VANCE'S MONUMENT.

Unveiling Ceremonies at the Capitol Grounds in the City of Raleigh.

PARADE AND PROCESSION.
Military Companies—Confederate Veterans—Orator by R. H. Battle.
Miss Espy Vance Drew the Cord—The Statue.

[Special Star Telegram.] RALEIGH, N. C., August 22.—The monument to Zebulon B. Vance was unveiled in the capitol square, for the admiration of generations unborn.
The procession formed shortly after noon in front of Metropolitan Hall, then marched two squares to the capitol grounds. The order of march was as follows: Platoon of Raleigh police; L. O. B. Branch Camp Confederate Veterans; Wright's Cornet Band; Raleigh Light Infantry, 43 strong; Wilmington Light Infantry, 34 strong; two companies from Durham, under Capt. Woodall, and Capt.
Christian, 40 strong each; Franklinston company, 40 strong; Granville Grays, of Oxford, 40 strong; Vance Guards, of Warrenton, 40 strong; Clinton company, 24 men; Winston Naval Reserve, 30 men; Newbern Naval Reserve, 30 men. Various camps of Confederate veterans followed. The Webb Camp, of Durham, made a fine appearance, with over one hundred; Cape Fear Camp, of Wilmington, attracted much attention, and Mayor Waddell was a most welcome visitor on this occasion. Among other prominent men were General J. S.
Carr, Colonel J. S. Cunningham and General B. E. Royster.

The number of visitors to the city, estimated from the arrival of regular trains and five specials, is placed at 5,000 people.

Opening Exercises.
There were probably 10,000 people on adjoining streets and in the capitol grounds when the exercises began. The committees and dignitaries occupied seats on the platform. The ceremony was opened by prayer by Dr. Eugene Daniel, of the Presbyterian Church, in an impressive invocation.
Col. Thos. S. Kenan, of Raleigh, who was elected chief marshal by the committee, introduced Hon. Richard H.
Battle, of Raleigh, orator of the day.
Mr. Battle spoke clearly and forcibly and his address was a masterful summary of Vance's life, as a boy, student, lawyer, legislator, Congressman, soldier, Governor and Senator. He said that North Carolina was not unmindful of her great man and that by common consent Vance was fixed upon as the man the people of the State delighted to honor.

Monument Unveiled.
Upon conclusion of Mr. Battle's oration Miss Espy Vance, granddaughter of the lamented Senator, drew the cord and the statue of the patriot was beheld by the vast crowd.
A mighty cheer went up.
The statue stands in capitol square, midway between the east front of that building and the boundary of the square, while the noble memorial erected by the State to its Confederate dead—"First at Bethel, last at Appom-ttox"—stands at the western front.
The movement to erect a monument to the Senator took shape soon after his death and was begun as a popular one. In this way $2,500 was raised.
The Legislature of 1899 came to the aid of the movement by appropriating $5,000, and with the $7,500 it was decided to secure a statue. There was lively competition by artists last Sunday, no less than twelve competing, but Henry J. Elliott, of Washington, was the winner. Mrs. Vance, the widow, admired the model, which was a study from the best photograph, and made frequent visits to Elliott's studio, where the work was seen and pleased her, as it also did the two committees, one appointed by the Legislature the other by the citizens who had made contributions.

The Statue Described.
The statue is 8 1/2 feet in height and stands upon a base of granite from Mount Airy, this State, the base being of equal height. It was cast by the Gorham Company, at Providence, R. I., and was shipped to the capitol grounds by two members of the committee. When they went there to inspect it in June one of them exclaimed as they first viewed it, "There's Vance." When the statue was put in position last month the few who saw it made the same remark. Vance's personality was very striking. The likeness of the face and head is the feature of the work. On the base is the one word "Vance," in bold letters. That one word is enough. In bold relief it stands out, typical of the man, who in war or in peace was always for his beloved North Carolina and North Carolinians. The head is lion-like, yet kindly in expression. The artist has happily caught the bearing of the man and his true manliness of face, form and pose.

Master of Seabright.
Capt. John L. Price, an experienced steamboat man of Southport, will succeed Capt. W. A. Sanders, it is learned, as master of the steamer Seabright.
Of course, Captain Sanders will go on the Compton, and under his careful guidance she is destined to make many a successful trip down the Cape Fear and to sea.

Dance at Ocean View.
The dance at Ocean View Hotel last night was enjoyed very much by a large number of participants. Music was by Cripple Dick's band and a late train was provided for those who desired to return to the city last night.

THE CUTTER ALGONQUIN.

First Visit to City Yesterday Since Her Recent Trip to Baltimore—Change in Officers' Staff.

The United States revenue cutter Algonquin, stationed permanently at Wilmington, came up to the city yesterday morning from Southport for the first time since the recent improvement to her machinery and hull, which required her absence more than a month in Baltimore.
The cutter was much improved though to the novice the improvements do not appear from the exterior.
She was docked by the Columbia Iron Works and her bottom was scraped and painted. New auxiliary steering gear, to be used by hand in the event the steam gear becomes inoperative, has been installed and there are other improvements of a casual nature.

Capt. Willey remained in Baltimore and he will be away for some time yet. First Lieutenant J. E. Reinberg brought the ship down from Baltimore last Monday and, of course, is in command during the Captain's absence.
She returned to Southport at 4 o'clock yesterday afternoon and will remain at her summer station there until October 1st.

During her absence in Baltimore several changes have taken place in the executive staff of the Algonquin.
Third Lieutenant F. W. Smith has been detached and sent to the Galveston, stationed at Galveston, Texas.
Second Lieutenant D. T. A. DeOtte, of the cutter Boutwell, stationed at Newbern, but which is now at Baltimore for her annual inspection and overhauling, came down on the Algonquin in Lieutenant Smith's stead, but returned last night to Baltimore to join his own ship. Cadet R. R.
Taeftel, of the practice ship Chase, is now in his place.

First Assistant Engineer J. E. Dorry has been transferred to the Windham, stationed at Baltimore, and in his place is Second Assistant Engineer Edwin M. Davis, of the Dallas. Second Assistant Engineer Turner's position was filled during the ship's absence by Mr. W. V. Sullivan. Chief Engineer F. E. Owen and Second Lieutenant B. M. Chiswell are, of course, at their posts yet.

Sunday the Algonquin will cruise to Charleston and remain away about a week.

IN HONOR OF "CAP" COLLIER.

Base Ball Team Named After Him—Described by "Golden Hours."

The juvenile base ball teams calling themselves the "Golden Hours" and "Little Colliers" (named in honor of "Cap" Collier), played a game yesterday afternoon at Seaside Park, corner of Eleventh and Red Cross streets, the score being 11 to 8 in favor of the first named aggregation. The line-up of the teams was as follows:

GOLDEN HOURS. LITTLE COLLIER.
Woodbury..... Woodcock Bank..... Woodcock
Banks..... 1st b..... Yopp Morris..... 2d b..... Hall, B.
King..... 3d b..... Hall, B.
Bank..... s..... Gieschen Bulluck..... f..... Stanland Brown..... c..... Chester

The playing is said to have been characterized by heavy hitting on the part of the "Little Colliers," but the opposing team had "golden" opportunities and took advantage of them.

Injured in a Runaway.
News has been received by friends in the city of a runaway at Linville, a mountain summer resort of North Carolina, in which Mrs. George Rountree, of Wilmington, was painfully but not seriously injured. Mrs. Rountree, with her sisters, Mrs. M. F. H.
King, and Mrs. Donald MacRae have been spending some time at Linville, and Saturday afternoon while driving with a Mrs. Whipple, the horse became frightened and kicked the vehicle to pieces, throwing the ladies on a pile of stone by the roadside. Mrs. Whipple was unconscious for some time but Mrs. Rountree was the most injured. She received lacerations about her ear, neck and chin by coming in contact with one of the tires on a wheel of the buggy and the fall to the ground also caused many bruises. Both ladies were badly frightened but are recovering very fast.

Newbern Fair.
The Newbern Fair, under the ausices of the East Carolina Fish, Oyster, Game and Industrial Association, will be held November 12th to 17th, inclusive. Arrangements have been made for the event, and it is proposed to make it the most successful fair ever held in Newbern. Trotting and running races are being arranged, which, with the large and attractive exhibits of fish, oysters and wild game, is bound to draw a large crowd of visitors. The premium list will be announced later. Mr. William Dunn is president of the enterprise and Mr. George Green secretary and treasurer.

Finger Cut Off.
Cornelius Davis, a thirteen-year-old colored boy, lost the forefinger of his left hand yesterday afternoon about 3 o'clock while edging shingles at Brown's shingle factory near Kidder's mill. The boy was feeding a rip saw, when his hand slipped into the saw and was badly lacerated. He was brought by a colored laborer of the mill to the office of Dr. Harper, City Superintendent of Health, where he was given temporary attention and carried to the City Hospital, where amputation of the finger was made.

ing the Wilmington Division Naval Reserves on their annual outfit at Southport, came up to the city yesterday morning on the Algonquin and will return to-day.

Rev. W. B. Oliver, pastor of the Florence Baptist church, who went to Southport some time ago for his health, is reported as having improved very little. In some respects, however, he has been benefitted some.

GALE AT CAROLINA BEACH.

Bowling Contest Yesterday Under Auspices of Hanover Seaside Club.

The second bowling contest of the Summer like this one. He had a close competitor in Mr. Fred Bisinger, who scored 88 out of a possible 30.
Last night there was dancing until 10:30 o'clock at the club house, and a large number of couples participated.
A late boat was provided by Capt.
Harper for the occasion.

The third of the series of contests and club functions of the kind enjoyed last night will be given next Wednesday night week.

A TWO DAYS EXCURSION.

Arrived Last Evening from Wilkesboro, Winston-Salem and Greensboro.

The Wilkesboro, Winston-Salem and Greensboro excursion arrived last night at 7:45 o'clock and will remain in the city two days, returning at 8 P. M. Friday evening. The train was in charge of Capt. Haywood Clark, who took the Raleigh special to Goldsboro yesterday morning, and consisted of five coaches and baggage car.
There were about 250 people aboard the train.

The excursion was run by Mr. R. L.
Verdon, travelling passenger agent of the Southern Railway at Charlotte, and Mr. Jno. B. Graham, city ticket agent of the Southern at Greensboro, accompanied the train here.

The excursionists remained in the city last night and will spend to-day at Carolina and Wrightsville beaches.
Many of them will also take in the trip to Southport and to sea on the steamer Wilmington this morning.

Trip to Sea.
Captain Harper has, for the benefit of the excursionists in the city from up the country, arranged for a trip to Southport and to sea on the steamer Wilmington, leaving the Market street dock at 9:15 A. M. to-day. Points of interest along the river will be touched, and opportunity will be given passengers to stop at Carolina Beach, both going and coming. A thoroughly enjoyable time is assured to all those who "take in" the trip.

A Sunday Mail.
Through the efforts of Hon.
Jno. D. Bellamy, a Sunday Mail to Wrightsville postoffice has been added and residents there will now have the advantage of a mail every day in the week. The improved service will no doubt be greatly appreciated by those benefited.

TO ISSUE MANIFESTO.

Prominent Tar Heel Democrats Who Want to Support Mr.
McKinley.

SO SAYS WASHINGTON POST.
A Movement Among Business Men and Others to Emphasize Settlement of Negro Question by Voting Republican National Ticket.

[Washington Post, 22nd.]
The situation in North Carolina, as between Mr. McKinley and Mr. Bryan, is engaging some attention among well informed politicians in these parts. No one is quite ready to say that the Tar Heels will desert the Democratic column, although the story was brought to this city some days ago that there was an agreement between Republicans and Democrats, made a considerable time ago, that the amendment should be carried in August and North Carolina's electoral vote delivered to McKinley in November. That story has been told quietly, but with great emphasis, here of late.
It has not carried conviction that any such agreement has actually existed, but it has convinced some people that there is a strong tendency among some North Carolina Democrats to fall in line for the Republican ticket.

As corroborating such a situation, it is learned from North Carolinians who are in the confidence of political parties that there is a movement among the Democrats down here to issue a manifesto within a few days declaring their preference, now that the negro has been removed as an issue from State politics, in favor of Mr. McKinley. Details of the men and of their influence in various North Carolina counties cannot now be given, but steps have actually been taken to that end, with prospects of successful culmination.

The clamor from some parts of the State that further agitation of the negro question by Democratic organs should have its origin largely with men who are friendly with the McKinley movement, and who, realizing some of the benefits that protection has brought to the State, want to see political divisions on industrial questions and national politics, rather than on race issues. Whatever comes off the movement, it is regarded as significant of the sentiment in the Old North State.

Mr. Bryan's majority there four years ago was 19,356. While very few of the voters there are enough North Carolina Democrats supporting Mc-Kinley to insure the eleven electoral votes for him, there are a large number who appreciate the great industrial growth of the State, and who, in political sympathies, it is declared, belong of right in the Republican party.

EX-CONGRESSMAN FOWLER

Explains Reason for Trouble Between Himself and Mr. George Peterson, of Clinton—Charges Related.

CLINTON, N. C., August 21.
EDITOR STAR: We are in view of your to-day's paper, an account of a little "scrap" here on the 20th inst. between Geo. Peterson, of this place, and myself, in which you say that the difficulty grew out of the fact that I made the charge here on Saturday that Geo.
Peterson had gotten ammunition, here, before the election to intimidate Populist and anti-amendment voters.
I made no such charge. I did state that he was in the possession of this ammunition at the time of his election meeting at Clinton, that I had been away from home for a few weeks prior to the election, and that on my way back on Tuesday prior to the election, I was warned by the great industrial men of this place, and Winchester rifles waiting for the train to bring them to Clinton. I also stated that I was informed that they were ordered by a merchant in the town of Clinton.
The crowd then requested that I name him and I called the name of George Peterson.

Your correspondent, who is evidently Peterson's friend, stated that we quarrelled on the streets. This is not true. The facts are that I have been an invalid for the past fifteen months. Yesterday morning I got out of a sick bed and started to the office of my physician for a prescription and just as I started up stairs, Peterson, who will weigh 190 pounds, without any warning whatever, approached and before I could even turn to him, hit me in the face. There were no words exchanged between us. I never even suspected that he was mis-till he hit me and I was totally unprepared.

These are the facts. As to which one got the best of it, I don't wish the public is concerned.
Respectfully,
Jno. E. Fowler.

Excursion Arrivals.

Among the arrivals in the city on the excursion yesterday evening were:

Traxler, Greensboro; J. C. Greenwood

At Prosecutor's Cost.

J. E. Tyner was arraigned before Mayor pro tem. Springer yesterday morning on a charge of disorderly conduct, preferred by Hiram Moore.
Moore claimed that he was approached by Tyner and two other men and that Tyner used very violent and abusive language toward him. The testimony, however, did not substantiate the charge and Moore was taxed with the costs, amounting to $3.15.

AS IT SHOULD HAVE BEEN.
[Charlotte Observer] Representative Bellamy was, of course, renominated without dissent by the convention which met at Wilmington yesterday afternoon. It was as it should have been. He has been faithful to his duties in Washington—faithful to his constituents. The scurry effort which was made to deprive him of his seat in the present Congress, and which failed, will be fittingly rebuked by his people in the great majority which they will give him in November.
