GENERAL ASSEMBLY. - Schooner Nellie Floyd, hence for New York, passed out at Southport | The Appointive Power of the

to Be Restored.

Governor of North Carolina

Winston's Bill Providing for Permanent Registration of Citizens-The School Books Bill -- Acts Ratified -- Debate on Bill to Tax Dogs.

[Special Star Correspondence.] RALEIGH, N. C., Jan. 26.-The ap pointive power of the Governor of North Carolina in filling vacancies in all State offices is to be restored by the General Assembly. This is one result of the caucus of the Democratic members held last night, a partial report of the proceedings of which was given in a special STAR telegram. The caucus adopted a resolution to the effect that the Governor's appointive power shall be restored, as this power "was taken from the Governor in 1899 for good and sufficient reasons"—meaning, of course, be-cause the Republican Populist regime was in possession of the executive branch of the State government. A bill in accord with the resolution adopted by the joint caucus will be in troduced in the General Assembly very soon, as will also a bill providing for an increase of the number of Su perior Court judges. It is very probable that the bill will provide for an increase to sixteen judges. Early in the coming week there will be a meeting of the Committee on Constitutional Amendments to con sider Representative Winston's bill providing for the permanent registra tion of citizens entitled to vote under the fourth clause of the constitution, and the bill by Mr. Stubbs to have the State public school funds divided among the white and colored races in proportion to the amount of tax each nembers of the subordinate circles, Mr. Winston's bill for permanent registration is in compliance with a provision of the "grandfather" clause of the suffrage amendment ratified last

During the coming week the Committee on Penal Institutions will spend several days out of the city visiting the State farms on Roanoke river, and the joint Committee on Education will visit the Normal and Industrial School at Greensboro. The latter committee will be glad of a little breathing spell too, in all probability, for there is scarcely a committee of the entire Assembly being subjected just now to such a swarm of persistent lobbyists as is that on education. The State adoption text book bill, which is now in their hands for revision and recom mendation, being the cause of the trouble. Referring to the text trouble. Referring to the text book bill, it seems now that one of the strongest fights which will be made against it in the Assembly will be on incorporating a clause making it a misdemeanor for books other than those adopted to be taught in a public school. Many members of the House object to this, but it is claimed that without a clause effectually enforcing the use of the books adopted, the whole scheme would be a failure. Book publishers contend that after they have entered the contest, reduced their books to the lowest bid and secured the contract, they must be protected in their right to the exclusive territory. Next Tuesday is the date set for the further and probable final hearing of the agents of book concerns on the various clauses of the However, the last and hardest fight will be on the floor of the General Assembly when it comes to enacting the bill into law. There is a disposition on the part of the General Assembly to treat the University of North Carolina and the Agricultural and Mechanical College very liberally both will probably get nearly if not all they ask for. The University's re-quest for $25,000 additional appropriation while not yet passed upon by the committee to whom the bill is referred seems certain of favorable report and adoption by the Assembly. Much enthusiasm for and interest in the University was manifested at the recep tion by Wake county alumni to visiting alumni last night. The attend ance was very large and ringing speeches were made by several prominent citizens, notably President Venable, Hon. R. B. Glenn, Dr. Geo. T. Winston, R. T. Gray, Esq, and Ed Chambers Smith. Bill to incorporate the North Carolina Veterinary Association came up on final reading, but opposition by Daughteridge caused re-reference to the Agricultural Committee. The opposition is on the ground that many socalled doctors' practice will endanger stock interests. Winston said the object of the bill was simply to eliminate from the profession "Quack" graduates' malpractice. The following bills of interest passed final reading: To allow sheriffs and tax collectors to collect back taxes to 1895: to authorize the Secretary of State to have laws of 1901 indexed and side-noted; to incorporate the Bank of

Also, a bill to authorize a salary for the chairman of New Hanover commissioners: to permit Craven county to levy a special tax: to allow Goldsboro to issue graded school bonds, (second reading); to exempt Pender county from the road law of '99, (third reading); to amend the act relative to Smithfield dispensary, (third reading); to amend the stock law of Johnston county, (third reading); Marshall's "Crumpacker" bill (taid on table); to incor porate Fagetteville Savings and Trust Company, (second reading); to allow lunatics, restored, to manage their own property, (second reading); to authorize the Board of Public Works to elect a keeper of the capitol, (passed third reading); to amend the charter of the Bank of Carthage, (passed third reading); to elect a State librarian February 1st, (passed third reading).

There was a long and spirited discussion involving the charter of Lamb's ferry, Elizabeth City. The Legislature of 1897 reduced the ferry franchise from three to two miles. The bill amending restores to three miles and crowds out a competing line established. The bill passed-29

> Wealthy New York Corporation Acquires Acme Pibre Plant at Cronly-About $250,000 Involved.

Final details of the purchase of the Acme Manufacturing Company's pine fibre plant at Cronly, 17 miles from Wilmington, in Columbus county, to the American Consolidated Pine Fibre Company, 135 Broadway, New York, were arranged yesterday and the prop erty, together with the Acme's patents covering the processes of decorticating the needles of long leaf pine and their conversion into fibre, franchises, etc., passed over into-the possession of the new corporation, which has a capital stock of $2,000,000 and which will continue the business most probably on a much larger scale than heretofore. The factory here will be much enlarged and new ones established throughout the long leaf belt in the South.

The sale was consummated through Mr. Henry E Fanshawe, president of the company, for the purchasers and Mr. William Latimer, president of the Acme Manufacturing Company, for the late owners, The price paid was between $200,000 and $300,000, but the exact amount is unknown, as none of the parties to the transaction will authorize a statement. Accompany ing Mr. Fanshawe to Wilmington were Harmon S. Graves, Esq., of the New York law firm of Lester & Graves, general counsel for the company, Mr. Montgomery Waddell, of New York, consulting engineer, and Mr. Charles Pierpont Phelps, who came to look after some copper mining interests in North Carolina. These gentlemen visited the plant yesterday and left for their homes last evening after receiving the necessary deeds, etc., for record in Columbus county in which the plant is located. The factory was established a Cronly about fifteen years ago and came prominently to the attention of the South when the pine fibre bagging was manufactured so largely and put on sale in opposition to the jute trust It was the pioneer industry of its kind in the country and since its establishment, has not only manufactured bagging, but also matting, twine, paper stock, rugs, etc. The new owners of the factory will increase the variety of its products and will not only cater to the American, but also to the European trade.

The sale in no way affects the large fertilizer plant of the Acme Manufac turing Co., also at Cronly, which is running on full time and rushed with

THE CRESCENT STOCK COMPANY.

Popular Repertoire Aggregation of Artists That Will Be Welcomed Here Again.

The theatre goers of Wilmington with singular unanimity pronounce the Crescent Stock Company, which closed an unprecedentedly successful week's engagement at the Opera House last evening, the best repertoire company that has visited the city in late years and unquestionably equal, if, indeed, not superior, to many of the so-called higher priced attractions that come this way each season. The inimitable Guy Woodward, the charming little soubrette, Miss Carrie Louis in the cast; the Glees, Peter Seymour and others in specialty work, and the splendid Ladies' Orchestra, all contributed to the success and the company in its entirety is cheerfully commended to theatre devotees wherever they may be.

Mr. A. B. Simkins, the genial manager of the company, is a past grand in gathering about him the best that money can buy in the line of artists and Wilmington will again next season accord to the company which he brings that liberal patronage which characterized the past week's engagement from beginning to end.

The ladies' handsome gold watch at the matinee yesterday afternoon was given to Miss Irma Webster, South Front street, and the $10 gold prize last night was captured by Master Everett Ewing, they having held the lucky numbers in the two ingeniously devised contests provided by the management during the week.

"A Young Wife" Will Be Presented by Mr. Frank Tannehill, Jr.

Frank Tannehill, Jr., the well known comedian, appears here to-Chasten. morrow night at the head of "A Young Wife" Company presenting this successful play. Mr. Tannehill as "Horace Greengage Dobbins" is said to be excellent in this part. A recent paper, speaking of his performance, said: "Mr. Frank Tannehill, Jr., made a most decided hit. He was the Vermonter to the life. 'A clever person' as New Englanders say, was Mr. Dobbins, or 'Hod' as he preferred to be to Raleigh. The article calls forth a called, who was not as green as he at a letter from the editor of the first seemed. His experiences in the city helped out his wisdom teeth, and he it was who finally succeeded in unravelling the tangled thread of circumstances. In every situation he was up to the mark. He was irresistibly funny when he first came to the city. acute enough when the life of his friend, as well as his own, depended upon his discretion, and manly and thoroughly admirable in his capacity for friendship and affection." Seats are now on sale.

Jury in the Case of Fowler vs. Fowler Decided in Favor of the Plaintiff.

AFTER SEVENTEEN HOURS.

The Superior Court Had Little to Do Yesterday and Adjourned Early-Shepard Suits Against Railroad Company Come Up This Week. After remaining out all night, the jury in the case of Mrs. Zillah Fowler vs. Jao. J. Fowler, involving a title to real estate, came into court vesterday morning at 10:20 o'clock and rendered a verdict in favor of the plaintiff, having answered both issues in the affirmative as follows: "Did deceased W. G. Fowler execute and deliver to his wife, Zillah Fowler, plaintiff, for love and affection, the deed or instrument set out and referred to in Section 3 of the com plaint?" "Yes." "Did said W. G. Fowler intend to convey instead of first lot mentioned in said instrument, the tract of land set out and described in Section 2 of complaint-that is the land in controversy and was the misdescription made by mistake of parties?" . "Yes." The verdict eliminates all charges of forgery, which were really the only interesting points to the general public in the whole hearing. It is learned that the case will now go to the Su preme Court. The session of the court yesterday was short, an adjournment having been taken at 11 o'clock until to-mormorrow at 10 A. M. Only three unimportant cases were called during the day and these were disposed of as follows: Roberts & Hoge vs. Jno. T. Bland; plaintiffs called and failed; non suit ordered, plaintiffs and sureties to pay

A. V. Horrell vs. Etta Madge Hor rell, divorce granted. Beulah Foy vs. J. C. Foy, divorce

The two last named cases were called up from the motion docket and were submitted to a jury as follows: M. F. Beasley, W. H. Todd, George Grant, O. A. Wiggins, William Simpson, W. F. Penny, Lewis Gordon, J. H. Holton and A. J. Hanby. Judge Hoke requested that the mem bers of the bar meet and arrange the calendar of the motion docket, which will be taken up Friday or Saturday. as the attorneys interested prefer, motions for setting aside verdicts and for judgments to take precedence.

Twenty talesmen were drawn for duty to morrow with the regular jury, and they are as follows: W. L. Rogers, J. W. Plummer, Jr., A. H. Zoeller, J. R Kenly, Jno. M. Wright, M. A. Jones, T. J. Scott, H. G. Smallbones, B. B. Humphrey, H. L. Fentress, F. L. Mintz, J. H. Dew, Geo. O. Gaylord, E. R. McGowan, C. Tietgen, Jno. H. Kuck, Nathan Schloss, S. A. Schloss, C. D. Yarborough and J. L. Rogers.

The regular jury as drawn by the commissioners is as follows: Jack Wells, J. Hicks Bunting, D. S. Weeks, Wm. Walton, C. W. Yates, J. H. Strauss, J. N. Burriss, W. A. Willson, Sr., W. G. Whitehead, W. A. Piner, R. G. Litgen, Thos. J. Pae, J. C. Rowan, W. W. Roberts, Geo. F. Quinn, R. C. Orrell, Thos. A. Price and Jno. T. Smith.

On tomorrow the damage suits against the Atlantic Coast Line Rail road Company of South Carolina, which were brought by Mr. J. C. Shepard, Jr., and wife, each for $50,-000, will be taken up. The attorneys for the plaintiff are Herbert McClammy, Esq., and Bellamy & Bellamy; for the defendant Rountree & Carr, Junius Davis, Esq., and Bellamy & Peschau.

The N. C. Naval Militia.

The current number of the Naval Service Gazette has a very interesting letter concerning Wilmington Division, Naval Reserves, written by Mr. J. Edwin Bunting, Jr. The article is descriptive of the company itself and also relates the story of its recent trip periodical in which it is published, asking for particulars concerning the auxiliary organization of "Royal Grand Bouncers" and the practica bility of its introduction in the North.

Schooner in Distress.

The schooner Clara E. Bergen, 457 tons, Capt. Edwards, bound from Charleston to New York with lumber, put in at Southport at 10 A.
