WILMINGTON, N. C., July 11, 1901.

To His Honor, Oliver H. Allen, Judge

Superior Court, Fifth Judicial

District, New Hanover County,

We, your grand jurors for this term beg leave to report that we have performed the duties assigned to us, to wit: We have passed upon 25 bills, returning 24 as true bills and one as not a true bill, and have made four presentments. We have visited the county jail and find that the prisoners by their own admission are well fed and cared for, and the sanitary condition good. Part of the corrugated ceiling in basement has given way and should receive immediate attention to avoid the precipitation of the concrete above, which might injure some one. The leaking faucet to the water pipe should also have immediate at-inmate, Phillips Vink by name, whose condition and needs require the imme diate attention of the proper authorities and to be placed elsewhere. We have also visited the County Home without the knowledge of the Su-perintendent and find also by ad mission of the inmates that they are well treated and receive sufficient wholesome food, The wash basins in the colored ward are useless owing to the fact that the water connections are out of order and should receive due attention. The entire top of the cooking range is badly warped from excessive heat, thereby rendering it unsafe, and it should receive prompt attention. We think it absolutely necessary that the telephone be re-placed at the Home for the better pro tection of all concerned. We commend the action of the County Commissioners for the necessary repairs and improvements to the Court House.

Before closing our report, we desire to return our thanks to Sheriff Frank

H. Stedman and his aides, to R. M. Capps, the jailor, to J. W. Branch, the janitor, to Chas. M. Harriss, the efficient officer to the grand jury, for the kind and courteous attention given us.

A DISASTROUS FIRE RAGED AT LAURINBURG

Ten Stores, a Hotel and a Barber Shop Burned-The Total Loss is Estimated at $75,000.

[Special Star Telegram.] THE PROCEEDINGS YESTERDAY LAURINBURG, N. C., July 11 .- A disastrous fire raged for two hours here this afternoon, and at one time threatened to wipe out the business portion of the town. The town appealed to Fayetteville for help, but her engine was not in fix. Next, Charlotte was appealed to, and in a few minutes she had a fire company coming as fast as steam could bring them, but by the time it had reached

There are various losses from removal of goods, viz: G. D. Everingon, druggist; W. W. Whitehurst clothier; W. L. Fields, druggist; J. M. Taylor, A. S. J. Parham, N. Hammond, L. A. Monroe, J. D. Wright, J. C. Mercer and M. Scolnick; all moved from one-fourth to four-fifths

The origin of the fire is not known exactly. Mr. John McDougald was seriously hurt about the dinner hour in a runaway, and his brother while going home for dinner, about that time, found him and assisted him home and 'phoned an emergency call for a physician, and also 'phoned his brother, the only one left in the store during the dinner hour, to secure the doctor's immediate attendance and come himself. He (the brother) hurriedly shut up the establishment and put out for home, and in about an hour the alarm was given by an explosion, as of a lamp. There had been glue pot used just before dinner, but in the excitement of the fire no one was certain if it had been put out, it being heated on a common oil stove. The principal insurance agent, F. L. Bundy, is on his way to California, and many people de not remember the amount of insurance they were carrying, so it is impossible to ascertain this

The way the Giants pounded "Buck Hooker was a "plenty" and the score was six to four against the Charlotte Hornets.

But it all does not lie at the door of Hooker. He received ragged support and was not in his usual form. Then there was another reason why the game did not drop to Charlotte, for in Stewart the visitors found an article that they were unable to solve. 'Tis true that Knau jumped on him in the third inning, smashed out a home run over left field fence and brought in the two men on cushions but the friends of Stewart most heartily aver that "Lewie" took advantage of the conditions of the elements and lifted the sphere over into a gust of wind 'that just "tuck" it over the high bush. At any rate Knau was the only one of the Hornets that could approach his delivery and the rungetting practically ceased after that

MR. PATRICK DONLAN.

His Death Wilmington Loses One of I Most Esteemed Citizens-The Puneral To-morrow.

The STAR chronicled briefly vesterday morning the rather sudden death of one of Wilmington's most esteemed citizens, Mr. Patrick Donlan, which occurred at his home, No. 410 North Front street, at 1:10 o'clock A. M. after a brief illness which culminated in a congestive chill from which he never rallied. Last Sunday he went in surf bathing at the beach and came very near having a chill at the time, but he returned home and was not compelled following. Wednesday he suffered another very severe chill and although his illness was not considered serious at 10 o'clock Wednesday night, he died in a little more than three hours. Mr. Donlan was well known in Wilmington for his genial disposition and many noble traits, and expressions of surprise and sorrow at his untimely demise were numerous on the streets yesterday. He was born in Ireland in tents. the year 1839 and was, therefore, in the 62nd year of his age. He came to Wilmington in 1866 and had lived here ever since, being prominently identified with the shipping interests of the port in connection with the various steamship companies. His last employment was as assistant to the superintendent of the Clyde Steamship Company in this city, which position he filled for a number of years with signal ability.

In the year 1871 he was married to Miss Margaret O'Donnell, of Baltimore, and she with one son, Mr. Willie Donlan, of Savannah, Ga., survive him. He is also survived by a brother, Mr. Timothy Donlan, a well known resident of this city, and one sister, Mrs. M. A. Dowling, of Charleston. The absent members of the family reached the city on the 1:25 o'clock train yesterday afternoon.

The funeral will be conducted from St. Thomas' Pro-cathredal to-morrow morning by the Rev. Father Christopher Dennen and the interment will be in Oakdale cemetery.

BASE BALL BAZAAR TO-NIGHT

Donations Continue to Come In and a Pleasurable Event is Assured--Everybody is Welcome.

All roads, including the street railway, will lead to Hilton Park this evening.

Of course you are going, for the "good ladies" and the "fairest of the fair fanatics" who have arranged the Base Ball Bazaar can't get along without you, and will want to know the reason why, if you don't show up at the country store, at the wheel of fortune, at the voting machine or per chance, at the red lemonade booth. Contributions poured in thick and fast yesterday, but others are expected to day, and for that reason all names are withheld until to morrow morning. The chute is open for any thing that the ladies can turn into the currency of Uncle Sam, or to the delight of their guests.

The voting contests for the most popular player on the Wilmington team is already exciting interest, and during the progress of the bazaar the results will be bulletined for the information of the public. It will be 'Mack," "Thack" or "Tacks," "Jimnie," "Wallie," "Dev." "Jack" or 'Cap." and, of course, Stewart or "Reddy," for they are all in the swim and Willig, our new twirler, may come in and outrun the whole pushit is simply a question of paying your money and taking your choice. Tickets may be procured on the streets cars paying all transportation charges, entrance to the midway plaisance and giving the holder a chance at a season ticket admitting to all ball games at Hilton this year. There will be music and dancing upon a pavilion for all the lovers of the "light fantastic" and last and not least the watchword is "Everybody's Welcome."

Don't forget that donation this morning and those that have promised ice cream be sure to have it on hand in full measure and on time.

From a note in the Detroit Free Press of some days since stating that the Detroit American League team had purchased "Davy" Crockett from the Wilmington team, there seems to be an impression here that Crockett was actually sold. I wish to say emphatically that Crockett was not sold by Wilmington, nor was he given his release, and the first intimation I had of his leaving the team was Manager Peschau's telegram from Raleigh stating that Crockett would leave for been given his release.
