Mr. Pierpont Morgan seems to be doing a profitable business in manipulating deals. It is said that he made $9,000,000 on bonds by his Erie Railroad deal alone.

In the inauguration parade Gen. Miles will precede Admiral Dewey. The country will be satisfied with this arrangement if Mrs. Dewey is.

Baltimore, he, or had, one of the most successful female teachers in the country. She succeeded in getting $70,000 in debt, and then on being convicted of getting money under false pretences.

The close of the Pierpont-Carnegie deal gives Carnegie $200,000,000 in bonds, and an income of $15,000,000 a year, which is doing pretty well for a fellow who at the age of 30 was a telegraph operator, living on tick, as it were.

A Maine legislator who wants to create the impression that Maine is an economical abode for invalids has introduced a bill regulating the charges that trained nurses may make. That will probably be a good State for trained nurses to get out of.

A Tennessee statesman proposes to solve the egg problem as to whether eggs should be sold by weight or count, as they are now sold. He has introduced a bill giving the required dimensions of a regulation egg and making it a misdemeanor for a hen to lay anything smaller.

Pittsburg isn't rejoicing over the Pierpont-Carnegie deal, for the business office will be taken to New York, and take with it 300 men drawing salaries of $360,000 a year, and the Pittsburg banks will lose the $200,000,000 a year business they did with the company, which will go to the New York banks.

A Texas man has invented a machine for taking the whole kernel from the cotton seed. In this shape the seed is in greater demand in France to which large quantities are shipped because it saves the cost of transportation on the hulls. The inventor says this will add to the foreign demand for the seed and add considerably to its value.

Among the callers on the President last Wednesday was Senorita de Canda, of Cuba. She was richly dressed and wore diamonds, in addition to which she speaks four or five languages, English among them. She hasn't grown very rapidly for the age of thirty-four she measures only twenty-four inches in height and weighs a little over a pound to the inch, twenty-seven pounds.

REMIT PROMPTLY.

We are now mailing bills to subscribers whose terms have expired, and we take occasion to say that these bills should receive prompt attention; which, liberally construed, means a very early remittance of amounts due. As we now employ no travelling agents, we send all bills direct to subscribers, and they are urged to abandon the old habit of waiting to be called on.

LOCAL DOTS.

PASSED THE HOUSE—62 TO 33

The Concluding Speeches—Mastery Argument by Mr. Craig—Other Proceedings in Senate and House. Many Bills Passed.

[Special Star Telegram.]

RALEIGH, N. C., Feb. 18.—The Craig resolution, that Chief Justice David M. Furches and Associate Justice Robert M. Brief speeches advocating impeachment were made by Alexander, White of Halifax, and Dr. Morphee. The concluding and really crowning speech for impeachment was by Craig, introducer of the resolution. He spoke more than an hour, and when he concluded members flocked around him to tender congratulations. The first vote was on the Connor substitute.

It was expected that at the session of the House to-night seven managers of the impeachment proceedings before the Senate would be announced, but they were not. There is no understanding as yet regarding the date of the trial. Ten days' notice probably will be given.

Wilmington's Charter.

The Committee on Counties, Cities and Towns this afternoon decided to report favorably the bill to revise, amend and consolidate the charter of Wilmington.

During the session of the House to-night, Willard introduced a bill prepared by the Wilmington Merchants' Association to facilitate the collection of small accounts. It was referred to the Judiciary Committee.

THE BASE BALL TALK.

A League Team for Wilmington is Forming if a Leader Can Be Obtained in Promising Movement.

The balmy Spring weather of the past two or three days coupled with the publication on Sunday of the inviting letter of Secretary E. J. Doran, of the Virginia-North Carolina Baseball League, was especially conducive yesterday to a revival of the proposition favoring the formation of a team while by local enthusiasts that it would be quite the thing for Wilmington to move up a peg or two and enjoy some of the national sport this Summer as a member of the only organization of teams that will put up a professional article in this section this season.

The only movement that has had any semblance of tangible result since the Virginia Carolina League was first talked of in the Winter, almost reached a culmination yesterday and there was only one thing lacking—that was some one to take the initiative in the matter and hold the subscription book to a stock company while an eager baseball public would be ready to sign up for all the shares necessary to a first class team. Perhaps the missing link will be supplied to-day in time to have the Norfolk authorities hold a place for Wilmington at the meeting in that city to morrow evening. If there arises a Moses to lead the "cranks," he will have to start on his purchase of a team about $400 in voluntary subscriptions made yesterday without the shadow of a canvass and from not a tenth of the people who will contribute a good round sum to the support of a league team, to say nothing of those who will take shares of from $5 to $10 in an enterprise properly backed.

PASTOR WILL COME FRIDAY.

Rev. Dr. Wells Expected This Week—Rev. Mr. Paxton Leaves for Selma, Ala. The Rev. J. M. Wells, Ph. D., the new pastor of the First Presbyterian Church, this city, is expected to arrive in Wilmington with his family from Mississippi on next Friday afternoon and to at once take up his pastoral duties with the congregation here. Mr. Wells and family for a time will reside at the Orton as the Presbyterian manse is now rented and will likely remain so for a few months.

The Rev. W. Paxton, who has so acceptably served as stated supply for the congregation of the First Church for the past several months, expects to leave Wilmington on Thursday week for Selma, Alabama, where he will supply the pulpit of the First Presbyterian church there, pending the call to a regular pastor by that congregation. He expects to resume his missionary work in China during the Fall if the conditions there become favorable. Rev. Mr. Paxton has made numerous and staunch friends during his residency in the city and it will be with a feeling of regret that the public in general and congregation in particular will give him up. He has impressed all by his earnest work and ability as a minister of the gospel.

STROKE OF FACIAL PARALYSIS.

Pastor of Fifth Street M. E. Church Affected by Slight Attack. Friends of the Rev. John H. Hall, pastor of Fifth Street M. E. Church, were much pained at an announcement made by him to his congregation just before entering upon his discourse at the regular service Sunday morning. The intelligence which was received with so much regret by his hearers was to the effect that during the week preceding he had suffered a stroke of facial paralysis on the left side. One entire cheek is perceptibly affected but his power of speech is only slightly impeded by the disease and friends hope and cherish the belief that it will prove no more serious than now, when physicians say that there is much probability of an entire recovery. Otherwise the Rev. Mr. Hall is in good health and does not suffer inconvenience from the affliction.

FOR SUNDAY LIQUOR SELLING.

Princess Street Saloon Keeper Found Not Guilty of the Charge. A case of Sunday liquor selling against E. J. Pollard, formerly proprietor of the saloon at corner of Second and Princess streets, and in which case several prominent young white men of the city were summoned as witnesses, was heard by Mayor Waddell in the municipal court at 4 o'clock yesterday afternoon. The warrant was sworn out by Policeman H. E. Woebes on information and belief and the offence was alleged to have been committed on Sunday, Dec. 23rd.

It developed from the evidence that drinks were served only with meals at the restaurant conducted in connection with the bar and that no charge for the drinks was made. Mr. Pollard, who was defended by Messrs. Herbert McClannay and Brooke G. Empe, was discharged. The case was prosecuted by City Attorney Meares.

"A TRIP TO COUNTOWN."

Better Than Williams & Walker, Says the St. Louis Star. Cole and Johnson, who will appear in a "Trip to Countown" to-morrow night at the Opera House, are thus proclaimed by the St. Louis Star, of January 14th: "The 'standing room only' sign was hung out twice at the Imperial Sunday, and Manager Gray is consequently happy over the well advised change from stock company to combination. A 'Trip to Countown' was the attraction that began a week's engagement yesterday. A company composed entirely of negroes furnishes two and a half hours of genuine fun. The show is on the line of that which was at the Grand, recently, headed by Williams and Walker, only this is better. The singing, dancing and specialties are tip top. Bob Cole and Billy Johnson head the company. Cole is soon in the typical role of a hobo, while his partner is a bunko man."

The entire lower floor will be reserved for white people. Seats are now on sale at Gerken's.

TWO DEATHS SUNDAY

Members of Well Known Wilmington Families Called to a World Beyond.

THE FUNERALS YESTERDAY.

Mr. Thomas Morrison and Dr. Anacram B. Burr Passed Away at Their Respective Homes in Wilmington. Both Confederate Veterans.

Death claimed as its victims on Sunday members of two well known families prominent in Wilmington for many years. The deceased are Mr. Thomas Morrison, who died at his home, corner of Fifth and Princess streets, at five minutes before 10 o'clock on Sunday morning after a ten days' illness with pneumonia, with old age as a contributing cause, and Dr. Anacram B. Burr, oldest son of the late Col. Jas. G. Burr, who died at 1:30 o'clock in the afternoon at the residence of his adopted home in New York city to the home of his birth in Wilmington.

Death of Mr. Morrison.

Mr. Morrison at the time of his death was surrounded by all the members of his immediate family, consisting of one son and two daughters, Capt. J. C. Morrison and Miss Nora Morrison and Mrs. S. P. Adams. His wife, who was Miss Amanda McKelhan, of Southport, preceded him to the grave several years ago. A brother, Capt. George Morrison, died only a few days ago, and still another brother, Mr. Robert Morrison, passed away some five years ago.

Mr. Morrison was a native of Philadelphia, was born December 25th, 1828, and was therefore in the 73rd year of his age. In 1840 his father moved to North Carolina and the Morrison family has remained either here or at Southport ever since. During the civil war Mr. Morrison was engaged at different times as captain and engineer of one of the many boats used in the blockade service of the Confederacy with such telling effect and about the harbor of Wilmington during deeds and continuous perilous service. In late years his health had not admitted of more active employment. Members of the bereaved family have the sincerest sympathy of numerous friends.

The funeral was conducted yesterday afternoon at 4 o'clock from the late residence and the interment was in Oakdale cemetery. The services were by the Rev. Dr. James Carmichael. The following were the pallbearers: Honorary: Dr. W. W. Harris and Mr. C. W. Yates; active, Messrs. H. H. Steadman, W. A. Dick, J. H. Boatwright, J. C. Springer, J. McI. Gregg and Capt. T. C. James.

Dr. Anacram B. Burr was a native of Wilmington but removed to New York soon after the war and chose work in the army engineer's office of the government rather than a practice of his profession as a physician. He entered the Confederate army, however, before going to New York and was one of the captured at Fort Fisher. At his death he was in the 61st year of his age. His wife, who was Mrs. James Johnson, a daughter of the late Governor Dudley, survives him with two sons, Dr. James G. Burr, of Rockfall, Conn., and Anacram B. Burr, of Brooklyn. A sister, Mrs. Everett, of this city, and a brother, W. A. Burr, of New York, also survive him. The funeral was held at 3:30 o'clock yesterday afternoon.

ADDITIONAL RAILROAD TAX.

City and County's Share Resulting from Termination of Corporation Litigation. A statement of the amount of additional valuation of railroad property upon which the city and county may collect taxes as a result of a termination of the Corporation Commission litigation has been received by Clerk and Treasurer King and Chairman McEachern, of the New Haven Board of Commissioners.

The additional valuation for the county on all the railroads is approximately $110,346 for the year 1899 and $896,610 for the year 1900. That for the city of Wilmington as distributed among the several lines for the two years is as follows:

	1899.	1900.
C. O. R. R. Co.	$ 2,982 91	$ 4,039 89
W. & W. R. R. Co.	11,018 12	11,210 97
Total	$14,001 03	$15,250 86

If the valuation for the city is upon real estate, and it is presumed that it is, at the rate of 1.75 per cent, the amount of extra tax that will be received is $300.79 for the year 1899 and $265.13 for the year 1900, making a total of $565.92.

ATTEMPTED BURGLARY, THIS TIME.

Store of Fishbait Clothing Co. Narrowly Escaped Being Robbed Sunday Night. Evidence continues to accumulate supporting the well confirmed theory that there is an organized band of burglars at work in the city. Sunday night between 8 and 9 o'clock a policeman discovered that an attempt had been made to get into the store of the Fishbait Clothing Company in the Masonic Temple. One of the iron fire proof shutters to a window opening upon the basement in the rear had been pried open but fortunately the attempt to rob the store was discovered by the officer before an entrance could be effected. The would-be burglar was evidently frightened away by the approach of the policeman before further progress was made.

Sixth Anniversary.

Linden Grove, No. 2, United Ancient Order of Druids will celebrate its sixth anniversary on Thursday night of this week in its characteristic festive style. Interesting historical reports relating to the growth of the Grove will be read and a splendid banquet served.

THE CAROLINA YACHT CLUB.

An Enthusiastic Annual Meeting at the Court House Last Night at Which Officers Were Elected.

The annual meeting of the Carolina Yacht Club, one of the most popular of the seaside organizations at Wrightsville Beach, was held last night in the county court room, the session having been marked as by unusually large attendance upon the same. The principal item of business transacted was an election of officers for the ensuing term, which resulted as follows: Commodore—F. A. Lord. Fleet Captain—J. K. Williams. Flag Captain—M. S. Willard. Purser—Henry R. Savage. Marshal—H. McI. Green. Governing Board—R. C. DeRosset, C. S. Grainger and M. W. Divine.

Upon motion of Mr. Green, a vote of thanks was unanimously tendered to the corps of officers and members of the Governing Board for their satisfactory management during the season of 1900, which is attested by the elegant club house which now stands upon the site of the one ruined by the November storm of 1899. The success of their management was also evinced by the reelection of a majority of them by the meeting last night for the coming season.

There was a general discussion upon a proposition to amend the racing rules of the club, but decided action was deferred until a future meeting.
