As to Chinese Walls. Pennsylvania manufacturers have just shipped 27 steel railway bridges to China, says the Kansas City Journal. "Chinese walls," either at home or abroad, do not seem to be interfering seriously with our foreign trade.

The handsome English crapes manufactured wholly without dressing are soft, lusterless and entirely unlike the stiff, wiry weaves of other seasons. The new crapes are very pliable, and, though at first intended only for veils, they have come into use for entire costumes, parts of gowns and for crapes and accesso-

CHINESE JUSTICE.

A Story of Li Hung Chang and Men Who Tried to Poison Him. Of Li Hung Chang numberless stories are told in Chinese society. On one occasion, says The Literary Digest, when the premier was having a bitter fight with some of the more conservative members of the tsung-li-yamen he received as a present a magnificent cake which he had reason to suspect contained poison. He put the cake aside and set all his powerful machinery to work to find out who was at the bottom of the plot. The investigation was partly successful, the crime being traced to three men, of whom one at least was absolutely guilty. Li had the trio arrested and brought to his yamen. When they ar-rived, they were ushered into his presence and were received in his courtliest manner. The cake was produced with the remark that "politeness forbade his tasting it until the three generous donors had had an opportunity to enjoy its excellence." Li cut the cake, and one of his servitors handed it to the unwilling guests. Each took a piece and ate or pretended to eat it. One crumbled the pieces and let them fall upon the floor, but the other two ate calmly, without souvenir to transcendent genius.

manifesting any emotion. Ten minutes and the two men began to show symptoms of suffering. Li smiled benignantly and said to the man who had not eaten, "Your wisdom is, so great that I am ompelled to preserve your head as a The man was removed and promptly decapitated. To the other two the premier remarked: "The cake that you are eating is not the one you sent, but one which I had my cook imitate. The poison from which you are suffering exists only in your imagination. I know of no way to cure your present pain except by letting you share the same fate as your friend who has just left the room." As they were led away the statesman said to his retinue, "It is a pity that a man who can eat a deadly corrosive

A cup of coffee may be made very nourishing for an invalid if a well beaten egg is stirred into it and a little cream added. Mix together the egg, sugar and cream, then pour in the hot coffee gradually, whipping it with a silver fork. Taken in this way, the coffee is almost as good as a meal for an invalid.

BARIUM ROCK SPRING WATER,

(Old Poison Spring), is nature's specific for every form of skin disease and blood poison. It does not, like soap and ointment, merely destroy for a time the external signs, but goes to the root of the evil and drives out the poison in the blood which causes the eruptions to appear. METHODIST PARSONAGE, ROCKINGHAM, N. C., Oct. 14. 1898.
I can bear testimony to the great value of Barium Rock Spring Water for Eczema and other eruptive diseases of the skin, I have known many cases cured, some of them of the most stubborn character.
