FORECAST FOR TO-DAY.

WASHINGTON, December 6.—For North Carolina—Fair Thursday and Friday; fresh north to easterly winds.

Port Almanac—Dec. 7.

Roberts, the triple-wedded fellow, may not get his seat, but he has the satisfaction of knowing that he has attracted more attention than any other man in Congress.

Clemson college, in South Carolina, has been making some tests of narrow and wide tires on sandy roads, the results showing that the draft of the broad tire was from 7.49 to 28.55 less than the narrow tire.

Mark Hanna denies that he is going out of politics. This is entirely unnecessary, for while Mark gets as much exhilaration out of politics as he does, he will stick in politics, unless the rheumatiz gets him down.

Austin, the English poet laureate, has penned some poetry on the Boers. Now if they will send him down and let him shoot volleys of it at 'em at short range they might wind this racket up. The Boers couldn't stand much of that stuff.

The report of the Secretary of the Interior shows 991,519 names on the pension rolls, a decrease of 2,195 during the year. But new names to be added from the Cuban and Philippine racks will prevent those on the rolls from becoming lone-sons.

The papers are puffing Lieutenant Monroe, who played that successful bluff on Conon, the Filipino, and took him in. It was a clever thing for Monroe, but then perhaps Conon felt like Davy Crockett's coon, and concluded he might as well come down.

Ten tons of plum pudding will be shipped to South Africa for the Christmas dinner of the British soldiers. Now if the Boers will watch their chance and jump on 'em when they get those ten tons of plum inside of 'em they'll have a dead easy thing.

The opinion is pretty generally expressed in England that when Mr. Chamberlain opened his mouth to make some remarks on a triple alliance between England, the United States and Germany, he put his foot in it, and spoiled his chances for climbing any higher.

St. Louis is the abiding place of one of the most independent individuals in this country, one James Eads How, who refused to accept a fortune of $1,000,000 bequeathed to him, because he hadn't earned it by his own efforts. James has recently attracted some more attention by a donation of $2,000 to the poor of that city.

She will then alternate with the steamship Saginaw on this run, arriving here every other Tuesday, on December 12th, 21st, etc., making the usual runs to Georgetown and sailing for New York on the Saturday or Sunday morning following her arrival each fortnight.

COL. MARTIN DEPARTS.

After Making the Masonic Fair a Great Success He Leaves for Home—Will Soon Manage a Fair in Ohio.

Col. Noble F. Martin, of Utica, N. Y., who so successfully managed Wilmington's big Masonic Fair, after settling up his affairs, left last evening for his home, accompanied by Mrs. Martin. Quite a party of ladies and gentlemen representing the Shrine Booth, Wilmington Lodge Booth and the "Country Store," were at the railway station to bid them adieu. A well known Shriner presented Mrs. Martin with a box of flowers as a token of the high esteem of her Wilmington acquaintances. Col. and Mrs. Martin during their visit to Wilmington made many warm friends and carry with them pleasant recollections of their sojourn here.

The success of the two weeks' fair at the Temple was largely due to Col. Martin's untiring efforts and expert management of the occasion. He came here September 16th to take control of the arrangements of the fair, and in the brief period of his control he made the fair the most successful thing of the kind ever seen in this part of the South. The conception and scope of the great bazaar surpassed the anticipations of everyone, and the result proved that a master hand directed it.

Col. Martin made use of the finest system both in obtaining donations and in disposing of shares in the various articles, and his methods made the occasion as unique as it was remunerative. While the fair was in progress he had his eye on everything and knew what everybody was doing, and though the conduct of the bazaar was necessarily complicated it passed off with remarkable smoothness.

He left here many friends who wish him all kinds of success in his future undertakings. He soon goes to Ohio to hold a fair, and, of course, he will make it go like hot shot.

WILLARD INSURANCE LAW.

It Will be Made a Law in Several States. Complimentary Allusions by a Prominent Insurance Man.

The Act of the General Assembly of North Carolina to regulate insurance companies and known as the Willard law, from the fact that Representative W. S. Willard, of this city, is its author and introduced it, will probably be adopted in Virginia, Georgia, Mississippi and Texas. It is regarded as the best solution of the insurance problem that has been enacted into law in the South, and it is not only fair to the insurance companies but makes a great saving for insureds. The STAR has already mentioned that the recent reductions in the tariff rates, brought about by this law would amount to a saving of about $10,000 in Wilmington and $100,000 or more in the State.

Representative Willard, the author of the act, is a practical, experienced and successful insurance man himself, and his bill is making him considerable reputation. The New Orleans Picayune of recent date contained a dispatch from Vicksburg, Miss., giving an interview with Mr. W. L. Reynolds, of Atlanta, general agent of the German American Insurance Company. Among other things he said was the following:

"My experience as a representative of one of the large tariff companies, and also as a member of the executive committee of the association for the past five years, convinces me that the companies, through the Tariff Association, was guaranteed a reduction of 25 per cent on the basis rates of fire insurance on property in Mississippi within twelve months after the adoption of a complete new set of laws regulating fire insurance, similar to those now in force in North Carolina."

DEATH OF MR. JOHN BANKS.

A Native and for Many Years a Resident of Wilmington.

[Savannah News, Dec. 5th.]
Mr. John Banks died yesterday at his residence, No. 111 Duffy street, west, after a short illness. He was taken ill last Thursday with the grip, and death resulted from its complications. Mr. Banks was one of the best known lumber inspectors in Savannah. He was a native of Washington, N. C., and was 63 years old. He was a veteran of the Civil War. He had been a resident of Savannah twenty-nine years. He leaves a wife and seven children, two sons and five daughters. His funeral will take place this afternoon at 4 o'clock from his late residence, Rev. J. L. Scully, of St. Paul's Episcopal church, will officiate.

[Mr. Banks was a native of Wilmington—not Washington, N. C.—and resided here until he went to Georgia, some twenty-odd years since, as a son of the late Capt. John Banks and a brother of Mrs. H. H. Munson and of Mr. W. W. Banks, of this city. He has two other brothers living in Georgia.—STAR.]

THE TUG BLANCHE DISABLED YESTERDAY.

She Was Run Into Off Bald Head by Charleston Tug Waban and Severely Damaged.

The tug Blanche, of the Cape Fear Towing and Transportation Co., met with a serious accident about 2:30 o'clock yesterday morning, near buoy No. 5, off Bald Head, at the mouth of the Cape Fear river, and as a result of the same she is now laid up for repairs at Skinner's shipyard.

The Blanche, towing Standard Oil Company's Barge No. 58, left here about 10 o'clock Tuesday night for Southport, where the barge was taken in tow by the Charleston tug Waban for the trip out to sea. The Blanche went along to pilot the Waban and it was while on this mission that the accident befel her. Near the point indicated the Blanche, some distance ahead of her charge, in some way drifted on the shoals and while there the Waban came along and knowing nothing of trouble ahead until within a short distance from the Blanche, crashed into her amidships tearing a great hole into her side causing a leak, which made it necessary for her to put back at once to Southport.

Capt. James Flatley, of the Waban as soon as he discovered the trouble, reversed his engines and tried to avert the accident but it was without avail. The visiting tug, which is at least a third heavier than the Blanche, ran into the starboard side of the tug's bow and wrought much havoc. The Blanche was in charge of Capt. L. G. Pepper, who was thrown by the shock and had his knee severely sprained. The disabled boat was brought to the city by Capt. O. D. Barriss.

The Waban returned to Southport with the Blanche but subsequently sailed with the barge for Charleston at 6 o'clock yesterday morning. It is impossible yet to fix responsibility for the accident.

The Lost is Found.

Mr. and Mrs. Quince Moore and the family of Col. and Mrs. Roger Moore, the latter of whom are the grand parents of the little child mentioned, were in great distress yesterday over the disappearance of the nurse and little two year old son of Mr. and Mrs. Quince Moore. The nurse, Martha Samuels, colored girl about 15 years of age, left home at 11 A. M. with the child in her carriage and failed to return at dinner time. Later in the afternoon the parents became uneasy and word was given out around town about the child, and at 5:30 o'clock a colored man found the nurse and child at a house away out on Bladen street.

The duxen haired little boy was restored to his parents and the rejoicing in that family can be imagined. The girl gave no reasonable excuse for keeping the child away so long but said it had been given something to eat.

Disappeared from Home.

A dispatch from New York yesterday states that there is considerable anxiety over the disappearance of the wife of the Rev. P. A. Hubert from her home in Brooklyn, N. Y. As the missing woman was formerly from Wilmington, inquiry was made by wire to ascertain if she had come here, but none of her friends here had heard anything of her. Her mother, Mary Ann Meares, a well known colored woman of this city, lived here up to a short while ago, but removed to Laurinburg. The missing woman's friends think that it is possible that she may have gone to her mother.
