If the Senate refuses to let Mr. Clark, of Montana, have that seat, which cost him $115,000, he had better come South and try his luck. It doesn't cost so much here. It didn't cost Senator Pettus, of Alabama, but $17,500, Caffery, of Louisiana, $30, Turley, of Tennessee, $5 or $10 in postage. WASHINGTON DAY AT PUBLIC SCHOOLS.

Pupils of the Union and Hemenway Schools Engage in Interesting Exercises—Features of the Occasion.

Yesterday being Washington's birthday, the pupils at the Hemenway and Union schools engaged in patriotic exercises in commemoration of the day.

Hemenway School.
At the Hemenway School at 9:30 A. M. the school opened in the regular form, with four hundred and twenty pupils assembled in the auditorium. After the regular exercises the Washington programme opened with the children of Miss Shepard's room, the Third Grade, sang a song appropriate to the day. The pupils of Miss Wood's room then presented a play entitled "The Truth Teller."

The pupils of Mrs. McLeod's room, the Fifth Grade, concluded the exercises with "Washington's Birthday," the programme being as follows:
Recitation—Miss Jeanie Macks.
Chain of Dates—Eighteen girls bearing shields and repeating events and giving dates from Washington's birthday, February 23, 1732, ending with his death and coming up to 1900. The latter closed with a monologue entitled "What Are We Doing to Commemorate the Life of Washington?"

Recitation, "Washington's Christmas Party"—Miss Mary White.
Recitation—Miss Laura Weill.
Song, "Columbia"—By the school.
Recitation, "Things Washington Didn't Have in His Day"—Master George White.

Recitation, "Washington's Hatchet"—Miss Sadie Denmark.
Song, "The Flag of the Free"—By the school.
Recitation, "In Memoriam of Washington"—Miss Janie Culbreth.
Song, "Mt. Vernon Bells"—by the school.

Prof. John J. Blair, superintendent of schools, Mr. James F. Post, Jr., chairman of the school committee of District No. 1, were present.

A pleasant incident of the occasion was the presentation to the school through Superintendent Blair, of a handsome 30x35 inches steel engraving of Washington. It was sent to the school by Mr. Rufus L. Patterson, of Durham, N. C., a member of the Mt. Vernon Association of North Carolina. The picture was placed on the rostrum, and Chairman James F. Post in a few remarks to the children, called their attention to the gift.

The school was dismissed at 11 A. M. and was given the balance of the day as a holiday.

Union School.
At the Union School over 400 pupils were assembled in the auditorium at 11 A. M. and engaged in a beautiful patriotic play entitled, "Columbia's Party."

The characters were represented as follows:
Columbia—Miss Lizzie Kirkham.
Liberty—Miss Virginia Bailey.
Puritan Maiden—Miss Lula Finch.
Uncle Sam—Master Robert Cantwell.

People of 76—Louis Orrell, Milton Gore, and Misses Mary Black, Alice Wright.

Washington—Miss Isabel Bolden.

The characters were appropriately costumed, and the picture was a very pretty one. The girls representing the States carried banners, and they and each of the other characters recited appropriate references as they came on the rostrum. The school sang in a chorus "Red, White and Blue," "America," "Gathered 'Neath the Flags," "Mount Vernon Bells," "Columbia" and "Carolina."

At the close of the exercises, Superintendent Blair presented a 20 by 28 steel engraving of Washington, which Mr. B. N. Duke, of Durham, member of the North Carolina Mount Vernon Association sent as a present to the school. The pictures presented to the two schools are by Stuart, the Washington artist. The school extended Mr. Duke a rising vote of thanks. After the programme had been carried out, the school was dismissed at 12:15 P. M.

A number of visitors were at the exercises at both schools.

THEATRICAL ORGANIZATION.

"It Wasn't Hubby's Fault," a Sparkling Comedy, Will Be Travelled by Messrs. Cowan and Blomme.

A new comedy, "It Wasn't Hubby's Fault," the exclusive right to which has been purchased by Messrs. James H. Cowan and John W. Blomme, of this city, will be put on the road very soon from Wilmington and the business-like way in which the enterprise was launched figures a brilliant success financially and otherwise for the venture.

The formal agreement between the proprietors of the company was sworn and subscribed to before Justice J. M. McGowan yesterday, a deposit of $500 having been made as a guarantee of good faith. The play cost $500, making the capital stock of the company $1,100. Orders are being placed for lithograph matter and dates are being booked for the coming season. The cast of characters presenting the comedy will be comprised strictly of professional artists and Mr. Cowan, who is a man of more than ordinary ability in managing theatrical companies and in judging of their competency, assures the public that nothing in an amateur way will enter into the combination. He will not travel with the company personally, he having other theatrical engagements, but his interests will be represented by his brother, Mr. Robert H. Cowan.

During the remainder of the present season Mr. James H. Cowan will travel as manager and press agent of the Boston Star Concert Company, a company of musical artists, in the management of which he and Mr. S. A. Schloss are associated. Dates have been arranged for this company at Newbern, March 5th, and at Kingston, March 6th. It will be out for a ten weeks' tour of the Carolinas.

Washington's Birthday the Occasion of a Number of Home Entertainments.

Washington's birthday yesterday was made the occasion of several enjoyable and elaborate social functions. Yesterday afternoon Miss Carrie Wright entertained at cards a company of thirty-two of her friends at her home on Market street. The event was complimentary to the Old Maids' Whist Club and a delightful time was spent by the attendants.

Last evening Miss Anna Peck also entertained at cards a number of friends at her pretty home, No. 311 South Third street. The occasion was one of the most pleasurable of the home entertainments of the season.

Another of the events of the afternoon was a card party at reception tendered to a number of her friends by Mrs. Joseph H. Waters at her home No. 110 Orange street. There were quite a number of society people in attendance and prizes were awarded for skill displayed in the games.

Georgeotwa's Lumber Business.

The Georgeotwa Lumber Company, of Georgeotwa, S. C., has recently purchased a vessel cargo of cross-ties in the vicinity of Willard, N. C., and will ship them by schooner from Wilmington to New York. Mr. A. P. Webber, a member of the firm, was here yesterday making arrangements for the shipment and went up last evening to Willard to look after the interests of his company there. The lumber business at Georgeotwa, Mr. Webber says, is booming and the marine shipping in this line from that port is fast assuming the proportions of Wilmington's commerce in this particular.

The Road Machinery.

The big road roller was at work again yesterday and Engineer Watson, under the instruction of Mr. Wolfe, is becoming proficient in the management of the huge machine. The section of Third street upon which shells were deposited the day before, was gone over yesterday morning and in the afternoon the section of Castle street that was recently macadamized was given attention, not for the need of the service so much as for practice for the new engineer. The ponderous looking object continues to give "fractious" horses a provocation to run a way and to draw swarms of young boys and curious old folks.

"The Floor Walkers."

Next Thursday night the Opera House will offer one of the highest class minstrel attractions on the road, when the regular Vokes presenting the big comedy, "The Floor Walkers," and in order to do so had to make a large guarantee, so it is hoped that theatre-goers will turn out en masse. Ward and Vokes are, perhaps, the most well known comedy exponents and their support numbers forty artists. The play to be presented is said to be every bit the equal of the celebrated farce, "A Run on the Bank."

Back from Durham.

L. V. Grady, Esq., and Mr. Walter E. Yopp, delegates to the State Constitutional Convention, returned yesterday from Durham, where they have been in attendance upon the sessions. The Council was harmonious in every detail and the various reports showed remarkable growth of the order in the State. The next Grand Council will be held in Winston. Wilmington came in six votes of securing the next meeting, but was defeated.

Elks Initiated.

At a well attended meeting last night of Wilmington Lodge No. 532, B. P. O. E., seven candidates for membership were initiated into the mysteries of the order. They are Messrs. W. N. Harris, Carl Schuster, Gus Danenbaum, Sam Springer, Charlie Taylor, H. Lacy Hunt and DuBrutz Outlar, Esq.

FOR SHERIFF.

I hereby announce myself a candidate for Sheriff of New Hanover county, subject to the will of the Democratic voters at the Primary on March 22d, pledging a faithful discharge of the duties of the office if elected.

OWEN FENNEL.

THE PIPE ORGAN FOR GRACE CHURCH.

A Splendid Entertainment Last Night for the Fund, Which Now Foots Up Over $1,600.

One of the most charming entertainments given under the auspices of the Organ Fund Society of Grace M. E. Church was that last night at the residence of Mrs. J. F. Garrell, on Third and Walnut streets. There was a large attendance, and quite a snug sum was realized for the fund to provide the church with a fine pipe organ.

The programme embraced a series of living pictures, and they were lovely indeed. The pictures were shown from a rostrum in the parlor, and were as follows:
Tom Pinch and his sister, (Diakens).
Miss Nellie Thornton and Mr. Alex. Culbreth.

The First Quarrel after being engaged twenty minutes—Miss Lily Culbreth and Mr. S. C. Morton.
That Delicious Moment—just before you ask the unwilling father for his daughter—Miss Lizzie Gibson, Dr. N. M. Culbreth and Mr. Edwin Davis.
Going to the Races—Miss Lucy Bowden and Messrs. Horace Bagg and Jim Sinclair.

The Only Pebble on the Beach—Miss Sallie Bryan, Dora Hopkins, Polly Stewart and Mr. J. Edgar Lewis.

The Sweetness of a Last Embrace—Miss Alice Craft and Mr. J. Craft.
Wireless Telegraphy—Misses Annie Bowden, Daisy King and Mr. James Northam.

In the Queen's Garden—Miss Lucy Cole and Mr. Joe King.
New York Day—Morning, Miss Lily Horne; noon, Miss Blanche Chadwick; evening, Miss Mary Culbreth; night, Miss Marianna Gillican.

During the presentation of the pictures, which were illuminated by a stereopticon, there was some delightful music by the "Late and Early Mandolin Club," composed of Messrs. E. T. Olsen, R. C. Platt, George P. Taylor and J. S. Williams. The pictures were exceedingly pretty, and the music was excellent.

The last picture to be shown was the Refreshment Committee, a bevy of attractive young ladies wearing snow white aprons and presenting wafers. They were Misses Lucy Bowden, Mary Culbreth, Orphelia Northam, Hattie Orrell, Lillie Ward and Dora Hopkins. All the pictures and the music were highly applauded, and the last picture came in for a good share of applause.

The ladies then served refreshments, after which there was vocal and instrumental music of a most enjoyable nature.

The receipts from the intertainment amounted to $34.83, which swells the total organ fund to something over $600.

Complimentary German.

Given by Miss Cammie Lord to Her Evening Dancing Class.

Complimentary to her evening dancing class, Miss Cammie Lord gave a delightful german last night in Germania Hall, which was participated in by about twenty couples.

McFarlane with Miss Stockton, of South Dakota; Mr. W. H. Stone with Miss Nesae Westcott; Mr. R. C. Friday, March 2, at the club room on Fifth and Orange streets. His subject will be, "Architecture in Literature and History." The ladies are looking forward with much pleasure to Prof. Blair's address.

Little Workers' Festival.

It is announced that the "Little Workers" of St. Paul's Episcopal Church will give a festival this evening at No. 120 South Fifth street, for the benefit of the fund being raised for the building of a new parish house. The programme will include many interesting and entertaining numbers, the same being administered in the direction of Mrs. A. M. Waddell. Refreshments will be served.

To The Democratic Voters of New Hanover County.

At the solicitation of friends I hereby announce myself a candidate for the office of Register of Deeds of New Hanover county, subject to the action of the Democratic primaries. Grateful for the substantial support given me in the election of 1898 and hoping that my administration of the affairs of the office for the past year has been such as will warrant my re-election, I am yours, very respectfully,
