A dreadful accident was very narrowly averted yesterday afternoon by the presence of mind and thorough efficiency of Motorman E. R. Mc-Gowan, of the Wilmington Street Railway Company. As a car was passing at a rapid rate of speed up Princess street in front of the old Court House a little girl very thoughtlessly ran on the track, not seeing the approaching car, which, when brought to a stop, was right at the little girl. Mr. Mc. Gowan is one of the best men on the line and he deserves much praise for his care and presence of mind.

Will Unveil Monument.

Live Oak Camp, No. 6., Woodmen of the World, of this city, according to its long established custom, will erect a monument over the grave of its late sovereign J. B. McDaniel, who died in Wilmington and was interred at Newbern, his old home. The shaft will be unveiled by a large delegation of Woodmen from Wilmington, who will go to Newbern on a special train on a Sunday during the latter part of May. can transport one into an atmosphere purely ideal and intellectual is, without doubt, music. Its bearings upon human happiness will induce many to hear the great Sherwood at the Y. M. C. A. April the 9th.

As a pianist he is said to be distinguished and a genius of the broadest wing. His work is said to be a colossal, unique, inimitable movement, which must be contemplated with the most respectful admiration, his conception vivid and his portrayal ade

The question was asked in New York, at the M. T. N. A. Convention: 'Where will this man Sherwood stop?" Delicacy, force, brilliancy of style and endurance are said to be his One must hear Sherwood to appre ciate the intensity of emotion that this really great artist's playing produces. From a purely artistic point of view it is said to be ravishing to the supreme degree, and as he is the national or representative American pianist, the Piano Recital Association ventures to say that the seating capacity of the auditorium will be taxed to the ut most with the throng that is anxiouly awaiting the coming of the renowned artist.

AN EXCITING FOX CHASE.

Col. Murchison and Guest and the Wil mington Fox Club Out Yesterday.

Col. K. M. Murchison and his guest Mr. James Swann, of New York, yes terday joined forces with Messrs. F. T. Mills, S. J. Davis and E. H. Sneed, of the Wilmington Fox Club, and en oyed an exciting chase on Col. John Wilder Atkinson's place in Brunswick county. With material reinforcements from Col. Murchison's and Mr. Swann's kennels, the party mustered a pack of about 30 hounds and suc-foxes. The start was made at 4 A. M. and the last chase ended about noon. Col. Murchison and Mr. Swann returned to Orton plantation and others of the party returned to Wilmington. Mr. Swann will likely return home on tomorrow.

Seacoast Railroad Suit, Yesterday afternoon's Fayetteville Observer says: "The case of Raynor vs. the Wilmington Seacoast Railroad for $5,000 damages was given to the jury at 4:30 o'clock yesterday after noon. The jury remained out all night, and it was not until noon to day that they announced they had reached a verdict. This verdict gave the plaintiff five hundred dollars. The defendant took an appeal to the Supreme Court."

THE BASE BALL SEASON. Will Investigate County Affairs.

Advance Guard of Wilmington's Team Will Arrive To-day r To-morrow. Some General Lesgue Notes.

Before the middle of the week the sturdy young fellows who will compose Wilmington's team in the Vir ginia-North Carolina Base Ball League, will be on the home diamond and ready for a hard practice two weeks before opening of the season at Richmond with three games, beginning April 15th. Manager Peschau on yesterday forwarded transportation to the several members of the team and they are expected to report as soon after receiving the same as possible. Warren, of Newberry, S. C., will likely be the first to report and there is a probability that he may arrive this evening or to-morrow morning. Then will come Stafford, Foreman, Dent, Radcliffe and the others in quick succession, so that it may be sai . that the entire team will be in by Tuesday evening.

Manager Peschau is very much encouraged at having Richmond to "begin upon." Her star pitcher is Hooker, of last year's Wilmington team and that fact does not strike terrow to those who watched his record here last year; in other words Hooker is regarded as "easy fruit" by the locals, and if Wilmington doesn't get the three first games with Richmond, Manager Peschau will want to know the reason why. Upon the whole, Wilmington feels feels encouraged. Accommodation for the team was being easily secured for the home team 'yesterday at private boarding places and each member will be pleasantly situated while in Wilmington.

Mr. J. R. Davis, of Wilmington, yesterday received official notice of his appointment as one of the League umpires from President Cunningham, of Norfolk, who stated that he would write him later at what point to report on April 15th.
