EARLY STRAWBERRY SHIPMENTS.

Mr. A. Bowen, of Long Creek, Claims to be First.

[Special Star Correspondence.]
LONG CREEK, N. C., April 18.—Please correct an error. It was Allie Bowen, of Long Creek, that made the first shipment of strawberries, on the 14th inst., and not M. B. Bullard, of Montague. Said berries were shipped to W. P. Ireland, Philadelphia, and were sold for 40 cents per quart. Also, Mr. Bowen has shipped an additional crate to-day, April 18th, to the same house.

ENJOYABLE BENEFIT.

Old Maids' Convention Largely Attended Last Night and Thoroughly Amusing.

NEAT SUM WAS REALIZED.

Cast of Characters Was Large and Company Under Direction of Miss Dunkel Entertained Cleverly—For the Daughters of Confederacy.

The Convention of Old Maids at the Opera House last night was a success beyond measure and it was witnessed by a packed house.

The Convention was given for the benefit of the Daughters of the Confederacy and was under the direction of Miss Dunkel, to whom much praise is due for the excellence of the performance. The entire programme was splendidly rendered and those who took part acquitted themselves most creditably. The audience was highly entertained from beginning to end and some of the situations were most ludicrous and amusing, causing very hearty applause.

After a sweet overture by Miss Alice Smallbones on the violin, accompanied by Miss Fannie Corbett, the Old Maids marched down the aisle in couples, and after the most endearing greetings took their positions on the stage. The costumes were very effective and the proceedings of the meeting were extremely amusing. The motto of the assembly, "While there is life there is hope," was prominently suspended. Of the many reports read, the "market report," by Miss Tallulah DeRosset, excited the most interest.

When "Prof. Makeover" and his assistants were introduced there was great excitement among the old maids and the results brought about by the "remodelance," were very pleasing and in each instance beautiful. The Convention was attended by the following:

Dramatic Persons.

Josephine Jane Green, president, (Mrs. Geo. E. Letwith); Roviley Abigail Hobbs, secretary, (Miss Belle Anderson); Ruth Jane Seek-no further, treasurer, (Miss Ruth Covington).

CLUB MEMBERS.

Peachy Pinky White, (Miss Louise DeRosset); Mehtable Schreppenhiser, (Miss Tallulah DeRosset); Jane Maria Coy, (Miss S. L. Parsley); Sophronia Araminta Long, (Miss Elizabeth Robinson); Gloriana Gadabout, (Miss Emma Morton); Violet Anne Twaddies, (Miss Mary Harper); Charity Longface, (Miss Lois Stanley); Charly Anne Hopkins, (Miss Mary Wootton); Nerissa Ethel Bodkins, (Miss Carrie Casaux); Jessica Juliet Smith, (Miss Marie Whitney); Sophronia Stuckup, (Miss Mary Lewis); Samantha Huggins, (Miss Anne M. Newbury); Portia Olivia Bennett, (Miss L. O. Wootton); Penelope Gertrude Doolittle, (Miss Kate Berdine); Frances Lucretia Lashope, (Miss M. Clara Woodward); Priscilla Aze-me quick, (Mrs. Smith); Lucinda Maria Scraggs, (Miss Jones); Anxiety Electrobrn, (Miss Lavinia Gillilan); Gloriana Celeste Popovira, (Miss Harriet French); Clara Arabel Prentice Price, (Miss Emma West); Professor Makeover, (Mr. Chas. McMillan); Assistants, (Mr. H. West and Mr. J. G. Colchett); The Man, (Mr. Bradley).

MAKOVERS.

Bride, (Miss Kate Moffitt); Recliter, (Miss Hattie Taylor); Soloist, (Mrs. Tom Jones); Dancer, (Miss Bessie Gore); Violinist, (Miss Alice Smallbones); Whistler, (Miss Otten).

STATUS POSES.

1. Harmony. 2. Toilet of the Bride. 3. Our Flag. 4. Looking Backward. 5. Home, Sweet Home. 6. Sweet Slumber.

Misses Belden, Lewis, DeRosset, VanDyke, Gillican, Harper, Humphreys, White, French, West, Munds, Gilligan, Bowden, Smallbones.

The status poses in part second were exquisite and most effective. Each scene was perfectly beautiful. The affair was very creditable indeed, and furnished abundant amusement and entertainment for the very large audience that ventured out in the very disagreeable weather to witness it.

MY FRIEND FROM INDIA.

The Next and Last Regular Offering at the Opera House Monday Night—The Sale of Seats.

The next and last regular offering at the Opera House will be what is said to be a clever farce, "My Friend from India," presented by the original Myron B. Rice Comedy Company, headed by Miss May Vokes, who created the part of "Tilly," the German maid, in the initial performance at the Bijou Theatre in New York city, and played by her more than one thousand times since. "My Friend from India" is light and insubstantial as the fabric of dreams, but enjoyable withal, as some dream happens to be, wherefore, those who appreciate its qualities must visit the theatre for themselves and discover how cleverly the author has worked out the correct interpretation of the music for the many vaudeville features. Seats are on sale this morning at Gerken's.

Sales of Property.

Two real estate transfers were recorded at the Court House yesterday as follows:

Robert Ruark, commissioner, to Thos. J. Gore, property 130244 feet, on Dock street between Seventh and Eighth; consideration, $855.

De Leon Fillyaw et al. to Margaret C. Heyer, property 62165 feet, on the northeast corner of Third and Bladen streets; consideration, $750.

City Subscribers.

City subscribers are earnestly requested to report promptly at the STAR office every failure of the carriers to deliver their papers. In all such cases, steps will be taken to insure prompt and regular delivery.

Portsmouth	2	2	0	.400
Richmond	1	2	0	.333

Perhaps the most magnificent exhibition of baseball seen in the Virginia Carolina League this season was the game at Portsmouth yesterday afternoon in which the Giants from Wilmington wrested the honors from the local team in the extremely close score of two to one.

"Brownie" Foreman was in the box for the Giants and was evidently at his very best, for he allowed only one Portsmouthian to claim a hit, while the Giants easily got nine on Volts and should have piled up runs at a much more lively rate than they did.

But the winning of the game is enough to give Wilmington second place in the League and Manager Foschan has already served notice on Norfolk that the "waters will be troubled" up around first place, when the Skippers meet the Giants on the field of battle week after next, if indeed, some of the other teams in the League don't, before that time, reduce the 1,000 per cent, that the Norfolkites have succeeded in maintaining since the opening of the League.

In the game yesterday at Portsmouth neither team was able to score until the fifth inning, when there was one for each side. The Giants followed this second with another score in the sixth, and Portsmouth was unable to do likewise and nothing but goose eggs were chalked up on the board thereafter. It took Raleigh ten innings to administer the same defeat to the "Shipbuilders" of Newport, but "King" Kelley's boys finally did it, and Wilmington was glad to know of their good luck.

The score by innings in the Wilmington-Portsmouth game yesterday was as follows:
