Elaborate Programme Observed Sunday Morning at First Baptist Church. Address by the Pastor.

The main auditorium of the First Baptist Church presented a beautiful scene yesterday morning at 11 o'clock when the three hundred odd happy Sunday School children of the congregation under the skilful direction of Mr. George E. Leftwitch, their genial superintendent, gathered for their Annual Children's Day exercises. The general theme of the service was "God's Voice in Nature," and the decorations were beautiful. The service was opened by a chorus by the choir, an inovacation by Dr. Blackwell and a song by the school from Gospel Hyms. Then followed a scripture reading by Superintendent Leftwitch and a song by the infan tclass "He Meant me," and a recitation by the small children. Next came a se lected song by Miss Louise Corbett. The address by Dr. Blackwell was full of thought and eloquence and was greatly enjoyed. Then followed a song by the choir and a recitation by Miss Sallie Oldham. "Praise Him" was then sung by the children and 'A Legend of North Land" was recited by Joe Lemoin. "Just a Little Daisy" was next sung by the infant class and a collection was raised for Sunday School purposes, "America" was then sung by the congregation and the service was concluded with benediction by the pastor. Thirteen little girls who sang with much effect were Misses Mary Wescott, Estelle Sykes, Adaline Keith, Mabel McEachern, Bessie Lathrop, Bessie Lawrence, Mary Riley, Lucile Riley, Ara Perry, Lula Morrell, Grace Picard, Bertha Hays and Louise Mc-

[Special Star Telegram.]

RALEIGH, N. C., June 10.-It was a disappointed crowd of rooters and rooteresses who wended their way back to the city after to day's game, for Wilmington's superiority over Kelley's Red Birds demonstrated to a degree that leaves little hope for the Red Birds to win even two out of six games. Gross errors by Raleigh and fine work by Stewart tell the story of the Red Birds' down fall. Warren's head work elicited special commendation and Stewart did all right after the first inning, allowing only one hit.

Raleigh was really beaten in the third inning after the Birds had hit Stewart for two runs in the first. With infield hit, Stocksdale threw wild to second, and lost a double play, allowing both to score. The third score was by reason of a loop hole in Sherman's Wilmington's score in the first inn ing was after this manner: Clayton was retired on an infield hit, and Crockett was given first. Stafford made a beauliful hit but died on first; Sebring hit to centre and the bal struck a rock bouncing over Stanley's head, enabling Crockett to score.

In the fifth Legrande wasted a two bagger, which was surrendered by three put outs. If the eighth, Atz was on third but no hit came. In the ninth Raleigh made a sprint that gave hope but it failed. Sorber singled, Sherman got first. Person was retired on an infield hit as was also. LeGrande.

Thus ended the game.

Another Account of the Came. RALEIGH, N. C., June 10.—Stocksdale's misjudged throw to second base in the third was the undoing of Raleigh to-day. On this misplay, the Giants made runs. Raleigh was unable to overcome this lead. Both sides played good ball, the pitching of Stocksdale being very good, the seven hits Wilmington received having been

CAPE FEAR ACADEMY'S CLOSE.

Twenty-eighth Annual Session Came to an End With Informal Exercises.

The closing exercises of Cape Fear Academy yesterday morning while very informal, were nevertheless very enjoyable and profitable to the students and others present.

After a short address by the principal, Prof. Washington Catlett, the following awards of certificates were made, the names appearing in the or der of the pupils to woom they were presented:

Senior Class-Chas. R. Yopp, W.F. Alexander, M. Bear. Junior Class-Fenner Gaylord, Earl Gore, Henry Heyer, Sarah Catlett, Norwood Orrell, E. Q. LeGrand, Intermediate Class-Jno. Q Myers,

Louis Orrell, Edward Holmes, Adolph Rosenmann, Willie Emerson, Ernest Peschau, Thos. McCutcheon, Robt. Branch, Luther Wessell. Fourth Class-LouisMerritt, Junius Potts, Freddie Hutaff, Fred Harper, Fred Bear, Ralph Hodges, Henry Ort

Special mention is made of Thos. McCutcheon, who during the year has never been absent or late and has reseived no demerits. Fenner Gaylord and Earl Gore were mentioned as not naving been late during the term.

A BUPPET SLEEPER BURNED.

Pullman Car "Welland" Destroyed by Pire Sunday Night On the A. C. L.

The buffet Pullman car "Welland," used by the Atlantic Coast Line between Wilmington and Washington, was completely destroyed by fire Sunday night about 10 o'clock a few miles beyond Weldon while attached to southbound passenger train No. 35 The fire was first discovered at the rear of the car while the train was running at the rate of 60 miles an hour, and was from an unknown source. When the blaze was discovered the train was stopped and the burning car detached. It was the last of the sleep ers and there was no other damage. There were no occupants of the "Welland" at the time, but several passengers lost their baggage. The burned car is valued at about $12,500.

The following passengers on the car arrived in the city yesterday morning: Mr. and Mrs. Owen S. Wiley, from Washington; Messrs. Chauncey Ives and Wm. McLean, of Philadelphia, and W. E. Shepard, of New York.

Death of Mr. Huntington. Friends and relatives in the city have heard with regret of the death of Mr. William Huntington, which occurred on June 6th at his home in Amesburg, Mass., at an age of about 80 years. Older residents of Wilmington will remember Mr. Huntington as having been extensively engaged here, before the civil war, in the steam and saw mill business of Huntington & Dudley, of which firm he was the senior member. Later he was of the firm of Ballard & Huntington. which was then one of the largest mercantile establishments of the city. He had a large and influential family connection in Massachusetts as well as in Wilmington. He married in 1846 the oldest daughter of the late Thos. W. Brown, who survives him. He was a brother in-law of Wilmington's esteemed townsman, Dr. W. W. Harriss.
