OUTLINES.

Over fifty people lost their lives in a great fire in Canton, China. Vice President Hiram is growing weaker. Steamer Winifred, from Galveston, arrived at Boston with cargo of cotton on fire. The British claim to have been victorious in an engagement at Ladysmith; Boer loss was very heavy. A convention has been signed providing for adjustment by arbitration of Samoan claims. General Wolsey is severely criticized for his apparent ignorance of the strength of the Boer forces. Re- strength of the election of their publicans claim the election of their candidate for Governor in Ohio. Maryland elects a Democratic Governor. The Fusionists carry New Jersey. The election of Taylor, Republican candidate for Governor in Kentucky, is indicated by the returns.

Mr. Kohlstaet, Mr. McKinley's friend, who edits a paper in Chicago, also runs a big bake shop, must also be interested in the rope making business. He wants all the anti-expansionists hanged.

John Wanamaker says, "we haven't had an honest election in Pennsylvania for years." And it will be years before they do unless there be some miraculous missionary work done in that State.

The Ohio man who failed to get an office and brooded over it until he landed in the insane asylum, set a bad precedent. If all of the disappointed did that most of the male population would be in asylums.

There is a sure-enough boycott on in the University of Wisconsin. The girl students have resolved to receive no attentions, or invitations to swap chat or anything else until the boys return some property which they stole from the girls.

In her speech to parliament Queen Victoria eulogized the troops which are "repelling the invasion of my South African colonies." Judging from the wired reports we get they don't seem to be doing much "repelling."

There is trouble in St. Louis. The town is threatened with a "saucer-kraut famine." Cabbages have gone up from 7¢ to 16¢ a ton, and there is a limited supply at that, so that it is only the wealthy who can afford to indulge in the luxury of sauerkraut.

According to the official figures of the Treasury there are now in this country over a billion dollars in gold; $75,488,989 in the Treasury or in circulation and $139,017,000 billion in the Treasury. There may be that much in circulation, but there is not much of it circulating down this way.

There are some things the Pennsylvania farmer will stand and some things he won't. It was all right when two men the other day took refuge from a storm in an old granger's barn, but when he found them taking liberties with his cider barrel, which they tapped, he just went to his house, got his gun and winged them both before they got away.

That idiot Hugo De Bathe was fool enough to let his new wife, the Jersey Lily, know that he was jealous of her and wanted her all for his own sweet self. Then she gave him the grand bounce, parted from him "forever," or words to that effect, and now disdainfully refers to him as "Hugo" or "has been," which she has added to her collection of reminiscences.

The editor of the High Point Enterprise is bragging about a 5¢ foot candle candle that was recently murdered in Randolph county and calls it the biggest thing in the snake show in that section. Well, that does pretty well for Randolph, but down here we have them so long that they sometimes reach from one county into another.

THE MORNING STAR.

VOL. LXV.—NO. 40. WILMINGTON, N. C., WEDNESDAY, NOVEMBER 8, 1899. WHOLE NO. 10,055

LOCAL DOTS.

The Clyde steamship Onida arrived at 12:45 o'clock this morning from New York.
— There was a killing frost in this section yesterday. Late crops were knocked out, so the truckers say.
— The Board of City Hospital Managers will hold its November meeting to-morrow afternoon at 2:30 o'clock.
— Justice Fowler yesterday married a colored couple in the county jail and thereby brought to an end a lawsuit.
— Mr. R. H. Brady has commenced the work of repairing the damage done by the storm to the First Baptist Church last week.

The STAR learns that Governor D. L. Russell will erect a hand some residence on his place just beyond Brunswick river bridge.
— The annual meeting of the stockholders of the Carolina Central Railroad will be held at the Seaboard Air Line building this afternoon.
— The river steambest Hawes and Hurt arrived yesterday morning and cleared late in the afternoon for the return trip to Alpine and Fayetteville, respectively.

The board of directors of the Wilmington Merchants' Association will meet at 3:30 o'clock this afternoon at the rooms of the association in the Seaboard Air Line building.
— The High School football team will meet to-night at Fifth and Market streets for practice and to decide about the prospective game with the Red Springs team on Thanksgiving day.
— Capt. Ward, of the steam tug Buck, yesterday received a new propeller for his boat and it is now being placed by machinists, preparatory to resuming the old schedule to-day or to-morrow.

People who were on the sleeper at Wilson Monday night, say they were kept awake all night by the roaring of loas. It seems that a circus train was on the track by the side of the sleeper.
— The causeway of the Brunswick Bridge and Ferry Company is again in first class condition and travelers will experience no further trouble in crossing from the Brunswick side of the river.
— The guaranteed regular every-day circulation of THE MORNING STAR is much larger than that of any other daily newspaper published in Wilmington. This claim has never been challenged by any competing newspaper.

The steamship Moonstone yesterday moved up to the old C. F. & Y. terminal at Point Peter and she is now being loaded with gum timber by Mr. Will L. Miller, representing the Acme Tea Chest Co., of Glasgow, Scotland.
— The steamer Ida Lawrence, which was towed into Southport by the tug Marion and the steamer Esser after the recent storm, is still lying at anchor there, and Mr. Jerry Smith, representing the underwriters and other agents here are arranging the salvage.
— The New York Tribune of Nov. 3rd, contains an account of the sinking five miles south of Frying-pan shoals of the four-masted schooner Napoleon Boughton, from New York to Charleston with a cargo of salt. The captain, mate and five Scandinavian sailors were rescued by the Clyde liner Comanche and taken to New York.

The steamer Southport came up to the city under her own steam yesterday with a dredging boat in tow which was used in getting her off the beach at Southport where she went ashore during the recent storm. She looks none the worse for her mishap, and barring a very slight accident to her railing, she is apparently un- injured.
— Capt. Robt. M. Clark, special inspector of the United States revenue cutter service, arrived here yesterday to look after the on the custom house wharf. He says the Revenue Cutter Algonquin is now on the railway having a digke put in and will come to Wilmington as soon as the wharf is finished, which will be in three or four weeks.

Annual Inspection W. L. I.
Capt. C. H. White, of the Wilmington Light Infantry, yesterday received notification from Col. F. P. Hobgood, Jr., Inspector General of the State Guard, that he would be here from his home at Oxford, N. C., on Wednesday, November 15th, to hold the annual inspection of the W. L. I., which is Company C of the State Guard. The inspection will take place at 8:15 o'clock in the evening. Col. Hobgood will also inspect Wilmington Division Naval Reserves while he is here.

ADJOURNED MEETING OF COUNTY COMMISSIONERS.

Tax Matters Considered—Relief for Storm Sufferers—Bridges Contract Awarded. Adjourned Until Friday.

Matters regarding the tax assessment and the awarding of the contract for the rebuilding of bridges across Hewlett and Whiskey creeks, were the principal things to engage the Board of County Commissioners at an adjourned meeting held yesterday afternoon. There were in attendance upon the meeting Col. Ryger Moore, Chairman, and Commissioners Alexander and Holmes.
A rebate of one half per cent, was allowed Junius Davis, Esq., on $2,500 assessment on yearly income, the amount appearing to be on income other than salaries and fees by error in computation.
In the matter of the Brunswick Bridge and Ferry Company, left over from Monday's session, it was ordered that the Sheriff list against the company $1,200 in lieu of delinquent tax listed against them for 1899.
Mr. W. M. Hensley was appointed to survey certain lands in Harnett township for Mr. C. B. Bellois.
An abatement of $5,000 was allowed on the tax assessment of the capital stock of the Johnson Dry Goods Company.

Applications of Mr. F. A. Lord and others on Wrightsville Beach and of Mr. H. C. McQueen and others on Carolina Beach for relief in matter of taxes on property destroyed in the recent storm was refused. The sentiment of the board was that while property owners had the sympathy of members, the board had no legal right to abate any of the taxation.
Bids for repairing and rebuilding bridges over Hewlett's and Whiskey creeks, which were swept away by floods incident to last week's storm, were opened and the contract awarded to Mr. A. G. Call at $80 for each bridge, contractor to have privilege of the use of all sound material in old bridges and to furnish new material necessary to completion; to fill in buttresses and raise embankment with earth according to specification of Capt. Barry, the road superintendent; the same to be completed in fifteen days. Other bidders for the contract were Frank Thomas, who offered to make repairs to the two bridges, exclusive of furnishing material, and F. C. Sadgaw, Sr., who offered to repair the Hewlett bridge for $75, the county to furnish all materials including lumber and hardware.
Reduction in valuation of real estate for taxation was refused to Messrs. Geo. E. Burnett, Edward Broadus, Geo. de Louis Hollingsworth, Louis Reeves and Francis Starkey, all of whom applied for reduction.
An application from Messrs. J. W. Norwood, Franklin McNeill, M. J. Heyer, E. K. Calder, D. L. Gore, P. L. Brinkers, Jno. D. Bellamy and N. B. Rankin, Wilmington shareholders in the Blue Ridge National Bank, of Asheville, N. C., asking for a reduction in tax valuation of stock, was not granted, upon the ground that the same had been entered upon the books as received from the State Auditor. The shareholders based their argument on the ground that Wilmington National Bank stock was assessed at 75 per cent, on surplus accounts and paid in capital, while their stock in the Asheville institution was assessed at its paid in capital. They also took the position that Wilmington and Buncombe county made assessments on the same stock last year at only 75 per cent, of the surplus and paid in capital.
An adjournment was taken late in the afternoon until next Friday at 3:30 o'clock P. M.

CAPTAIN BLACK'S RETIREMENT.

Has Resigned As Master of Steamer Hawes. Succeeded by Capt. J. C. Smith.
Capt. D. J. Black, master of the steamer E. A. Hawes, and one of the best known and most popular steam boatmen on the river, yesterday resigned his position with the Cape Fear River Transportation Company, owners of the Hawes, and will engage in other business.
Capt. Black is succeeded by Capt. James C. Smith, formerly of Wilmington and master of the steamer Compton, but now of Fayetteville. He went up Black River on his initial trip yesterday.
It will be only with feelings of deepest regret that shippers along the river and his host of friends will hear of Captain Black's retirement. He has been on the river in the position from which he resigned yesterday for seventeen consecutive years, and during that period a serious accident has never befallen a boat in his charge nor has there been a single employe or passenger drowned from a deck of one of his vessels.
Though Capt. Black does not make any announcement of his future plans, it is intimated by a number of his personal friends that he will soon be in charge of another boat, which will cater to the Black river trade.
Capt. Smith needs no introduction to the shippers and citizens along the lower Cape Fear. His obliging manners and capable business management have always made him a favorite with river people, and his appointment to succeed Capt. Black is a good one.

The Yellow Fever Quarantine.

Frost having occurred here and throughout the South, Dr. W. D. McMillan, superintendent of health, yesterday withdrew Capt. Robert Green, chief quarantine officer, from the inspection of trains to prevent persons from the infected districts from coming to Wilmington. In view of the smallpox epidemic in Georgia, however, Capt. Green will now have instructions to watch the trains in order to keep away smallpox suspects.

A Week of Opera.

Mr. W. Allen Jenkins, advance representative of the Dan Packard Opera Company, and Mr. Robert Lee Lorenz, the advertising agent, were here yesterday making arrangements and billing the town for a week's engagement of that splendid attraction at the Opera House all of next week. They were welcome callers on the STAR last evening.

AUDITING COMMITTEE MET.

City Board Held Regular Session Last Night—Action of Aldermen Considered in Several Matters.

The first of the semi-monthly meetings of the City Board of Audit and Finance for November was held last night, all members being present. Bonds aggregating $1,900 due January 1st, 1912, and bearing 5 per cent, interest, and which had been paid out of the premium money received from the "funding bonds," were together with the coupons on the bonds from January 1st, 1900, to January 1st, 1912, both inclusive, burned by the Board. Six coupons, amounting to $112.50, due January 1st, 1899, which had been paid, were also burned.
Action of the Board of Aldermen at its last meeting was considered in as follows: In fixing salary of second assistant to the city clerk and treasurer at $50 per month; in appropriating $350 to supplement "insurance fund" in the regular fiscal budget; in appropriating $700 for wire for the fire alarm system; in relieving the Navassa Guano Company of tax on the tug Navassa for reasons stated.
In the matter of the abatement of the tax on the Brunswick Bridge and Ferry Company, action was deferred.
The action of the board in disapproving a bill of New Hanover county, amounting to $64.50, for hire of conveyances for the use of assessors and commissioners in assessing real estate in the city during July, was reconsidered and the amount allowed.
Action was deferred in the matter of the appropriation by the Board of Aldermen of $137.50 for the fire alarm system. The committee of Aldermen on Fire Department were requested to furnish information as to the whole cost of such equipment.
The Board of Audit is of the opinion that a bell tower is unnecessary with the paid fire department.
The Committee on Streets and Wharves were also requested to furnish the board with further information as to the cost of rock crusher and other machinery, for which an appropriation out of the regular street and wharves fund was made at Monday night's meeting. They also requested of the committee in formation as to cost of running such machinery, and of the cost of the late permanent improvement on Front, between Orange and Ann streets. Action of the board was deferred in this matter.
Bills for current expenses were audited and approved as follows: Current expenses, $6,821.79; note held by commissioner of sinking fund, dated June 24th, 1895—principal $10,000, interest on note $233.34; coupons, $112.50; bonds, $1,900; quar- antine expenses, $22. Total, $18,779.63.
The board adjourned, subject to call of the chairman.

The Produce Exchange.

The regular monthly meeting of the Board of Managers of the Produce Exchange was held yesterday morning.
The routine business was transacted and the resignations of Messrs. Charles E. Borden and M. S. Willard were accepted. Mr. Borden resigns because of his removal to Richmond and the secretary was instructed to write him and express regret at the severance of his official relations with the Exchange, of which he has been a valuable and influential member.
The secretary was instructed to call the attention of the city authorities to the leaving of guano on the wharf at the rear of the Exchange, which is a violation of the ordinances, and to request that prompt action be taken to abate this nuisance. The guano on warm days is just a little too odorous for the olfactory of the members of the Exchange.

The Ship That Never Came.

Mrs. Flora B. Lambert, of Brooklyn, N. Y., wife of Capt. A. M. Lambert, of the schooner Bianca, is here on a visit to the family of Capt. W. P. Monroe.
It will be remembered that the Bianca sailed from Macaris, San Domingo, on the first of last August, since which time neither the vessel nor Capt. Lambert has been heard of. There seems to be little doubt that during the August hurricane the schooner went down with all on board. Capt. Lambert had many friends in Wilmington who have painfully awaited tidings of him.
When Mrs. Lambert leaves Wilmington she will go to her paternal home in Maine. She has the sympathy of many Wilmington acquaintances in the peculiar sorrow which is hers.

The Yellow Fever Quarantine.

Frost having occurred here and throughout the South, Dr. W. D. McMillan, superintendent of health, yesterday withdrew Capt. Robert Green, chief quarantine officer, from the inspection of trains to prevent persons from the infected districts from coming to Wilmington. In view of the smallpox epidemic in Georgia, however, Capt. Green will now have instructions to watch the trains in order to keep away smallpox suspects.

A Week of Opera.

Mr. W. Allen Jenkins, advance representative of the Dan Packard Opera Company, and Mr. Robert Lee Lorenz, the advertising agent, were here yesterday making arrangements and billing the town for a week's engagement of that splendid attraction at the Opera House all of next week. They were welcome callers on the STAR last evening.

CHARMING AFFAIR.

TO-MORROW NIGHT.
The Box Sheet Opens This Morning for the Ariel Ladies' Sextette at the Y. M. C. A. Auditorium.

The holders of tickets for the popular course of entertainments at the Y. M. C. A. will be pleased to know that the first of the course of five entertainments will take place in the auditorium to-morrow night. The box sheet opens this morning at Yates & Co.'s book store, and we know from the large number of subscribers to the course, about 500, that it will be all most in tatters by night.
The Philadelphia Record says: "The Six Sweet Sisters appeared last night for the sixth time in this city on the Association course in one of their charming and popular programmes." We have had these charming entertainers in Wilmington before and we are glad that they are to come to us again. We remember with pleasure the recitations of Miss Margurite, which one moment had our sympathies aroused to the highest pitch only to elicit a burst of uncontrolled laughter the next. She is good. "A News-boy's Interview with Bob Taylor" is a new one that she gives this time.
Miss Emma has a phenomenal octavo solo, quite remarkable for its purity of tone and excellence of quality. Mention also might be made of the four others of the Six Sweet Singing Sisters.
See the advertisement of the management for prices.

Carolina Beach Will Be All Right.

Major D. O. Connor, Mrs. O'Connor, Miss Maie O'Connor, Mr. Walter Smallbones and Mr. G. W. Linder returned last evening from Carolina Beach where they went yesterday morning to look after their wrecked cottages.
Mr. Thadd Tyler, the builder, went down to temporarily strengthen the foundation of the cottages of Messrs. D. McEathern and W. L. Smith which were wrecked by the storm on Tuesday morning of last week. At a more convenient time Mr. Tyler will remove the two cottages farther back from the ocean.
Major O'Connor thinks that the cottages will rebuild next season and it is his opinion that with proper foundations cottages can be made safe from future storms. He declares that Carolina Beach will be all right by the opening of next season.

Opera House.

Miss Paige and her company of clever players made their second appearance last night to an appreciative audience in the farcical comedy "A Bachelor's Dilemma." The play from start to finish is fun-making and every one in the cast seemed to have the right conception of their part.
Miss Paige as Sally, in the title role sustained her reputation and was at all times a favorite with the audience.
Mr. Frey as Patrick Finnegan, and Miss Harcourt as Miss Cammie, handling the comedy parts in their own style—mirth provoking and up-to-date.
The company will present this afternoon, being the first of the series of matinees, "The Other Girl," and to-night "The Little Cadet." The price at the matinee is only ten cents.

The Drummer Medium.

Mr. George A. Letford, the well known representative of H. E. Bucklen, of Chicago, is again at the Opera House. His act is known as the "Drummer medium" and last evening a representative of the STAR saw him give a remarkable demonstration of his power as a medium. A well known Wilmington gentleman had a sitting and the medium told him of many occurrences in his past life, some of which he had forgotten but which he recalled after being given reminders that brought everything back to him. He even correctly told the gentleman certain things that he is contemplating for the future.

Delegates to State Convention.

At the business meeting of the congregation of the First Baptist Church on Monday night, the Rev. Dr. C. S. Blackwell and Dr. A. M. Baldwin were named as delegates to the Baptist State Convention, to be held next month in Asheville.
Dr. Blackwell said he would probably go to South Carolina to conduct a meeting next week, and that in the event he did so, the Rev. W. C. Newton, of Goldsboro, will probably occupy his pulpit next Sunday.

One to Richmond.

The annual convention of the United Daughters of the Confederacy convened in Richmond yesterday. Mrs. R. W. Hicks, Mrs. Kate Meares, Miss Eliza Metts and Mary F. Meares, left here yesterday morning to represent Cape Fear Chapter of this city. Mrs. Charles E. Borden and Mrs. J. Wallace Carmichael, who are already in Richmond will also be representatives of Cape Fear Chapter.
The Wilmington delegation will invite the convention to hold its meeting here next year.

Carolina Yacht Club.

By reference to a notice in this morning's STAR it will be seen that a special meeting of the Carolina Yacht Club has been called in the city court room on Friday night of next week. The meeting is called to take action with regard to the reserve fund and the rebuilding of the club house which was wrecked by the storm last week. Read the notice.

N. C. SUPREME COURT.

Opinions Handed Down—Funeral of the Late George W. Sanderlin—A Foot Ball Game.

[Special Star Telegram.]
RALEIGH, N. C., November 7.—The body of the late Geo. W. Sanderlin, ex State auditor, who died in a sanitarium at Baltimore yesterday, was brought here at 3:30 this afternoon and interred in Oakwood cemetery. Dr. Sanderlin had been in declining health for the past two years. Several weeks since he fell and sustained serious injuries. The Governor, State officers and many friends were at the station to meet the remains. The body was carried immediately to Oakwood cemetery and there interred, Rev. Dr. J. W. Carter conducting the service.
Horne's School to-day defeated the University of North Carolina reserve foot ball team by a score of 11 to 0.
Opinions were handed down by the Supreme Court to-day as follows: Mitchell vs. Noble, from Jones, motion to docket and dismiss defendant's appeal allowed; Jenkins vs. Daniel, from Greene, modified and affirmed; Brooks' will case, error; Gattis vs. Kilgo, from Granville, modified and affirmed; Gates vs. Max, from Durham, new trial; James vs. Maroon, from Durham, no error; State vs. Hycks, from Durham, affirmed; Adams vs. Battle, from Wake, affirmed.

Shoe Shop Robbed.

Henry Wright, a small colored boy, was turned over to the police yesterday afternoon by James Bennett, a colored shoeman, on Second street, who preferred charges of robbery against him. Bennett alleges that his shop was broken open a few nights since and two pairs of shoes found in the boy's possession were taken therefrom. The boy will be heard in the municipal court this morning.

To Erect a Handsome Store.

The I. M. Bear Company has purchased the Maunder lot, on the south-west corner of Front and Grace streets, and will erect a handsome brick business house, with two stories and a basement. They will commence work on the building before long, and will occupy the building with their wholesale dry good business.

To City Subscribers.

City subscribers are earnestly requested to report promptly at the STAR office every failure of the carriers to deliver their papers. In all such cases steps will be taken to insure prompt and regular delivery.

The East Carolina Real Estate Agency will sell for cash, or will exchange for desirable house and lot in Wilmington, a farm of 272 acres, three miles from Rose Hill. Address R. G. Grady & Co., Burgaw, N. C. 4
