WAS MAKING MONEY: And He Literally Made It Hand Over

Fist. "A funny thing happened to me when I had charge of our branch office in-well, I guess I'd better not be too definite," said a New Ofleans cotton man. "Our quarters were on the second floor of a three story building, and the rooms above were rented by a very pleasant, foreign looking chap who passed as a chemist.

"I used to be detained at my desk quite late at night, and I had my curiosity excited by a singular noise in the laboratory overhead. It was a nonotonous click-clack, click-clack, like a beavy machine

"One day I met the chemist on the stairs and asked him what the dickens he was doing that made such a racket. "'Oh, I'm making silver dollars up there,' he said laughingly, and passed

"One night about a week later a city detective with whom I had struck up an acquaintance strolled in for a chat and a smoke. "'What's that queer noise up there?"

he asked presently, as the usual clickclacking started. "'Oh, nothing much,' I replied. 'It's a friend of mine making silver dollars.' "'Ha, ha!' laughed the detective. 'Well, he's in a first rate business.

Wonder if he wants a partner? "Exactly two days later the agreeable foreign looking gentleman skipped out, and when the landlord broke open his door, lo and behold, there was as neat a little counterfeiting plant as you ever laid eyes on! The clicking came from a machine for 'reeding' the Itentimes the water-mains become foul from gradually deposited impurities. In such cases the water is turned on full force. How dirty the water that at first issues from the hydrantic but, gradually clearing, it becomes pure and clean. This is but the fushing of the pipes with a abundant supply of water, thus forcing out all impurities.

There are times when the system is all clogged up with impurities at such times, instead of dosing with medicines for the purification of the blood, flush the system with Barium Rock Spring water, Nature's Blood Purifier.

Special Announcement.

Miss Sarah Gardner, one of the best Trimmers in the State, and who has been with Taylor's Bazaar for about ten years, has now charge of our Millinery Department. She will leave in a few weeks for the North, and will remain there for some time; will visit all the leading houses and will bring out the latest designs. She will be pleased to attend to any special orders entrusted to her

We expect to show the finest and prettiest line of Millinery ever brought to the city, which we shall offer at Special Prices.

Very respectfully.
