MAY INJURE BUSINESS

Is Why Our Commercial Bodies Object to Section 27 of the Machinery Act.

AND ASK FOR MODIFICATION.

Special Meeting of County Commissioners Held Yesterday Afternoon to Consider Above Named Question. Other Business.

The Board of County Commissioners held a special meeting yesterday afternoon, mainly for the purpose of hearing a petition from the various commercial bodies of the city relative to a modification of the manner of tax listing prescribed in section 27 of the Machinery Act of 1901.

This section is captioned "Debts owing to tax payers may be deducted after giving list of same to List Taker," and gave rise to objection on this point: "All bona fide indebtedness owing by any persons may be deducted by the tax lister from the amount of said person's credits, provided he shall give an itemized statement in detail of how said debts are secured, to whom owing, the residence of such creditors and the amount due each."

Heretofore, the law only required the filing of indebtedness by bulk not by minute system of itemization. Committees were present from the different commercial bodies, as follows: Mr. M. W. Jacoby, from the Chamber of Commerce;

Messrs. J. C. Stevenson and Oscar Fearnall, from the Wholesale Grocers Association;

Col. W. A. Johnson and Mr. W. A. French, from the Merchants' Association.

The committees objected strongly against the portion of the section referred to and presented forcible argument in asking for its modification.

Mr. Stevenson acted as chairman of the committees and based his request on the broad ground that such an itemized statement of indebtedness as mentioned in the section under discussion would prove injurious to commercial interests, as it would be an entire exposure pure and simple of business. Especially harmful would it be in comparison with business houses of other portions of the State, that had not a city tax like Wilmington's staring them in the face. Then, too, he pointed to the fact that no discretionary power whatever was vested in the County Commissioners.

Hon. M. S. Willard, who was a member of the finance committee of the last General Assembly, was also at the meeting. He was present by request to throw some light on the section in question. He gave a lengthy and detailed definition of its object and intended work. He stated that it had been found that personal property to a great extent had been escaping taxation in the State and the question had resolved itself simply to the proposition whether or not all attempt to tax this class of property should be given up or to adopt measures similar to those which other States had enacted; that the constitution of the State does not permit the exemption of any class of property and therefore this was not attempted.

Further, he said, it was shown that in a number of States similar provisions to the section in our law were in force and also that some States did not permit the deduction of debts at all, and that the tax law of the State of Michigan permits the following deduction from a tax-payer's credits: "All bona fide indebtedness, owing by such person, giving an itemized statement in detail, how secured, and to whom owing, and the residence of creditors and the amount due each, provided he desires to have the same deducted from his credits."

He also read from the recent report of the Industrial Commission in regard to the deduction for debts in the State of New Jersey, to the effect that "any person or corporation in the State is entitled to deductions of bona fide indebtedness from the assessment of real and personal estate, providing a verified statement is made to the assessor of the debts owing and desired to be deducted, to whom owing and where creditors reside."

He called attention to the fact that the law did not require this information to be given, except when it was desired to have the deduction made from the tax list, and the purpose was not to unnecessarily inquire into the private affairs of any individual, but to give the tax lister such information as would enable him to see that the deductions when made were properly listed by the person to whom the debt was owing.

Continuing, he read a short extract from a recently published book issued by the John Hopkins press, commenting on the tax system in North Carolina and saying that "the chief fault of the general property tax in North Carolina is, as has already been shown, the allowance of an exemption of debts to the tax payer. With this removed, there is every reason to believe that a more honest return of solvent credits would be made than under the present system, wherein the law favors fraud by rendering it impossible of detection."

Mr. Willard said it was evident that it would only be a short time before efforts to obtain tax from property of this kind would have to be abandoned. He himself was in favor of a system which would exempt all personal property from taxation in the hands of individuals which would separate the source of income for State revenue, from that of county and

The Raleigh team did not report on the grounds, but left to-night for home.

NORFOLK, Va., June 20.—At a meeting of the magnates of the Virginia-North Carolina base ball league here to-night at the Monticello hotel, the franchise of Portsmouth's team was transferred to Charlotte and that of the Newport News team to Tarboro, N. C. This change will take effect Monday, June 24.

It was decided to split the season into halves, the first to end on Saturday, June 22nd, and the last on September 2nd. All clubs were represented and the meeting was a harmonious one.

Oh! No, My Dear Boy.
The league is not "busted."
—If we get one out of three with Norfolk we need not buy any mourning goods.

"The lovers of the game in Richmond will await with keen interest the outcome of the trouble."
—It is about as easy to get news from Shalotte or San Francisco as from Norfolk or Portsmouth.

"The Skippers seem to have gotten the better of the Giants in batting. Errors were few, Norfolk making two and Wilmington one."
—If, from any cause, the league games should be discontinued the Wilmington rooters and roosterers would die of inanition.

"There is one thing so 'dead sure' that you may bet on it and give odds. That is that there will be no more base ball in Portsmouth this season."
—A representative of the Wilmington Base Ball Association leaves for Norfolk to night on business connected with the North Carolina-Virginia League.

"The lunatic who expects Wilmington to win every time is still at large. When the moon changes his attacks will become more violent and he will then look for the Giants to win four out of three games."
—Richmond Dispatch: "The failure of the Portsmouth club, and the anticipated trouble at Newport News, will not affect the continuance of the league, with a circuit of six cities."

"Base ball is on the ascendancy in the North State, and the transfer of the clubs mentioned there would, it is thought, stimulate more interest in the game and increase the patronage."
—The STAR special from Charlotte, printed this morning, shows that the sports up there are in dead earnest. Remember, the horse editor has already named your team the "Hornets."

"Rumors that the league had 'busted' were 'thick as leaves in Vallambrosa' yesterday. 'No, sonny,' replied the horse editor to scores of interrogatories fired at him, 'two of

BIG REWARD OFFERED

For the Apprehension of the Parties Implicated in Last Sunday Night's Tragedy.

AUTHORITIES HARD AT WORK

On the Case and Are in Hopes Shortly of Clearing Away the Mystery—Suspect Waddell Will be Set Free To-day.

Every means is being taken by the authorities to unravel the mystery surrounding the death of Mr. Gaston Price and to capture the parties implicated in the despicable crime. The Navassa Gunpowder Company, at whose plant the murder was committed and in whose employ Mr. Price was for many years, is taking an active interest in ferreting out the assassins. Cape Fear Lodge No. 2, Independent Order of Odd Fellows, of this city, is also energetically engaged in the investigation. Each have offered a reward of $100 for the apprehension of the murderers. This reward of $200 will, no doubt, be largely increased when the authorities of Brunswick county, where the horrible tragedy was enacted on a Sabbath evening, are heard from. Sheriff Stedman will, no doubt, hear from Sheriff Walker, of Brunswick, to-day or to-morrow.

Mr. Price was a member of Cape Fear Lodge over twenty years and was always an enthusiastic and faithful Odd Fellow.

There were no new developments in the case yesterday, though the detectives are hard at work on new clues. The young negro suspect, Lisbon Waddell, arrested Wednesday, will be turned loose to-day, unless some evidence not expected turns up. It seems now a certainty that he had nothing to do with the killing. His story told in Justice Fowler's court Wednesday afternoon is, no doubt true, the detectives say. His whereabouts last Sunday have been traced and corroborate his statement. His statement of having his white linen coat washed Tuesday, as it was dirty, is also substantiated by his mother, Frankie Waddell, who lives at the plant of Powers, Gibbs & Co. She has had no communication whatever with her son since he was taken into custody.

Detective Geo. Millis ascertained the correctness of Waddell's statement, so far as the testimony of witnesses go. He found that the accused was at the house of Dinah Santee, a colored woman living in Brooklyn, Sunday night until eight o'clock.

According to the notes taken Tuesday afternoon, the preliminary investigation of the charge against Waddell will be resumed in Justice Fowler's court this morning at 10 o'clock, and in all probability the defendant will be discharged.

PERSONAL PARAGRAPHS.
—Mrs. G. T. McMillan has gone on a visit to Teachey's.

The Encampment Fund.
The work of laying off the camp at Wrightsville was completed yesterday morning and the officers detailed for that work came up to the city in the afternoon.

As there is a certain amount of money needed to defray the expenses of the encampment for which the State has made no provision it is necessary for our citizens to make a donation of about $10,000. The encampment committee was around yesterday soliciting subscriptions and met with highly flattering success, so in all probability they will conclude their work to-day. It is certainly commendable and something to be proud of, the manner in which our citizens are promptly and liberally responding to this call.

Trinity College.
The past year has been the best in the history of Trinity College and the recent commencement was attended by prominent visitors from several States. Mr. Mabie, of New York, recently said in an address: "Trinity is attracting the attention of cultured people in all parts of the United States." It is pleasing to know that the young man of the South has such opportunities as are furnished by Trinity College. It is the largest college plant in the State and is growing rapidly each year. Last year the donations amounted to something more than $85,000. Write for a catalogue.

WASHERWOMAN ARRESTED

For Larceny Committed a Month Ago. Mr. W. W. Holliday's Family Were the Victims.

A colored washerwoman, Bessie McFadden, was arrested by the police yesterday afternoon, charged with larceny. It is alleged that the woman stole a quantity of washing from the family of Mr. W. W. Holliday about a month ago, and the story goes as follows:

About the time mentioned a washerwoman was needed at the residence of Mr. Holliday, on Second street, between Chesnut and Grace. The services of Bessie McFadden were secured by the colored cook at the house, Meter Dickson. She took the washing and promised to return it shortly, but when the day arrived she did not reappear or did the washing put in its appearance. Several days grace were prodigious of no results and then a search was instituted, but the woman and the washing both had disappeared. The police were notified, but no trace was found of the woman until yesterday, when Meter Dickson, the cook, discovered her on Market street, between Second and Third. The police were at once notified of her whereabouts and Policeman Woesbe made the arrest.

She confessed to having the washing and under her guidance a portion of it was found in a house on Second street, between Princess and Market, and the rest at her home, corner Eleventh and Princess streets.

The alleged thief was locked up in the station house. She will be given a preliminary trial in the police court this morning.

NEW COUNTY BOND ISSUE

Will Shortly be Made As a Result of Tuesday's Election—Returns Officially Received Yesterday.

The returns from Tuesday's election were received by the County Commissioners yesterday at noon at the court house. Three of the board, Commissioners McEachern, chairman, Holmes and Montgomery, were present and officially received the returns from the registrars.

The returns were precisely as published in the STAR Wednesday morning and show a majority of 36 votes. There were 1834 votes registered and of this number 783 were cast—688 in favor of the good roads' bond issue and 97 against.

The Commissioners, in accordance with the result of the election, will, as soon as possible, make the $50,000 bond issue for the improvement of the county roads. Just when the issue will be made is not known, as there is, of course, a certain amount of important work to be done yet. Bids will shortly be called for. It is also not decided whether the issue will be 4 per cent, or 4 1/2 per cent, bonds.

UP-TO-DATE RESTAURANT.
To be Opened Next Week on Princess Street—Splendid Service Provided for Ladies.

Wilmington is to fall heir to an up-to-date metropolitan establishment in the shape of an elegant ladies' and gentlemen's cafe at No. 111 Princess street, the commodious store last occupied by the Western Union Telegraph Company. The cafe is now being fitted up and will open for business about next Monday.

The proprietor is a clever young business man of Norfolk, Va., Mr. E. S. McCurry, who has had extensive experience in the restaurant line. In conversation yesterday with a STAR representative he stated that his place will be run on a thoroughly metropolitan scale and that no saloon will be in connection.

All the fixtures for the cafe will be new and were specially obtained from the North. A big feature will be a splendid lunch counter, which will be to the left of the main entrance and at which will always be found a polite attendant. This counter will be fully equipped with everything in its line, including several large modern coffee urns, from which a special brand of French drip coffee will be served at all times. Lunches of all kinds will be obtainable at the counter, sandwiches being sold for the small sum of 5 cents each.

The accommodations for "table guests" will be of the best, and attentive waiters will constantly be at your beck and call.

The online department will be in rear and will be under the direction of an experienced A 1 chef. This department will be fitted up with all the very latest apparatus and will afford the daintiest and finest of the markets.

The cafe will certainly be attractive for both ladies and gentlemen, especially the former, whose pleasure will be particularly catered to.

The establishment will be under the management of Mr. Guy Johnson, also of Norfolk, another young man of the restaurant world. Mr. T. B. Deloach has been engaged as assistant manager and will look after the night work, as the cafe will be kept open both day and night.

A force of workmen, such as carpenters, painters, etc., are now at work getting the place in trim, while handsome gold letters are being placed on the large plate glass front window to announce the name of the new business—"Mac's Cafe."

Electric fans are also to be added for the comfort of guests.

Charlotte in No Hurry
[Special Star Telegram.]
CHARLOTTE, N. C., June 20.—No new developments in base ball deal. As it is probable that Newport News will be on the market, Charlotte is in no hurry to make a deal with Portsmouth. One or the other team will be secured. Charlotte is bent on obtaining a good team and has the money up to maintain it.

[By Associated Press.]
CHARLOTTE, N. C., June 20.—Since Charlotte's offer made yesterday for the Portsmouth, Va., base ball team, this city has received a tip that the Newport News club could be secured. If an offer is made, it will be considered a possibility to be held here to-morrow at which it is expected the contract for a team will be signed by Charlotte.

BID FOR PORTSMOUTH'S TEAM
Charlotte's Proposition—A Guarantee With No Strings to It—Made by Local Enthusiasts.

The following from the Charlotte Observer gives some details concerning the proposed transfer of the Portsmouth team not included in our telegram printed yesterday:

Charlotte stands a good chance of getting the Portsmouth team of the Virginia and Carolina League. If a good, strong, business like proposition can get the team, it will come to Charlotte. This city offers to take the Portsmouth team on July 1st at a salary of $1,000 per month for two months, and guarantees to pay the salaries of the team for the remaining two months of the season.

Manager W. Clark was manifestly pleased at the result of the meeting, and though he was non-committal, he went so far as to say that in his opinion, Charlotte stands a chance of getting the Portsmouth team. The base ball fever is now running high in Charlotte, and there is a reasonable hope that Charlotte will have good ball and plenty of it after July 1.

KILLED HIS PLAYMATE
Was Charged Against a Young Negro Boy Yesterday, But Coroner's Inquest Resulted in Exonerations.

The police had in custody yesterday a young colored boy, Alexander McFarland, about eight years old, charged with being the slayer of a companion, Charles Henry Nichols, about the same age.

It seems that last Sunday afternoon young Alexander and Charles were at the residence of the latter's grandmother, corner Fifth and Nixon streets. They played several children's games and then commenced to play "policeman" and Alexander in arresting his companion struck him in the stomach with his club, a short stick. Charles was almost immediately thrown into convulsions, which Monday terminated in lockjaw. A colored physician, Dr. Austin, was called in but the boy died yesterday morning about 6 o'clock at the residence of his mother, Mary Eliza Nichols, No. 407 Nixon street.

Of course, under the circumstances an investigation had to be made, so Coroner Bell was called in and the McFarland boy placed in charge of the police.

The coroner empaneled a jury, composed of J. J. Sheehan, foreman, J. L. Middleton, secretary, Geo. C. Dew, W. H. Batoon, J. W. M. Ahrens and J. B. Elkins. After ascertaining the opinion of Dr. Austin, the attending physician, that the blow could not have caused death and consulting medical authorities with the same effect, the jury exonerated the youthful prisoner and he was set free.
