The Chicago Tribune which keeps tab on such things figures out the casualties on the Fourth at twenty-five killed and 1,813 injured by explosive patriotism.

According to the Associated Press reports there were during the hot spell 4,478 prostrations from heat, 1,283 of which were fatal. But few of these were in the Southern States.

An English company proposes to fill a long-felt want by putting on a fleet of twenty tank steamers to transport Texas oil to foreign countries. Here is an opening for our ship builders, to build ships for that trade.

This seems to be rattlesnake year in Pennsylvania. A squad of civil engineers the other day had a pitched battle with twenty of them and when the fight was over nine rattlers lay dead on the field. The others retreated for reinforcements.

The lately deceased Jacob S. Rogers, the locomotive builder, of Paterson, N. J., disgusted his heirs and kin by leaving $8,000,000 to an art museum and only $250,000 to them. Some of them got so mad that they wouldn't go to his funeral. But he didn't mind that.

Minister Wu in his Fourth of July speech at Philadelphia said this country and China were alike, because both were founded upon the "sovereignty of the people." This will be news to a good many people and the freshest kind of news to the Chinese sovereigns who haven't already had their heads chopped off for asserting that idea.

In Germany a custom exists in some sections for parents in cities and parents in the country to exchange children. In the summer, giving the city children a taste of country life and the country children a taste of city life. In Denmark the custom is general, and it is said that 10,000 rural kids spend the summers in Copenhagen while as many juvenile cops spend the summer in the rural regions.

TRIAL FOR ARSON.

Ed Willis, the House Burner, Will Be On Trial To-Morrow Morning.

SUPERIOR COURT YESTERDAY.

There Were Many Sentences to the County Roads—Special Verne Ordered Summoned—Two Colored Boys Got Four Years Each.

Perhaps the most important feature in the Superior Court yesterday was the formal arraignment of the negro Ed Willis upon the charge of arson, the returning of a true bill against him by the grand jury, and his plea of not guilty to the same. Judge Allen ordered a special venire of 100 men from which to select a jury and Thursday, 11th inst., was set as the day for trial. The special venire was immediately drawn and Sheriff Stedman and his deputies were busy yesterday in summoning those drawn. The particulars of Willis' crime were given in yesterday's paper. He is a very dark skinned negro, not more than 35 years of age and is badly paralyzed on one entire side. His expression indicates an ungodly mind and actions at the fire and his conduct since leads one to believe that he is not far from insanity. He was perfectly unconcerned as to the proceedings against him yesterday and appeared not to care or realize that he would soon be on trial for his life. Brooke G. Empey, Esq., is his counsel.

About the only other cases of importance during yesterday's session were those of Early Scott and James Edwards, two young negroes who were found guilty of breaking into Gaylord's Racket Store about a month ago, each of whom was given four years on the county roads. The Scott negro pleaded guilty to the charge.

Harry Thomas and Wiley Taylor, two diminutive colored lads, were each given 12 months on the roads for the larceny of brass scrap from the Atlantic Coast Line Company. The prosecution was conducted by Thos. W. Davis, Esq., who assisted Solicitor Rodolph Duffy.

Sis Lucas, a negro woman of Racket Store Alley fame, was given eight months on the roads for the larceny of money from the person of John Stewart, colored.

John Mitchell, colored, was given two months on the roads for giving two lads a deadly weapon upon John Jacobs. Judge Allen intimated that if Mitchell could raise $30 to supplement the school fund and pay the cost, he might let Mitchell off. The negroes were passengers on a recent excursion down the river. Many were sleeping and in attempting to find a friend, Jacobs "woke up the wrong passenger." The result was that he received a stab through the hand and Mitchell will have to do time on the highways.

Of the tales jurors summoned for the day, G. S. Boylan, J. L. Croom, J. E. Marshall and Jesse Wilder were excused.

The following proceedings, other than cases mentioned above, were had during the day:

Harrison Brown, assault and battery with deadly weapon; $10 fine and costs or 30 days on roads.

Geo. Moseley, larceny; mistrial.

G. W. Price, Jr., disposing of mortgaged property; case set for 9:30 this morning.

Betsy Mills, assault with deadly weapon; not guilty.

O. E. Collins, retelling intoxicating liquors on Sunday; not guilty.

The following taleymen were ordered summoned for the day: J. G. Matthews, Thos. B. Oldham, J. O. Powers, Geo. M. Grant, V. O. Westbrook, L. Y. Styne, J. B. Fales, E. J. Littleton, C. P. B. Mahler, S. P. Hewlett, W. J. Crowell, Jr., Jno. C. Heyer, S. G. Hall, H. O. McArthur, Chas. E. Dixon.

WILMINGTON PRESBYTERY.

Called Meeting Yesterday Afternoon to Consider Location of Proposed School For Boys—No Decision.

A called meeting of Wilmington Presbytery was held in the First Presbyterian church here yesterday afternoon, at 1 o'clock, for the purpose of deciding upon a location for the proposed new Presbyterian school for boys to be established within the bounds of the Presbytery, mention of which has several times been made in these columns.

Dr. A. D. McClure was moderator and Rev. A. McFadyen, of Clarkton, was stated clerk. The attendance was very large, but notwithstanding the fact that there was a spirited discussion lasting until 5 o'clock, it was decided to defer the matter of choosing a location for the school until the Fall meeting of Presbytery at Clarkton, Oct. 10th, and a disinterested committee, consisting of Dr. J. M. Wells, Mr. C. H. Robinson and Mr. Oscar Pearsall, was appointed to investigate more thoroughly the inducements offered by the bidders for the establishment of the institution.

There are three towns in the race for the school—Clinton, Faison and Clarkton. Clinton offers to donate five acres of land and a commodious building in which has been conducted a school for girls for several years. Faison offers an ideal site and $500 of the money necessary for a handsome new building. Clarkton offers spacious grounds and $2,700 for a building. The claims of Clinton to the school were presented by Mr. A. F. Johnson; those of Faison by Dr. Jno. M. Moore; and those of Clarkton by Mr. Henry Faison, while the interests of Clarkton were looked after by State Senator Geo. H. Currie and Mr. O. L. Clark, of Clarkton, and Prof. J. M. McKinney, of Laurinburg.

Members in attendance were as follows: Reva, James Kelly, A. McFadyen, P. McIntyre, A. D. McClure, D. D., and J. M. Wells, Ph. D. Elders, S. N. Ferguson, Bladenboro; J. H. Moore, Burgum; M. L. Cromatic, Clarkton; A. F. Johnson, Clinton; D. Hand, Burgum; T. S. Whitted, Elizabethton; A. R. Hicks, Faison; W. B. Clark, C. H. Robinson, First Church, Wilmington and John W. Burney, Elkton.

Maxton Has Oil Boom.

MAXTON, N. C., July 9.—Through a defect in a faucet of an oil tank belonging to the Standard Oil Company, being unloaded here this morning about three thousand gallons of illuminating oil were lost to Mr. Rockefeller and his associates. But the colored citizens and others "struck it" rich. With proper manipulation Maxton could have started the regulation oil boom.

Back From Absence Leave.

Chief Engineer Chas. F. Nash, of the Algonquin, accompanied by Mrs. Nash and son, Monroe, and Misses Julia A. Monroe and Miss Fannie J. Abbott, of Alexandria, Va., arrived last evening and went down to Southport in the afternoon where they will spend the summer. The North Carolina Base Ball League is no longer a possibility. Its organization was perfected in Raleigh yesterday morning with clubs from Wilmington, Charlotte, Tarboro and Raleigh and a schedule of games mapped out to continue until September 7th. The Norfolk and Richmond teams are no more, and the Virginia-Carolina League is no more. It will now be North Carolina ball by North Carolina teams, and a healthier article of the sport is assured.

The story of the dismemberment of the two-State organization and the formation of the new is very well told in the following special telegram received by the STAR from its correspondent, "on the fly" last night:

"GOLDSBORO, N. C., July 9.—No more bewildered lot of base ball people were ever assembled than those, who met in Raleigh last night for the purpose of reorganizing the Virginia-Carolina league, for before they had been called to order by Vice President Higgin's representative received a gloomy telegram from Manager Bryan, at Norfolk, saying that he was unable to secure a team by reason of the alleged absence from the city of the founding pilot of the ship 'Mary Jane'."

"The meeting, however, went bravely to work, reorganizing the league under the old name, for the sake only of retaining its National protection and with the hope cherished that Tarboro would be heard from favorably before another sun had set. Relying upon the sturdy grit and pride of the people of the little city by the Tar, sun enough, soon upon the heels of breakfast came the glad tidings from Manager Bryan, that he had secured a strong team and would enter the league, else my story would be short."

"The representatives, who had adjourned to meet at ten o'clock this morning, came together and perfected the schedule for the balance of the season, making same commence with to-day and end September 7th. While this schedule may not seem just like the thing to each individual team, it is the best that could be formulated with a four club league. In drawing it, each of the other clubs made special care to try and give every advantage consistent to their baby sister, Tarboro, giving them among other things, the games in Charlotte during the Firemen's Tournament. Another concession was made to Tarboro that an equal division of games take receipt, gentlemen and ladies, except that grand stand charge; for gentlemen, be divided with the visiting club."

"The question of umpires is not fully settled, but the outlook is that they will be 'Dickey' Winston and 'Sly' Robertson, both old ball players of Carolina's greatest ball teams. We believe that this would be pleasing to the base ball public."

"The new president of the league, who is a thorough going business man, is determined that the umpiring shall be good and that the foolish kicking of the past shall be 'cut out.' He has power to remove umpires when he deems their work inefficient; has himself severed all connection with the Raleigh club. The public may rely on him to do the right thing throughout and administer the affairs of his office impartially and with an eye only to the success of the league."

"The best of harmony prevailed at the meeting and it looks as if the league has a much brighter future. Certain it is that the sharks have been left and a square deal will be accorded wherever we may go."

"North Carolina may expect cleaner and better base ball from now on. Congratulations to the vice president whom Raleigh so much loves. The percentage starts anew with to-day's game as follows:

July 9, 10—Raleigh at Tarboro, Wilmington at Charlotte.
July 11, 12, 13—Tarboro at Raleigh, Charlotte at Wilmington. (Certain header to be played during these days.)

The Game at Tarboro.
TARBORO, N. C., July 9.—Sherman's timely hitting won the first game of the second series for Raleigh to-day. In the second, Hennessee hit safe over first. Sorber made a sacrifice. Sherman made a beautiful hit over second, scoring Hennessee. LeGrande hit to short and was safe at first. Sherman hit to pitcher, retiring the side. The locals were unable to score in the eighth with the bases full and one man down. Meade hit a foul fly to LeGrande. Lehman did likewise. Atz, for Raleigh, was trapped between second and third in the eighth but Meade threw wild to second, scoring the runner and Hennessee. The game was one of the prettiest and fastest ever seen here. Both pitchers did excellent work and brilliant outfielding abounded.

SCHEDULE OF THE TRAINS.

The First Special Will Arrive at 4.30 P. M. and Another Over the Seaboard at 5.30 O'clock—Everything in Readiness for the Troops.

Before the day is ended "Camp Aycock" at Wrightsville will present a scene busy indeed.

The several companies comprising the Third Regiment, the first of the North Carolina State Guard to go into encampment this year, will begin arriving and before taps are sounded to-night "Camp Aycock" will be populated by upwards of a thousand of the sturdy young soldiers of the North Carolina militia, who are to remain with us on the seashore for ten days. Col. Henry Perry is in command of the regiment and the first special train bringing in troops is scheduled to arrive at Wilmington at 4:30 o'clock this afternoon via the Atlantic Coast Line. On this train will arrive Company M, Kings' Mountain; Co. G, Reidsville, and Third Regiment Band; Co. A, Salisbury; Co. I, Burlington; Co. D, Durham, and Co. E, Oxford. The Kings' Mountain, Reidsville and Salisbury companies will rendezvous at Greensboro, the first named coming via Charlotte on a special train, and all arriving in time to leave Greensboro on a special train at 12:40 P. M. The special after leaving Greensboro will take on the Burlington, Durham and Oxford companies and leaving Goldsboro, will arrive at Wilmington as stated.

Company K, of Mount Airy will come down on the regular A. & Y. train arriving at 7:35 P. M.

A special over the Seaboard Air Line will arrive at 5:30 o'clock this afternoon bringing Co. H, Warrenton; Co. C, Henderson; Co. F, Franklinton; Co. B, Raleigh, and Co. L, Rutherfordton. The last named company, which has recently been re-organized, will join the special at Hamlet via another special which left Rutherfordton at 2:30 o'clock this morning.

No State has a finer body of troops and Wilmington takes an especial pride in welcoming them all to her seacoast and its pleasures. The returning routes and schedules for all companies will be submitted at "Camp Aycock" during this week by Col. E. A. Macon, Quartermaster General.

Major C. C. Bunch, Assistant Quartermaster General, is still at the camp making all arrangements for the reception of the men this evening. Capt. J. J. Loughlin, Jr., Quartermaster General of the Regiment, is also here and is bending every energy to have everything pleasant for the "boys" when they arrive. He has two special details of three men each. All the companies also have special squads at the camp to have things in readiness for their coming.

Col. S. J. Cobb, inspector of small arms practice, came in at noon yesterday and was taken down to the camp by Maj. C. H. White, assistant inspector of small arms practice, and these gentlemen are at work to make this feature of the camp work one of the most interesting of all.

Upon the whole, it looks as if the encampment will open in a blaze of glory and close with no less brilliancy.

The following Associated Press dispatch was received last night:

"NEWPORT NEWS, Va., July 9.—The following Virginia North Carolina players have secured new jobs: Frank Morrissey, pitcher, has signed with Boston; Crockett, second baseman, has been secured by Detroit; Dannewhaver and Mullen, pitchers, go to New Orleans; Connie Mack will sign Jimmie Smith, the League's best short stop."
