OUTLINES.

The Weather Bureau reports slight improvement in condition of cotton in parts of Mississippi and Louisiana; in Texas the crop has improved; over the eastern portions of the belt the conditions are unfavorable. New England mill men are charged with attempting to create dissatisfaction among operators in Southern cotton mills. The U. S. government has sent a reply to Li Hung Chang, rejecting the appeal for a cessation of hostilities in China. The Emperor and Empress Dowager left Peking and went westward. Chinese mobs continue the work of devastation at Amoy. Allies reported to have entered the Sacred City of Peking Aug. 17th. J. W. McAllister, of Raleigh, killed in a saloon in Newport News. Chinese have cut the telegraph line from Tien Tsin. A large body of Chinese troops have taken the field. The treasure carried off by the Empress Dowager is said to have amounted to fifty million taels. Hon. W. J. Bryan's speech in response to the modification of the Populist nomination will be made tomorrow at Topeka, Kas. Russia, it is reported, is negotiating with the insurance companies in the United States for a loan of three hundred million rubles. Some of the Populist leaders will resist upon a candidate of their own for vice president. N. Y. markets: Money on call steady at 1 1/4; cotton quiet, middling uplands 10c; flour quiet, steady; wheat—spot firm, No. 2 red 77c; corn—spot firm, No. 2 45c; oats—spot steady, No. 2 36c; rice—spot steady, turpentine steady.

COTTON REGION BULLETIN.

Warm weather continues in all sections with maximum temperatures 90 and above in Georgia and South Carolina. Local rains, mostly light, have fallen in the Wilmington, Memphis, Little Rock, Galveston, and Atlanta districts.

FORECAST FOR TODAY.

WASHINGTON, Aug. 21.—For North Carolina—Local rains Wednesday; Thursday fair, fresh westerly winds.

Port Almanac—August 22.

Chauncey M. Depew had better be bracing up and training. Bob Fitzsimmons, the bruiser, is developing into a post prandial orator.

Rufus Kenrick, of Wakefield, Mass., has the record, so far, as a sparrow exterminator. He has scopped 6,000 sparrows and 6,000 eggs.

Henry D. Stringer, of New York, went into bankruptcy recently with liabilities amounting to $256,210. He managed to save $45 for his creditors.

Herr Krupp is always projecting to make it uncomfortable for somebody. Herr is now experimenting with a gun which is to throw a projectile fourteen miles.

The campaign in Maine will close September 10th. The Democrats have no hope of carrying the State, but are fighting to cut down the Republican majority.

Hanna is talking about getting Minister Conger back in time to make some speeches for McKinley. That's a nice way to treat a man who has gone through the ordeal he has.

Adelina Patti has made much as $150,000 in a year, and asks $2,000 a night now when she warbles. Her biggest scoop for one performance was in Buenos Ayres when she took in $11,000.

The fourteen hundred Cuban school teachers who have been visiting this country do not seem to be much stuck on it. Perhaps they lingered too long in Boston and got stalled on beans.

Mark Twain's writings have to go through his wife's censorship before they pass. If she doesn't like them Mark has to try it over again, or they go into the waste basket. She makes light of some of his heaviest efforts and lights the fire with them.

Farmer Clausen, of Long Island, doesn't want any more collared collar. The other day while tugging at a Brooklyn cigar trying to light it, a spark hit his collar, and soon his neck was encircled by a band of flame. It was extinguished before the conflagration proceeded far, but it proceeded far enough to singe his neck all around and cure him of any partiality for celluloid collars.

Death of a Child.

Nellie Mallard, the little nine-month-old child of Mr. and Mrs. A. C. Mallard, No. 204 North Front street, died at the City Hospital Monday where she had been taken by her parents to have an operation performed in order to take from the little one's throat a peanut which had lodged there last Saturday in consequence of the little girl's falling out of the door of the home. She died before the operation was performed and the remains were taken yesterday to Atkinson, N. C., for interment. Mr. and Mrs. Mallard speak in highest terms of the careful nursing of the child by Mrs. Croom and Mrs. Pridden, attendants at the hospital.

Board of Aldermen.

Another special meeting of the Board of Aldermen was called for yesterday afternoon at 8 o'clock but again it had to be postponed on account of the lack of a quorum, Aldermen Springer, Taylor, Hanby, Woodard and Littleton being the only members in attendance. The matters before the Board for consideration were identical with those mentioned in yesterday's STAR. All will probably remain in statu quo until the regular meeting for September.

Excursion Yesterday Morning.

About 250 people left yesterday morning on Hatch Bros' excursion to Norfolk, Washington and Baltimore. There were five passenger coaches and these were pretty well filled. Five other coaches were attached to the train at Goldsboro. Returning, the excursion will leave for Wilmington Friday afternoon.

LEAVE THIS MORNING

Wilmington Light Infantry and Confederate Veterans Are Off for Raleigh.

THE MONUMENT UNVEILING.

They Will Go on a Special Train to Do Honor to the Lamented Veteran—The Roster of the W. L. I. As It Will Attend.

Weather conditions and other circumstances promise to be very favorable for the trip to Raleigh in contemplation by the Wilmington Light Infantry and Cape Fear Camp No. 254, United Confederate Veterans, leaving on the special train over the Atlantic Coast Line this morning at 8:30 o'clock. A well attended drill of the W. L. I. was held last night and final plans for the trip arranged definitely. Many of the members slept with alarm clocks close to their ears last night, and a few who realized that "time and a railroad train wait for no man," remained in the army. This morning before the 5 o'clock hour they will regale themselves with a lunch, provided by Sergeants Gillean and Whitney, and promptly at 5 o'clock they will leave the army for the train, which is guaranteed to put the company in Raleigh before 10 o'clock this morning. Then, at midday the special train will leave on the return and is expected to arrive here at 5 o'clock to-morrow morning. The roster of the company as it will participate in the ceremonies to-day is as follows:
Captains—C. H. White, First Lieutenant—C. S. Grainger, Second Lieutenant—J. Van B. Meitz, Sergeants—N. E. Gillean and H. G. Whitney.
Corporals—O. A. Wiggins, Jr., J. O. Reilly, Orelth Angel and Clayton Giles, Jr.
Privates—Boatwright, S. M., Bolles, F. Davis, J. Davis, E. W., Genault, O., Hatch, Harrell, G. V., Huggins, H. A., James, G. P., Jackson, J. W., Jr., Moore, W. L., Morris, O., Matton, C., McMullen, McGirt, H. S., Peaschar, J. B., Pinner, F., Peck, O., Thees, G. O., Turentine, F. R., Vick, S. R., Wright, T. H.
Sergeant—Dr. A. H. Harris.
Col. Woodward was busy yesterday answering telephone inquiries from veterans about rates, etc., and while the exact number that will go on the special this morning is not yet known, the indications are that there will be 15 or more.
A committee from L. O. Branch Camp No. 515, U. C. V., of Raleigh, composed of Comrades Birdsong, Barnes and Ellington, will meet the train and show visiting Confederates about the city. The hall of the camp will be open all day as headquarters for them and a committee will be left in charge to look after their comfort. All those attending from Cape Fear Camp are given credentials by Commander Meitz as delegates to the annual meeting of the N. C. Confederate Veterans' Association, which will be in session at Raleigh upon this occasion.
Besides the members of the two organizations mentioned above, there will also be a good delegation of private citizens, who will go to Raleigh for the unveiling.
The oration of the day will take place from a large platform which has been erected adjoining the east portico of the capitol.
The distinguishing feature of the arrangements is simplicity. In the parade are to be no mounted marshals or vehicles. The procession is under the charge of Col. T. S. Kenan, the master of ceremonies, and Mr. A. A. Thompson, of the committee. The other members of the committee will assist in directing the various phases of the ceremony.
The statue of the Senator is placed on the eastern part of the capitol square and it faces Newbern avenue. It is one of the handsomest statues in the south and is a fine representation of North Carolina's greatest son. It represents the Senator in his typical attitude in debate—his right foot forward, the right hand holding his spectacles extended in gesture and the other hand resting on a book at his side.
The mound stands four feet high, pedestal eight and one-half feet—total height above walk, twenty-one feet. The statue weighs 1,600 pounds.
Steamer Wilmington Slightly Injured.
As the steamer Wilmington was about to tie up at Carolina Beach pier on the last trip last night she was struck by a squall and swung amidships with the result that a piling projecting from the pier crushed a hole in her bulwark with slight damage. Two stanchions were carried away and the railing was broken. Capt. Harper soon had the steamer in ship-shape again and she arrived up with only a very slight delay. The repairs will be completed in time for the early morning trip today. There was a heavy rainfall at the pier also last night.

Fruit Growers in Session.

A meeting of the Board of Directors of the East Carolina Truck and Fruit Growers' Association was held at The Orion yesterday at noon, but only business of a private and routine character was discussed. Among those in attendance upon the meeting were: President W. L. Hill, of Warsaw; J. A. Westbrook, Mount Olive; W. J. Boney, Wallace; Dr. George F. Lucas, Currie; J. A. Brown, Chadbourne; B. G. Oliver, Mount Olive; J. H. Moore, Burgaw, and S. H. Strange, Fayetteville.

A Late Train.

On account of the dance at Ocean View Hotel to-night there will be a late train on the Wilmington Seacoast Railroad leaving the beach at 11 o'clock P. M., instead of 10 o'clock as heretofore. Music for the dance will be furnished by Miller's band and a delightful evening is assured to those who attend.

LOCAL DOTS.

—Steamboat men had advice that rain was falling in Fayetteville about 4 o'clock yesterday afternoon.
—Owing to the slight repairs needed, the tug Aquirre, bound from Baltimore to Ponce, is still in port. She will likely resume her voyage today.
—A Sunday School excursion from Laurinburg and points intervening as far as Lumberton is expected here to-day. The one from Wilkesboro and other points will arrive at 6 P. M.

IS THE HOT SPELL BROKEN?

Crops Were Much Damaged by the Long Drought—Cooler Weather Expected.
Much of yesterday's weather was not inspiring to the hope, expressed by many, that Monday afternoon's shower had brought an end to the longest warm weather period experienced by Wilmingtonians in, perhaps seventeen years. With the rain came a much cooler atmosphere and private thermometers dropped seven degrees in as few minutes after the fall began. Then followed a comparatively cool night, but yesterday "Old Sol" resumed the encroachment upon his three weeks' uninterrupted course of record breaking and gave the sweltering individual another sample of what he could do under favorable circumstances.
Last night other showers came and the hope is entertained that it will now remain cool for at least a few days.
In the meantime crops throughout all this section have suffered terrible consequences. Visitors to the city yesterday said that, though refreshing rains had fallen, still more was needed by crops to save at least a part of the yield that has been cut off by the excessively hot and dry weather. Corn and cotton have suffered most, and this condition is not confined to Wilmington's tributary country, but to the whole State and Atlantic States as well.
S. Mann & Sons, cotton factors of New York, last night telegraphed their agent here that unless very heavy rains are reported in the Atlantic States soon "look for much higher prices."

A PITIABLE SPECTACLE.

Fifteen Year Old White Boy Drunk on the Streets Yesterday.
The pitiable spectacle of a 15-year-old boy, badly intoxicated, was in evidence on Water street, near Market, yesterday about noon. Jimmie Driver is the boy's name, and he procured a half pint of whiskey from a bar-room in the vicinity on the pretext that it was for his mother, to be used for medicinal purposes. Nearly the whole flask of whiskey had been consumed by the boy when he was arrested a short while afterwards by Constable Sheehan for disorderly conduct in using profane and blasphemous words of the vilest character. He was taken before Dr. W. W. Harris, justice of the peace, and committed to the county jail for trial today.
A warrant was also secured for the arrest of the proprietor of the place at which the boy secured the liquor, and he was bound over to court in sufficient bond for his appearance. The boy's story about the sickness of his mother was told so plausibly that one of the clerks in the saloon was sincere in trusting him, and at the door of the boy himself lies the blame for his conduct. His parents have used every precaution to train him in different paths.

WANT COMMUTATION OF SENTENCE.

Gov. Russell Will Again Be Interceded With in Behalf of Kinsauls.
Without interference by the Governor, Archie Kinsauls, the condemned murderer from Sampson county, who is now in New Hanover jail, will hang at Clinton, Friday, September 7th—just sixteen days from this date. The chief executive of the State has already been interceded with in the condemned man's interest, but beyond a postponement of the execution one or more times, he has refused to change the judgment of the court.
The wife of the condemned man and William J. Bellamy, Esq., Kinsauls' attorney, who has been drawn into the case more on account of sympathy than for hope of pecuniary reward, will make one more final intercession with the Governor in his behalf, asking for a commutation of his sentence to life imprisonment.
Mrs. Kinsauls left last night for Raleigh and this morning Mr. Bellamy will leave on the special train. Sheriff MacRae and Jailor Millis will also probably go to day to tell of Kinsauls' exemplary conduct while in the prison here and of any other circumstances that will gain executive clemency.
Kinsauls has not yet broken down under the strain upon his system and talks cheerfully of his hopes.

HERMANN THE GREAT.

He Will Be at the Wilmington Opera House Friday Evening.
The "Great Hermann," who has astounded the civilized globe with his marvelous feats of necromancy, will present at the Wilmington Opera House Friday night several of the grandest and most astonishing illusions ever seen on any stage.
The most marvelous illusion ever presented on any stage is his sensational offering of the present season, "Cremation." It shows a beautiful young lady burned alive before your very eyes, and so realistic is the effect that it is positively startling and awe-inspiring. This one act alone is worth the price of admission, but when to that is added several other illusions and a strong bill of legendarium, the performance is one that local theatre-goers cannot afford to miss.
Sale of seats begins to-morrow morning at Munda's Temple Pharmacy.

Audit and Finance Board.

Nothing of public interest came up yesterday at the regular semi-monthly meeting of the City Board of Audit and Finance. A number of matters which the Board desired to consider more fully was left open until to-morrow afternoon at 3 o'clock when a special meeting will be held. Those members in attendance were Messrs. W. A. Riach, C. W. Yates and S. P. McQueen, in Western North Carolina, but he will probably be here in time for the meeting to-morrow.

Little Boy Dead.

The numerous friends of the family of Mr. J. T. Kerr, of Cape Fear township, will sympathize with them deeply in the loss of Horace Clayton, the nine-year-old son of Mr. Kerr, which occurred at the family home in the country yesterday. The funeral will be held this morning at 11 o'clock from the residence and the interment will be in the family graveyard.
Do you want 2,000 or 3,000 old newspapers at your own price? If so, call at the STAR office. They make a cheap wrapping paper.

THE HORNET'S CRUISE.

Star's Special Correspondent "On Board" Gives Interesting News of the Trip. Captain Skelding Improving.
[Special Star Correspondence.]
ON BOARD U. S. S. HORNET, OFF SOUTHPORT, N. C., August 21.—All the boys are getting on nicely on the cruise and are getting down to ship style. Some of them are "Old Tars" look more like Indians than white men, for the sun doesn't shine at all here, oh no; just bakes.
Yesterday we put out a target about a mile and a half and when we got back on board, the wind began blowing a small steady breeze, and we were very soon minus a target. It actually blew so hard, it blew a cow across the channel against our mast and held her there for three hours (!) But the wind soon ceased and it was so calm that the boats slipped through the water as if it were oil.
Mr. Jack Cowell, who we were sorry to say, was taken ill to day and had to be sent home.
Some of the boys would rather stay ashore than on board. We were guessing why, until the Algonquin came in over the bar last night and threw the search light on the garrison. It is no longer "calico" (calico), yes, more calico "than John saw."
Everybody down here has time to eat a bale of hay, except Ensign J. K. Forshee's girl; "nough sed."
How's Hergenrother for first lieutenant and Matthews for second lieutenant? "Hush your own dirty mind."
In speaking about appetites a mp mentago, how's Capt. A. B. Skelding? "We are not well, but we will be obliged to Wilmington to supply it. The salt air, etc., agrees with him certain and his convalescence from his recent spell of sickness is being greatly accelerated."
"We've had target practice with our small arms (rifles) since coming down and some excellent shots has been made. Fulcher is ahead so far. M."

HON. JNO. D. BELLAMY.

[Charlotte News.]
The Democratic convention for the Sixth Congressional district re-nominated Hon. Jno. D. Bellamy by acclamation. This was a high honor, well bestowed.
Mr. Bellamy has made a record during his term in Congress of which he may well be proud. He has served his people with fidelity, and has made some reputation as a polished speaker and ready debater. If the Democrats elect a majority of the next House of Representatives, as now seems likely, he will have even greater opportunities for usefulness. The election two years ago he carried every county in the district. This year he ought to do as well. He cannot do better.
Let every Democrat go to work and roll up as big a majority as possible for Bellamy and Bryan.

TO THE SURVIVING OFFICERS OF THE 36TH N. C. ARTILLERY REGIMENT.

I am exceedingly anxious to obtain pictures of the commissioned officers of the 36th N. C. Artillery Regiment who participated in the battles at Fort Fisher, taken either with or without uniforms during the War.
If you will inform me at Norfolk, Virginia, immediately, of any pictures in your possession of yourselves, or of any pictures taken during the war of your deceased comrades who held commissions in your regiment, you will confer a great favor upon me.
WILLIAM LAMB, Colonel of the 36th N. C. Artillery Regiment.
