SUPERIOR COURT ADJOURNED

Several Important Cases Appealed to the Supreme Court-Winding Up of the Session-Many Matters Considered by Judge Hoke

Every issue in the Shepard damage suit against the Atlantic Coast Line Railroad Company, of South Carolina, was answered in favor of the plaintiff and the amount of recovery fixed at $9,584 by the jury in the Superior Court yesterday morning upon the convening of the session at 10 o'clock. The ver ict was reached by the jury, after remaining out all night, at about half au hour earlier, but was not announced until Judge Hoke came into court.

The issues submitted and answered were as follows: Was plaintiff injured by the negli-

Did plaintiff, by his own negligence, contribute to his injury? "No." What damage is plaintiff entitled to gence of the defendant? "Yes."

ecover? "$9,584.00." The verdict was the subject of much comment yesterday on the street and speculation was rife as to the method of procedure of the jury in arriving at the uneven figures. The STAR has it from a trustworthy source that after wrangling over the question practically all night, it was decided yesterday just before the hour for the opening of the court, to make a general average of the estimates of the several members of the jury, each estimate not to exceed $10,000; to take the aggregate of these and divide by twelve, which was done, eleven members having contended for $10,000 each and one for $5,000, making the sum total $115,000, which divided by twelve gives the approximate result as announced in the verdict.

The jury was as follows, Mr. W. W. Roberts having been chosen as fore-STAR'S special telegram this morning man: A. H. Zoeller, E. R. McGowan, D. S. Bender, W. A. Piner, S. A. Schloss, W. W. Roberts, Geo. Wynne, J. H. Dew, F. L. Mintz, John L. Smith, J. W. Barnes and Wm. Simp-

Opera House-"Farmer" Dunn's As yesterday was the last day of the term, quite a large number of other matters came up and were disposed of. The session was not adjourned for the term, but allowed to expire by limitation at midnight.

The most important item of the day's proceedings, other than in the matter of the Shepard suit, was the appeal by defendant to the Supreme Court of the case of Mrs. J. R. Strauss vs. the City of Wilmington, in which the jury last week, after a hearing of three days, awarded the plaintiff $4,129.20 damages as the result of the death of her husband from alleged injuries received by falling into a street excavation about five years ago. Defendant's attorneys made a motion for a new trial, but this was overruled by Judge Hoke, whereupon defendant excepted, judgment was signed, and notice of appeal was given. The bond was fixed at $50 and defendant was allowed thirty days to make up appeal and an equal time, thereafter, was allowed plaintiff to serve counter statement.

On the last page are the names of the three subordinate lodges of Masons, Concord Chapter No. 1, R. A. M., Munson Council No. 41 Royal and select Masons, and Plantagenet Commandery No. 1, Knights Templar.

Wilmington Soldier.

Our esteemed townsman Mr. John T. Platt was informed by wire yesterday from the West Point Military Academy that his son cadet W. P. Platt would graduate February 18th with the rank of First Lieutenant. The numerous friends of cadet Platt have watched his career at the famous military school with much interest. Without the advantages of a collegiate education, possessed by nearly all applicants, he passed all the preliminary examinations and during his four years' term has ranked high in his classes. He will doubtless be granted a furlough as soon as he graduates and will spend some lime here with relatives and friends, all of whom will greet him most cordially as Lieutenant Platt, U. S. A.

At the First Baptist Church.

Rev C. S. Blackwell, D. D., will, by request, repeat his sermon, the "Ministry of Music." at the First Baptist church at 7.45 o'clock this evening. The special musical programme which was so admirably rendered last Sunday night will also be repeated tonight. It will be a source of much pleasure to Wilmingtonians to know hat Mrs. J. W. Harris, of Carter ville, Ga., daughter of Capt. A. L. DeRosset, will sing Bischoff's "Rock of Ages." Mrs. Harris has one of the sweetest and most magnificent soprano voices ever heard in Wilmington.

Schubert Hall Recital.

The following programme of classical numbers was delightfully rendered in Schubert Hall yesterday afternoon at 4.30 o'clock by pupils of Miss Cannie Chasten's piano classes:

"The Flatterer," (Chaminade), by Miss Nellie Corbett. "Presto," (Clementi), by Miss Bertie

Hanson. "Nocturne," (Schulze), by Miss Sallie Bell Jackson.
"Sonata in E Flat," First Movement, (Beethoven), by Miss Elizabeth D.

> Ed S. Battle, Esq., Appointed Receiver for the Corporation by Judge W. A. Hoke Yesterday.

> Upon motion of Messrs. Bellamy & Peschau, attorneys for the plaintiff in the suit of J. M. Malpass, of Pender county, vs. the Farmers' Mutual Fire Insurance Association, Judge W. A. Hoke in the Superior Court yesday appointed Ed. S Battle, Esq., receiver for the defendant corporation, and the affairs of the company will be wound up in accordance with the following order, which was made in the premises: J. M. Malpass vs. the Farmers' Mutual Fire Insurance Company. The cause coming on for hearing and it appearing to the Court that the summons and complaint in this cause was duly served on the defendant on November 29th, 1899, and no answer or demurrer being filed thereto and that the said complaint has been duly verified. It is now on motion of Bellamy & Peschau, attorneys for the plaintiff, ordered, adjudged and decreed that the prayer of the plaintiff be granted. And it appearing from said complaint, that the defendant in said complaint, that the defendant is insolvent, it is further ordered and decreed that Edward S. Battle be and is hereby appointed receiver of all the property and effects of the defendant corporation, and it is further ordered that upon the said Ed. S. Battle entering into bond in the sum of $500, for the faithful discharge of his du-ties, approved by the Clerk of the Court, the said defendant and all its officers and agents are hereby directed to turn over to said Receiver all the books, property and effects of the defendant corporation, and in the mean-time the defendant and all its officers and agents are restrained from disposing of any of the property and effects of said corporation. And it is further ordered, adjudged and decreed that said Receiver is authorized and empowered to collect all the debts, choses and actions and other claims and demands due or to become due to the defendant corporation by any person or member of said corporation.

W. A. HOKE, Judge Presiding, Sixth District. The suit of Mr. Malpass against the Farmers' Mutual was brought two or three years ago to recover from the company a loss by fire of $400, judgment for which was obtained in the Superior Court and half of the amount paid. The other half of the judgment has been uncollectable for some time, and hence the motion and the order by Judge Hoke.

The company is a Greensboro corporation and has branch organizations in nearly every county in the State. and a number of policy holders in the concern will await the ultimate result | Education. It provides for State with much interest.

----Mr. Beliamy's Bill Amending the National

received in a very complimentary letter, notice of the favorable consideration by the Committee on Banking and Currency of his bill to amend the national banking law, so as to permit national banks to consider and treat their surplus as capital in the restrictions of loans, a copy of which was recently printed in these columns.

The letter is from Congressman Adin B. Capron, of Rhode Island, one of the eighteen members of the committee, and is as follows: Washington, D. C., Jan. 38, 1901.

Hon. J. D. Bellamy, Wilming-ton, N. C.: MY DEAR MR. BELLAMY:—It is with leasure that I inform you that the committee on Banking and Currency this day unanimously decided that you bill, H. R. 12614, entitled "to amer the national banking law" should h fayorably reported to the House. shall be pleased to report the bill as soon as I hear from you and know your wishes in the premises. Mr. Jno. H. Rehder, the enterprising manager of the large department stores of Messrs. J. H. Rehder & Co., near Fourth street bridge, gave a splendid banquet on Wednesday evening at his hospitable home, No. 107 North Seventh street, in compliment to the twenty odd clerks employed in nis establishment. Mrs. Rehder assisted graciously in receiving the guests and besides the very elegant banquet, there was an elaborate programme of vocal and instrumental music which was enjoyed to the greatest extent by those present.

The Fishing Controversy.

Messrs. E. H. Freeman, W. H. Yopp, Ed. Taylor and D. J. Fergus returned last evening from Raleigh. where they went to appear before the Fishery Committee of the Legislature relative to the proposed legislation with reference to the "pike" or stationary nets, reference to the settlement of which is made in the Raleigh correspondence of to-day's STAR. to be well satisfied at the result of the conference and there will now likely be no further trouble about the matter.

The Gattis-Kilgo Hearing.

The hearing by Judge Hoke in the matter of appeal in the Gattis-Kilgo suit was concluded by Judge Hoke in chambers at The Orton this morning at 1:30 o'clock, after a hearing since 3:30 o'clock yesterday afternoon. Judge Winston and J. Crawford Biggs, who appeared as counsel for the defendant and plaintiff, respectively, in the hearing, will leave this morning for their homes at Durham. Olinton.
