For Whooping Cough USE O'NEELY'S EXPECTORANT. nearer the market than our selves. The settlement of this great injustice and the removal of this barrier to our progress can be accomplished if our citizens will unitedly stand for their rights and demand the adjustment of these discriminations. Our Chamber passed resolutions endorsing a State Reformatory for youthful criminals, which is sadly needed. Through the efforts of our Congressmen, Jno. D. Bellamy, and upon the recommendation of the officers in charge of our River and Harbor Improvement we will secure mooring dolphins which will prove of great value to the port. The depth of our channel has been increased and vessels drawing twenty feet of water can come to our docks in safety. We find this port is misrepresented in some marine books published here and in England, and shall take steps to call the attention of the publishers to same, and have errors corrected. The Revenue Bill before our Legislature was discussed very fully at a special meeting, called for this purpose, and a committee appointed to go to Raleigh and endeavor to get certain changes made. The questions of stevedores and company charges were discussed and referred to committees to investigate and report. The angel of death has visited our ranks and removed two of our most useful members. Col. Roger Moore and James S. Worth. No true friend ever lived. Each left the precious legacy of a good name, which we cherish while we endeavor to emulate their example. Our business community will also miss the form of Mr. Eliza Warren who showed, by her example, that a woman can succeed even in the commercial world and overcome many obstacles. Resolutions were passed and forwarded to her family. Thanking each and all for the many courtesies shown, I remain, Yours very respectfully, MARCUS W. JACOBI, President.

Desirable Investment. We offer for sale a few New Hanover County five per cent. bonds. Principal assets of every resident of this State. Total debt of County less than $40,000. These bonds are attractive to Trustees, Guardians and others seeking a safe investment. Price on application. HUGH MACRAE & CO., Bankers, mar 8 '01
