IMPROVED SEWERAGE

Likely That Wilmington Company Will Be Absorbed by Philadelphia Concern.

LARGELY INCREASED CAPITAL

New Organization Promises to Install a Modern System Adequate to Perfect Sanitation of City—The Chief Engineer Here.

A movement has been inaugurated by the Sanitary Sewerage Company, of Philadelphia, to establish at Wilmington a complete system of sewerage, the need of which has long been so apparent that it has become a problem of no little moment with the Board of Aldermen of the city, and one which at one time appeared insoluble except by the installation of a system to be owned and operated by the municipality.

It is stated that the Philadelphia concern will construct a plant in Wilmington that will be amply adequate to the requirements of the entire city, so that at no late day any house within the populous district of the city may have an excellent connection and one in every way that will conform to the strictest sanitation.

Major Chauncey Ives, chief engineer of the Sanitary Sewerage Company, of Philadelphia, has been in the city for the past several days engaged in studying the engineering details of the proposed system and work upon a new and complete system will begin as soon as he has reported to his employers and final details are consummated. Major Ives left last night for his home and expressed himself as pleased with the prospect for his company here.

The Philadelphia company is said to be backed by almost unlimited capital and will spare no expense in placing a thoroughly up-to-date sewerage. As soon as the work is begun it will be rushed with all the dispatch possible until completion.

The plan of the Philadelphia people is to absorb the stock of the Wilmington Sewerage Company, which has the only franchise to operate its sewers in the city. To this end the book of stock has been placed at the Merchants National Bank pending a reorganization of the company with an increased capitalization to meet the aims and purposes of the new concern. The Philadelphia Company has already secured, it is said, an option of 90 days duration on a majority of the stock in the local concern and the plans appear to have prospect of a successful consummation.

Mr. W. P. Toon is president and Mr. John D. Bellamy, Jr., secretary of the home company.

COMPULSORY PILOTAGE MATTER.
No Adjustment of Differences Reached at Conference Held Here Yesterday.

It is learned unofficially that no amicable settlement of the differences between the Pilots' Association and shippers was effected at the conference held here yesterday morning and the fight will revert to the Legislature upon the propositions originally laid down by the two factions. Among the pilots in attendance upon the meeting were: Messrs J. L. Daniels, James A. Williams, A. M. Guthrie, O. D. Burris, E. H. Adkins, J. J. Adkins, and M. T. Craig, T. M. Morse, C. C. Morse, J. W. Craig, S. F. Craig, J. L. Pinner and J. A. Burris.

Pupils of Miss Hamme's Classes.
The following programme was delightfully rendered yesterday afternoon by the younger pupils of Miss Hamme's class at her studio No. 24 North Second street:

Smilax for The White House.
New York Tribune: "Mrs. Henry Reber, of Wilmington, N. C., has secured the order to supply all the smilax to be used in the decoration of the White House on inauguration day. It is for wild smilax and is said to be the largest order ever placed. Apropos of this, a prominent florist states that women are the ideal flower store assistants, adding: 'They have more patience, more taste, more honesty, more manner, than the average male assistant. Man may be ahead in decorating, but keep him away from customers.'"

Capt. McNeill and Dispensary.
A Raleigh correspondent, writing of Capt. James D. McNeill and the Fayetteville dispensary, says: "Senator McNeill is pretty badly flabbergasted by the defeat in the House of his bill to abolish the Fayetteville dispensary. He said at this afternoon that he was surprised that the House had voted for the bill, voted against it. He said he would introduce a bill giving the whole of Cumberland county prohibition, as he was bound to get rid of the dispensary."

Grab-Bag Party.
The ladies of Letitia Lodge, Rebekah Degree, I. O. E. F., will give a grab-bag party Wednesday night at the residence of Mrs. Lillie Harris. No. 410 South Fourth street. Ice cream, cake, etc., will be served and they hope to be liberally patronized as the proceeds will be devoted to a most worthy cause.

Piano Recital.
Following is the programme rendered yesterday afternoon at Schubert Hall:

"Romance in F sharp," (Schumann), by Miss Elizabeth B. Burr.
"Valse in G major," (Raff), by Miss Estelle May Muse.
"Sonata in E flat," (Beethoven), (first movement), by Miss Elizabeth D. Burr.

Off to the Inauguration.

N. C. TEACHERS' ASSEMBLY

Will Meet This Year at Wrightsville if Proper Encouragement is Forthcoming—Other State Meetings.

There is said to be bright prospect of the meeting of the State Teachers' Assembly at Wrightsville beach about the 10th of June. The Chamber of Commerce at its meeting Thursday afternoon will be asked to hold out some inducement to secure the big meeting of the State's educators upon this occasion, and with the very material enlargement of the Seashore Hotel now going on it is certain that with the beach and city accommodations there will be no trouble in entertaining the thousand and more visitors that would be drawn this way by the event.

President Jacobi, of the Chamber of Commerce, has recently received letters from Prof. J. A. Holt and former State Superintendent C. H. Mebane expressing themselves in favor of the Teachers' Assembly meeting here this year, and intimating that they would visit Wilmington in a few days to look over the field. Concerted action upon the part of Wilmington people appears only necessary to obtain the meeting.

The North Carolina Bar Association meets at Wrightsville June 24th 29th, inclusive, and there is now reasonable belief that the engagement of both regiments of the State Guard will be held at Wrightsville a little later.

WHITE BOY KILLED.
Struck on the Neck With a Stick by a Young Negro.

News was received in the city yesterday of the killing of Richard Dickens, a young man fifteen years of age, at Rocky Mount Wednesday, by a negro boy sixteen years old. It is stated that young Dickens took the part of several smaller boys who were attacked by negro youths and that while he had his back turned, the largest negro boy ran up and struck him on the back of his neck with a stick. The young fellow was rendered unconscious by the blow, a blood vessel having been broken and he died Thursday morning from the effect of his injuries.

The negro was arrested and carried to the county jail at Tarboro.

Dan Packard Opera Co.
The famous Dan Packard Opera Company with its superb orchestra will give the offering at the Opera House next Tuesday at matinee and at night, presenting the new comic opera "Prince Pro Tem," said to be one of the funniest comic operas ever written and by the same author as "Jack and the Beanstalk," "1492" and other great successes. Mr. Dan Packard will guarantee the principal comedy role and guarantees a laugh every second. The company is said to be a large one, numbering forty people, including Gus Daly and an efficient chorus handsomely costumed. The matinee prices will be 25 and 50 cents, the performance beginning at 3 P. M. promptly. The usual prices will prevail at night. Seats on sale to-morrow morning at Gerken's.

To Make Remarkable Exhibit.
A cross-tie treated fourteen years ago next June with the fluid manufactured by the Spiritine Chemical Company, of this city, for the W. & W. Railroad Company and which is now in a remarkably fine state of preservation, will be exhibited by the Spiritine Company at the Pan-American Exposition at Buffalo this year and also at the meeting of the Engineers of Roadway at Chicago, March 12th. The tie was removed from the W. & W. tracks near Rocky Mount a few days ago and will be sent to Chicago at once. It was originally treated by the Wilmington Creosote Works, which concern has been succeeded by the Spiritine Company, of this city.

GENERAL ASSEMBLY.

Both Houses Working Hard to Wind Up Business by the 11th of March.

FAYETTEVILLE DISPENSARY.

The Fight Not Over Yet—London's Bill to Amend the Constitution—Bill Against Gambling Passed the Senate—Revenue Law.

[Special Star Correspondence.]
RALEIGH, March 2.—Both branches of the General Assembly are now putting in some of the hardest work of the session. The Senate yesterday acted on more than ninety bills and many others were introduced and referred to committees. The House did not dispose of nearly so many bills, owing to the fact that the Fayetteville dispensary bill came up for an elaborate discussion, but both Senate and House are working like beavers to wind up the general business by March 11th, when the impeachment trial will begin before the Senate. It is understood that night sessions will be held regularly now and there will also be frequent afternoon sessions.

The Fayetteville dispensary fight has been the "battle royal" of the General Assembly, so far as a controversy over a purely local measure is concerned, and it is not over yet. As indicated in the STAR telegram last night the opponents of the dispensary have now limited their efforts to the passage of an absolute prohibition bill which was first introduced by Representative McKethan to apply to the county districts so as to prevent the establishment of government distilleries, but now the whole force of the dispensary opposition is turned to the work of passing this bill with an amendment that it apply also to all towns in the county, including Fayetteville. Major H. H. Hale is chairman of a big delegation here working to this end. Anti-dispensary people express themselves as confident of success.

The House has failed to concur in the amendment by Senator Morton to the bill providing for the sale of the old New Hanover court house. The amendment grants the commission to the Naval Reserves an option on the building, the purchase price to be paid in bonds. There has been no call for a joint conference of the committees of the two bodies. The Assembly and there cannot be after today, so that the bill has a good prospect of dying as a result of the amendment. If this be the case the property will go over another two years at least without change of ownership.

[Special Star Telegram.]
RALEIGH, N. C., March 2.—London's bill to amend the constitution to allow the white or negro race to levy a special school tax on their property for their exclusive use in schools, came up on the calendar of the Senate to-day and was referred to the Judiciary Committee. London, advocating the bill, said it was clearly shown in 1897 that the people would not vote a special tax under present conditions. London agreed to the reference.

The Senate passed a drastic bill against gambling. It came up on an unfavorable report from committee, but with a minority report by Ward and Travis, and was passed. It provides that if a barkeeper is indicted and convicted of permitting gambling in his place, he shall be deprived of license for all time in this State; and if a policeman is aware of such gambling places and does not do his duty, he shall be deprived of his right to hold that office for all time.

Morton sent in an amendment striking out that section saying that a policeman shall not be eligible to that office again, but it was voted down. Other bills passed the Senate: To allow Sanford to issue bonds for water works; to amend the charter of Goldsboro; to allow Laurinburg to vote on bonds for electric lights; to prevent the manufacture and sale of liquor in Duplin county; to amend the stock law in Johnston county; to prohibit the manufacture and sale of liquor in Pender county; to prevent fishing with nets in New River, Onslow county; to prevent entering certain lands in Onslow county; to establish a dispensary at Laxawana; to regulate employment at State institutions; to prohibit the manufacture and sale of liquor in Bladen county; to revise and consolidate the school laws.

Passed second reading: To allow Harnett county to issue bonds; to charter the Raleigh and Cape Fear Railroad Company; to levy a fence tax in Beaufort county; to regulate the stock law in Wayne.

The bill to appropriate $15,000 for a State arsenal and storage building came up from the calendar, and was referred to the Appropriation Committee. It provides, to carry out the recommendations of the Governor, the Secretary of State, and the Labor Commissioner, an additional State building, corner of Salisbury and Morgan streets.

Bills introduced: By Currie, petition from citizens of Bladen county against prohibition. By Morton, to pay Mrs. Carrie Aslers the amount directly due her; to pay Mrs. Virginia E. Bunting the amount due her. The House passed the committee bill reappointing the membership of the N. C. House of Representatives, whereby New Hanover will have one member instead of two as now. The bill is ready for ratification.

Other bills passed during the morning session: To incorporate Swain station, Moore county; to extend the time to commence work on the Northern and Cape Fear railroad; to amend the oyster laws of Onslow county; to establish the stock law in parts of Pamlico county; to amend the charter of Southport.

The bill making sixteen judicial districts was made the special order for Monday at 10 o'clock.

The House, at noon, went into committee of the whole to consider the Revenue act. The inheritance tax section was passed over, and Schedule B was considered. Section 34 defining taxes under the schedule, was adopted. The motion of Rountree to amend section 35, so as to tax theatres in cities of ten thousand or more population $150, instead of $200, was lost, and the section was adopted. Section 36, taxing travelling theatrical companies ten dollars for each performance was amended, making the owner of the hall responsible for the tax. Section 37, taxing circuses, was adopted. Section 38, exempting entertainments for religious, charitable and educational objects, was adopted. Section 39, taxing lawyers, physicians, etc., was adopted. Section 40, taxing auctioneers, was adopted. Section 41, taxing real estate and collecting agencies, was adopted with amendment taxing all who write deeds, and other legal papers for company compensation. Section 42, taxing dealers in fresh meats, was amended by taxing those engaged in other business besides a meat dealer, and was adopted. Section 43, taxing wood and coal dealers, was amended by exempting persons selling less than one hundred cords of wood per year and persons selling their own wood. Sec. 44, taxing photographers, lumber dealers, etc., ten dollars, was adopted. Section 45, relating to tax on junk dealers, and section 46, relating to tax on horse dealers, was adopted. Section 47, taxing peddlers of clocks, stoves and ranges fifty dollars instead of one hundred, as in the present law was adopted.

Bills introduced: By Stevenson, to prevent trains running on Sundays. By Pierce, to amend the charter of Newbern. By Willard, to amend the law prohibiting the shipment of quail from the State. By Graham, to require railroads to provide crossings on farm lands.

During the afternoon session of the House the following bills were passed: To protect drainage in certain towns in Tyrrell and Beaufort counties; to establish a dispensary at Wintboro; to protect fish and deer in Bladen, Cumberland and Columbus; to establish Bush swamp township, Wayne county; to require smokestacks with spark arresters at all mills within 200 yards of private residences.

Bills introduced: By Willard, to amend the law relating to the Carolina Insurance Co. By Nicholson, to incorporate the Dibble Fire Co., Washington; to prohibit the manufacture and sale of liquor within three and a half miles of Hallsville Presbyterian church, Duplin county.

The bill which passed the Senate to revoke the license of a bar-keeper who permits gambling, first offense, also imposes a fine of five hundred dollars or six months' imprisonment. Senatorial Districts.

The joint committee on Senatorial Districts adopted the report of the subcommittee for reapportionment of Senatorial districts. It is the plan reported by Senator Morton and Representative Watts. It creates thirty-nine districts, an increase of five over the present apportionment; the number of Senators, of course, remains at fifty. The new apportionment makes five Republican districts, the others are claimed as reasonably sure for Democratic majorities. The new apportionment, with the number of Senators and counties constituting districts, is as follows:

First—Currituck, Pasquotank, Hertford, Camden, Perquimans, Chowan, Gates—2. Second—Martin, Washington, Tyrrell, Beaufort, Dare, Pamlico, Hyde—3. Third—Bertie, Northampton, 1. Fourth—Halifax—1. 5th—Edgecombe—1. 6th—Pitt—1. 7th—Wilson, Nash, Franklin—2. 8th—Craven, Jones, Lenoir, Onslow, Greene—3. 9th—Wayne—1. 10th—Duplin and Pender—1. 11th—New Hanover, Brunswick—1. 12th—Columbus, Bladen—1. 13th—Robeson—1. 14th—Cumberland—1. 15th—Harnett, Sampson, Johnston—2. 16th—Wake—1. 17th—Warren, Vance—1. 18th—Granville, Person—1. 19th—Durham, Orange, Alamance—2. 20th—Caswell, Rutherford—1. 21st—Guilford—1. 22—Chatham, Moore, Scotland, Richmond—2. 23rd—Anson, Union—1. 24th—Stanley, Montgomery, Davidson, Randolph—2. 25th—Davie, Rowan, Cabarrus—2. 26th—Forsyth—1. 27th—Stokes, Surry—1. 28th—Alleghany, Ashe, Watauga—1. 29th—Wilkes, Yadkin—1. 30th—Iredell—1. 31st—Mecklenburg—1. 32nd—Gaston, 1. 33rd—Catawba, Lincoln—1. 34th—Cleveland, Rutherford, Polk, Henderson—2. 35th—Alexander, Caldwell, Burke, McDowell—2. 36th—Mitchell, Yancey, Madison—1. 37th—Buncombe—1. 38th—Haywood, Transylvania, Jackson—1. 39th—Macon, Swain, Clay, Graham, Cherokee—1.

Looking to the formation of a "Primary Union" as an auxiliary organization of the International Sunday School Committee, a meeting of all primary and junior grade teachers in the various Sunday Schools in the city together with workers and pastors in the several churches is called to be held in the Y. M. C. A. parlors next Saturday afternoon, March 9th, at 4 o'clock.
