Marion Butler says he has retired from politics. He was retired last August.

Philadelphia breach of promise suit, in which a "thick" woman is suing her uncle for $10,000. And they are some of the "quality," too.

Mrs. Elizabeth Cooper McIntyre, of Philadelphia, gave her 100th birthday party a few days ago and she and the other young people present had a jolly time.

Secretary Root has been in Cuba a week or so but has discovered that the Cubans are fit for self-government. They probably set him up some good dinners.

Bishop Potter, of New York, says the police of that town are in league with vice. The impression with some, judging from the way they talk, is that the police run the whole thing.

A sympathetic Chicago Squire who probably had some reminiscences, has decided that when a girl kicks a fellow she must shuck the presents he made her in moments of confiding bliss.

That new four-cent stamp the government is getting out in commemoration of the Pan-American Exposition at Buffalo, N. Y., ought to go. It has an automobile device in the middle of it.

The people of this country have sent a good deal of money for the relief of the starving people of India. England has recently come to their relief by appropriating $11,500,000 to buy new guns for the Indian army.

The trust idea is spreading. Forty of the big tomato cultivators of Indiana, Ohio and Kentucky have formed a combine to raise the price of their product 30 per cent. They want to get even with the Meat Trust.

Here comes another "reorganizer." Saddle-colored Fortune, editor of the negro paper, the New York Age, wants the Republican party in the South reorganized by "loyal negroes." How will the "lily white" Repe like that?

Richard Yates, Governor-elect of Illinois, says it does him proud to think that as Governor he will take his venerable mother back into the house where she nursed him as a suckling. And probably spanked him as a spanking.

The town of Grafton, Ill., is afflicted with a terrific epidemic of black diphtheria, and the rabbits are charged with it. It seems that rabbits are unusually numerous around there this year, and the people have eaten of them freely. Many dead rabbits have been found in the woods and investigation shows that they died of diphtheria.

LOCAL DOTS.

—Judge W. R. Allen, of Goldsboro, spent yesterday in the city on legal business.

FALL TERM IS ENDED

Work of the Criminal Court Was Completed Yesterday at Noon.

THE GRAND JURY'S REPORT.

Was Very Short and Contained No Special Features—Hung Jury Got Further Instructions and Returned Verdict of Guilty.
The Fall term of the Eastern District Criminal Court for New Hanover county adjourned by limitation last midnight. The work of the term was finished about noon yesterday, but Judge Moore thought that in the event other matters might arise it would be as well to let the sessions come to an end as stated.
Judge Moore will leave this afternoon for Charlotte to convene Mecklenburg court tomorrow. Notwithstanding his very feeble health, he has maintained his excellent record during the term just ended and his friends part with him entertaining the hope that by the time for the next session of the court here he may be fully restored to his health again, if, indeed, not sooner.
The proceedings of the court yesterday were without interest and consisted mainly in winding up affairs of the week. The jury which remained all night in the case of George Nash, charged with larceny, came in upon the opening of the court in the morning and asked for further instructions, after which a verdict of guilty was returned and the negro sentenced to six months in jail with leave to the County Commissioners to hire him out.

MR. COWAN'S GREAT SUCCESS.

He is Winning Laurels in the Theatrical World as Leading Man.
Mr. James H. Cowan, of Wilmington, is making quite an enviable reputation for himself in the theatrical world judging from recent press notices, and the STAR is certain that the news will be received with great pleasure by all his friends in the city, and they compose the entire population. He is now stage director and playing the leading role while McPherson and Downie's Big Double Dramatic and Specialty Company, which is presently touring Minnesota and other western States.
The Fergus Falls Daily Journal of a recent date, in criticizing "An Arkansas Romance," one of the company's unusually strong dramatic productions, says of Mr. Cowan's work: "Mr. Jas. H. Cowan in the leading role, that of 'Ross Bolter,' an American and proud of it, accomplished an able piece of acting, his humorous and dramatic scenes alike being very strong."
Of the entire show the Journal says the cast was a very clever one and won the hearty approval of every one.

WON A MERITED DISTINCTION.

Miss Marie E. Murchison's Pretty Horse "Hornpipe" Takes the Blue Ribbons.
Col. M. Murchison last night received a telegram from New York announcing that "Hornpipe" the very handsome horse belonging to his daughter, Miss Marie E. Murchison, had won the blue ribbon or first prize at the New York Horse Show in the ladies' hunting class. Miss Murchison's horse won over 62 competitors and the distinction is a great as well as a highly deserving one.
This triumph makes "Hornpipe" eligible for the championship of the United States, and Miss Murchison's many Wilmington friends will hear with delight of her great success in the contest.
"Hornpipe" was greatly admired here last Spring when Miss Murchison kept him for some time and those who were acquainted with his sterling qualities are not surprised at his great achievement.

"The Spider and Fly."

It has come to the attention of Manager Schloss, of the Opera House, that a report is being industriously circulated that the attraction at the theatre to-morrow night is of such a character that ladies should not attend. He desires the STAR to state that such is not the case, that the report is without foundation and that any lady can attend the show without the least impropriety. The audiences in Richmond, Norfolk and other cities have consisted principally of ladies this season, and why the report should have gained currency Mr. Schloss is unable to say.

Louis Mac Ruled Out.

The New York papers of last Wednesday, in their notices of the second day of the great Horse Show in that metropolis, print very strong protests against the unceremonious ruling out of one of the trotting contests of Louise Mac, Mr. A. B. Gwatney's fine horse, which entered the class for standard trotters with a record of 2:30 or better. Louise Mac has a record of 2:09 1/2, and horse show attendants were especially vigorous in their denunciation of the judges for their unwarranted conduct in the matter.

Pridden-Peterson Marriage.

The marriage of Miss Ada Peterson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. H. L. Peterson, and Mr. B. E. Pridden, son of Mr. Alfred Pridden, of Viola, will be celebrated at 10:30 o'clock this morning at the residence of the bride's parents, No. 323 1/2 North Fourth street.

THE RHODA ROYAL SHOWS

Arrived This Morning and Will Appear To-morrow at Hilton Park—A Meritorious Show.

The Rhoda Royal shows arrived by their own train of cars this morning and pitched their tents at Hilton, and will to-morrow give two performances, one in the afternoon at 2 o'clock and the evening at 8 o'clock.
The Rhoda Royal shows, although not as large as many of the tented exhibitions on the road, comes exceptionally well recommended, and includes among its many features the 63 horse act, where 63 horses perform at one and the same time on pyramids built in the centre of the ring, and under command of Professor Joseph Barris. It is said this equestrian act alone has never been equaled by any tented exhibition and alone is worth the price of admission. Then there is Madam Royal's tandem team of black horses, that do the cask walk, flit, do the hoochee couchee dance, lay down in the harness and perform several other tricks that make one think that a horse is almost human. The Pettis, the famous family of gymnasts, are also numbered among the novelty acts of the Rhoda Royal Shows.

The horses are the finest specimens of equines possibly ever seen with any show, and the show on the whole is deserving of good patronage and undoubtedly will have the same as it, this city this year. The parade will leave the show grounds promptly at 10 o'clock, A. M. and will parade the principal streets of the city.

L'Arroso Club Invitations.

L'Arroso German Club has sent out handsomely engraved invitations to the series of german to be given on the second Wednesday of each month. The patronesses of the club are Mrs. George W. Kidder, Mrs. Clayton Gilles, Mrs. Gabriel Holmes, Mrs. Donald MacRae, Mrs. H. H. MacRae, Mrs. T. M. Emerson, Mrs. E. C. Holt, Mrs. Henry P. West, Mrs. P. L. Bridgers, Mrs. J. V. Grainger, Mrs. Wm. Calder and Mrs. W. A. Dick.
The governing committee is composed of Mr. Donald MacRae, president; Mr. Jack Bellamy, vice president; Mr. J. M. Stevenson, secretary and treasurer; Messrs. T. H. Wright, C. McD. Davis, E. C. Holt, H. B. Peschau, and Clayton Gilles, Jr.

Shipping Notes.

The Clyde steamship Saginaw passed down the river for her New York trip about 1 P. M. yesterday.
The British steamship Eastry, Capt. Carr, cleared yesterday for Bremen with a cargo of 10,630 bales cotton, valued at $577,000 and consigned to Messrs. Alexander Sprunt & Son, New York, and left for port only two days ago. The ship is owned by the last named being consigned to Messrs. Heide & Co., with a cargo of kainit.
The schooner N. H. Skinner, Capt. Wheatley, cleared yesterday for New York with a cargo of lumber from the Cape Fear Lumber Company.

Funeral of Mrs. Spooner.

The funeral service over the remains of Mrs. Maria Vail Spooner, the wife of Mr. C. R. Spooner, whose death occurred Friday night after a brief illness, was conducted at 3 o'clock yesterday afternoon from the residence, No. 914 Princess streets, thence to Masonboro Baptist Church on Masonboro Sound, Rev. Calvin S. Blackwell officiating.
The following gentlemen acted as pall-bearers: Messrs. J. A. Orrell, A. J. Hewlett, R. H. Hewlett, E. W. Hewlett, G. T. Hewlett and G. H. Malford.

Consolation, (Mendelssohn), Miss Katie Foad. Pupil of Mrs. M. L. Chastan.

Cars to Hilton.

For the benefit of those who may desire to attend the Rhoda Royal shows at Hilton Park to-morrow, the Wilmington Street Railway Company will run cars to the grounds both before and after during the performance. A good schedule will be maintained and those who desire to attend the shows will experience no difficulty in getting to and from the city.

Cars will also be operated to day from 2 P. M. until 5 P. M. for the benefit of those who desire to see the process of unloading and pitching the tents for the "big show."

THE "SPIDER AND FLY" CO.

Big Spectacular Production at the Opera House To-morrow Night—Mabel Paige Remainder of Week.

In a recent criticism of "The Spider and Fly," M. B. Leavitt's great spectacular production by forty people, the Richmond Dispatch said:
"While the 'Spider and Fly' Company has been well and favorably known for a number of years, nothing remains this season but the name. Everything is new—scenery, costumes and artists. A number of famous European artists are Miss Edith Grasko and Miss Kate Stevens, international dancers, direct from the Alhambra, London; the Ahrens, Europe's foremost sensational equilibrist, and the Mabel Paige, with the Southern Stock Company in her support, will be the attraction, the mere announcement of whose coming is sufficient to fill the popular play house to the capacity at each performance. Miss Paige's managers have spared neither money nor pains to secure for this popular star a line of plays, each one of which has had a New York run of several months. 'The Captain's Hat,' a stirring comedy drama, for which every particle of scenery is carried by the company, will probably be the opening bill, with a number of bright specialties introduced incidentally to the play.
Prices, 10, 20 and 30 cents. Ladies admitted for half price, 15 cents, when ticket is purchased before 6 P. M., for the opening performance. Seats on sale to-morrow morning.

Property Transfers.

Among the deeds filed at the Court House yesterday were the following:
Robert Kuark, commissioner, to J. M. Galley, property 68x165 feet on Seventh and Brunswick streets, for $350.
J. M. Galley and wife to Jas. H. Burke, property 55x66 feet, corner Seventh and Brunswick streets, for $150.
Sermon to American Mechanics.
Members of Jeff Davis Council, Jr. O. U. A. M., are looking forward with pleasure to the annual sermon which will be preached to the council this evening at 7:30 o'clock at Fifth Street Methodist Church by the Rev. John H. Hall. Members are called to assemble at the lodge room this evening and attend the service in a body.

Mr. Robert Harris Home.

Mr. Robert N. Harris arrived last night from Fall River, Mass. He sailed from here as mate on the schooner Chas. W. McCollough, several weeks since. The vessel got into a severe storm and put into Vineyard Haven in distress. The vessel then proceeded to Fall River, where Mr. Harris left her.

Football at Raleigh.

A special to the STAR, from Raleigh says the A. and M. College "scrubs" defeated the Horner School team in a game of football yesterday; score six to five.

COAST LINE IN COLUMBIA.

It Subscribes Fifty Thousand Dollars to the New Union Depot.
(Columbia State, 23rd.)
Last Monday the stockholders of the Atlantic Coast Line Company met in Richmond. After the meeting a party of officials took a flying trip over the several divisions of the road. Yesterday Mr. W. G. Elliott, of Wilmington, N. C., president; Mr. H. Walters, of Wilmington, N. C., first vice president; and Mr. B. F. Newcomer, of Baltimore, one of the directors, arrived in Columbia and spent a few hours here. They expressed themselves as astonished and gratified at the general improvement of Columbia by the subscription of $50,000 for the new union depot. It is generally supposed that the Southern is alone interested in this undertaking, but the station is being built by a stock company, in which each of these roads is equally interested. It is stated that already $10,000 has been spent upon the excavations of the new station.

Donations to Orphans.

All friends of the Old Fellows' Orphanage at Goldsboro who desire to contribute in money or in kind to the annual gift by the members of the order in Wilmington to this charitable cause may leave packages at the store of the N. Jacob Hardware Company. All donations should be sent not later than Monday, in order that the gifts may reach the children before Thanksgiving.
