been one of the most neglected streets of our city—reeking with deep mud holes in wet weather, and in dry and windy weather being a dust producer of gigantic proportions. The fact is it has become an eye sore.

The STAR is reliably informed by one of the members of the Finance Committee that with the view to mak- ing a permanent improvement of this street, either with asphalt or vitrified brick, the unusually large appropriation of $25,000 was agreed upon by the Finance Committee, to be appropriated in the annual budget for streets and wharves improvements, realizing that such improvement as this thoroughfare requires and should have cost several thousand dollars.

There has been some talk of maca- damizing the street with shell or phos- phate rock, but it is hoped that the Streets and Wharves Committee will not decide upon such material for the work. Not only the citizens and tax- payers on the street will not approve of such an improvement, but the citi- zens of Wilmington at large are not in favor of having so important a thoroughfare improved with such mate- rial. It would be money wasted, as in a very few years it would be in about as bad condition as it is now. The repairs it would require from year to year, added to the expenditure for the improvement, would pay for per- manent work.

The Wrecked Sailors.
Captain F. C. Miller, of the steamer Catharine Whitney, of New York, which was wrecked at Goss Beach, on the Brunswick county coast on Tues- day morning during the hurricane, made arrangements yesterday for him- self and the seventeen men of his crew to leave to-day for New York on the Clyde steamer New York. The steamer will sail at 2 o'clock this after- noon from the wharf of the Cape Fear Lumber Company.

The second officer, Mr. Frank John- son, who was struck by a piece of timber and knocked from the bridge, getting his hand severely cut, in a fall of twelve feet while the ship was going to pieces, is getting along very well, considering his rough experi- ence.

Street Work.
Superintendent of Streets J. A. Perry has been engaged since Wednesday in cleaning up the debris left by the recent storm. All the city carts and wagons have been in constant use and the job has been an unusually tedious one. Mr. Perry says he is unable to state when he can get more of the phosphate rock for the permanent street improvement. The convicts at Castle Hayne for the most part have been transferred to the different State farms to pick the cotton crops and the quarries there have not been operated for some time. It is expected that at to-morrow night's meeting of the Board of Aldermen some action will be taken looking to the Princess street work, the need of which is be- coming more apparent every day.

Funeral This Afternoon.
The funeral of little Jerris D. Dre- her, whose death was announced in yesterday's STAR, will be held from the residence of his parents, Dr. and Mrs. J. H. Dreher, No. 807 Princess street, this afternoon at 3 o'clock. The services will be conducted by Rev. A. G. Voigt, D. D., pastor of St. Paul's Evangelical Lutheran Church and the interment will be at Oakdale cemetery.

Tag Jones in Hard Luck.
The tug Alexander Jones returned Friday night to Southport having missed the abandoned schooner Annie T. Bailey off Frying Pan Lightship, for which she went on Thursday after- noon. The Bailey had been previous- ly taken in tow Thursday by the Mer- chants' and Miners Transportation Company's steamer Essex, bound from Baltimore to Savannah, and carried to a point twelve miles off the Charleston Lightship, from whence she was sub- sequently taken by the Charleston tug Waban into Charleston harbor. Second officer Turner, of the Essex, is in charge of her. The Bailey had lumber from Fernandina to Washing- ton, D. C.

The Jones went out again for a cruise along the coast yesterday but up to last night she brought tidings of no further wrecks. With her mate, the Blanche, on the beach at South- port, the Jones is "playing in extreme- ly hard luck."

The Local Cotton Market.
In sympathy with the New York and Liverpool quotations the local cotton market yesterday experienced an advance of one-eighth and the tone was firm. With the advance in prices coming increased receipts, 2,835 bales having been reported at the Produce Exchange yesterday against 3,985 bales on the corresponding day in 1898. The quotations last year on November 4th were on a basis of only 4 1/2 cents for middling—a difference in favor of the producer of two and three-eighths cents per pound.

The British steamer Slingsby, of 2,094 tons burden, Capt. Morek, was cleared last night by Mr. J. H. Sloan for Bremen, Germany, with a cargo of 10,094 bales of cotton, 5,022,941 pounds, valued at $376,720.

A Preacher's Rebuke.
The Richmond Times of last Sun- day comments approvingly upon Rev. John Stanley Thomas' preface to a recent sermon delivered at the Suffolk city hall on modern pulpitering, which has been widely copied and endorsed by a number of leading journals in several States. Rev. Mr. Thomas is well known and deservedly popular in Wilmington, and his friends will learn with gratification that his ser- mons—fearlessly and eloquently de- liverd as they are—are earning for him a widespread reputation and that they are accomplishing much good in his newly chosen field.

Barque Johanne.
The Norwegian barque Johanne, Capt. Thorson, which was slightly in- jured during the recent storm while at quarantine at the Cape Fear station, was yesterday towed by the Marion to Paterson, Downing & Co.'s naval stores yard, where she will begin load- ing. The underwriters' agent was here yesterday and a board of survey was held, the report of which will be made to the owners. It can, however, be definitely stated that she will repair here and will be delayed very little by reason of her accident. She is con- signed to Messrs. Heide & Co.

Sociable Wednesday Evening.
One of the pleasant events announ- ced for the coming week is a sociable, which will be given at Hibernian Hall next Wednesday evening for the benefit of St. Thomas church. Arrangements for the affair are in the hands of a competent committee, which is sparing no pains to make it equal if not excel all previous enter- tainments of this kind which have been attended in years past with the great- est of success. Refreshments will be served and an admission fee of twenty- five cents for adults and ten cents for children will be charged.

Magistrate's Court.
Justice McGowan investigated four cases in his court yesterday, two of the offenders, Wm. Howe and Joseph Johnson, having been recognized in the sum of $35 each for their ap- pearance at Criminal Court to an- swer to the charges of assault and battery with deadly weapons. Newton Hay- wood, colored, was required to give bond for the support of his family.

To Be Repaired at Once.
Mr. H. C. McQueen, president of the New Hanover Transit Company, vis- ited Carolina Beach yesterday and in- spected the damage done to the com- pany's railroad track on the beach. He and Mr. Hans A. Kure looked into the situation, and Mr. McQueen tells a STAR representative that he thinks the track can be replaced and the dam- age to the road can be repaired for $600.

At a meeting of the company on Tuesday night it was determined to repair the railroad from the river pier to its terminus on the beach. Mr. McQueen says the work will be com- menced at once, so the rails that were carried by the high water into the sound can be gotten out before cold weather sets in.

The terrible work of the storm un- damps the company and nothing will be left undone to rehabilitate this popular seaside resort by the time the next season opens.

Funeral of Mr. Z. Hursey.
The funeral of Mr. Z. Hursey, whose death at his home No. 524 South Front street on Friday was announced in the STAR yesterday, will be held from Fifth Street Methodist Church this afternoon at 3 o'clock, Rev. John H. Hall, the pastor, officiating.

Mr. Hursey was for a long time identified with the fishing interests around Wilmington, and leaves a wife as the only member of his im- mediate family. Stonewall Jackson Castle No. 2, Knights of the Golden Eagle, of which he was a member, will attend the funeral in a body. The interment will be at Bellevue.

Piano Recital.
At Shurbert Hall yesterday the es- tablished Saturday recital by the pupils of Miss Carrie Chasten, proved to be as pleasant and successful as usual. The programme was skillfully rendered as follows:

Mazurka, (Streliski.) Isabel Yopp,
"Swiss Song," (Pacher.) Bessie Lo- dor.

"Confidence" (Mendelssohn) Irene Peterson.
"Glean My Angel" (Watchman.) Bessie Montgomery.
Sonata op 2 No. 3, (Beethoven.) James C. Craft.

Fishbait Clothing Company.
The Fishbait Clothing Company hope to remove into their elegant store room in the Masonic Temple this week, and promise their patrons to give them due notice of an elaborate open- ing, which will be given when they are comfortably installed in their new quarters. In the meantime the closing out sale is going merrily on at the old stand, and at the opening a fresh and bright stock of all the newest fads in men's wear will be shown.

Mayor's Court.
Only three offenders were arraign- ed in the municipal court yesterday. H. C. Fisher was charged with disorderly conduct, but was dismissed. George Davis for the same offence was given twenty days. Charles Thompson, a tramp, was es- corted to the city limits and told to "move." He was picked up in a drunken condition Friday afternoon by Hall Officer H. H. Woebse.

Five marriage licenses were issued during the past week—four to colored couples and one to white per- sons.

A MAN'S SHIRT
MAY BE OUT OF SIGHT,
but if it isn't comfortable he has very little reason to wear it. A science, everybody can't make good shirts any more than every- body can write a book. We have always prided ourselves on the superiority of our Shirts, and it is a reputation we hope to maintain until the end of the chapter. Give us a try.
