STREET CAR IMPROVEMENT.

Work of Relaying Front Street Track Progressing-Base Ball Schedule.

Trackmen engaged in laying the heavy rail for the Wilmington Street Railway Company on Front street, now have the work about up to Front and Princess streets, and cars are handled as if the work was not going on, the transfer for the grading being at the junction as usual. Everything will be in perfect readiness for the handling of the base ball crowds this week, and the smooth ride by reason of the new rail to Red Cross street will be noticeable.

General Manager Skelding has every paver he can employ at work in relaying the cobble stone torn up to put in the new track, and the work of getting the street in ship shape again is being done with as much celerity as could be expected. The public will be amply repaid for any temporary inconveniences by reason of the condition of the street, by the improvement of the car service that has come with the laying of the heavier rails.

REAL ESTATE TRANSPERS.

Number of Sales Recorded in Register of Deeds' Office Yesterday.

The Register of Deeds yesterday re ceived deeds for the following property transfers: Jno. J. Fowler, commissioner to

W. J. Reaves for $2.500, the Mariborough House property, near Front and Orange, 47x90 feet in size. W. L. Smith and wife and J. V

Wilmington ..... 8 Richmond ..... 5 Portsmouth..... 5 The Wilmington Giants took the game from Norfolk, hands down yesterday afternoon in a score of 5 to 3, and outplayed the Skippers at every point in the contest. Vorhees was in the box for the Giants and proved himself in admirable form. He allowed only five hits while the Wilmington sluggers got ten off Danne-hower, who is reported to be Norfolk's very best twirler. Five hundred people saw the game, the temperature was 80 degress and the weather conditions otherwise were very favorable to the sport. Allen went in left field in place of Delaney, who went to the bench. and played an excellent game. Capt. E. Gilligan, of the Norfolk team, was too unwell to go in the game at first, but in the eighth inning Wolfe went out of right field and was replaced by Morrisey, who was succeeded at second by Capt. Gilligan. The Skippers fought hard to win but the heavy hitters of Wilming ton had on their batting clothes and score board. Wilmington took first at the bat Cranston, Crockett and McGionis having gone out in their order. Norfolk did much the same with Spratt who went out to short. Smith, who walked and stole second, Mullen to first and "Reddy" Milligan on a beautiful fan.

In the second, Stafford hit to left and ot second on wild throw: Thackara fanned; Allen hit to third, forcing Stafford; Warren singled past first, sending Allen to third; Warren stole second; Clayton went to centre for two bags, scoring Allen and Warren; Vorhees went out from third. For Norfolk, Nelson hit to right and got second on muff; Morrisey hit to left for two bags, scoring Nelson; Mc-Dade fans; Wolfe hit to short and on fumble Morrisey scored; Dannehower fanned and Spratt flew on foul out to third.

In the fourth, Thackara, Allen and Warren went out in their order from centre, pitch and left. Morrisey and McDade went out from first and second; Wolfe was hit by pitcher and Dannehower fanned. In the fifth, Clayton flew out to left Vorhees singled to right; Cranston lined between first and second, hitting Vorhees and retiring him from the game; Cranston was thrown out attempting second. For Norfolk Spratt flew out to left; Smith singled to centre but was thrown out attempting second; Mullen flew out to left. In the sixth, Crockett flew out to right; McGinnis hit safe to short; Stafford singled to right; Crockett was thrown out at second and on wild throw to third McGinnis scored and Stafford got third but Allen flew out to centre. For Norfolk, Gilligan fanned and Nelson and Morrisey went out from second and short.

In the seventh Wilmington won the game. Warren fanned; Clayton 100, handicap 9, net score 91. flew to first and on error was called safe, and stole second; Vorhees singled beautifully to centre and Clayton scored; Cranston hit safe to short, advancing Vorhees; Crockett forced Cranston at second, Vorhees going to third; Crockett stole second and McGinnis hit to short, and on Drockett got third; McGinnis stole second and Stafford walked; Thackara fanned, retiring the side. For Norfolk, McDade and Dannehower went out from centre and second; Wolfe fanned. In the eighth, Allen went out from right and Warren and Clayton from short. Spratt and Smith went out from third and short; Mullen fanned. In the ninth, Vorhees flew out to right; Cranston fanned, Crockett singled to centre and McGinnis was called out on being hit by his batted ball. For Norfolk, "Red" Gilligan got first on Warren's fumble at third; Nelson flew out mear centre; Morrisey hit to third and Warren threw Gilligan out at second; McDade walked; Wolfe hit safe to first and on low throw home Morrisey scored; McDade was put out at home plate.

resterday. Although the "Giants" lost two of the games with the "Crew of the Mary Jane," the scores, as a whole, show how evenly the two teams are matched. The Wilmington B. B. lunatics are feeling better now. Now don't expect the Wilmington "Giants" to win every one of the fifteen games to be played here during the next three weeks. There would be no fun in that. Closely contested games, whichever side wins, is what draws the crowds.

If Charlotte comes into the league, as seems more than possible, it would add to the gaiety of the season. The Charlotters are said to be going base ball crasy, and if they get a team they would turn out hig crowds at the home grounds.

Every dead game sport will go to Hilton Park next week; and they'll all get the worth of their money, too. A special to the Richmond Dispatch from Norfolk says: "The story to the effect that the Portsmouth club will disband, and that this may result in the wreck of the Virginia Carolina League, is without foundation. It is reliably stated that Portsmouth will be backed by new capital for awhile longer, and if the club does not pay, the franchise and players will be transferred to Charlotte, N. C., which, like Raleigh and Wilmington, is base ball mad. The Charlotte people are very anxious to enter the league, and at the first chance will buy a franchise. The prospects for a successful base ball season is very bright."

The Giants will arrive home on the A. C. L. train this evening, and will most likely be accompanied by Ashenback's aggregation from Newport News, who have three games here with the locals, beginning Monday. Thursday Norfolk begins three games here, and Newport goes to Raleigh; then the first of next week Wilmington goes to Raleigh for three games, and Raleigh returns with Wilmington here for three games the last half of that week. Then the following week Richmond comes for three games, and the last half of same week Portsmouth comes. Then Wilmington goes to Richmond for three games, and Newport and Norfolk return for three games each. It is hoped that Umpire Clark will be here for the games this week. Games on Other Diamonds.

CASE OF H. T. ALLEN PERSONAL PARAGRAPHS.

Laurinburg Printer Gets Eighteen Months in Penitentiary and $100 Fine.

FRAUDULENT USE OF MAILS.

Trial Consumed Greater Portion of the Day in Pederal Court, Which Continues to This Week-Number of Uninteresting Matters.

The Federal Sourt was engaged for greater portion of vesterday in the trial of H. T. Allen, of Laurinburg. charged with fraudulent use of the mails. It was 5:30 o'clock in the afternoon when the jury took the case and within about five minutes it rendered a verdict of guilty, although the defendant had plead not guilty. The case was taken up at 11 A. M.,

Ino. H. Cook, Esq., of Maxton, appearing for the defence and District Attorney Bernard and Assistant Attorney Spears conducting the prosecution. Postoffice Inspector Jere Connally, who worked up the case with exceeding cleverness, was the first witness and gave substantially the same testimony as that printed in these columns soon after the arrest. Of his trip to Laurinburg he said he found no laboratory, no "Doctor Allen," but an ordinary printer, who had assumed the prefix "Dr," for business purposes. He also testified as to having seen no "Station A" at Laurinburg and also as to his methods of collecting the evidence. The next witnesses were W. S. Booth, of Rochester, N. Y.; L. H. Petty, of Parson, Tenn., who made purchases of recipes and Confederate money from Allen; J. H. Gregory, of Morris Plains, N. J., who sent $2 to the defendant simultaneously with an at the inquiry to the postmaster at Laurinburg as to Allen's standing and who received a return of his money upon the postmaster's inquiry of Allen; Ira S. Cleary, of Columbus, Ga, who received circulars , but did not purchase: R. W. Cavaness, of Southern Pines, N. C., who purchased recipes and Condfederate money; H. J. Channel, of Brookwood, Ala., who sent along $10 and received seventyfive fac simile $5 notes of old continental currency, ten recipes and ten copies of a "Guide to Wealth," price

$5 per copy. Postmaster W. H. Cooper, of Laurin burg, testified as to having 139 receipts for money orders sentato Allen, outside of registered letters and of his having received a fraud order as to Allen from the Postoffice Department. L. H. Matthews, of Teachey's, N. C. and Alfred Prevatt, of Lumberton, testified as to purchases

After the recess for dinner, Allen went upon the stand and claimed legitimacy for his scheme, and pointed out to the court that he had a large family and received the small salary of $25 per month.

There was argument then by coun sel, District Attorney Bernard making an especially strong appeal for the prosecution, and Jno. H. Cook, Esq., for the defence.

The jury in the case was as follows: J. T. McLamb, Jesse Lancaster, Richard Smith, Wm. Daughtry, George E. Brooks. Eugene Philyaw, E. W. Hinson, H. P. Clark, Autry Baggett, J. P. Alderman, W. A. Tillinghast and C. W. Maultsby.

J. M. Ham and W. W. Cocke, defaulting witnesses in the case were each fined $80.

Attorney Cook made an appeal for the defendent as Judge Purnell was about to impose sentence, just before ad journment at 6 o'clock last evening. but Allen was given the extreme penalty-eighteen months in the peniten tiary and $100 fine and cost, the place of confinement to be named by the Attorney General. Nashville, Tenn., it is said, will likely be the place.

The following other proceedings were had during the day and a recess taken until to morrow morning: Daniel David and Wm. Brannon, retailing liquor without license; not Jesse Wall, Richmond, retailing; plead guilty and sentenced to 18 months in penitentiary and to pay a fine of $100 and cost. Sam Wright, Richmond, retailing, plead gailty; seutenced to 60 days in jail and $100 fine and cost. Kirt Chavis, Richmond, retailing: plead guilty, thirty days in jail, $100 ine and cost. Thos. Steen, Richmond, receiving and concealing spirits; called and Phoebe McNeill, Cumberland, retailing; continued. Sandy Thomas, Scotland, retailing; called and failed; judgment ni si sci fa and capias to next term. Robt. W. Davis, Esq., of Southport, was admitted to practice in the Circuit and District Courts as attorney and counsellor. The following jurors were excused for the term: M. M. Moore, Jas. C. Cromartie, Geo. E. Brooks, William Daughtry, J. R. McPhail, J. E. Dur-
