Indications are that the automobile will have a run in France. It is said that 1,000 companies have been organized to manufacture them.

Julio Reazan, of Texas, the only member of the cabinet of Jefferson Davis, is still hale and hearty. He is 82, stands six feet high and weighs 200 pounds.

Thirty dollars a piece is a pretty big price for the Philippine soldiers who are being sent to the front. Would it be cheaper to buy Aguinaldo, if he is on the market?

Mr. Hattie Green says: "The idea that the way to financial success is a hard one is all wrong." Hattie is right. After you scoop in a million or two there is nothing easier than to get right to it.

How grossly some men are slandered is shown in the case of James Monroe, arrested in Chicago for bigamy. He was charged with having twenty-seven wives, when it turns out that he has only twenty-six.

The most successful elopist lately reported is the Rev. Dr. Sharet, a ninety-year old inmate of a Tennessee poor-house, who recently joined the Mormon Church and eloped with five women, all poor-house paupers.

The star gazers who sat up in the city of Lima, Peru, didn't see the meteoric shower but they were not altogether disappointed, for they had a nice earthquake which shook things up and made it right lively for awhile.

If the thief who entered the house of John Coates in Camden, N. J., reads the newspapers, he will feel like hiring a mule to kick him. He was caught with $300, when right within reach was a box containing $600.

During the war between the North and the South much of the news from the North came from the "intelligent contraband." Much of the news about the fights in the Boer country comes from that other intelligent colored gentleman, the Kaffir.

There is talk about Congressman Robert's from Utah, "resigning" having a "rough road to travel" and all that sort of thing. A man who can successfully manage three wives will probably be equal to any emergency that may confront him in the fight for his seat.

It is said that the Boer Generals when going into action pick out squads of a half dozen of their best marksmen and instruct them to shoot simultaneously at the particular officer wanted. That they pay attention to the officers is shown by the number that have been shot.

THE TEMPLE FAIR A STELLAR SOCIAL EVENT.

Unique Entertainment That Will Afford a Round of Pleasure and Interest—Success Beyond Question.

The great Masonic Fair which has required preparations on a stupendous scale for the past two months and which has been anticipated with commingled interest and pleasure by the people of Wilmington and the country far and wide, will open day after tomorrow.

Col. Noble F. Martin, the expert fair promoter from Union, N. Y., who has worked with so much energy and success in getting up the affair, said yesterday with a glowing countenance, indicative of triumph completely achieved, that there is not a shadow of a doubt now and no question whatsoever that the fair will be the biggest success of a success. He declares that the indications are that such immense crowds will attend that the magnificent and spacious Temple will be even too small to accommodate the thronging multitude.

Unique Social Attractions.

Surely the fair will be the stellar social event of the season. It will be a most unique as well as a pleasing entertainment, and will afford the people of this city and the country generally a round of pleasure and interest only to be found in a metropolitan centre.

The badges to be worn by the Shrine's committee during the fair have been received. They are quite pretty. They consist of a gilt-framed white enamel bar, inscribed "Committee," the pendant consisting of blue ribbon with a gilt-framed white enamel medallion attached. The ribbon is inscribed, "Masonic Fair, November 20th to December 2d," and the medallion is decorated with a camel traversing the "hot sands of the desert," ridden by a houri facing a crescent and star, insignia of the order. Around the rim of the medallion is the inscription, "Shrine Night, November 23rd."

Putting on The Finishing Touches.

The preparations for the opening of the fair next Monday, November 20th, at 6 P. M., are getting down to a fine point now. Yesterday the committees of ladies who are to have charge of the booth of St. John's Lodge, the booth of Orient Lodge and the lemonade booth, met and talked over their plans. They also settled for the season tickets to the fair which they have sold up to date and took additional tickets to dispose of from now till the great bazaar closes.

All nine of the booths have been constructed in the large hall at the Temple and they are ready for the ladies to go to work this morning to add what decorations they have in contemplation. The ladies will consequently work like beavers to-day and all day Monday up to the opening hour.

To Represent a Hamlet.

There will be nine booths beside the country store. The shelving and counters for the country store will be completed to-day so the goods can be arranged between now and the time of opening. The booths and country store have been arranged around the hall to represent a country village and besides the floral decorations and tidy arrangements the ladies have in view, each booth and the store, as well as the hall and the building, will be decorated with bunting of various colors. The contract for doing the decorative work with bunting has been let to Messrs. John H. Redder & Co., the well known dry goods house. They began the work yesterday afternoon and worked on the decorations till late last night. The work will go on to-day and to-night and will be finished on Monday.

Unique Donations.

One of the most unique and interesting donations yet made to the fair was sent to Col. Martin yesterday afternoon by Col. John L. Cantwell, a veteran of the civil war and also of the Mexican war. The donation was a set of cuff buttons made of Confederate military buttons—the real thing. The lettering on the buttons, "C. S. A." is very distinct, and the buttons and links have been nicely washed with gold. The cuff buttons consist of a large and a small button attached by a link. Col. Cantwell, the donor, is a "Confed" of the true grey stripe, as everybody knows, and the donation is characteristic of him.

Another donation acknowledged yesterday was a dozen fine shirts, sent by Messrs. Hutchinson, Pierce & Co., of New York, through the A. David Company, of this city.

Gaylord's Branch Store.

Contractors have completed the work of remodeling the store at corner of Fourth and Campbell streets, and it was this week occupied by Mr. George O. Gaylord as a branch of his mammoth establishment on Front street opposite The Orton House. A fine line of general merchandise—groceries excepted—will be carried. Mr. James R. Boyd, the manager of Mr. Gaylord's Market street shoe store, has been placed in charge, and he is assisted by a corps of competent salesmen. The Market street store has been closed.

River Shipping Notes.

The steamer A. P. Hurt arrived yesterday from Fayetteville and cleared on the return as usual in the afternoon.

The Seabright did not arrive Thursday night from Little River, S. C., as expected. She was detained at Little River on account of a slight accident, but came up yesterday afternoon with a heavy freight as usual.

LOCAL DOTS.

The piano rehearsals of Miss Cannie Chastain's music pupils will take place this afternoon, and on subsequent Saturdays, at 5 P. M., instead of 4 o'clock, as heretofore.

The Rev. A. D. McClure will leave this morning for Warsaw to preach on the Sabbath and install the Rev. R. Murphy Williams as pastor of the Presbyterian Church at that place.

Wilmington Division Naval Reserves will have their regular weekly target practice this afternoon at Hilton at 5.30 o'clock, using a life-size target. The division has two competing teams, captained by Lieutenants Skelington and Chase.

Alex Johnson, colored, will be tried in Justice McGowan's court this morning on a charge of embezzlement preferred by Thomas Rivera, also colored. Mary E. Mabson, colored, will also be tried for trespass, on a warrant sworn out by Lottie Duncan.

The schooner Island City, Captain Henderson, arrived in port yesterday with coal from New York and is discharging at the Seaboard Air Line wharf for interior shipment. She will load with lumber at the Cape Fear Lumber Company's plant.

William Zimmerman, colored, was tried in the municipal court for disorderly conduct yesterday, the charge having been preferred by his mother-in-law. Judgment was suspended upon payment of costs.

John Holland, white, was tried in Justice McGowan's court yesterday for assault and battery and for assault with a deadly weapon. Judgment was suspended as to the first charge, but on the second he was committed to jail in default of $100 for his appearance for trial at the Criminal Court.

On the 3rd day of October last, when middling cotton was quoted in Wilmington at 6 1/2 cents, the STAR gave the following point: "Whatever the market price may be to-day, good cotton is intrinsically (not speculatively) worth 8 cents, and it will command that price to him who waits." The STAR stands by that declaration.

It is reported on pretty good authority that R. B. Russell, editor of the Raleigh (formerly Maxton) Blade, has received an appointment in the revenue service, with pay of $3 per day, and that his headquarters will be at Maxton. Russell is one of the most intelligent colored Republicans in the State, and is entitled to a slice of the political pie.

Mr. J. P. Flynn yesterday recovered a wheel which was stolen Thursday evening from the entrance to the Y. M. C. A. building from Willie Daniels, a son of Mr. Martin Daniels. The machine was found in the possession of a negro boy named John Hill, who was overhauled at Seventeenth and Market streets. He was not arrested.

Fayetteville Observer: "Mr. Nash E. Bunting, who for the past several years has been one of the Atlantic Coast Line's most popular and trusted officials, has resigned that position to take charge of McDuffie's drug store. His brother, Mr. J. Hicks Bunting, the well known Wilmington druggist, came up to-day to assist him for the first few days."

Ben and Henry Meekins, two young white boys, were committed to jail by Justice Bornemann yesterday on the charge of larceny by trick, which they will each have to answer at the coming term of the Criminal Court. Under pretext of assisting a white woman from the country in carrying a basket of vegetables and a bucket of oysters, they snatched the articles from her hands and ran away with them.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Henry Ledbetter, of Fayetteville, have mailed invitations to friends, announcing the marriage of their daughter, Miss Frances Gresham, to Mr. Landon Caldwell Jones, a popular conductor of the Atlantic Coast Line and a son of the late Col. L. O. Jones. The ceremony will be performed at St. John's Church, Fayetteville, N. C., Wednesday morning, November 29th, at 10.30 o'clock.

Deputy Sheriff Geo. T. Bland yesterday arrested and lodged in jail Josh King, colored, alias Wm. Nixon. He is charged with burglarizing the house of L. E. Joyner, colored, on Market street, during last April. King is charged with stealing clothing and a number of other articles from the house, and as an evidence of his guilt he yesterday refused to give the location of 125 night last season, it proved the notable success of the year. "The Moth and the Flame" is distinctively a high class drama and deals with the fashionable as well as the representative life of New York city.

That two such popular and accomplished artists as Mr. Kealey and Miss Shannon should not find special favor at the hands of the public, with whom they have been great favorites for years while they added lustre to the Daniel Frohman Company, would be both unexpected and unwarranted; so, the greeting in waiting for them when they present this remarkably successful play should be surely cordial and sincere. The company, scenic garniture and all the elaborate stage surroundings which characterized its production during its run in New York will be here now.

The sale of seats for this notable attraction opens this morning. Prices, $1.50 and $1.00. General admission, 50 cents.

The East Carolina Real Estate Agency will sell for cash, or will exchange for desirable house and lot in Wilmington, a farm of 273 acres, three miles from Rose Hill. Address R. G. Grady & Co., Burgaw, N. C. †

CAROLINA YACHT CLUB TO REBUILD AT BEACH.

Large Meeting Last Night—The Governing Board Authorized to Rebuild the Club House or Erect a New One.

In accordance with the notice, there was a large meeting of the Carolina Yacht Club last night in the city court room, at the city hall, for the purpose of taking action about the club house, which was seriously damaged by the hurricane at Wrightsville Beach October 30-31st.

Commodore F. J. Anselum presided and Furer J. T. Munds acted as secretary.

Commodore Lord stated the object of the meeting and said the governing board of the club had visited Wrightsville Beach to inspect the damage done to the club house by the hurricane of October 30-31. He then stated that the club house is practically wrecked and that the board is unanimously of the opinion that the damage was such that it would be impracticable to repair the building. He also read a statement showing the extent of damage done to the club house during the season, the expenditures being about $900, and informed the meeting as to the present financial condition of the club. As to the available fund on hand to repair or rebuild the club house, he stated that the resources of the club consist of about $760 of the reserve fund. He also called attention to the contents of a circular letter issued to the members a few days ago, in which the governing board tendered its resignation to the club and turned over to the club itself the matter of dealing with the situation at the beach, resulting from the storm.

After discussing the contents of the circular letter, the club, on motion, unanimously declined to accept the resignation of the governing board.

The question of repairing or rebuilding the club house was then taken up, and was discussed by many of the members. Several expressed the opinion that the club house was beyond repair and others stated that some carpenters who were consulted, gave it as their opinion that the building could be repaired.

After several motions and general discussion, a substitute offered by Mr. T. W. Davis was adopted. It provided for the appointment of a committee of three, to act with the governing board, who shall ascertain whether it would be practical or safe to repair the old club house or whether to erect another building. The motion appropriated $1,000 to be used by the governing board and committee, if so much is needed, to restore the club house to its former condition, and if in the judgment of the board and committee it will be necessary to build another house, they are authorized to invite architects to make plans for a club house and submit the same at a future meeting of the board. An amendment was made to the motion, naming Messrs. William Calder, C. W. Worth and G. H. Smith as the committee of three to confer with the governing board.

On motion of Mr. G. H. Smith, the entire reserve fund of the club now, by a unanimous vote, was placed in the hands of the governing board to be used in repairing the old club house or towards the erection of a new building.

A motion was adopted that when the club adjourn, it shall do so subject to the call of the governing board, on recommendation of the committee.

Mr. M. S. Willard offered a resolution expressing regret at the severe illness of Mr. Clayton Giles, at New York, a former commodore of the club, and tendering the club's sympathy for him in his illness and expressing its hope for his recovery. The resolution was unanimously adopted by a rising vote.

The meeting then adjourned.

"THE MOTH AND THE FLAME."

A Great Dramatic Treat for Next Monday Night.

The appearance of Herbert Kealey and Effie Shannon at the Opera House Monday, the 20th, will be one of the most important dramatic events of the season. Nothing of the calibre of this performance has been seen in the city for many a long day. The play will have precisely the same presentation here as at the New York Lyceum Theatre, where, for a period of 125 nights last season, it proved the notable success of the year. "The Moth and the Flame" is distinctively a high class drama and deals with the fashionable as well as the representative life of New York city.

That two such popular and accomplished artists as Mr. Kealey and Miss Shannon should not find special favor at the hands of the public, with whom they have been great favorites for years while they added lustre to the Daniel Frohman Company, would be both unexpected and unwarranted; so, the greeting in waiting for them when they present this remarkably successful play should be surely cordial and sincere. The company, scenic garniture and all the elaborate stage surroundings which characterized its production during its run in New York will be here now.

The sale of seats for this notable attraction opens this morning. Prices, $1.50 and $1.00. General admission, 50 cents.

The East Carolina Real Estate Agency will sell for cash, or will exchange for desirable house and lot in Wilmington, a farm of 273 acres, three miles from Rose Hill. Address R. G. Grady & Co., Burgaw, N. C. †

PERSONAL PARAGRAPHS.

Mr. Archibald Johnson, of Thomasville, is in the city.

Mr. B. I. Baughan, of Richmond, is a guest of The Orton.

Mr. T. T. Hay, of Raleigh, was here on business yesterday.

Mr. Jack Burnett, the well known travelling salesman, is in the city.

Mr. C. T. Southerland, of St. Phillip, came up to the city last evening.

Mr. T. H. Hales, of Elizabeth town, called on the wholesale houses yesterday.

Mr. J. W. Brinkley, of Bolton, arrived in the city last evening and is registered at The Orton.

Mr. E. S. Rockwood, a clever gentleman, who is with the lumber establishment of Mr. T. R. Kerr, at Jacksonville, came over to the city on business yesterday.

Mr. Sam Powell, of Charleston, manager of the Parlor Market here at Charleston, returned to that city yesterday after spending several days here on business.

Dr. Calvin S. Blackwell will return from Harrisville, S. C., to-day and will occupy his pulpit to-morrow. He conducted a very successful series of meetings in South Carolina with many conversions as a result.

Mr. C. W. Woodward, who is now with Amour & Co., has gone to Chicago to get ready for the next season's busy business. That company it will be remembered, has the contract for the refrigerator service for truckers this year.

Rev. Dr. James P. McMillan, of St. Paul, Robeson county, accompanied by Mrs. McMillan, arrived in the city yesterday, and they are the guests of Rev. A. D. McClure. Dr. McMillan will preach at St. Andrew's Church Sunday morning in the absence of Mr. McClure, who will leave to-day for Warsaw to preach there Sunday.

Privilege Tax Cases.

Fourteen cases for non-payment of privilege taxes were called in the municipal court yesterday morning, most of the defendants answering to the charge preferred and settling the amount of the city's claim with the Clerk and Treasurer.

Messrs. W. E. Worbit & Co., ice manufacturers, through their counsel, Messrs. McNeill & Bryan, took an appeal to the Superior Court on the ground that the tax is discriminating. Mr. H. W. McCall, local manager of Swift & Co., will also probably appeal, as he assumes the position that his company is liable in this city only for the tax imposed on commission merchants. This case was left open.

The police yesterday served several other warrants and the cases are set for this morning.

Cotton and Naval Stores.

The following weekly and crop year receipts of cotton and naval stores for the period ending November 17th, were posted at the Produce Exchange yesterday:

Crop year to Nov. 17th, 1899.—Cotton, 153,214 bales; spirits, 23,649 casks; rosin, 93,235 barrels; tar, 36,763 barrels; crude, 6,435 barrels.

Crop year to Nov. 17th, 1898.—Cotton, 193,803 bales; spirits, 21,975 casks; rosin, 104,109 barrels; tar, 36,057 barrels; crude, 7,858 barrels.

Harness Steals.

The harness room of the stables of Mr. George E. Pope, at the rear of his residence on Third near corner of Dock street, was entered Thursday night by some unknown person and a set of carriage harness stolen therefrom. The police were notified and yesterday morning a negro boy offering for sale what is supposed to be the stolen harness was arrested on the turnpike leading to Wrightsville. Chief Parmele is further investigating the matter and will probably have the guilty party or parties "rounded up" in a short time.

His Sanity Questioned.

Upon an affidavit made by Hiram Moore, J. E. Tyner was yesterday brought before a commission de lunatico inquirendo for an examination as to his alleged insanity. A number of witnesses testified, all of whom except Moore, swore that Mr. Tyner was perfectly sane so far as they could discern. The commission before concluding the examination dismissed the entire proceeding. Mr. Tyner declares that the action was brought by Moore because some days since he had him arrested for being a nuisance.

LOUISE BREHANY COMPANY.

Entertained Large and Select Audience at Y. M. C. A. Auditorium Last Evening. The Next Attraction.

The second of the series of entertainments in the Popular Course at the Y. M. C. A.—that of the Louise Brehany Company—given last evening in the auditorium, was the most signally successful of any similar entertainment given under the auspices of the Association since this feature of Y. M. C. A. work was inaugurated.

The large auditorium was filled to overflowing with a cultured and fashionable assemblage, every reserved seat and all the available standing room being occupied. The audience, at the conclusion of each number, evinced their appreciation by the most eager applause.

The entertainment was distinctively a high class opera and ballad concert and not a selection on the programme without a most hearty encore. Miss Brehany well sustained her deserved reputation.

The next entertainment does not come before January. Fodet's Women's Orchestra will, however, appear in the Star Course December 14th, and Y. M. C. A. patrons are requested to watch for the announcement of this superb attraction.

THE BOHEMIAN GIRL.

At the Opera House Last Night—Beautiful Music and Excellent Performance.

Last night at the Opera House the Dan Packard Company presented Balf's beautiful opera in three acts. The presentation of this opera was something of an innovation, the first part of the week having been devoted to comedy.

The music and tenor of the entire performance was of a high order, this opera being acknowledged as the closest approach to grand opera ever written in English.

Miss Carlotta Gilman assumed the title role, portraying the part in a realistic manner. Her voice was excellent, rich in tone and charming in expression.

Messrs. Ganor and Holmes were at their best, portraying the roles of The Count and Thaddeus.

To-night ends the week's engagement of this company. "Olivette" is the bill and by special request Miss Gilman will repeat the ballad, "Because I love you, dear."

Mr. Packard announces "Mikado," the charming Japanese opera, for the special bargain matinee this afternoon. The doors will be opened at 2.15 P. M., the performance beginning promptly at 3 o'clock. Seats are 25 cents all over the house.

Vessels to Arrive.

The following vessels are reported either in port or having cleared for Wilmington:

British steamship Hastingsden, 1,220 tons Diggins; at Huelva Nov. 15th.

Norwegian steamship Skuld, 913 tons, Olsen, sailed Ghent Nov. 6th., for Wilmington.

Norwegian barque Louise, 621 tons, sailed Hull October 27th.

Norwegian barque River Thames, 454 tons, sailed Bristol October 9th.

Schooner D. J. Sawyer, 288 tons, Kelly; at South Amboy Nov. 9th.

Schooner Ira B. Ellens, 264 tons, Marston; lately repaired and at South Amboy for Wilmington, Antigua, Ferdinandina and New York.

North Carolina Almanacs.

The 1900 edition of Turner's "Old Reliable" Almanac is out. Its long and prosperous life, and great popularity, give proof of its merit. Branson's Agricultural Almanac for 1900 is out in good time, and as usual is full of valuable information about North Carolina.

RALLY, BOYS!

WILMINGTON, N. C., Nov. 17, '99. Editor Star:—I might's performance by the Dan Packard Opera Company will be the last of this engagement. I hope everybody who can do so will attend. The singing alone of Miss Gilman is a sufficient guarantee of a rare treat to those who may avail themselves of this opportunity to hear some fine music. Rally, boys, and let's see this desecrating company a full house. JAS. W. MONROE.
