STATE GUARD ENCAMPMENT.

Col. F. A. Macon, of Governor's Committee. Visited Wrightsville-Pleased With

Outlook-Southport. Col. F. A. Macon, of Henderson, Quartermaster General of the North Carolina State Guard, was the only member to arrive in Wilmington yesterday of the committee appointed by the Governor to look over the situation at Wrightsville with a view to holding the encampment there this year. Col. Pearsall is detained at Raleigh, owing to the absence of the Governor, and several other members of the committee were detained at their homes by various causes. Col. Macon arrived on the S. A. L. train at 12:05 o'clock P. M., and was taken immediately to the sound on a special train over the Seacoast Railroad, leaving the city at 1:30 P. M. He was accompanied by Col. Walker Taylor, Maj. W. F. Robertson, Capt. C. McD. Davis and Col. W. A. Johnson, of the State Guard; Capt. A. P. Adrian, of the Wilmington Light Infantry; Capt. Geo. L. Morton, Mr. Frank H. Sted. man and others of the Wilmington Seacoast Railroad officials; Mr. H. S. Leard, travelling passenger agent of the Seaboard Air Line Railroad; Mr. A. B. Skelding, general manager of the Wilmington Street Railway Company; Geo. L. Peschau, Esq., and

The party at first had a splendid dinner of sea delicacies and other refreshments at Stokeley's and then the camp site was inspected. Col. Macon spoke encouragingly of the prospect for holding the big gathering of State militia on the sound and it is believed he will make a favorable report when he returns to Raleigh.

Col. T. H. Bain arrived in the city last evening after the return of Col. Macon and party from Wrightsville, but he will accompany Mr. W. H. Pyke and Mr. Robert W. Davis, of the Southport Chamber of Commerce, Col. Macon, Col. Walker Taylor, Mr. Walker Meares and others to Southport to day to look after the location there, which is described as being admirable for the Encampment.

THE MURDERER CAPTURED.

Slayer of John Brown, Colored, Was Arrested by Police Officers and Constable Sheehan Last Midnight.

Jim Hawkins, the slayer of John Brown, colored, particulars of which killing were printed in these columns yesterday morning, was arrested last midnight by a detail of police including Sergeant Woolard, Policemen Leon and Dan George and Constable Wm. Sheehan. He was found upon information received by Chief Furlong, in the house of Francis Jones, colored, on Meadow between Tenth and Eleventh streets. The officers pulled him from under a bed in the house, and though he had a pistol on his person, he offered no resistance and confessed the murder, implicating Robert Smith, Wm. Bennett and another negro, all of whom were in the house at Brooklyn at the time of the shooting and who are being held at the station house by Chief Furlong. The coroner's jury of inquest met vesterday morning and after the examination of two or three witnesses and a view of the body, an adjournment was taken until 9 A. M. to-day. The capture of Hawkins will aid the jury materially in making up its ver-

Wanted-A team either in the National, American, or Two-State league that can defeat Wilmington and relieve the monotony of a succession of uninterrupted victories.

The game yesterday with the Ports mouth "Orphans" was as fine as anybody could expect to see up to the eighth inning. Then Rapp, who was in the box for the visitors, went all to pieces. It-was a complete collapse and the Giants piled up six runs and clinched a game that up to that time belonged to anybody. Prior to that inning Rapp had pitched magnificent leather and had received perfect support; in fact he had errorless team work behind him throughout the game, but the heavy hitters of Wilmington in the eighth were able to judge his wild curves from over the plate and when he did let one come anywhere in the neighborhood of the rubber, they gathered it in for a good safe single and made a circuit of the cushions at their own sweet will.

Wilmington led off with two earned runs in the very first inning. For the visitors Weaver got first on McGinnis muff and then with a sacrifice by Swander, a fly-out by Kemmer and a fan by Murray the side went down. Sebring led off for Wilmington with a single through the box; Clayton sacrificed and Sebring crossed the rubber on Crockett's single to centre; then Crockett stole second: Warren forced Devlin at second while Crockett scored and Stafford went to third; Warren stole second but the side was retired on McGinnis' fan.

In the second a fan by Knau and two little infield hits by Clark and Westlake retired the Orphans, while the locals went out on a foul by Thackara, a fly to second by Stewart, and a throw out of Sebring at second after he had singled to left.

In the third, Rapp went out from short; Rapp, O., walked; Weaver singled by first; Swander forced him at second; Rapp, O., and Swander crossed the plate on Kemmer's two base hit; Murray went out from second. Clayton, Crockett and Stafford, a heavy hitting trio of locals, went out out from the field, while in the fourth Knss and Clark, of the visitors, went out from the infield and Westlake fanned. A fan by Devlin and infield hits by Warren and Mc-Ginnis retired the locals in this in-

The fifth finds Stewart fanning Rapp, O., and Weaver, while the other Rapp went out from third. A hit to pitcher by "Thack," a perambulation to first by Stewart on balls, and a fly out by Sebring and Clayton to centre and short wound up the Giants, and in the sixth the visitors opened up with Swander, who went out to Stafford: Big Bill Kemmer, who fanned furiously at Stewart's zig zags, Mur ray, who singled over second, and knau, who forced Murray at second Wilmington through Crockett, Stafford and Devlin went out from the infield.

Clark, Westlake and Rapp went out in their order in the seventh, and the locals broke the tie gained by the visitors in the third inning by a single by Warren, a nice sacrifice by McGinnis, a single to third by Thackara, a fan by Stewart and the score by Warren on Sebring's single to centre. Thackara was caught going to third, and the Old Man died hard.

With only one more inning after the eighth, it looked gloomy for the locals when Sebring refused to handle a high fly sent away up in left field by Kemmer, upon which Weaver, after a single and subsequent advances, crossed the rubber and again tied the score after Rapp, O., and Swander had been retired on infield hits, Murray went out to Stafford and then began the succession of scores by the Giants related above, all of which is chargeable to the balloon ascension of Mr. Rapp. Clayton fouled out to catch and Stafford, Devlin and Crockett of last year on account of the late were given free passes to first, with Spring.

Pullman accommodation, each being at the end of Mr. Rapp's aerialistic feats in berths Nos. one, two and three, Then Warren came up and got his usual single, sending "Davy" and Capt. "Bob" across the home plate; McGinnis singled hot by short, and Devlin rushed across the rubber on Thackara's brilliant single; Stewart flew out to right and Warren, who started the ball to rolling, came tripping in on a "light fantastic" toe; "Mack" is soon comfortably seated on the bench on a single by Sebring; "Kid" Clayton then got in the push and singled and Thackara scored. Crockett flew out to right.

Only the Orphans figured in the eight with a fan by Knau and infield hits to second and third by Clark and Westlake.

The features of the game were Stewart's pitching and that of Rapp up to the eighth inning. Sebring's stick work was the decided feature. Out of five times up, he got four singles and his fifth chance was a flyout to centre.

Batteries-Rapp and Westlake: Stewart and Thackara.

The exercises were opened with a selection by the Italian Harpers, who pared under the direction of Miss Berwere on the stage at the rear of the nard. piano: then Mr. Blair welcomed the large assemblage in words befitting the occasion. The Rev. Mr. Wells next invoked a Divine blessing and Miss Mildred Davis, with piano accompaniment by Miss Ida Rankin Brown, very charmingly rendered the solo: "When the Flowing Tide Comes In."

He led from this to an able contrast of the conditions in the South prior to the war and the conditions now, and the part that education has and will take in shaping our destinies. He paid a tribute to the method of instruction pursued in the Wilmington schools and under another subdivision of his general theme of education he emphasized the necessity of special and higher education. Self-made men in the race of progress now will soon sink into oblivion and men will rest by merit alone and with regard to their special training. In the present age. we must know something about everything and everything about something. In every vocation in life this fact is becoming more and more patent. The part that woman takes in the race of progress was closed by a beautiful reference to Mrs. Augustus Hemenway and Miss Amy Bradley, which was warmly applauded. Dr. Winston was given an ovation after his speech, and the exercises were closed with a benediction by Dr. Wells.

At the Other Schools.

Space forbids an extensive reference to the closing exercises of the other schools yesterday. At Hemenway the exercises were opened with a few words of welcome by that energetic school worker, Mr. James F. Post. Mr. Blair then announced the several numbers on the programme which opened with an exceedingly clever little salutation by little Miss Fannie Mitchell, followed by songs, recitations and tableaux. In all the rooms were exhibits of class work during the year and in the main auditorium were some especially fine specimens prevery creditable exhibitions and a splendid programme of songs, recitations, flag drill, etc., arranged under the careful direction of Miss Nellie Cook, the painstaking principal.

The atttendance at all the schools shows a marked increase over last year and the exercises yesterday attest that each teacher has done her full duty by those entrusted to her care.

FLOODS IN THE RIVER.

Pifty-five Peet of Water and Still Rising at Payetteville-All Records May be Broken.

The A. & Y. train was again several hours late last night awaiting Southern connections, which were delayed by the freshets spoken of in yesterday's STAR. At 4 o'clock yesterday afternoon there were 55 feet of water in the Cape Fear at Fayetteville and the record of the "Populist freshet" of 58 feet in 1895 was expected to be surpassed. The Sherman freshet of '65 was 56 feet and the river is doubtless by this time beyond that mark, as the river was rising a foot an hour yesterday afternoon, according to the Fayetteville Observer.

The Clarendon and A. C. L. bridges are believed to be in danger as 60 feet will take them away. The freshet of last April was 481 feet and this record is already smashed.

The river at Fayetteville is full of all kinds of debris and it is believed that much damage has been done. All dams on rivers and creeks around Fayetteville have been swept away the Observer says, and the first floor of the Favetteville Knitting Mills is under water while the Hope Mills Company is shut down by back water for the first time in its history.

He then introduced Miss Catherine Cooper Barden, of Magnolia, N. C., who des livered in forcible manner her graduating essay on "Representative German Poets." Miss Barden treated her subject in a thoroughly exhaustive manner and with signal ability. She traced the history of poety through all ages and referred complimentarily to

The other graduating orations were as follows: "The Passion for Dramatizing Popular Books," by Miss Ida Rankin Brown: "Some Architectural Features of the Pan-American Exposition Buildings," by Miss Geraldine Salling; "Popular Education," by Mr. Julius Prince Webster: "The Rough Smooth Way," by Mr. Robbie Earl McIntire: "The Golden Promise of the 20th Century," by Miss Alice Charles Craft. These were not delivered last night, but were previously read before the faculty. Mr. Blair explained that the selection of the matter of excellence.

Mr. Blair next exhibited some excellent botanical specimens prepared by the class in that study under the di rection of Miss Gertrude M. Bagby. The work was one of art and highly creditable to pupils and teacher alike. Mr. Blair then followed with a happy introduction of the orator of the even-reference to the length of his speech and followed for little more than half an hour in one of the most graceful and pleasing commencement addresses ever delivered in the city. He said it was a pleasure for him to come to Wilmington and that he knew of no city, where old South and the new South were so happily blended tothe old South by the architectural de- bly.
