Judge Clark May Go on the Stand in Self-Defence—Special Term of Columbus Superior Court - Laurinburg's Cotton Seed Oil Mill.

[Special Star Telegram.]

RALEIGH, N. C., March 20 .- The defence in the impeachment trial rested their case at 5 o'clock this afternoon. An hour was devoted to hearing rebuttal testimony offered by the prosecution. It is expected all the evidence will be in by noon to-morrow, provided the prosecution don't put Justice Walter Clark on the stand. It he goes on a very lively time is expected. The star witness for the defence to day was Justice Montgomery, whose testimony was very harsh against Justice Clark; so much so that it is believed Clark will demand to testify in self defence. Montgomery testified that Judge Clark caused the whole trouble in the office holding cases; that when the opinion of the majority of the court was in favor of the Democratic officeholders, Judge Clark would concur; but, with the same principles involved and the opinion of the court, in accordance with law and facts, was favorable to a Republican office holder, Judge Clark would offer a dissenting opinion. He said that Clark's judicial opinious were tainted with politics. But that rulings with Hoke vs. Henderson and other precedents which the court cited as the ground for their opinions. Montgomery's testimony was wholly in favor of the accused judges and a rigid cross-examination by Hon. C. B. Watson failed to develop any advantage for the prosecution. At one time Judge Montgomery refused to answer questions, unless propounded by Watson more respectfully and he was allowed to answer one to his satisfaction before another was "fired" at him; he said that the questions asked involved his personal integrity, and the conduct of his associates of the Sapreme Court bench. Mr. Watson said he had not intended to be disrespectful and changed the method of cross-examin-

The defence offered expert testimony as to the legality of the course of the judges in issuing the mandamus and in their ruling in the White case, but was ruled out by the Court.

Among the lawvers to have been in roduced as experts were Judge J. C. McRae, W. J. Montgomery, Col. H. C. Jones, Col. C. F. Warren, J. N. Hill, I. F. Dorch, Col. T. M. Argo, T. Governor Aycock has ordered a

At the Opera House.

"A Warf of New York" was very cleverly presented last evening at the Opera House by the Una Clayton Company to an audience which was far from small, considering the heavy down-pour of rain just before and during the performance.

To-night the company will present a piece entirely new to a Wilmington audience-"Frou-Frou" and it is said to be one of the very best in the repertoire of the troupe. There is no change in prices and a really good show is promised.

Rev. Richard W. Hogue.

Rev. Richard W. Hogue, of Shef field, Ala., who was recently called to the rectorship of St. James' Episcopal parish, of this city, is expected to visit Wilmington between April 10th and 25th. DEATH OF MRS. L. C. LILLY.

Mother of Mrs J B. Mercer, of This City, Passed Away Monday.

Just as the dawn of the new day was breaking this morning the immortal spirit of Mrs. L. C. Lilly took its flight. She was conscious to the very last and on last night, when she bid her children goodbye she expressed the wish that they would meet in heaven. For 77 years she has been a conspicuous figure in our midst, was the town's oldest and most highly-respected citizen She died as she had lived, a true Christian. A purer sweeter woman never drew breath. She was twice married, the first time to Davidson Hearne, Esq., and the last time to Mr. John A. Lilly, who died several years ago. She leaves five children—Mrs. Rothrock, of Rowan, Mrs. Mercer. of Wilmington; Mrs. Mercer, of Wilmington; Mrs. Watkins, Mrs. Spinks and Mr. T. C. SUDDEN DEATH AT ASHPOLE.

Wife of Hotel Proprietor Dropped Dead Very Early Yesterday Morning. [Special Star Correspondence.]

ASHPOLE, N. C., March 20, 1901 .--At about 4 o'clock this morning our little town was startled by the announcement of the sudden death of Mrs. G. C. M. Funderburk, wife of the proprietor of the hotel at this place. She had not been sick at all, and was up during the night waiting on some of the children. As she went to retire she suddenly fell dead, supposedly from heart failure. She leaves a husband with a large family, who have the deepest sympathy of their many friends here.
