THE STORM IN TEXAS.

Suggestion as to Administering to Wants of the Suffering People.

The storm that wrought such ruin at Galveston and other Texas towns was one of the most terrible that has ever occured in the United States, and the suffering it has caused will strike all our people. Much money will be needed for the beggared and starving people of our sister State, and it may be regarded as a certainty that an appeal for aid will be made to the people of our whole country. In this event, the STAR suggests that a meeting of the Chamber of Commerce be held, and that a strong committee be appointed to solicit contributions. This will be the most practical way to raise a sum commensurate with our duty to our suffering fellow citizens.

Remember, people of Wilmington, that the very storm which did its fearful work in Texas was at one time heading straight for our own city; but we were mercifully spared.

Mr. John W. Mr. Wilkes Morris cried off the property. The first offer, $12,000, was made by Mr. J. W. Norwood. It was finally knocked down to Mr. Oscar Pearsall, Masonic honors this morning at 11 of the firm of Hall & Pearsall, for $13,800. The sale is subject to confirmation by the Forsyth county court, which convenes in November. The wharf is a valuable property, situated in the south end of block 190, according to the official plan of the city, and lies on the water front between Chesnut and Grace streets. It also has a frontage on Water street and comprises a part of the C. F. & Y. V. shed, the building in which are the stores of C. C. Covington & Co. and J. T. ELKS SOCIAL SESSION.

Elaborate Club Function by the Charlotte Lodge-Wilmington Members Were Treated Most Hospitably.

EDITOR STAR-It may be of interest to the Wilmington Elks, and the public in general, to know of the superb social session given by the Charlotte Lodge complimentary to Wilmington Lodge No. 532, of the Benevolent Protective Order of Elks. The affair was delightful and conducted in an elegant style at the handsome club rooms of the Charlotte Lodge immediately after the Al Field's minstrel performance at the Opera House. About 300 guests were present at the social session. The entertainment was ably presided over by William J. Bellamy, Esq., who had been elected chairman by the Charlotte Lodge some weeks ago. His address as chairman was a masterpiece of English. beautifully delivered, and evidently appreciated from the burst of applause that followed him. The Wilmington Elks should feel proud of the excellent manner which Mr. Bellamy represented them, for the gathering was composed of some of the most prominent local business men, and all were profuse in their praise and congratulations of his very able effort. The Elks are undoubtedly the "biggest people in Charlotte," the membership consisting of the most prominent citizens, and the odge room as handsome as any in the Hospitality was the order of the day, and the Wilmington boys were treated royally. A pleasant part of the programme was the rendition of some beautiful songs by members of the Al Field Company and a bright witty speech by Al Field himself. Wilmington Elks who were present will long remember the high honor conferred upon them, and doubtless will reciprocate in the near future.

KINSAULS REPORTED WEAKER.

May Not Survive Until Friday-Petitions Circulated in His Behalf.

Mrs. Archie Kinsauls, wife of the condemned murderer in Clinton jail, gan the circulation of a petition which asks the Governor, in view of the recent circumstances connected with the case, to commute her husband's sentence to life imprisonment. She had secured nearly 400 endorsements of the request up to last night. The petition was drawn at Clinton and sets forth that it would be inhuman to put rope around the murderer's neck, which is now very sore from his recent attempt at suicide by cutting his throat with a pocket knife. Jailor George W. Millis also circulated a similar petition and received about 150 signers. Two other petitions are also being liberally signed in Sampson county asking for a commutation of the sentence. A gentleman who came down las night said Kinsauls was weaker yesterday, and has not partaken of nourishment since Thursday, except a little brandy and milk. There appears to be a doubt of his surviving until Friday, the day set for his execution.

THE MUNICIPAL COURT.

Case Against Brewer and Wiley Continued Until To-day-Other Offences.

Ed Brewer and Wiley Mazingo, the young men who were arrested Saturlay night on the charge of highway bbery, a full account of which was given in Sunday's STAR, were arraigned before Mayor Waddell yesterday morning. They claimed that Mr. Moore's little brother gaye them the etters which they were accused of time they would produce witnesses who would verify their statement, hence the case was continued until this morning to allow them to get their witnesses. However, the four State witnesses who were examined yesterday were recognized for their appearance at the next term of Criminal Court.

There were also eight cases of drunk enness on the docket; three for disorderly conduct, and three for an affray. The defendant's were fined in accordance with the gravity of each case.

A Coroner's jury and an autopsy demanded by a number of leading citizens developed that the boy had a mild type of malarial fever which would have readily yielded to medical treatment-a single dose of calomel or quinine, as one of the outing. A committee was appointed physicans put it. The verdict of the jury was as follows:

"The child was suffering from maarial fever and did not receive medical treatment, because he was under the care of Miss Hatchie Harrison, a Christian Scientist. We find from the evidence his death was the result of improper treatment, and neglect. We further find from the evidence that the child in all probability would have recovered if he had had proper medical writes the STAR that Company "E" of treatment.

He argued that the statute relative to counties whose dividing lines were rivers and bays of water applied, but the Justice of the Peace promptly ruled this out. He then contended that as the indignation meeting was held in Sampson and the defendants all lived there the Justice of the Peace could only bind over to that county. This was likewise re-
