Captain of Police-N. J. Williams. Of course there were differences of opinion between the Aldermen as to whom they should elect to the several offices but these were all settled in caucus and all the nominations in open meeting were made by Aldermen H. P. West and seconded as follows: King by Von-Glahn; White by Maunder; Furlong by Spencer; Schnibben by Johnson; Monroe by Harriss; Bellamy by Harris; Harper by Harriss; Woolard by VonGlahn, and Williams by Maunder, who took occasion to say that bankrupts, will be sold at retail, be- Mr. Williams was from his ward and a good man. This was the only nominating or seconding speech by any member of the Board and the whole proceedure did not consume more than fifteen minutes time.

The court room was crowded when Mayor Waddell called the meeting to order and as each election was made there was vociferous applause by friends of the several candidates. Aldermen present were Messrs. Spencer and Maunder, first ward; West and VonGlahn, second ward Harriss and Johnson, third ward Bailey and Skinner, fourth ward; Mann and Parker, fifth ward.

It will be seen that few departures are made from the personnel of officials as they at present stand. Messrs. King and White succeed themselves: Capt. Jno. J. Furlong, who has served efficiently as captain of police since Nov. 10th, 1898, succeeds Capt. Edgar G. Parmele as chief of police; Cnief Charles Schnibben and Assistant Chief Monioe, of the Fire Department, are re elected; William J. Bellamy, Esq., succeeds Iredell Meares, Esq., as city attorney; Dr. Harper is re elected to the posi tion which he now holds; Mr. J. M. Woolard, who served well as an alderman from the First ward under the present administration, succeeds Mr. J. A. Perry as superintendent of streets, and Mr. Nathan J. Williams, who at present holds the position of night sergeant of police, becomes captain of police. The election of city physician is, by the law, subject to concurrence by the Board of Audit and Finance, but the other officials upon qualification April 1st will enter upon the duties of their respective offices without further municipal action.

The salaries per annum of the various officials elected last night, as at present fixed by the Board of Audit and Finance, are as follows: Clerk and treasurer, $1,800; assistant clerk and treasurer, $1,100; chief of police, $1,200; chief of fire department, $1,200; assistant chief, $720; captain of police, $800; city physician, $800; superintendent of streets, $1,000; city attorney, $500. In addition to these emoluments, officers of the fire and police departments receive ten cents per day for uniform; the superintendent of streets receives $100 extra for keeping a horse and the city attorney is allowed commissions on back tax collections and fees in extraordinary cases. After the election of the officers last night, the Board adjourned subject to call of the Mayor and retired for an other caucus. It is understood that the other minor municipal offices will be filled at a meeting either to night or Monday night. There are a very large number of these and numerous applications. The matter of the appointment of standing committees, Mayor Waddell would defer to a subsequen meeting. However, as there was a matter relating to the sewerage before the board for immediate action, he an nounced a committee on sewerage as follows: Messrs. Bailey, (chairman) Mann and VonGlahn. The sewerage committee he said would take the place of a hospital committee for which there is no further need since the organization of the Board of Managers of the James Walker Memorial Hospital. The sewerage matter is in connec tion with the Sanitary Sewerage Company, of Philadelphia, reference to the plans of which has already been made in these columns. Mr. Lewis, a prominent official of the company, has been here for the past few days and has engaged Mesars. Bellamy and Peschau as his attorneys.

The company asks the aldermen to grant certain franchises to it, which are embodied in an ordinance submitted for adoption and which Mayor Wad- | PECTORANT.

thorough investigation. Provisions of Sewerage Ordinance. The ordinance sets forth the great advantages of a complete sewerage system, and of the securing of same without an outlay of money on the part of the city. The first section confers upon the Wilmington Sewerage Company, its successors and assigns, permission to lay sewer pipes and conduits in the city upon the condition as set forth in Section 2, that so long as the system is constructed and maintained pursuant to the ordinance the city will not construct or maintain a separate system on its own account or enter into any contract for the purpose of securing the construction or maintenance of a system by any other persons or corporations, provided, however, that nothing in the ordinance shall in any way affect the right of the City of Wilmington to acquire the system of sewerage therein provided for in accordance with terms laid down in Section 4, which stipulates that after five years from date of completion of the system the city shall have the right to purchase the same, after three months notice prior to the expiration of that time and that the price to be paid shall be determined by a board of appraisers two of whom shall be appointed by the city authorities, two by the Sewerage Company and a fifth by the four members thus appointed, one of which appointees each by the city and company shall be an expert civil engineer and none of them residents of the City of Wilmington, stockholders or bondholders in the corporation or in anyway interested therein. The award made by the appraisers shall include. as a part of the valuation of the prop erty, the net earning capacity of the system, and the city shall within three months after the award, pay the

He was brought before Judge Starbuck in Wake Su perior Court vesterday and Monday was agreed upon for the trial. Martin has retained Col. T. W. Argo and S. G. Ryan, Esq., as counsel. Notwithstanding the fact that Major Martin confessed his guilt to the extent of misappropriating $3,800 at the time the shortage was discovered, there seems to be some question as to whether he will plead guilty or not when the trial comes up. At last his counsel has intimated that such a course would not be pursued. It has been expected that he would throw himself upon the mercy of the court. Dr. R. A. Mr. Fremont was an agent for manufactures of machinery and had an office at No. 26 Cortlandt street. It is alleged that Mr. Fremont was earning $7,000 a year and as he was stil lyoung the large sum asked as damages is only a fair amount, considering his earning capacity.
