Practice Game at Hilton Park Is Announced For This Afternoon.

THE BASE BALL TEAM

THE CHANGE IN LEAGUE RULES

Does Not Meet With Pavor From Some Quarters-Wilmington's Opening With Richmond Monday-Approaching Contests on Home Diamond.

An exhibition game of base ball s scheduled for this afternoon at Hilton Park between the Wilmington team in the Virginia-Carolina League and a team composed of local talent. The game is for practice purposes and the public is cordially invited. The local team will be sufficiently strengthened from the league team to make the contest interesting.

The league men are doing well and and hardening up nicely from their hibernation since the close of last season. Daily practices are being kept up to the pleasure of many spectators who go out each afternoon to Hilton, and profit to the men who are to take two of the three games from Richmond next week. For these games the team will leave Sunday morning and return the following Sunday, after three other games with Portsmouth.

Wilmington will see her first league ball for an entire six days on Monday week. Richmond will open with the home team on the home grounds for three games, and Portsmouth will follow on Thursday, Friday and Saturday, for three other games. The next games at Wilmington are for a solid week beginning May 6th with Newport News-Hampton and Norfolk. Raleigh will not find her way to this coast before May 16th.

Mr. Preston G. White has arranged to take the opening game betwee at the office of Murphy & Co., over the store of Sternberger Bros. A subscription with this end in view is now being taken. The game will come just as played and will be exhibited on a blackboard fresh from the diamond at Richmond.

An exchange has the following to say of the new rules under which teams in the Virginia-Carolina League will play this season: "Ball players all over the country are testing the new rules. The Pittsburg team at Hot Springs say that the foul ball clause will injure the batting to such an extent that the leading batsman of the National League wil have an average of not more than 300. The Brooklyn players at Charlotte say that not only is this the rule, but the one that allows the pitcher to hit a batsman without the latter taking his base, a big mistake. They argue that pitchers will purposely hit batsmen in order to drive them from the plate and incidentally make it an easy matter to work them on curved balls. That the National League Rules Committee has made an error in these respects there is little doubt. Even the college teams are finding fault. Umpire John J. Gaffney. a veteran, who will officiate at all the home games of Brown University, has requested the nine of that institution to play all games under last year's rules, on the ground that the changes are too intricate to under stand properly. The foul ball rule is meeting with such opposition that it is said the National League, under pressure, may rescind it.

THE SPLENDID STEAMER WILMINGTON

She Was the Cynosure of All Eyes at Her Wharf Yesterday.

The steamer Wilmington was perhaps never in better condition and prettier at the opening of a Summer season than now. After several weeks on the ways at Skinner's shipyard during which she was overhauled and re-finished from stem to stern, she was brought up to her wharf at foot of Market street yesterday afternoon and will resume her usual trips on the river to-day. The Summer schedule will be put into effect early

A reporter was shown over the boat yesterday afternoon by her clever master, Capt. Jno. W. Harper, and was surprised at the the extent of the recent improvement. No part of the commodious vessel has escaped the eye of the carpenter or brush of the plain and artistic painter. The machinery, too, has come in for its share of the general change from good to better and if appearances count for anything Capt. Harper will break all records during the forthcoming

The first trip to Southport and to sea on the Wilmington will be given by Capt. Harper Sunday. The boat will leave at 10 A. M., and return in the evening and in the future these Sunday trips will be a regular feature.

Old Maids' Convention.

Odd Fellows' Quartette.

Miss Ama L. Duukel, who is arranging for the Old Maids' Convention to be given at the Opera House on the evening of April 19th, under the auspices of the Daughters of the Confederacy, requests that all adults, who have a place on the programme of the evening's entertainment, will meet her at 7 P. M. on Saturday at the Y. M. C. A. Hall. This rehearsal will take the place of the one appointed originally for April 17th.

Those comprising the double quartette for the Odd Fellows' celebration at the Opera House on April 26th, are as follows: Mrs. W. L. Latta and Miss Carrie White, sopranos: Mes. F. A. Muse and Mrs. James D. Smith, altos; Messrs. R. C. Banks and C H. Cooper, tenors; Messrs. A. S. Holden and J. S. Williams, bassos.

WAS VERY SAD FUNERAL.

Remains of James Daggett Tenderly Laid to Rest in Oakdale Yesterday Morning-Military Ceremonies.

The funeral of young James S. Daggett yesterday morning from the lodge at Oakdale cemetery was one of the saddest witnessed in Wilmington for some time. The services were impressively conducted by the Rev. F. H. T. Horsfield, rector of St. James' parish, and the large gathering present signified in no uncertain way the very high esteem in which the deceased young man was held in Wilmington, his native home.

Aside from the large number of friends of the deceased and family, there was a large delegation of young Mr. Daggett's comrades in Company K, United States Volunteers, of which he was a member during the late Spanish-American war. Prominent among those were Capt. Donald MacRae, Lieuts. C. H. White and R. H. Cowan, Sergeant Major Thomas W. Davis, Quartermaster Sergeant J. S. Hooper, Sergeants D. T. Cronly, W. A. Whitney, C. McD. Davis, Cuthbert Martin, J. R. Windley and R H. Bradley, Corporals Eugene Forshee, Eugene Woodward, C. MacArthur, James Reilly and Charles Green, Artificer Jack Quelch, Musicians Fred. Craft and George Baldwin, Privates E. P. Dudley, W.A. Keith, Dawson Latham and J. White.

The floral tributes were many and very beautiful. Among them was one bearing this inscription: "Company K, Second Regiment, North Carolina Infantry, United States Volunteers." At the grave after the burial the company blew taps, came to attention and disbanded. The pall-bearers were as follows: C. G. Southerland, Jr., James Cotchett, Junius Davis, Jr., W. H. Stone, Jr., E. P. Dudley, Oscar Peck, G. W. Chadbourn and Dr. R. E. Zichary.

SOUTHPORT DISAPPEARANCE.

Mr. W. J. Reaves is Satisfied of the Honesty of His Manager's Purpose In Leaving.

With regard to the rather unexpected disappearance of Mr. Clarence Montgomery, manager of the Southport store of Mr. W. J. Mr. Reaves stated further that at the outset he did not wish to get the matter in the public prints until he had made a thorough investigation of the young mun's conduct and could make a definite statement regarding the affair and that he has not until now had the matter in shape to make a full statement. He is satisfied of young Montgomery's honesty and is confident that in the end the matter will be cleared up to the full exoneration of his manager.

SUNDAY SCHOOL UNION.

Held Profitable and Pleasant Weekly Session Yesterday Afternoon -- Announcements.

At the weekly meeting of the Primary Union at the Y. M. C. A. yesterday afternoon Dr. Blackwell taught the lesson "Jesus Appears to Mary" and greatly delighted and instructed those present with his discourse. The points brought out were "Love with out faith looks into the grave; angels are near us in our sorrows; tears and fears bland us; to teach Christ is better than to touch Carist; if the Lord has spoken to us, we must speak unto others; the heart throb thought is: 'If I Love Jesus, 1 Will Obey Him." Dr. Blackwell was listened to with reat pleasure and instruction, each lesson having been illustrated by touching and appropriate incidents. Each meeting of the Association shows an increase in attendance and enthu siasm. At the next week's session Miss Nellie Cook will teach the lesson.

Miss Britt, the secretary, presented an encouraging letter from Dr. Israel P. Black, of Philadelphia, the national secretary, in which he stated that the Union in Wilmington is the only one in this section of the South. The letter was emphasized by a few pointed remarks by Mr. P. Heinsberger and after an interchange of views on special songs in infant classes, the Union adjourned.

Supposed Homocide In Nash.

A correspondent of the STAR at Spring Hope, N. C., tells of a supposed homocide in that county this week. Sunday afternoon Joe Taylor, a cripple, at whose house near Spring Hope number of men were drinking, threw stone which struck Thad Chambles, one of the crowd with whom he had an altercation, just above the temple. Chambles washed the blood from his wound, was apparently not much injured and started home. When about a quarter of a mile from Taylor's home he fell in the road unconscious. He died Wednesday morning and the coroner's jury is now investigating the Director Says It Will Be Absolutety Necessary to Borrow Money for the Institution-Jos. H. McRee's Appointment-State Pair.

[Special Star Correspondence.] RALEIGH, N. C., April 11.-Hon. Francis D. Winston said this morning that the special legislative committee of which he is chairman will not present their report of findings as to Clerk Martin's defalcations in the State treasury to the Governor to day, but that it will probably be forthcoming to morrow. He said they had not finally estimated the shortage yet, but intimated that it may not after all be more than $10,000 or $12,000, or it may not quite reach the first named figure. They have only examined the treasury accounts with the State's prison, but they think it hardly possible for Mar tin to have embezzled funds in his ac counts with the other State institu-

A White Elephant.

I was talking with one of the most prominent members of the new State's prison board of directors to-day, and he told me that it will be absolutely necessary for the institution to borrow money very soon. The prison now, he says, has very limited assets, the crop of ground peas being the principal asset from last year's crop now on hand. Their investigation the past few days has not thrown any light upon the situation which would improve the apparent condition of the institution, which, the director says, s a great big white elephant on the hands of the State. The board will not make any statement as to the condition of the prison for some weeks yet, and then only through a completed report to His Excellency Governor

The Marks-Andrews wedding and reception in this city last night proved to be one of the most brilliant in the history of Raleigh society. There were eight private cars of rail-road officials here, and there were distinguished visitors from all parts of the country. The value of the wedding presents is estimated conservatively at $20,000. Mr. and Mrs. Marks left at 1 o'clock this morning on a special train for a tour of Northern cities. They were accompanied by quite a party of friends The train consisted entirely of private cars. Miss Jane Andrews, the bride, is an unusually affable and popular young lady, and Mr. Marks, the for tunate groom, is a prosperous cotton broker of Montgomery, Ala. October 21st to 26th has been selected as the date for the 1901 State

The Board of Directors of the State's prison held another private session to day and agreed upon officers to be elected. It is not given out, but it is understood that Hon. To our friends, enemies and strangers:

On the morning of the 15th we are going to do exactly what you want us to do—throw open the doors of cur new Hotel Sumter. This isn't the biggest Hotel in the world. It isn't the best, but there is nothing better in South Carolina. The building is new and so are the furnishings—every stick; also brass and iron beds with felt mattresses. A number of rooms with private baths. The best lighted dining room in the State, and light isn't the only thing that gets on the tables. The lobby and reading room are both good looking and they will suit your taste. But what we want to open on the 15th, (Monday) but the job is too big to be performed by a couple of proprietors. We want a lot of travelling men to help us. We are going to furnish you with a first rate supper and a band of music to help worry it down; there will be other acceptable things too-ice water-andand-but you want to come and see and feel and hear for yourself.
