THE TRIAL OF THE POPULISTS. THE ELKS' MEMORIAL

Interesting Service That Will Be Observed This Afternoon in the Opera House.

FINE PROGRAMME OF MUSIC.

Will Be a Decided Feature-Address by Rev. Dr. Robert Strange and Lodge Ceremonies-The Ladies Are Especially Invited.

All arrangements are now complete for the very elaborate memorial service which has been arranged by Wil mington Lodge No. 532, B. P. O. E. through its enterprising committee, consisting of Messrs. Jack Bellamy, J. VanB. Metts and Thos. W. Davis, and which will be observed this afternoon, beginning at 3 o'clock in the Opera House. The public is cordially invited to be present, and the ladies especially are requested to attend the service.

Fortunately, out of a membership of nearly a hundred, the lodge has lost none of its members since the organization, but it is a custom to which the Elks everywhere adhere, and the STAR ventures the assertion that no where will the observance be more appropriately or reverently celebrated than in Wilmington.

Members of the lodge are called to assemble at 2 o'clock at the Elks Temple on North Front street this afternoon and march in a body to the Opera House where they will occupy the first four rows of seats in the parquet. The choir and orchestra will be seated upon the stage.

The music will be by a special choir, quartette and orchestra and as before announced, the address will be by the Rev. Dr. Robert Strange, rector of St. James' Episcopal Church, who will so shortly leave the city for a wider field of usefulness at Richmond. Va. This service will be among the this reason a very large congregation is expected.

The choir will be composed of Mrs. W. L. Latta, Miss Annie Bowden and Miss Mattie Horne, sopranos; Mrs. Burkholder, Mrs. E. G. Woody and Miss Belle Anderson, altos; C. V. Motte, R. C. Banks and John Van B. Metts, tenors: H. K. Holden, E. G. Woody, and C. S. Grainger, basses. The orchestra will be composed as follows: E. H. Munson, piano; S. A. Schloss, violin; James E. Willson, cornet; W. A. Martin, flute; Miss Alice Smallbones, second violin; Miss Elizabeth D. Burtt, cello; Robert

Morriss, trombone; Prof. Miller, violin; Mr. Curtis, bass violin. The special quartette consists of Mrs. W. L. Latta, Mrs. E. G. Woody, Mr. C. V. Motte Mr. Herbert K. Holden. This as well as the orchestra and choir embraces some of the best musical talent of the

The first meeting of creditors in the matter of H. L. Fennell, bankrupt, was held yesterday afternoon at 3 o'clock in the U.S. court room, Referee Samuel H. MacRae, of Fayetteville, presiding.

The usual routine business incident to such proceedings was conducted and Marsden Bellamy, Jr., Esq., was appointed trustee. He will give bond, ake possession of the assets after takng an inventory of same, and dispose of the property to the best advantage and interest of the creditors.

The liabilities in the bankruptcy are $16,744 while the assets are given in the petition at $9,319.57. The stock in trade is valued at $7,000.

There were a number of attorneys in attendance upon the meeting, including Herbert McClammy, Esq., attorney for the bankrupt. It required several hours for the transaction of the business. Referee MacRae is still in the city and attended to a number of matters of detail in the case at The Orton last night.

There is a concerted move all over the South by the veterans to infuse new life into the camps of the Sons of Veterans and it is hoped the young men who belong to the organization in Wilmington will come out in good

George Butler and Others, Charged With Criminal Libel-At Kenansville.

At Duplin Superior Court, which convenes to morrow at Kenansville, the case against George Butler and other Populists for criminal libel will come up for trial. The preliminary hearing was before 'Squire J. F. Woodward at Warsaw. He bound all the defendants over.

The charge, as readers of the STAR know, is that George Butler wrote and the others publicly endorsed an article charging wholesale fraud by the Democrats in the August election.

Ex-Judge W. R. Allen, of Golds boro, has lately been 'retained by the prosecution. It is likely also that the attorneys who appeared at the preiminary hearing will appear in this week's trial as well. They are Messrs. Jno. E. Woodward, of Wilson, and E. W. Kerrand H. E. Faison, of Clinton, for the State; H. L. Stevens, of Warsaw, and F. R. Cooper, of Clinton. for the defence.

The defendants are: George Butler, C. H. Johnson, H. C. West, J. D. Butler, C. J. Williams, D. M. Kornegay, J. F. Westbrook, F. M. White, É Fowler, Walter Moore, L. K. Taylor, J. H. Packer, Giles Hall, C. E Shipp, Marion Cooper, H. J. Cooper and J. H. Parker.

"TOO RICH TO MARRY."

This Comedy at Opera House To-morrow Night-Only Offering of the Week.

The new theatrical offering, "Too Rich To Marry," by Edward Owings Towne, is said to be so new in its character and structure that it is difficult to classify it. It is called on the bill boards a farce comedy, but the name is hardly comprehensive enough to include the phases of the piece, which develops a real heart interest, strong enough to place the piece in the list with serious dramas. Still it is too intensely funny and uproariously laughable to be de-nominated a drama. If we were to be allowed to coin a name to fit the surprising variety of matter to be found in the piece, says an exchange, we would call it a farce-comedy-drama. Seats are now on sale.

Elks May Produce Play.

It is rumored that the Elks will give theatrical entertainment very soon. It will probably be given jointly with the St. Cecilia Circle, a ladies' organization of St. James' Church. The play that is being talked of is a popular comedy that the amateur Thespians of the city are already familiar with and that they can produce on short notice. It is likely that the play will be produced in the course of three or four weeks.

A charter will be obtained for the latter organization which will in all respects take the place of the Elks Company. The old corporation will become defunct as soon as the new one is 'started and all the transfers are duly made.

Had a Busy Day.

Mortnary Report.

Capt. W. P. Oldham, clerk of the Board of County Commissioners, said that he had the biggest lot of work yesterday that he had had since he had been in office. That was because the end of the week, end of the month and end of the fiscal year all came at about the same time. Not only that, but he was bombarded with a large number of Criminal Court witness tickets. The out-door poor and inquirers about back-taxes also paid their respects.

The Report of Dr. Charles T. Harper, city superintendent of health, shows that during November there were 56 deaths in Wilmington; 25 of white people and 31 of colored people. There were 41 births; 16 of white infants and 25 of colored infants.

Regular Meetings Monday.

The regular monthly meetings of the Board of County Commissioners and Board of Aldermen will be held tomorrow. At the meeting of the Board of Aldermen the annual report of Chief Charles Schnibben, of the Fire Department, will likely be received and other matters attended to.
