Downright hard luck and a liberal amount of inability to hit when hits were needed was the cause of Wilmington's downfall a second time before the crack team of Norfolk yesterday afternoon after a magnificent exhibition full of snap and yim and of just such ball playing as will make the League a success, if it is kept up. "Tacks" Allen pitched superb ball and should have won his game. It was his first loss of a game this season and there was nothing in his twirling to his discredit. Crockett also played his usual good game and always lined out the ball when nothing else but liners would do. Allen was also clever with the stick, but Stafford was not quite up to his phenomenal standard of previous games. At one time in the seventh inning when "Tacks" plate for a score and there were three men on bases he flew out to third but he was not to blame for that and the Wilmington "fans" have that captain that they always have had. Cranston was first up to the bat in the game and went out to first and was followed by "Davy" Crockett, who hit to right for three bags but on attempt to steal home was retired; Mc-Ginnis went out to second and Stafford to left. For Narfolk Spratt flew out to left; Smith hit to left for two and stole third; Mullen hit out to short Scoring Smith; E. Gilligan fanned, implicit confidence in their gallant

In the third Thackara and Warren fanned. Osteen singled to right but Clayton hit to third forcing Osteen. "Red" Gilligan got first on Warren's wild throw; and stole second; Nelson hit to left for two bags scoring "Red dy;" Morrisey flew out to right; Mc Dade fanned and Wolfe went out to centre.

In the third, Allen singled to left; Cranston bunted to pitch and on wild throw got third, scoring Allen; Crock ett flew out to right scoring Cranston; "Mack" flew out to second; Stafford went to left for two bags but "Thack" went out from pitch. Spratt flew out to short; Smith went to left for two bases bu Mullen and E. Gilligan went out from second.

In the fourth, Osteen, Warsen and Clayton went out from second, third and short. "Red" Gilligan, for Norfolk, got two bags to left; Nelson and Morrisey flew out to second and centre; McDade hit to pitcher, on whose wild throw "Reddy" scored; Wolfe went out from short.

In the fifth Allen went out from second, Cranston to centre and Mc Ginnis to first, Crockett in the meantime making a single. For Norfolk, Spratt flew out to left; Smith out from pitch and Mullen to Crockett in right

risey went out from pitch. In the seventh. Warren fanned Clayton hit safe to Umpire Clark; Allen forced Clayton at second; Cranston hit over short; Crockett hit to centre for two bags, scoring Allen and advancing Cranston to third: McGinnis up and Crockett stole second; "Mack" walked; Stafford, with the bases full, flew out to third. For Norfolk, Mc-Dade flew out to right; Wolf fanned; Spratt hit to centre for two bases, but Smith went out from pitcher.

In the eighth, "Thack," Osteen and Warren went out from centre, pitch Warren and out for Norfolk; E. Gilli gan hit over third for two bags; R. Gilligan hit over short for two bags, scoring E. Gilligan; Nelson hit to pitcher and R. Gilligan went out at third; Morrisey flew out on foul to

In the ninth, the Giants took the bat for the last time. Clayton went out from short; Allen flew out to centre; Cranston popped foul to catcher. Norfolk didn't take her turn at bat and the game was won, 4 to 3.

The game was played in less than an hour and a half before about 500 spectators. The weather was clear and a stiff northeast wind only kept the the conditions from being perfect. SCORE BY INNINGS.

for Norfolk again yesterday. "It's a long lane that has no turning." Thus soliloquizes the Wilmington base ball lunatic.

Allen lost his first game vesterday. Better luck next week, old boy.

The game to-day with Norfolk belongs to Wilmington. Stewart and Dannehower will likely do the twirling act for the teams and a close score will be the result. All the "fans" are asked to report promptly at the office of Murphy & Co., in the Sternberger building and hear the game in detail, The admission is only 25 cents and tickets may be procured at the door. It will be interesting news to Wilmington fans that Armstrong has gone back with the police force and is no more with Norfolk. A New York travelling man writing the Richmond Dispatch of yesterday says in reference to the recent attack upon Umpire Clark at Norfolk: "Some seven sales men, and some of the best business men of Norfolk, were a witness of the scene, and in justice to fair play and truth, would say, our one opinion is that Armstrong is a loafer and a disgrace to the game. Myself and fellow drummers have travelled from Frisco to New York, and always patronize the sport, but never saw worse dirty ball-playing than this man Armstrong was guilty of."

Both Umpires Staley and Upchurch suffered roasting at the hands of the Richmond and Norfolk papers yesterday. Wilmington hopes to have "Old Man" Clark with the Giants ials have been so advised.

Norfolk's Estimate of Wilmington.

The Norfolk Landmark of vesterday in speaking of the game there Thursday between the locals and Wilmington says it was the most exciting and interesting game of ball played there this season. The honors were about evenly divided between Poreman and Morrisey. Continuing, the paper says;

"The boys from Wilmington made their first appearance in this city, and be it said to their credit, they do not know what it is to give up a game They fight from start to finish, and without any unnecessary kicking, they play a hard game. They are a stocky set and will make any team that beats them know that it has been playing ball. Their captain is Stafford. the heavy hitter of the old Petersburg crew, pennant winners one time. while on their pitching staff is Brownie' Foreman, well known here and elsewhere in the State. Other men are 'Davy Crockett,' of the old Roanoke collection, and Thackara, who is known here. The uniforms of the 'down home' boys are the neatest yet worn by visitors, and in their efforts to make runs the wearers do not mind getting them dirty. The game reminded one of 'ye olden days, and the 'down home' boys had many admirers and supporters, who gave them as much encouragement as they

CITY SEWERAGE QUESTION.

Philadelphia Concern is Working Indus-triously to Establish System Here. The special meeting of the Board of Aldermen last night for the purpose of passing upon, the amended plan of the Sanitary Sewerage Company, of Philadelphia, as adopted by the State Board of Health at Raleigh Wednesday morning, was called off at the last moment, as the council committee having this matter in charge was unable to meet in the afternoon and prepare a report for the night session of the Aldermen.

At the meeting of the State Board at Raleigh, Major Chauncey Ives, chief engineer of the Philadelphia company, submitted alternate plans for the proposed system in Wilmington, but recommended a disposal plant as the most desirable and it was adopted, with slight changes by the Board. This plan insures against contamination of Smith's creek, as the sewerage and second; Mullen hit foul fly to is treated by aeration and filtration so signed a decree declaring the indebtedthat the effinent becomes harmless.

held a meeting at noon vesterday in Mayor Waddell's office and Dr. George G. Thomas, a member of both the State and local boards, and Capt. Jos. H. McRee, the city engineer, explained the result of the Raleigh meeting and exhibited the detailed plans.

It is probable now that so far as the Wilmington after due advertisement. Aldermen are concerned, the matter will rest until the regular meeting Monday night.

Charlotte Wants Place.

The Wilmington base ball element was somewhat surprised last night at the announcement of the surrender of the Portsmouth franchise in the Vir ginia-Carolina Base Ball League by Ms. C. T. Bland and Sheriff W. Smith, who have furnished the financial backing for the aggregation since the opening of the season.

The reason assigned for the with lrawal of Messrs. Smith and Bland is that they do not care to back a losing team, but the plucky players of the team have determined to keep the team going, if possible, and Manager Wynn Clarke says that a stock company to carry the team through the season will be formed in Portsmouth in a few days.

It is talked in Wilmington that Charlotte wants any franchise that is to be given up and is anxious to complete the list of six teams in case one drops out. The general opinion with League managers, however, appears to be that Portsmouth will stick and will put in the field a winning team. A Norfolk Landmark reporter thus quotes Mr. Bland, one of the retired backers of the team:

a snug little sum on the Portsmouth club in the hope of getting together a strong team, which we thought before the season began was an assured fact. We believe it is to be a very strong P. The Chautauguan Lecture. A large gathering of Wilmington people were highly entertained and instructed in the Y. M. C. A. auditorium last evening by the illustrated lecture of Mr. Frank A. Cattern, di rector of the Chautauqua Bureau of Extension. Mrs. Cattern, who was also present, gave several entertaining recitations, which were splendidly illustrated by the stereopticon used by Mr. Cattern. The views shown illustrated the Chautauqua Course of Home Study, the Pan-American Exposition, and places of historic interest in London, Paris and many other cities.
