Last night the sermon was on "God Our Helper," and the solo, which was the best of the series, was entitled 'Some Time We'll Understand."

This afternoon at 3,30 o'clock the subject will be "Heaven-Its Inhabitants and Its Joys," and Mr. Hines will sing as an appropriate solo "Death Is Only a Dream." This will give those who cannot come out at night a chance to hear him sing.

"Spider and Fly" Company.

The "Spider and Fly" Company appeared at the Opera House last night before a very large audience, composed chiefly of men. The attraction was generally heralded as a beauty show, but so far as many things were concerned the show missed the point fear-

Scarcely one of the actresses, or rather chorus girls, could be called pretty, but then what was lost there was fairly well made up by the pretty scenic effects and costumes. Some of the singing was good and a few of the dances seemed to please. The clown and acrobatic features of the show received much applause and these features well deserved it, as the work in that part was decidedly clever and entertaining. On the whole, the performance was not as good as the public marked the day's activities at Hilton. The show came in early Sunday morning from Wallace where an exhibition was given on Saturday. There are eight cars in the special train which brought the property and people belonging to the enterprise. Sunday, as many of the tents as were necessary for the housing of the animals and employes were pitched, and in the afternoon the street railway people were at their wits and to get out to Hilton and back the people who wanted to look about and see just what circus life is like. It is said there was even a larger crowd out to see the pitching of the tents Sunday afternoon than there was

The tent was well filled for the opening performance at 2 P. M. and as stated before, the various features were fully up to the modest claims of the proprietors. The horse and pony specialties were pronounced the best ever seen here and the training was indeed marvelous. The sixty-two horse act was good and nothing like it has been seen here before. The performance last night was also largely attended and up to the standard of the day exhibition.

"Bag and baggage" was quickly bundled after the last performance and the show took its departure this morning for Fayetteville, where an exhibiwill be given to-day.

Negro May Be Wanted in South Carolina

Joe Rivers, colored, who answers the description of a negro wanted in Orangeburg county, for stealing two bales of cotton and the cotton seed from four bales from Mr. G. B. Kittrell, a big planter of that section, on Oct. 19th, was arrested yesterday at Hawes' Mill in Pender county by Mr G. G. Sherman and brought to Wilmington yesterday afternoon. The prisoner was locked up in the city jail where he will be kept until Chief Parmele can hear from Mr. Kittrell, whom he wired yesterday afternoon.

Rivers denies the charges, but says ago from that part of South Carolina.

A VERY ROUGH EXPERIENCE.

Gasoline Launch, "Morning Star," Got Into a Squall Near Southport Sunday Night-No Damage Done

The Morning Star, the gasoline launch, in charge of Capt. Geo. Warren, narrowly averted serious injury Sunday night on the river just this side of Southport. She had started up the river with a party of young men, who were returning to Wil mington, and before she got any distance ran into a wind squail. The wind was blowing furiously and the rain was falling in torrents and members of the party say it was impossible to see ten yards abead. Several waves broke clear over the top of the boat. It was about 10.30 o'clock and the captain decided to put back to the wharf. For a half hour it was all those on board could do to keep the boat from being torn to pieces against tour North and a visit to Mr. Brand's

After the wind abated, the staunch little craft was headed up the river again and arrived here at 3.30 o'clock yesterday morning. It was quite a rough and thrilling experience for the party for a few minutes and all speak in highest terms of the sterling qualities of the launch and Capt. Warren's management of her. Among those who were on the Morning Star were Capt. Warren, Capt. John Price, of the Seabright, Robt. Ruark, Esq., Messrs. M. B. Mintz, Leon Pinner, J. H. Thompson, Millard Windsor, Ike Pinner and Fred Dosher.

Miss Ada F. Peterson and Mr. Bishop

Pridgen United in Matrimony. Sunday morning at 10.30 o'clock at the residence of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. H. L. Peterson, No. 5231 North Fourth street, was celebrated the marriage of Miss Ada Florence Peterson to Mr. Bishop Pridgen. The impressive ceremony was conducted by Rev. J. J. Payseur, pastor of Brooklyn Baptist Church.

The house was testily decorated and a number of friends of the couple were assembled to witness the wedding. The following couples attended upon the bride and groom: Miss Rena Peterson and Mr. William Baggett; Miss Tina Pridgen, of Viola, and Mr. Hill Guthrie: Miss Fannie Moore, of Berta, and Mr. Arthur King; Miss Willaba Moore and Mr. Robert Glis-

A reception was held immediately after the ceremony at the bride's residence and also at 2141 North Fifth street where the couple will reside. Mr. and Mrs. Pridgen received the best wishes and congratulations of many friends.

INTERSTATE BASE BALL.

Plans on Foot to Organize a League of Carolina and Virginia Cities.

[Norfolk Virginian-Pilot.] It is said if the plans of Mr. E. Harvey Cunningham, who was president of the Virginia League last season, make good, this city will next season again have a baseball team. For some time past Captain Cunning-ham and Mr. E. J. Doran, the secretary of the Norfolk Baseball Club, have been sending letters to parties interested in baseball in various parts of Virginia and North Carolina. It is proposed to organize a Virginia-North Carolina League, and for this purpose a meeting of parties interested will be held at the Monticello Hotel next Thursday to, if possible, form the league. Letters have been written to base ball men in Raleigh, Durham, Wilson, Tarboro, Charlotte, Winston, Salem, Henderson, Wilmington, Rich Lynchburg, Roanoke, Portsmouth, Newport News and Peters

Favorable replies have been received from many of these cities and it is now a safe guess that Norfolk, and in fact many other Virginia cities, will have base ball next season. For many seasons past Captain Cunningham has placed winning teams in Norfolk, and perhaps has lost money. as several of the cities in the circuit did not "pay car fare." No doubt the many base ball enthusiasts would like to see the Norfolk team in a big league next season.
