FUNERAL YESTERDAY MORNING.

Services Over Remains of Capt. P. E. Kelly Impressively Conducted.

The funeral services over the remains of the late Capt. P. E. Kelly, whose sad demise has already been chronicled in these columns, took place yesterday morning from the residence of Capt, John Barry, corner of Fifth and Campbell streets, thence to St. Thomas Catholic church where requiem high mass for the repose of the soul of the dead was celebrated. Rev. Father Marion having been the celebrant. At beautiful Oakdale cemetery, where the interment was were in the presence of a large concourse of friends, the concluding services made by Rev. Father C. Dennen. The Hibernian Benevolent Society, of which deceased was an active and valued member, attended the services in body. The esteem in which the deceased was held was attested by the numerous floral contributions, notable among them being a pillow design from the roadway department of the A. C. L., with which he was connected.

The pallbearers for the sad occasion were: Honorary, Mr. J. H. Sweeney and Mr. Daniel Quinlivan; active, Messrs. M. O'Brien, Thomas Torpy, Timothy Donlan, Thomas Quinlivan, M. Griffin and Capt. Robert Green. The Florence Times of yesterday says of the deceased:

Roadmaster "Pat" Kelly, of the M. and A. division of the Coast Line, died yesterday afternoon in Sumter. He had been sick about two weeks with typhoid fever. Mr. Kelly was a very popular railroad man and was held in the highest esteem by the offi-cials. He had scores of friends in

The Richmond base ball team disbanded last night. The following telegram was received by the STAR shortly after 1 o'clock this morning:

"RIGHMOND, VA., July 6 .- The Richmond base ball team disbanded to-night. It is believed that the North Carolina clubs in the league will play the league out, as they are all said to be in good condition and enthusiastic." Richmond was scheduled to play the first half of the week at Raleigh and the last half of the week at Tarboro.

Then the following week Wilmington and Raleigh were to have gone to Richmond for a game. It is also given out from Norfolk that that team is seeking to be removed to Durham. The following press dispatch was received this morning at 2 o'clock: "RICHMOND, VA, July 6 .- It is understood here that Norfolk is considering a transfer of its ball team to some town in North Carolina. It is thought unlikely, however, that the deal will be made, as it is believed the dropping out of Richmond will dissolve the eague."

THE BASE BALL BAZAAR.

Preparation Go On Apace for Big Event Friday Night-Other Benefits Have Been Offered.

Although the news from Raleigh effect upon the base ball lunatics here, there was increased enthusiasm with the "crankerinas" over the prospect of the grand base ball bazaar to be given next Friday night at Hilton

The ladies are losing no time, or figuratively speaking, they are allowing no grass to grow under their feet, in the way of preparations for a gorgeous affair and it remains only for the general public to rally to their assistance in the way of donations and all will be well. Every enthusiast can do something towards making success of the event and a 'phone message to Mrs. Cuthbert Martin or to Mrs. A. B. Skelding will probably suggest what a generous donor could do in the way of assisting the promoters of the National sport in Wil-As the days go by new features are added and upon the whole the bazaar promises to excel all efforts in this direction in Wilmington heretofore. The ladies hope to arrange for a theatrical attraction by the best amateur talent for the evening, and this alone will be worth the while of any one to visit Hilton on this festive occasion. The admission, including street car fare to and from the Park, will be only 25 cents. The best of order will be maintained and of course, the ball teams of Wilmington and Charlotte will be there. Aside from this benefit, enterprising young men have come to the rescue and several other benefits are on tapis. The most important next to the bazaar, of course, is the all-day and night excursion on the steamer Wilmington to Carolina Beach on Thursday, July 11th. This enterprise is in the hands of Messrs. J. H. LeGwin and Percy H. Smith and promises to yield a neat sum. The boats will leave the city at 9:15 A. M., 2:30, 5;15 and 7:30 P. M. and the last boat will leave the beach at 11 P. M. There will be dancing all day and at night in the handsomely appointed Sedgely Hall Club house. Round trip tickets will be sold for 25 Another benefit is offered by Messrs. S. J. Davis and J. C. Blackley, the well known Market street horsemen. They have placed at the disposal of the Ball Association a wagonette and two horses for the three games here next devoted to the support of the Wilmington Champions. Another commendable benefit is a base ball game to be played at Hilton Tuesday afternoon between the amateur teams of the Carolina Athletic Association and the High School Champions. The game will be called at 4 P. M. and an admission of fifteen cents for gentlemen and ten cents for week and the proceeds of running the

BUSY WEEK AT WRIGHTSVILLE Hotels and Cottages Crowded With Visi tors-Big Excursion From Atlanta Arrived Yesterday Morning.

Wrightsville Beach was positively filled to overflowing last night. The hotels and private boarding houses along the beach were taxed to their limit and seventy tents were erected on the ocean front near the Seashore hotel to accommodate the overflow. It wasa day of excursions and heavy travel. The warm weather of the past few days has caused the inland country to send down crowds to the seashore, and the crowds have generally decided to stay some time. An excursion of some 350 people came in from Atlanta yesterday morn ing and went through to the beach. The excursion left Atlanta Friday night about 9 o'clock and was run in over the Seaboard Air Line. It was consolidated affair given by the Retail Grocers' Association and the Masons of Atlants, and was under the clever supervision of Wm. B. Clements, of the Seaboard system. Many distinguished Atlantians accompany the party, including Hon. Hoke Smith and family who will spend two weeks at the Sesshore Hotel. Among yesterday's arrivals at the Seashore Hotel were Max.
