WASHINGTON, May 30.-Business was suspended in the National capital to day while the thousands of citizens, veterans of three wars and their descendants paid tribute to the nation's heroic dead. Washington is encircled by cemeteries, each the resting place of de-parted soldiers—Glenwood, Oak Hill, Holy Rood, St. Elizabeths, Brightwood, Soldiers Home, the Congressional Cemetery with its acres of soldiers' graves, and Arlington, where thousands upon thousands have their resting places marked with imperishable granite and where still other thousands are grouped about the single imposing monument with its sad in-

"To the unknown dead." In each of these cemeteries to day memorial services were held and orations delivered by some of the most able orators whose duties call them each session to the national capital.

As usual, the chief ceremonies were at Arlington. The veterans of the Civil War and the rapidly decreasing contingent of the Mexican War were joined this year by the veterans of the war with Spain. The veterans and members of the district militia participated in the procession, which marched through the heart of Washington, led by the Marine Band. The Elks' Novel Idea.

Washington Lodge of Elks inaugurated a novel idea in decorating the graves of its deceased members. There are sixty five of these "absent brothers" who have passed away since the organization of the local lodge and as a number of them found resting places in various parts of the country, large wreaths of ivy and amaranth, suitably inscribed, were sent from this city to be placed upon their graves. Every local cemetery also was visited and each Elk's grave appropriately deco-

At Philadelphia.

PHILADELPHIA, May 30. - Decoration day was observed in this city with the customary ceremonies by the various Grand Army posts and by the strewing of flowers on the graves of the soldier dead. In every cemetery in the city survivors of the civil war held memorial services, assisted in many instances by public school children. Not alone were the Union dead of the civil war remembered but the graves of a large number of Confederate dead in the national cemetery at German town, a suburb, were covered with flowers. The dead of the Revolutionary war, the war of 1812, the Mexican war, and those who died in battle during the Spanish war or in the camps, were also remembered.

ANNEXING THE FREE STATE.

Formal Proclamation and Imposing Ceremonies at Bloemfontein by the British Military Governor.

By Cable to the Morning Star.

BLOEMFONTEIN, May 29.-Amid salutes and cheers and the singing of "God Save the Queen" the military governor, Major General George Prettyman, at noon formally proclaimed the annexation of the Free State under the designation of the Orange River colony. The ceremony was somewhat imposing and the scene in the market square inspiring. An immense con-course had gathered and the town was gay with bunting. The balconies and windows surrounding the square were crowded with ladies.

The troops were drawn up under command of General Knox and entertained the spectators. The Governor, accompanied by General Kelly-Kenny and their staffs, escorted by the Welsh yeomanry, was greeted with a general's salute, after which, amid an impressive silence and in a clear voice heard in every part of the square, General Prettyman read Lord Roberts' proclamation annexing the Orange Free State as conquered by her Majesty's forces to the Queen's dominions, and proclaiming that the State shall henceforth be known as the Orange River

Lusty cheers greeted the concluding words of the proclamation and these were renewed with ever increasing volume as Lord Acheson unfurled the royal standard and the bands struck up God Save the Queen;" all present joining in singing the national hymn. The ceremony concluded with cheers for the Queen, Lord Roberts and the army and a salute of twenty-one guns.

PENSION BILLS PASSED.

The House Adjourned in Respect to Decoration Day-Little Business Was Transacted.

By Telegraph to the Morning Star. WASHINGTON, May 28 .- The programme of the leaders of the House to-day contemplated the launching of the debate upon the anti-trust resolution and bill, but it gave way to Decoration Day. Mr. Dalzell introduced but subsequently withdrew, the special order thich the House was to have operated in deference to the sentiment favoring adjournment out of respect to the day. After considerable parleying Mr. Dalzell made this concession, technically to permit the passage of 190 pension bills, which Mr. Talbert had blocked last Friday on the point of no quorum. The bills were passed to day after Mr. Dalzell's action.

British Forces Are Rapidly Advancing Upon the Capital of Transvaal.

PRETORIA WILL SURRENDER,

Mad Rush for the Coast by Fugitives from the Capital-Border Troubles Between the Boers and Portuguese-Querilla Warfare.

By Cable to the morning Star.

London, May 31, 3 A. M. -Yesterday at noon the British were only about two hours' march from Pretoria, and the Boer military forces had abandoned the city. This intelligence comes from the Reuter agent at the Transvaal capital and from the Earl of Rosslyn, n a press dispatch. The two messages left about the same time.

Most of the London papers treat the war as ended. Some of the more cautious critics think that guerilla war-fare is likely to be carried on for some time in various parts of the conquered territories.

Although the Boer forces are dissolying, Lord Roberts, apparently, has not yet taken any considerable quantity of artillery, arms or stores. Large bodies of Boers must still be somewhere in the field.

Waterval Boven, or Waterfall Boven, is a small mountain place, one undred and thirty miles due east of Pretoria, on the Delagoa Bay railway. The seat of the Boer governmentwhat is left of it-will probably be Lyddenburg, to the north. A dispatch from Lorenzo Marques, lated Wednesday says: "Commandant Kraus has surrenlered Johannesburg to Lord Roberts. By to-night's train from Pretoria arrived a few Greeks, who say they were told to leave Pretoria Tuesday. They affirm that the train in which they left was shelled by the British and that half of the train was cut off, the remainder steaming away. This incident probably occurred at Elands fontein junction.

"Passengers from Pretoria assert that the town is utterly demoralized. There is a mad rush for the coast. Five train loads of fugitives are expected here to-night." The Lorenzo Marques correspond ents think the border troubles between the Transvaal and Portugal may come to a head at any moment. Komatti bridge is strongly defended. No Resistance at Pretoria.

LONDON, May 31, 2 A. M.—The Daily Mail publishes the following dispatch from the Earl of Rosslin, who was a prisoner at Pretoria, but who, as a civilian, appears to have been released: "Pretoria, May 30th, 11:40 A. M.— Pretoria will be occupied in about two hours, without resistance. The Presi-dent has gone to Watervalboven. Bur-

Square for the arrival of the British. Fearing a possible disturbance and bloodshed among the prisoners of war at Waterval, United States Consul Hay and Leigh Wood insisted upon twenty officers being liberated on parole to go to the men. Their action cannot be too highly praised.

officers. Everything was quiet." LONDON, May 30.-Any prolonged defence of Pretoria is considered highly improbable and many military men anticipate that General French will capture the Transvaal capital within a day or two by a sudden and unexpected move.

THE CONFEDERATE VETERANS

Reunion at Louisville-North Carolina Division Selected to Lead the Grand Parade on Friday.

By Telegraph to the Merning Star. LOUISVILLE, Ky., May 30.-Surrounded by waving banners bearing the fiery cross of the Confederacy, listening to the cheers from the throats of three thousand men who wore the gray, and confronted by the waving handkerchiefs of hundreds of ladies, General John B. Gordon, commander of the United Confederate Veterans, to-day formally opened the tenth an nual reunion of the order, which in point of attendance is already the argest ever held. All things conspired to make the occasion a success, with the exception of the weather, which was almost as disagreeable as it well could be. All through the early hours of the morning the rain came down in sheets.

For an hour previous to the time set for the opening of the meeting the veterans and their friends made their way in a steady stream to the hall and by 11:30 it was well filled. The band struck up "Dixie," and then came the old rebel yell with a fire and vigor never surpassed during the days of the war. On the platform besides General Poyntz, were General B. Buckner, Rev. William J. Jones, Hon. J. H. Reagan, the only surviving member of the cabinet of Jefferson Davis, General W. T Cabell, General J. H. West, Colonel Thomas W. Bullitt, Colonel B. H. Young, Rev. Carter H. Jones, Dr. B. M. Palmer and others. The Mayor, whose speech was re ceived with much applause, was fol lowed by Colonel Thomas F. Bullitt, who welcomed the visitors to Louisville in behalf of the Board of Trade of that city. Rev. Carter Jones extended the welcome in behalf of the Commercial Club of the city.

While he was in the midst of his ad dress the A. P. Hill camp of Petersburg, Va., came into the hall, headed by a fife and drum corps which created such a noise that it was impossible for Mr. Jones to continue.

Other speeches were made by Col. A. Cox, Chief Justice Hazelrigg, Gen. Buckner, and Col. Bennett H. Young. At the conclusion of his address, Col Young turned to Gen. Gordon and handed him the keys of the building which had been erected for the re-Gen. Gordon was visibly moved by the reception he met with and for sev eral minutes stood bowing his thanks. General Gordon introduced Dr. B. M. Palmer, of New Orleans, the orator of the day. Dr. Palmer was presented with a magnificent bunch of flowers by the Daughters of the Confederacy and the purple badge of the Ladies' Confederate Memorial Association. The presentation speech was made by General At 3.20 P. M. the convention ad ourned until 10 o'clock to-morrow. The United Sons of Confederate Veterans, which annually holds its re

Por the Protection of Their Respective Legations at Pekia--Fresh Atrocities by the "Boxers"-Chinese Soldiers Joining the Rebels.

By Cable to the Morning Star PEKIN, Tuesday, May 29.-From all parts of the surrounding country news is constantly arriving of fresh atrocities committed by the "Boxers." Three Christian families were massacred at Shan Lai Ying, sixty miles from Pekin, Friday, May 25th. Only two A representative of the Associated Press visited Fang Tai this morning and found the place occupied by a battalion of troops. The whole railroad station, workshops and locomotive sheds were gutted and much rolling stock was destroyed, including the imperial palace car. Large warehouses full of valuable merchandise were burned after having been looted by the rioters. The damage done is estimated at half a million taels. The neighboring villagers seem to have joined in the attack, showing that the movement is not confined to the Boxers." Eight rioters who were captured will be decapitated. Riding through the South gate of Pekin the correspondent found the road inside the walls lined with troops who greeted the traveller and his party with a fusilade of stones. The whole public is much excited. SHANGHAI, May 30. - The British warships Orlando and Algerine are anding one hundred men at Taku, where the French, Russian and Japanese guards have already disembarked. The "Boxers" are apparently without arms except those they have obtained from the soldiery, many of whom are openly joining the rebels.

To Guard Legations at Pekin. TIEN TSIN, May 30.-American, British, Japanese, German, Italian, Russian and French troops, to the number of one hundred each, have been ordered to guard their respective legations at Pekin, but the viceroy here will not allow them to proceed hence to Pekin on the railroad without the authority of the Tsung Li Yamen. One hundred and eight Americans with a machine gun and a field gun, landed here last night amidst great enthusiasm on the part of the residents. Five Russian and one British warship have arrived at Taku and the British are now landing.

Three thousand Chinese troops from u Tai are expected here to day en route to Fang Tai. There is a disposition here to believe that the "Boxers" will disperse before the foreign troops are ready to act. Tien Tsin is in no danger.

Other warships are hourly expected.

Chinese Edict. London, May 30.-A special dispatch from Shanghai, dated to day, Yesterday the Chinese government issued an edict prohibiting the "Boxers" organization, under penalty of death. The edict, which was signed by the Emperor, was couched in equivocal terms and was promulgated really more as an excuse than in condemnation of the movement.

TIEN TSIN, THURSDAY, May 31 .-The Chinese refuse to allow Russian troops to pass the Taku forts. LONDON, May 31 .- The Daily Mail has received the following from Tien

Tsin, dated May 30: "Heavy fighting has taken place between the Imperial troops and the "Boxers" at Lai Shin Hi Sien, but the result is not known here. "Railway traffic at Pekin has been esumed. The foreign settlement here is suf ficiently protected by the American and Japanese troops which have been landed, consequently the excitement has abated."

RIDDICK MURDER TRIAL.

Aged Father of the Prisoner on the Witness Stand-Insanity Alleged. By Telegraph to the Morning Star.

RICHMOND, VA, May 30.-In the trial to-day at Lawrenceville of Rev. J. E. R. Riddick, for the murder of Dr. William Temple, there was some sensational testimony. The Commonwealth brought out that after a conversation Riddick had with his wife he expressed doubt whether he was justifled in killing Temple. The defence put the aged father of the prisoner. a Methodist minister himself, on the stand, and drew from him that inebriety and lunacy were hereditary in the family, running back to witness' grandfather. He told of how the prisoner had at one time fallen from the faith, and testified that on the advice of physicians one of his (witness) daughters had married to save herself from insanity. It was either that or an asylum. A letter was read from Riddick to his wife and his mother, in which the prisoner claimed that God had influenced him to kill Dr. Temple. Court adjourned until to morrow.
